Remarks by Assemblyman May.

Assemblyman Mann requested that Assemblyman May's remarks be entered in the Journal:

In Western Nevada there lies a small town whose only claim to fame until this date has been that it was once called Pizen Switch. The town was so-named because in addition to lying in a fork in the road, there existed what was considered by experts on the subject an establishment that served liquid refreshment that deserved the name "pizen" more than it did the name "whiskey."

The formula for that famous beverage, however, has not been lost in time as the name Pizen Switch was, because that same formula is served nightly along the main street in Yerington in one of the more popular establishments in town. From this date forward, however, Pizen Switch or Yerington (whichever name you may prefer) can now lay claim to having been the birthplace of the next Speaker of the Nevada Assembly. A man born in Yerington, Nevada, a graduate of the Lyon County school system, and who has only deserted his constituents long enough to spend the time necessary to graduate from the University of Nevada at Reno (and by the way, he still has his 1951 UNR school sweater), and to take time away from them to serve, as occasion demanded, as a Member of the Nevada Legislature for consecutive sessions beginning in 1967 and continuing into 1977.

The only previous speaker ever to be elected who was a resident of Lyon County was Mr. W. C. Dovey who presided over the 7th Session of the Nevada Assembly 102 years ago.

As certain subjects may be a matter of concern for this Legislature, so they were for the 7th Session when Mr. Dovey presided—cheating while gaming in that year was declared a felony and county license fees of $400 per quarter per game were decreed as a source of revenue to the counties; the death penalty was effected by hanging and the executions were deemed to be held within the confines of a jail away from the public view; local governments came into the spotlight as Carson City was incorporated and the town of Hamilton was disenfranchised and unincorporated; resolutions of that year concerned among other things, aliens—Chinese specifically—when that year's Legislature asked the National Congress to modify existing treaties between the United States and China with regard to servitude of the Asians; veterans' problems arose when Congress was asked to award pensions to veterans of the Mexican War; other resolutions asked a United States mint to be established in Carson City; a federal investigation of the mail service in Southeastern Nevada, and there was even one seeking federal intervention in the pollution of the Truckee River by sawmills in California dropping excessive amounts of sawdust in the river, killing the fish and polluting the waters thereof.

But so much to the past; our job is towards the future and to lead us in the pursuit of an effective hard-working relatively short-scheduled session, this house has seen fit to select a man, and I think a man well qualified for the position of leadership he is about to assume, a former chairman for the Democratic Party, a former Speaker pro Tempore for the Nevada Assembly, a former Majority Floor Leader for the Nevada Assembly.

And so it is now with a great deal of honor and pride that I place in nomination the name of Joseph E. Dini, Jr. as Speaker of the Assembly for the 59th Session of the Nevada Legislature.

Assemblyman Mello moved that nominations be closed.

Motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Secretary of State declared Assemblyman Dini to be Speaker of the Assembly.

Mr. Secretary of State appointed Assemlymen Mello and Howard as a committee to escort Mr. Speaker to the rostrum.

Mr. Speaker presiding.

Assemblyman Moody moved that Secretary of State Swackhamer be given a unanimous vote of thanks for his services to the Assembly.

Motion carried unanimously.

The appointed committee escorted Secretary of State Swackhamer to the bar of the Assembly.

Remarks by Mr. Speaker.

Assemblyman Mann requested that Mr. Speaker's remarks be entered in the Journal:

Fellow Assemblymen and Friends:

As I look up to each of you, I am grateful for the opportunity to serve you as your Speaker. You have given me an opportunity not afforded to everyone in their career and one which I shall cherish the rest of my life. Little did I ever envision when I started out in these halls some 10 years ago that I would have an opportunity to serve you as your Speaker.

A famous bank president once gave an important commencement address and at that time he related to the good citizen earnestly trying to live a good life and if he is to do his best in life he has certain responsibilities:

For example if you demand wise and honest government in your state, city or country you must recognize that wise and honest government is the product of wise and honest citizens and nothing else.

If you demand that crime is punished, you must support honest law enforcement in your State without any personal privileges or exceptions for yourself.

If you demand unfair advantages, government bonuses and special privileges for your business, your union, or your city, remember that the price of such selfishness is the destruction of a nation's character.

If you would like to live in a state in which you may have pride, then dedicate yourself in a spirit of humility to your own responsibilities to that state. These are some practical ways in which to live the good life as a citizen and dedicated legislator.

As we begin this important 59th Session of the Nevada Legislature, let us rededicate ourselves to those goals of good government and fair representation for everyone.

It need not be that one comes from a rural county or the more populous Clark or Washoe counties. We must not be North or South, Democrat or Republican, but first we must be Nevadans unified in one common goal to solve the problems of our people.

This may prove to be more than a little task. The problems in the money committees are not much different from the average household with inflation eroding away our purchasing power. Challenges to our gaming laws are a serious threat to the State's future economic condition; the EPA regulations have stifled the development of mining and agriculture; the state institutions need a massive infusion of moneys; the educational system is making more demands for money; the people in our State are tired of federal intervention by the BLM, EPA, OSHA and hundreds of other federal bureaucracies which are depriving them of their right to the pursuit of life, liberty and happiness.

Yes, the challenges are great, the workload will be heavy. But I know that with the dedication you have and with your desire to solve the problems, we can go hand in hand down the successful path of a speedy, yes, I said speedy, and productive session. The road ahead is full of difficulties and discomforts, but as for me I welcome the challenge, I welcome the opportunity and I pledge my best effort so that our State shall continue to advance and that our people have the opportunity for a good life.

I hope that you, too, accept this challenge and I know that with your cooperation we can do the job for the people of our great State.

Mr. Speaker declared that nominations were in order for Speaker pro Tempore.

Assemblyman Murphy nominated Assemblyman Harmon for Speaker pro Tempore.

Remarks by Assemblyman Murphy.

Assemblyman Mann requested that Assemblyman Murphy's remarks be entered in the Journal:

Mr. Speaker, and it is indeed a distinct honor to address Mr. Dini as Mr. Speaker of this august body, I am pleased to place in nomination the name of Harley L. Harmon of Clark County for the position of Speaker pro Tempore of the Nevada Assembly. Mr. Harmon is a graduate of the University of Nevada, has served in the United States Air Force and has been active in Elks, Rotary and with the Salvation Army in Clark County. During the 1975 Session, Mr. Harmon served on the Commerce Committee, the Taxation Committee and the Government Affairs Committee and was selected by this body as the Outstanding Freshman of the 1975 Legislature. And, looking at Mr. Harmon's desk today, you can see three generations of Nevada Harmons. Mr. Harmon's new daughter, his father Harley and his wife and also behind us is Mrs. Harmon, Assemblyman Harmon's mother. This is a family that is well known in Nevada and I think certainly well respected, and I am pleased that Assemblyman Harmon has a commitment that will work very well with Assemblyman Dini's commitment to have an open and certainly efficient Legislature during this busy session ahead of us. This is indeed a leadership position and much is expected of Mr. Harmon. I am sure he will deliver. It is with great pleasure I place in nomination the name of Harley L. Harmon as Speaker pro Tempore.

Assemblyman Banner moved that nominations be closed.

Motion carried unanimously.

Mr. Speaker declared Assemblyman Harmon to be Speaker pro Tempore of the Assembly.

Remarks by Mr. Speaker pro Tempore.

Thank you.

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of Nevada, jointly, That section 9 of article 2 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Section 9. Every public officer in the State of Nevada is subject, as herein provided, to recall from office by the registered voters of the state, [or of the county, district, or municipality, from which he was elected. For this purpose a number of registered voters not less than twenty-five per cent (25%) of the number who actually voted in the state or in the county, district, or municipality electing said officer, at the preceding general election,] or in the county, district, township, municipality or ward from which the officer was elected. For this purpose, a number of registered voters not less than 25 percent of the number of persons who voted at the last preceding statewide general election in the state or in the county, district, township, municipality or ward from which the officer was elected, shall file their petition, in the manner herein provided, demanding his recall by the people; they shall set forth in said petition, in not exceeding two hundred (200) words, the reasons why said recall is demanded. If he shall offer his resignation, it shall be accepted and take effect on the day it is offered, and the vacancy thereby caused shall be filled in the manner provided by law. If he shall not resign within five (5) days after the petition is filed, a special election shall be ordered to be held within twenty (20) days after the issuance of the call therefor, in the state, or county, district, or municipality electing said officer, to determine whether the people will recall said officer. On the ballot at said election shall be printed verbatim as set forth in the recall petition, the reasons for demanding the recall of said officer, and in not more than two hundred (200) words, the officer's justification of his course in office. He shall continue to perform the duties of his office until the result of said election shall be finally declared. Other candidates for the office may be nominated to be voted for at said special election. The candidate who shall receive highest number of votes at said special election shall be deemed elected for the remainder of the term, whether it be the person against whom the recall petition was filed, or another. The recall petition shall be filed with the officer with whom the petition for nomination to such office shall be filed, and the same officer shall order the special election when it is required. No such petition shall be circulated or filed against any officer until he has actually held his office six (6) months, save and except that it may be filed against a senator or assemblyman in the legislature at any time after ten (10) days from the beginning of the first session after his election. After one such petition and special election, no further recall petition shall be filed against the same officer during the term for which he was elected, unless such further petitioners shall pay into the public treasury from which the expenses of said special election have been paid, the whole amount paid out of said public treasury as expenses for the preceding special election. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the legislature may constitute agricultural and open-space real property having a greater value for another use than that for which it is being used, as a separate class for taxation purposes and may provide a separate uniform plan for appraisal and valuation of such property for assessment purposes. If such plan is provided, the legislature shall also provide for retroactive assessment for a period of not less than 7 years when agricultural and open-space real property is converted to a higher use conforming to the use for which other nearby property is used. Personal property which is moving in interstate commerce through or over the territory of the State of Nevada, or which was consigned to a warehouse, public or private, within the State of Nevada from outside the State of Nevada for storage in transit to a final destination outside the State of Nevada, whether specified when transportation begins or afterward, shall be deemed to have acquired no situs in Nevada for purposes of taxation and shall be exempt from taxation. Such property shall not be deprived of such exemption because while in the warehouse the property is assembled, bound, joined, processed, disassembled, divided, cut, broken in bulk, relabeled or repackaged. The legislature may exempt motor vehicles from the provisions of the tax required by this section, and in lieu thereof, if such exemption is granted, shall provide for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation of motor vehicles, which rate shall not exceed five cents on one dollar of assessed valuation. Business inventories shall be exempt from the taxation provided for in this section, and the legislature may exempt any other personal property, including livestock. No inheritance or estate tax shall ever be levied, and there shall also be excepted such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific or other charitable purposes.

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of Nevada, jointly, That section 1 of article 10 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. Such property shall not be deprived of such exemption because while in the warehouse the property is assembled, bound, joined, processed, disassembled, divided, cut, broken in bulk, relabeled or repackaged. The legislature may exempt motor vehicles from the provisions of the tax required by this section, and in lieu thereof, if such exemption is granted, shall provide for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation of motor vehicles, which rate shall not exceed five cents on one dollar of assessed valuation. The Governor delivered his message as follows:

MESSAGE OF THE GOVERNOR TO THE LEGISLATURE OF NEVADA FIFTY-NINTH SESSION, 1977

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, distinguished Members of the Legislature, Citizens of Nevada:

For the fourth time, I am privileged to come before you to report on the condition of our State.

As I have said on three previous occasions, you pay me high honor. Indeed, the constitutional mandate to address the Legislature in joint session is perhaps the highest single honor attendant to my office.

The significance of this event is not so much what the Governor has to say but rather the fact that he is given the opportunity to say it. This is a ceremonial occasion, steeped in the traditions of a great democracy. It has its roots in the earliest struggles for liberty in the new world. Consequently, it commands the respect of all—past, present and future—who have been stewards of the office I presently hold.

Before proceeding with my report on the State of the State, I would like to observe that this year I departed from past custom by releasing my full budget document in advance of my message tonight.

This was done as a courtesy to the members of the Legislature with the thought that they should have the earliest possible opportunity to begin their study of this 834-page document.

As the substance of my major budget proposals already has been made public, it will not be necessary for me to elaborate upon various program specifics in the detail which characterized my previous messages. And you will do me the kindness of stifling your collective sigh of relief.

However, I believe there are some items in the proposed budget which deserve enumeration—notably my recommendations for improvements in corrections and in mental health care delivery. These program recommendations carry the highest priorities of my administration and I commend them to your attention.

THE STATE OF THE STATE

At this time, I am pleased to report to the Legislature, and to all the people of Nevada, that the condition of our State is sound. The message prefacing my budget proposal contains the justification for this conclusion.

As in the past, this budget is balanced with existing revenues and calls for neither new General Fund taxes nor recommends increases in existing General Fund taxes.

When we last met 2 years ago, I recommended caution because of the faltering national economy and a general slow down in the collection of state tax revenues. At that time, sales tax revenues—comprising about 35 percent of the state's General Fund—were increasing at less than 6 percent. Meanwhile, the cost of living, as measured by the Consumer Price Index, had accelerated to more than 12 percent.

The budget now before the Legislature reflects a reversal of that disappointing trend: state tax collections are now increasing by 12 percent while the cost of living is moving forward at an annual rate of 5 percent.

The key to the comparative health of our economy at this time is the prosperous gaming industry. State revenues from this source are increasing at near-record levels and projections for the immediate future give us reason to be optimistic.

Every index tells us that Nevada's economy is vigorous. Yet once again I believe our optimism must be tempered by caution. Unemployment continues to be a critical and persistent problem. This, despite the fact we have added 30,000 workers to the Nevada labor force in the last 2 years and despite the fact our current rate of unemployment is 7.8 percent, compared to 9 percent in January of 1975.

Unemployment and the continuing uncertainty of the national economy make it imperative that we exercise prudence and restraint. For this reason, the budget again recommends the retention of a substantial unappropriated reserve—$22.5 million—to provide government with both working capital and cushion against any unforeseen economic reversals.

GAMING REGULATION AND CONTROL

The tax projections contained in my proposed budget underscore our dependence on the gaming industry, during the present biennium, 45 percent of our General Fund revenues are the direct result of gaming taxes and the casino entertainment tax. It is anticipated that the same percentage will be provided from these sources during the next biennium, although the tax income will jump from $168 million to $205 million.

In addition, we cannot overlook the fact that a substantial portion of our revenues from taxes on sales and liquor are produced through gaming and related tourism.

It is unlikely that Nevada's lifeline with gaming and tourism will be slackened by any measurable degree in the years just ahead. Despite our appealing tax climate, diversification of the economy through warehousing and new light industry is a slow process, particularly when compared to the rapid growth of our resort hotels and casino operations. Moreover, potential industrial growth must be weighed against the availability of water and other resources.

Because of the mutuality of interests between the State and its largest tax contributor, I urge the Legislature to take action during the current session to strengthen or modify any gaming statutes which, left otherwise intact, might jeopardize the lawful authority of the State to provide effective regulation and control.

It has been suggested that these statutes should be subjected to a 2-year interim study, with final action to be taken by the Legislature in 1979. I do not agree. In my judgment, the consequence of such a delay would be damaging to the interests of the State.

First, it would encourage other political subdivisions with legalized gaming to take advantage of the uncertain situation prevailing here.

Second, this same uncertainty would serve to at least temporarily undermine confidence in Nevada as a potential source of additional investment capital.

Accordingly, I believe the Legislature must proceed expeditiously with a review of Nevada gaming statutes immediately after the state Supreme Court has decided the corollary case which it has under advisement on appeal. This ruling should be made in ample time to identify any possible weaknesses in our Gaming Control Act and leave ample time to correct them.

We all agree there can be no compromise in the rigid standards of personal integrity required for membership on the Nevada Gaming Control Board and the Nevada Gaming Commission.

The present members, without exception, meet these standards. They are scrupulous, intelligent, hard-working citizens who share a love of Nevada and its institutions. They are not incapable of error, certainly, but they are unyielding in matters of principle and conviction. These qualities of excellence, more than anything else, assure the internal stability of the Nevada gaming industry as well as external confidence in its honesty.

But the effectiveness of the board and commission is conditioned directly upon the strength of our laws. It is for this compelling reason that I strongly urge the Legislature, before adjourning sine die, to take whatever steps may be necessary to protect the foundation of our economy.

GAMING LABOR–MANAGEMENT

There is still another area which poses a threat to our gaming revenues.

All of us recall that less than a year ago the Las Vegas Strip was embroiled in a long and costly dispute between union leaders and resort owners.

The 16-day strike had an estimated impact of some $24 million on Clark County. The impact might have been even greater had it not been for the mediation efforts of my office and other concerned individuals and groups.

While our economy was not seriously damaged by the dispute, the potential for disruption remains. It is my suggestion, therefore, that the Legislature call upon the expertise represented by the labor and management members of the legislative advisory boards to the Employment Security Department and the Nevada Industrial Commission. These experts should be asked during the next 2 years to develop a workable plan for resolving major labor disputes in the private sector which would be considered by the 1979 Session of the Legislature.

These representatives of labor and management all are community leaders and all have extensive resources—legal, social and business—from which to draw. For this reason, they represent a reservoir of talent which can be translated into innovative ideas.

If the Legislature agrees with this concept, the study team will be free to draw upon the assistance of the Nevada State Labor Commissioner.

I am mindful of the sensitive nature of labor-management negotiations and I would not support any action which compromised the bargaining process contained in agreements between employers and workers. At the same time, I believe it is imperative that we examine every possible means by which we can avert work stoppages which threaten our economy.

It seems to me that this team of labor and management experts might develop ideas to accomplish this objective. Certainly nothing is to be lost by asking them to do so.

CORRECTIONS

As the vice-chairman of the National Governors' Conference on Crime Reduction and Public Safety, I have learned there simply are no pat solutions to the mounting problems we face in the criminal justice field.

Virtually every state is groping through a series of experiments in a search for at least one promising theory that can be welded to practical application. Meanwhile, violence threatens both the innocent citizen on the street and the convicted felon behind bars.

My proposed budget calls for a number of major capital improvements at Nevada correctional facilities as well as for substantial increases in professional staff.

They include: $1.7 million for the construction of the fifth housing unit at the Northern Nevada Correctional Center which would provide individual rooms for ninety inmates.

—$3.2 million for a fifth housing unit at the Southern Nevada Correctional Center for youthful offenders at Jean. Included in this improvement would be a second educational building, as well as additions to the visitors building, food service building and medical building. This improvement would increase the maximum capacity from 250 to 350 inmates.

These two proposals are especially important because of the immediate need for space and because they will bring about an overall savings in taxpayer dollars. I have already discussed them with both the Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee and the Chairman of the Assembly Ways and Means Committee. These gentlemen have assured me they will discuss the merits of the projects with the full membership.

Also included in my budget are the following:

—$7.8 million for the complete renovation of the old Maximum Security Prison in Carson City. This would include a new 102-man living unit, a new administration building and a new vocational shop building. As indicated in my budget, the Legislature may elect to authorize the construction of an entirely new Maximum Security Prison. If this is your decision, then I recommend that this $7.8 million appropriation be used for the first phase of that new facility.

—Also, I am recommending an additional $654,600 for various physical improvements at the Northern Nevada Correctional Center as well as $150,200 for a classroom addition at the Women's Correctional Center.

This is a substantial capital outlay, but I believe it is entirely justified if we are to keep pace with the demands placed on our correctional system. Meanwhile, we are giving full priority to vocational training and vocational education courses. Only last week, for example, the Northern Nevada Correctional Center entered into an agreement with the Western Nevada Community College for courses in welding and upholstery.

Finally, I urge this Legislature to give favorable consideration to my recommendation for a three-member full-time parole board.

Studies of states with similar prison populations have made it clear that Nevada can no longer afford the luxury of a part-time parole board whose members are not compensated.

Even though our present board is now meeting once a month, it no longer can keep pace with the caseload. Accordingly, the interests of the State and the interests of the criminal justice system would be best served by the creation of a full-time board.

MENTAL HEALTH AND MENTAL RETARDATION

Since 1971, the State of Nevada has expended some $16 million for capital construction in the field of mental health and mental retardation. In percentages, this represents one of the largest increases in Nevada's entire social service network.

Included were new facilities for the Nevada Mental Health Institute, the Mental Health Center in Las Vegas, and Children's Behavioral Services in both Clark County and Washoe County. Also included were construction of the Desert Developmental Center in Las Vegas and the Sierra Developmental Center at Sparks.

Members of the Legislature are aware that the new Desert Developmental Center is scheduled for completion in April of this year. My budget request of $2.2 million for the biennium reflects the resources necessary to staff, equip, and maintain the facility as well as continue the present operation. Funding to hire recommended staff and open the facility when the construction is completed is suggested in a separate supplemental appropriation.

When completed, the Center will be a 56-bed facility operating residential treatment and training programs. In addition, the staff will serve 225 to 250 persons a month on an out-patient basis.

It is also recommended that control and operation of the 30-bed Southern Nevada Mental Retardation Center be unified with the Desert Developmental Center.

We are obligated to help those who are least able to help themselves and I urge your support of these recommendations.

I am also requesting $3.3 million for the Sierra Developmental Center, which would consolidate mental retardation services in Northern Nevada. If approved, the mental retardation ward at the Nevada Mental Health Institute and the Northern Nevada Mental Retardation Center would be combined to form a unified delivery system for mental retardation services. The capital construction program is patterned after the Desert Development Center.

Legislative support for these facilities will make it possible for the State of Nevada to conform with nationally recommended standards for persons who are retarded. The emphasis will be on training programs conducted in a home-like environment as opposed to the traditional custodial atmosphere of institutions.

Improvements in mental health programs include two which merit special consideration. One would provide 26 new positions for the existing Children's Behavioral Services in Northern Nevada and the other would permit expansion of the Special Children's Clinic for the handicapped in Southern Nevada.

EDUCATION

Not surprisingly, the budget which I am submitting for approval by the Legislature contains a record amount for support of elementary, secondary and higher education—a total of $188.3 million in all. This includes money from the General Fund, revenue sharing and the federal slot machine tax rebate.

This 20 percent increase over the current budget seems fully justified. It will enable us to increase the support for each pupil in local school districts from $918 to $1,028 during the next fiscal year and to $1,120 in the final year of the biennium.

Included in the budget is an appropriation for special education which would be additional to the basic support provided to school districts. In 1973, the Legislature approved $6 million for this worthwhile supplemental program which benefits students with different needs. If my recommendation is followed, the amount earmarked for special education will total $11 million at the end of the biennium.

The specifics of my recommendations for higher education already have received a great deal of attention in the media. While there is always room for differences of opinion, I believe that the increases recommended for the university and community college systems are adequate when weighed against anticipated gains in enrollment.

I take personal pride in the great advances which have been made in Nevada education during the 1970's and I believe the Legislature is entitled to an equal measure of pride.

Let us examine the record. When I took office in 1971, the fiscal year appropriation for higher education was just under $16 million. During fiscal year 1978-79, the appropriation will be $51 million.

As you know, a great deal of the increase has been directed to the community college system. State support for community colleges in 1971 was $175 thousand. By contrast, my budget calls for state support in the amount of $7.5 million during the second year of the next biennium.

I also urge your favorable consideration of a 4-year medical school at the University of Nevada, Reno. The budget which I have submitted contains an appropriation of $270 thousand in the second year of the biennium to establish the school. More state dollars will be needed during the following years. However, all indications point to the availability of these dollars.

It has been said before but it is worth repeating; our young people are the greatest resources of this State and nation. Every dollar spent in their behalf is a worthwhile investment that will produce rich dividends for our society. For this reason more than 59 cents of every dollar in the State General Fund goes to education.

CHILD ABUSE AND NEGLECT

The current issue of U.S. News and World Report states that American children in unprecedented numbers are running away from home to escape a growing epidemic of once unspeakable crimes—abuse, incest or neglect.

While the dimensions of the problem are difficult to define, there is hard evidence that child abuse and neglect is a serious matter of concern in Nevada. Perhaps part of the reason is the nature of our 24-hour economy which can place a severe emotional strain on households involving parents who may work different hours.

Nevada law presently defines crimes against children as gross misdemeanors regardless of the degree of abuse or neglect. In my judgment, the law should be changed to make felony prosecutions possible when warranted.

In addition, I believe the existing statutes should be broadened to require more categories of medical professionals to report suspected cases of abuse or neglect. Currently, the law does not include key personnel—except for physicians —in the health care field.

Theoretically, at least, it is possible for an adult to receive a lesser penalty for inflicting substantial injury on a child than if the perpetrator were to commit an identical crime against another adult.

This makes no sense and I believe the Legislature has an obligation to take corrective action. Accordingly, I commend to your attention the suggested amendments to child abuse and neglect statutes which will be submitted through my office. These amendments have been agreed upon by various public agencies at the state and county levels. They have also received the personal attention of the Attorney General of Nevada and a member of my staff.

In 1964, when I served as Nevada's first Director of Health and Welfare, I was successful in obtaining a ruling from the Attorney General which protected those persons who reported suspected cases of child abuse. At that time, there was little help available for offenders. Today, however, there are programs to assist parents in both Reno and Las Vegas as well as the fifteen smaller counties.

The youngest and most vulnerable victims of abuse and neglect have been described as having "no language but a cry." In a society that prides itself on decency and compassion, we have an obligation to protect these pathetic casualties of human stress.

LAKE TAHOE

I hope the Legislature agrees that the time has arrived when we must halt further unrestricted development in the Lake Tahoe basin. Otherwise, extensive growth will overwhelm the ability of government to insure the protection of this unique gift of nature.

You will recall that 2 years ago I requested this body to review the Tahoe Regional Planning Act and initiate desirable changes in cooperation with the State of California. Both states, in fact, did make changes. However, there has been almost total absence of cooperation and coordination.

As you know, neither Nevada nor California may act unilaterally in petitioning the United States Congress for amendments to the Compact. Any such request must be made jointly. The irony is that while neither state can protect the lake alone, either is capable of its destruction.

The message we send to California with this year's Compact amendments must express in clear terms our commitment to the preservation of the lake and its basin.

Both states must totally recognize the obligation to control the growth of business ventures in the Lake Tahoe Basin.

Included should be a recommendation which allows construction to begin only after positive action has been taken by each state's delegation to the Tahoe Regional Planning Agency.

We are dealing with a priceless national resource and we cannot hesitate. I urge this Legislature to take bold, decisive action.

SOLAR ENERGY INCENTIVE

In the absence of Congressional action on a national energy policy, it remains the responsibility of the individual states to develop innovative ideas to conserve our energy resources. Alternatives are desperately needed to traditional sources such as petroleum and natural gas.

One proven alternative is solar energy. However, a substantial capital investment is required by the individual home owner who elects to harness the natural power of the sun to provide heating and cooling.

I am suggesting that we encourage Nevadans to pursue this alternative by enacting legislation which would offer a 10-year tax incentive. Under this proposal, the home equipped with solar energy would be appraised for tax purposes as a home with conventional heating or cooling. In this way, the added value of the solar energy unit would be exempt for the first decade after a dwelling is constructed.

If approved, this proposal would not result in the loss of any tax presently collected. It would merely serve as an incentive to home owners and home builders.

In my judgment, the idea deserves meritorious consideration.

FAIR RENTAL HOUSING ACT

In an era when home ownership has become a luxury, rather than a reasonable expectation, increasing attention has been focused upon those who rent or lease apartments and other dwellings. Unfortunately, all too often the relationship between the landlord and the tenant is one of armed neutrality.

Much of this misunderstanding could be avoided if the rights and obligation arising out of the rental agreement were specifically defined. The proposed Fair Rental Housing Act, by the Nevada Department of Commerce, would accomplish this objective. It would protect both the renter and the owner.

I would like to emphasize that the proposed bill is the result of negotiations with both landlord and tenant groups throughout the State. If enacted, it would have the salutary effect of assuring that Nevadans who rent property are entitled to the same rights to decent, safe and sanitary housing as those who own property.

I recommend the adoption of this legislation.

GOVERNMENT STUDIES

Three separate studies concerning three separate areas of government recently have been completed, and it is my hope that they will be carefully considered by the Legislature.

The first pertains to advisory boards and commissions serving the State of Nevada, the second is a detailed examination of the Nevada Dairy Commission, and the third contains recommendations for adjustments in the salaries paid public officials.

As we all know, advisory boards and commissions at any level of government tend to mushroom. Unchecked, they can grow with minimal analysis of their effectiveness or continued justification for existence. These bodies must be accountable to the public, and must serve, not merely represent, the public.

To ensure that the current 149 state boards and commissions are productive, useful and necessary, I directed the State Planning Coordinator to conduct a study of their functions and make recommendations for improvement. Completion of this intensive review brought a recommendation to eliminate 37 boards. Another 77 boards were recommended for modifications, such as limiting terms of appointments, staggering terms, and bringing more members of the general public to the boards.

Results of the study have triggered considerable comment about its recommendations. This is inevitable in most proposals to streamline existing structures. With a clear view toward streamlining state government and increasing public confidence in the decison-making process, I urge you to carefully review this important study.

During the past year the Nevada Dairy Commission has been enbroiled in controversy concerning the regulation of milk prices. As recently as last week, the commission was the subject of an extensive series of articles which also examined the entire dairy industry.

I have the utmost confidence in this session of the Legislature to act responsibly in shaping any needed pricing and other remedies to protect consumers, as well as the local businesses and dairies whose equitable profits are tied so closely to the price of milk. A careful legislative review of the commission's statutory mandate is necessary. Accordingly, I recommend for your background and strong consideration a report on the Dairy Commission prepared by Dr. Joseph F. Stein of the University of Nevada, Reno. The report contains an analysis in detail of the problems facing the dairy industry in Nevada, and various solutions to combat the problems.

With regard to the study on the salaries of public officials, I would like to emphasize that this problem is not unique to the State of Nevada. In recent years, the rate of inflation has easily outdistanced the pay increases of elected representatives at the federal, state and local levels.

I would like to emphasize that I am particularly concerned about the salaries of judicial officials. In my judgment, the men and women who are responsible for enforcing our laws and rendering decisions should be adequately compensated to assure a continuity of judicial excellence.

We need more, not fewer, able career judges and we should take every step to achieve this objective.

Accordingly, I believe the study, as researched and compiled by the Nevada Department of Administration and the Judicial Planning Unit, merits consideration.

EQUAL RIGHTS AMENDMENT

This nation has just observed its bicentennial, marking 200 years as a republic of free men and women. The constitution of the United States, forged 2 centuries ago, was a near-perfect document. It has been made more perfect since in the form of 26 amendments.

There is yet another refinement, certainly as important and as necessary as the others: The proposed 27th Amendment—to bring equality under the law to all citizens. As you know, approval by 38 states is necessary for the amendment to become law.

The Amendment reads as follows: "Equality of rights under the law shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex."

Ladies and gentlemen, after listening to 5 years of emotional rhetoric on this issue, I still am unable to find anything sinister in the language of the proposed amendment. If anything, it is consistent with the praiseworthy sentiments so nobly expressed in the first 26 amendments.

Six of those amendments carry identical or extremely similar enforcement clauses providing Congress the authority to enforce the federal law, when ratified. Ratification would guarantee equality under the law, in all states, for our daughters as well as our sons.

Equality is not a threat, it is a promise. Once agan, I strongly urge the ratification of the Equal Rights Amendment by the Nevada Legislature.

Before closing my remarks this evening, I would like to make a final observation on my State of the State Message.

I am sure our former governors would agree with me that it is a most difficult enterprise to give some programs priorities over others in opening remarks to the Legislature. Unfortunately, there simply is not enough time to pinpoint every worthwhile recommendation.

With this in mind, I would like to ask you to consider the budget in detail. You will find therein a number of proposals which certainly merit consideration but which could not be touched upon this evening.

Now, permit me to wish you a full measure of good fortune as you begin your important deliberations. You have my respect, my admiration and my friendship. The interests of the people of Nevada are represented by the distinguished Members of the Senate and the Assembly.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 9—Proposing an amendment to section 1 of article 10 of the Constitution of the State of Nevada, relating to taxation, by permitting a property tax exemption for the conservation of energy or the production of energy from renewable resources.

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of Nevada, jointly, That section 1 of article 10 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislature shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, real, personal and possessory, except mines and mining claims, when not patented, the proceeds alone of which shall be assessed and taxed, and when patented, each patented mine shall be assessed at not less than five hundred dollars ($500), except when one hundred dollars ($100) in labor has been actually performed on such patented mine during the year, in addition to the tax upon the net proceeds; shares of stock (except shares of stock in banking corporations), bonds, mortgages, notes, bank deposits, book accounts and credits, and securities and choses in action of like character are deemed to represent interest in property already assessed and taxed, either in Nevada or elsewhere, and shall be exempt. [Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the] The legislature may constitute agricultural and open-space real property having a greater value for another use than that for which it is being used, as a separate class for taxation purposes and may provide a separate uniform plan for appraisal and valuation of such property for assessment purposes. If such plan is provided, the legislature shall also provide for retroactive assessment for a period of not less than 7 years when agricultural and open-space real property is converted to a higher use conforming to the use for which other nearby property is used. Personal property which is moving in interstate commerce through or over the territory of the State of Nevada, or which was consigned to a warehouse, public or private, within the State of Nevada from outside the State of Nevada for storage in transit to a final destination outside the State of Nevada, whether specified when transportation begins or afterward, shall be deemed to have acquired no situs in Nevada for purposes of taxation and shall be exempt from taxation. Such property shall not be deprived of such exemption because while in the warehouse the property is assembled, bound, joined, processed, disassembled, divided, cut, broken in bulk, relabeled or repackaged. The legislature may exempt motor vehicles from the provisions of the tax required by this section, and in lieu thereof, if such exemption is granted, shall provide for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation of motor vehicles, which rate shall not exceed five cents on one dollar of assessed valuation. No inheritance or estate tax shall ever be levied, and there shall also be excepted such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific or other charitable purposes [.] , or to encourage the conservation of energy or the production of energy from renewable natural resources.

Assemblyman Mann: Mr. Speaker, it is with great pride and respect that I stand up here with only about half of my voice to commend the man that I have only known for five years, but in those five years he has shown me what community service means and what it is. Glen Taylor has given Clark County ten of the best years of his life—not because there was reward involved but because he cared about my children and the other members of the Clark County population's children. He devoted many hours for little or no pay to devote those skills that he had acquired as a businessman to see that the Clark County School System functioned as a good business.

I think probably the best—at least I think the most humble—remarks ever made concerning Glen Taylor came from people who announced that they really didn't care for his philosophy but they thanked him for the ten years he had given to the board. We are privileged and I am honored to have Mr. Taylor with us today sitting with Assemblyman Sena and I would ask, if it is appropriate, that we give him a standing ovation at this time.

Thank you.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Glover requested that Sister McCarran's prayer be entered in the Journal:

Let us place ourselves in the presence of God and humbly adore Him. Prostrate before Your Divine Majesty O my God, I adore You with the most profound respect and humility. I believe in You because You are Truth itself. I hope in You because You are infinitely good. I love You with my whole being because You are infinitely worthy of being loved and for Your sake I love my neighbor as myself.

God, Father, Redeemer and Spirit of truth, as our creator, You have made us in Your image so that as a people that has articulated a State, Your authority reposes in our legislative, executive and judicial functions—in trinity, like Your Godhead. Like Your own withholding of Your awful power from lives You have made to be governed by freewill the State must function under the principle of subsidiarity—never should the higher power undertake to do what the lower power is capable of doing. The familial and the free associational should perform to their fullest capacity before the State's or the local government's authority comes into play.

Forgive us for trespassing on the liberty of others, forgive us for exceeding our competence by making equal certain transgressions of the decalogue, for debasing authority, forgive us for politicizing social elements, forgive us for the tyrannies of centralization and authoritarianism, for the urge to regulate everything under police power.

Holy Spirit, enable us to discover in our use of authority and responsibility, in our respect for the familial and associational, a mode in which the image and likeness of the Triune God is revealed on earth as it is in Heaven. In our Redeemer's name, Amen.

As the committees of this body conduct various hearings, give Thy servants, O God, discernment to separate fact from fiction and the wisdom to distinguish between the major and the minor issues and give them courage to stand for what they feel is right in Your eyes regardless of foe or peers or pressure. As we face our responsibilities this day, we thank Thee for everything around us that ministers to our minds—for the greatness and glory of the universe and for the beauty within our reach, for the history of our race and the lives of noble men and women, for moments of insight when the veil of doubt and uncertainty falls away and for that knowledge of Thyself which lights our life with inward splendor. Help us to walk the path of duty with a willing spirit, a dedication to truth and the joy of a clean purpose. Through Jesus Christ our Lord,

Amen

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 11:22 a.m.
Mr. Speaker presiding.
Quorum present.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Jacobsen requested that Mr. Rogers' remarks be entered in the Journal:

Thank you very much.

On behalf of Nevada's more than 3,500 American Legionnaires, and more than 2,700,000 Legionnaires throughout the country and around the world, I want to thank the distinguished members of the Nevada State Legislature for providing this time from your busy schedule to permit us to visit with you today.

The American Legion always is pleased with the opportunity to speak with legislators at all levels of government, and I think it is one of the hallmarks of the success of the American system of government—that government of, by and for the people—which has become a time-tested success as America embarks upon her third century as a free and independent nation.

If this were a proper place to speak out against the forgiveness program of the administration with regard to Vietnam-era law violators, believe me I would do it. Unfortunately, or otherwise, it isn't so I'll move along to other, more palatable subjects.

Most of you are familiar with the role of the American Legion as far as our legislative activities are concerned, and you know that the vast majority of our legislative work is done with the Congress of the United States in areas such as veterans' affairs and rehabilitation, national security and similar activities.

There have been occasions in the past, there will be those occasions in the future, when we have had national programs requiring action at the state and local levels to make them effective. We even have had occasions when it took the collective voice of many state legislatures to convince the Congress of the United States that one of our objectives was proper, popular and reflective of the will of the people.

The most recent example of the latter type of action was our long and strenuous battle to have Veterans Day restored to its proper date of November 11. Our petitions to the Congress fell on deaf ears for a number of years until we decided to appeal to the legislatures of the several states to enact legislation to return Veterans Day to November 11 in their own states. We worked diligently at this project for more than 2 years, and the response of state legislatures was truly heartwarming.

By the time 46 states, either by declining to change the date of their Veterans Day observance in the first place or by legislative action, returning the date of the observance to November 11, the Congress saw the handwriting on the wall, heard the voice of the people through the collective voices of state legislatures and voted overwhelmingly in both the House and the Senate to change the national observance back to November 11.

This is a perfect example of accomplishing indirectly that which cannot be accomplished directly, and it further serves as an example of the fact that our state legislatures are more responsive to the wishes of the people. The process, I believe, speaks well for our system of government by proving once again that this system of ours does work.

This system is worth having. This system is worth defending. Members of our organization have fought to defend it, just as have many of you, and while it is our earnest prayer that neither we nor our children will ever have to fight again, the will of the American people for the defense of freedom is strong and must always remain strong. We do not believe the will of the American people, be it proposed by Republican or Democrat, includes amnesty for draft dodgers.

We are going to continue to carry to the Congress of the United States the message of the American Legion on behalf of a strong system of national security. We are going to continue to carry that message to the American people. We are going to continue to carry it to governmental bodies such as this legislature even though you do not shape national defense budgets or policies.

We take this approach to the problem of making known our position on the status of our national defense system because everyone should know it, and the more people who know it, the more people are concerned, and the more who are concerned, the more there are to voice that concern to their representatives in Congress.

Pleading the case for an adequate system of national security is not always popular in peacetime. There are other causes to be pleaded, other cases to be heard. Yet, it is the belief of the American Legion that the road to peace is through preparedness, and the preparedness is the best insurance we have for the maintenance of peace. Not everyone agrees with that theory but, as American veterans of four wars of the twentieth century, American Legionnaires have seen the terrible price we have paid for unpreparedness. We do not want to see it again.

Yet, the American Legion, as most of you know, is concerned with many things in addition to the preparedness of the nation to defend the rights and freedoms of its people.

We are involved in such a diversity of action and activity that there is a program of interest within the American Legion for practically every eligible veteran to continue to be of service to his country in time of peace as he was in time of war. The opportunity is there for these people to join with their fellow veterans in the ranks of the Legion and to serve in a field in which they are interested and competent.

You may be interested to know that the 94th Congress passed 588 pieces of legislation which became law, and 101 of those new laws satisfy, wholly or in part, mandated positions of the American Legion as adopted by our national convention or our national executive committee.

Among those measures we find legislation aimed at providing a better life for America's war veterans and their dependents. Many other areas of Legion interest, indeed of interest to the general public, were served through legislation enacted by the 94th Congress, including such vital areas as unemployment, education, energy, health, housing, nutrition, law enforcement, international affairs and domestic and internal security, in addition to important national defense legislation. The very nature of these new laws is indicative of the wide scope of American Legion interest and concern in matters other than adequate weaponry and adequate strength for our armed forces.

You may be interested in two special projects in which the American Legion was deeply involved during America's Bicentennial year, neither of which had anything to do with national defense, and both of which were high profile projects for the Legion and our auxiliary during this time period.

First, we and our auxiliary sponsored the American Freedom Bell, a bell twice the size of the Liberty Bell, which travelled from coast to coast on the Freedom Train from April of 1975 through December of 1976.

That bell is being given by the Legion and our auxiliary as a gift to the nation on behalf of America's children as a permanent memento of the Bicentennial and a constant reminder to young and old alike of what was required to make and keep America great.

Weighing more than sixteen thousand pounds, this great bell was completely financed by gifts of individual American Legionnaires and auxiliary members.

The other major Bicentennial project for the Legion and our auxiliary was our cooperative effort with the American Cancer Society which raised more than $1 million for research in the fight against cancer with the hope of helping to wipe out cancer within our lifetimes.

Oh, yes, there were other things in which the Legion and our auxiliary were involved during our Bicentennial year. Many local projects or statewide programs were conducted with Legion sponsorship and support. Our combined and expanded Boys' and Girls' Nation was another national Bicentennial event of some magnitude, which saw some three hundred young people of high school age converge on the nation's capital to share in a learning experience on the operations of our federal government. These young people came from every state in the union and they went back home with a better understanding of those things that make our government tick. They visited with their senators and representatives in Congress from their home states. They visited the White House, and they visited many of the important offices and agencies of the federal government. It is the hope of the American Legion and the American Legion auxiliary that through programs such as these we may help build a nucleus of young Americans with a deeper understanding and appreciation for our government and our way of life.

Many of you undoubtedly are familiar with the programs of Boys' State and Girls' State, from having participated in them yourselves in your younger years or having participated as counselors or instructors more recently. We and our auxiliary believe we have an all-American program going for us in this project, and we are proud and pleased to have a part in preparing young Americans for their roles as responsible adult citizens for tomorrow.

Ladies and gentlemen, thank you again for this wonderful opportunity you have given the American Legion to bring our message to a busy state legislature in session.

We thank you for the many services you have provided to the veteran population, and to all citizens of this great State. Please accept our best wishes for a most successful legislative session—one which will be a source of gratification to you far beyond the term of the session itself, because you, too, have served.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 13.

Assemblyman Schofield moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Schofield.

Assemblyman Demers requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Schofield: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly: Not to be rhetoric of the fine words expressed in the resolution designating Nevada Boy Scout Day as February 7, 1977, it gives me a great deal of pride to know that many of us now serving in the Nevada State Legislature are products of the Scouting movement of this great country and this great State.

Often times our day to day activities tend to allow us to forget our perspective of life's greatest virtues which are so ably expressed in the few short words of the Scout Oath which has such a strong impact, I am sure, on each of us: "On my honor, I will do my best to do my duty to God, and my country and to obey the Scout law."

In cities large and small and in rural far-reaching areas, the services extended by the Boy Scouts to their communities is not only rewarding to the Scout himself, but to everyone that becomes involved.

It is my pleasure to speak on behalf of the organization, to ask each assemblyman to present each Boy Scout with a copy of the resolution and the flag of our Legislature. As you know we will have these fine Scouts as our guests for lunch at noon at the Ormsby House.

Thank you Mr. Speaker.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

I would like to read a statement to this body to help explain the flowers. It is part of a letter from Abigail Adams written May 7, 1776 to her husband, John, in Philadelphia who was helping to prepare the draft of the Declaration of Independence. Abigail says: "In the new code of laws which I suppose it will be necessary for you to make, I desire that you would remember the ladies and be more generous and favorable to them than your ancestors. Remember that all men would be tyrants if they could. If particular attention is not paid to the ladies, we are determined to foment a rebellion and will not hold ourselves bound by any laws in which we have no voice or representation."

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Mr. Speaker requested that Assemblyman Weise's remarks with regard to Assemblyman Howard's position on Senate Joint Resolution No. 5 be entered in the Journal:

On behalf of fellow member, Bode Howard, who is unable to be here because of his hospitalization, I would like to extend his feelings on S.J.R. 5, which I presume is the next order of business. Mr. Howard has consistently opposed the measure and has indicated his opposition to S.J.R. 5, and if there is any doubt about it, we are talking about the Equal Rights Amendment. I hereby take liberty to inform this body of his position.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Senate Joint Resolution No. 5.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Brookman, Chaney, Coulter, Gomes, Price and Wagner.

Assemblyman Price requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Brookman: Mr. Speaker, Members of the Assembly, as a member of this House my title is Assemblyman, why? Because at the time this great nation was formed, its first Congress, the drafters not recognizing woman's right to participate in government, made reference to everything in the masculine gender. They, in their infinite wisdom created a congressman, a chairman, a postman, etc. It never entered their minds that a woman would vote, let alone run for office and win. We had worked very long and hard 125 years for the right. The 19th Amendment was passed, I might add with a second section stating that, "Congress shall have the power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation." If we were voting on that amendment today, I wonder if the members of this House would have voted "aye." Would it receive the same consideration as the 27th Amendment? You need our votes, each and every one of you in this House. Please go back with me in history and consider the 26 amendments we have and you will see that amending our Constitution is a difficult process; the method of ratification has not changed in the history of the nation. Why should the language of the second section of this amendment frighten you? Numerous times our forefathers have used this language when implementation of an amendment was needed. It is the action clause needed to make effective the intent of the amendment. Article 13, the amendment to abolish slavery, passed in 1865. It had a second section. Article 14, the definition of citizenship (which incidentally made male slaves citizens and left out women) has this section, as does article 15—the right to vote regardless of race (still the women were left out). Article 19—women's suffrage—150 years later has the same clause, and aren't you glad that one passed because women have 51 percent of the votes and that's what gets many of you elected. It also has this second section. Article 24, barring poll tax and giving everyone the right to vote has this second section. Then look how enlightened the United States became. We gave the 18-year-olds the right to vote and they became equal under the law. It took that one 4 months to ratify—it has certainly taken a lot longer for women to gain legal equality. The 18-year-old vote amendment carries the implementing clause.

Here it is 1977, 112 years later and the United States is still intact—unshaken by any repercussion from those second sections. Congress in all these years has not seemed to have abused the rights given them in the few words of those second sections. They do not seem to have deemed it necessary to invoke, revoke, rescind or exercise all these second sections and we are still in business, under the same proud flag. By the way, when my husband went off to war for 3 years I did not see him—I was working and raising my young son. As we all know, army pay in those days was little or none. Little did I know when he grew up to be of age, that he, too, would be called to serve his country, and he did "with pride." Who held up the country then but the women. The women were home because the men were gone doing their duty and I think we did our duty very well. You thought we were equal then—you left everything in our hands. The country did not collapse, the sky did not fall. It did not break the moral fiber of the home because one partner was away from home. I think not! It just made us stronger. I, as a wife of 35 years or more, a mother and a grandmother have not been frightened or threatened by these second sections and I daresay that anybody sitting in this room has not either. For 112 years they haven't been, why be afraid now. This amendment does for the first time contain a third section, stating that the amendment has 2 years before going into effect—to give the states that period of time to make the necessary changes in legal statutes—to insure the right of states to sovereign rights. I venture to say that most every person in this room whose ancestors came to this land from the "Old Country" is proud of their heritage. Yet, the grandparents and parents came here to make a free country. One premise guaranteed by that free country is the right to go into a "house of worship" of their choice. That free country guaranteed that we no longer had to live under the tyranny of a church dominated state—to each his own church. Mine is not better than yours—yours is not better than mine. But I will not be forced to vote my conviction under the influence of any religious pressures! No, I will not. That is not what democracy is about. I stand here today as an elected official, and if I read the Constitution right, we in this House were elected to make the laws that will help to improve the lot of all humankind. Other countries can't do that but I am proud to say we can. Women hold up half the sky—produce 100 percent of all the babies (and that's a percentage that hasn't changed since time immemorial.) Please—do not deny equality in these United States any longer, for after all we live here too! We are not going to go away! On the contrary, we promise you we will not vanish from this earth, nor from these halls. We were good enough to hold up the country in time of war. Do not deny us what is rightfully ours! Vote yea on ERA.

Assemblyman Chaney: As many of you know our country takes this opportunity to honor Negroes that have made history in America. This is known as Negro History Week. I would like to reflect a moment on a couple of firsts which this week should bring to mind. Don't go through your history books and your almanacs trying to check me out, but I would just like you to reflect with me as I go back. For the first time in history, we as a people have the opportunity to join in making a right possible for all Americans—black and white, young and old, rich and poor, healthy or otherwise. We now have the opportunity to pass legislation to protect and benefit all Americans. Yes, it is fitting that a black man during the Negro History Week should state to Nevadans that there is still work to be done in the area of human rights and that a "yes" vote on this amendment would not only bring this dream of women into reality; not only the quest of this country of ours to be true, but sometime in the future, the Negro History Week will be celebrated and somebody will thumb through a book and look at this Nevada Legislature and say, "Yes, it was a Black legislator that joined along with the women of this country of ours and asked all of his fellow legislators to support this amendment and it was so done." I can't think of a time better suited for this occasion or I can't think of a place that would be more suitable to me than the time of Black History Week and the place of the Nevada State Legislature during the 1977 Session. It must happen during this Black History Week and I urge you to join me in voting "yes" on this amendment.

Assemblyman Coulter: I was handed a copy of a newspaper advertisement a few minutes ago. A lot of people may not have seen it. It was an ad that ran for one day, Monday, February 4 in the San Francisco Chronicle. It says "Equality in Nevada—don't bet on it. The women of Nevada know better whose money supports those who feel women should be grateful for menial jobs and low salaries. Please don't spend money in Nevada until the ERA is ratified or wait to bet in Atlantic City; New Jersey has ratified."

The ad, I understand, was set to run in newspapers throughout the State of California. Pro ERA forces here in Nevada contacted the people who had put this in. The people were some of the major organizations in Nevada, and they had asked that it not be run in Nevada since they were having a vote today. I just thought you might be interested in this.

I would like to say that for me, a question as fundamental and as basic as freedom and equality under the law is the absolute bottom line. An issue such as this, for me, is not subject to any of the usual maneuverings that precede so many of our activities here.

I have heard much talk about the voter strength of the opposition. Last session 16 people co-sponsored the ERA in this House. Sixteen people put their names on the line for equal rights—and I commend them for their courage and conviction. But some of those people are not back this time—did the anti-ERA forces defeat them at the polls?

As I said before, the ERA is the bottom line for me and I have been upset by stories that some legislators, convinced the ERA would never reach this House, have told both sides of the issue that they agreed with them. That's pretty tough to do when you only have one vote—but not so hard, I guess, if you figure you won't ever have to cast that vote.

For those with a Mason's Manual of Legislative Procedure before them—Section 72, paragraph 2 states "The power and duty to decide whether or not there has been compliance with constitutional provisions is a matter for the courts." Any legislator who seeks to escape, to hide behind this as an excuse, would be clearly violating the rules of this House.

For those who oppose ERA on religous grounds, I understand and respect your position. For those who have strong reservations about the amendment, who have consistently opposed the measure on philosophical grounds, I understand and respect your position, although I disagree with it.

I have heard some people say "but the polls in my district are running against ERA. What's a guy to do?" Another said "last time my poll was 61 percent in favor so I voted for it, now my poll is 64 percent against so I am voting no. What's a guy to do?" The clincher for me is "I still believe in the ERA, I know the opposition is wrong, but the polls are running against. What's a guy to do?"

For an issue as fundamental as ERA, to vote one way when you know in your heart you should be voting the other way—I guess that's just something you have to live with.

Senator John Kennedy said in Profiles in Courage: "The voters selected us, in short, because they had confidence in our judgment and our ability to exercise that judgment from a position where we could determine what were their own best interests, as a part of the nation's interests. This may mean that we must on occasion lead, inform, correct and sometimes even ignore constituent opinion, if we are to exercise fully that judgment for which we were elected."

It has been said, "If we are equal before God, why cannot we be equal before our government?"

A former member of this House testified in Las Vegas: "If we pass the ERA, the only thing we will be giving up is the right to discriminate. And surely that is a right we don't want to keep."

That is the issue for me. We are voting on human equality.

Assemblyman Gomes: There are many issues that we can talk about in supporting the Equal Rights Amendment. I wish to make my issue one of justice under the law. My concern and support for the passage of ERA is for justice under the law. Presently there are no state statutes or avenues which deal effectively with complaints of discrimination based on sex.

Under the 14th Amendment the procedures developed to handle discrimination are time consuming and expensive to taxpayers and complainant. Currently discrimination complaints are being handled piecemeal by every political subdivision in Nevada. Clark and Washoe counties are involved in litigation costing thousands of dollars and solutions or resolving the issues are not close at hand.

The Supreme Court did not rule in the Frontera Case and they have four other cases of sex discrimination pending in the Supreme Court waiting for the outcome of the Equal Rights Amendment.

If the Equal Rights Amendment doesn't pass, the Supreme Court will eventually have to rule on sex discrimination. Local and state entities will then not have the chance to set their own choice or standard.

If Nevadans want to make their own decisions, I urge passage of ERA to provide local direction to the processes of alleviating discrimination and for clarifying the procedures for complaints and the legal process.

Assemblyman Price: First, I would like to reflect for the moment on the history of this great document, the Constitution of the United States of America, that we are proposing to amend. During the past several years we have all heard many times that it was a devinely inspired document and that we should indeed be very remiss and very careful about attempts to refine or alter it. I would, however, submit that after considerable research I have concluded that, while the 55 men of destiny who met in Philadelphia in May of 1787 to create the original version of this Constitution were in fact courageous, dedicated, perceptive, patriotic and wonderful Americans, they were hardly divinely inspired; and the Constitution they gave us was born of necessity of that time if we were going to build an America and it was shaped by compromise. Perhaps the best example was the so-called three-fifths compromise that resolved a raging dispute. For the purpose of gaining additional congressmen in the lower house, the southern states wanted slaves counted for representation but not for taxes while the northern states wanted them counted for the purpose of taxation but not for representation. As a result they finally resolved this dispute by the compromise that slaves were to be counted as three-fifths of a person for both purposes. I think that it is reasonable to assume that today there is not one among us nor one American who, even though they love and cherish this document, would subscribe to its original concept permitting slavery and, even further, counting them as only three-fifths of a person. Thank God that what we really have is a living document that during its life of some 200 years has had over twenty-seven hundred proposed amendments of which 26 have, thus far, been adopted within the framework of our ever-changing society, and it is today, though not perfect, the guiding light of freedom for all mankind. What we have is a living document that for some 200 years has met the needs of our country at a time that it was most needed and what was needed 200 years ago is not necessarily what is needed today.

That brings us to the proposed Equal Rights Amendment, also a product of compromise from our Congress. I don't believe that they were Communists as we have heard in the past or that somehow they were right wing or that they were left wing. I think that they were our elected officials back there trying within the framework of their pressures and their needs and our needs to come up with something to refine our Constitution to the needs of today. What they developed, by compromise, was the proposed 27th Amendment that enacts to Congress the right to establish laws—the right over the states who may establish unconstitutional laws in an attempt to enforce this compromise measure. Those same words or nearly identical words are contained, as you have heard earlier, in several other of the amendments to our Constitution. And last, the twelve-word implementation clause about the 2 years; a proposed amendment of 52 words destined to bring all Americans—not just some—but to every American, male and female, to bring us closer to the meaning of the often repeated pledge that we all took a few minutes ago proclaiming our allegiance to "one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all"—not just for some, but for all. In my mind, if there is a question—any kind of a significant question—as to whether we all have equal rights, then something should be done about it. I have, on occasion, been advised over the past 2 years that I was elected to represent my constituents of Assembly District 17 in North Las Vegas, the pride of Nevada. So I went to the oath we all took on January 17, the first day of this session. We swore to protect and defend the Constitution of the United States and Nevada, and we promised our allegiance and loyalty to them. I would submit that, if one American of either sex, black, brown, white, yellow, or any shade in between, male or female, young or old, is today suffering from a lack of equal justice or liberty or has been denied equal rights before the law or is denied an equal opportunity to develop to their full capacity within the limits of their own incentive, and ability, if one group or even one American is denied any of these rights, then you and I, as the elected representatives of the people, must rush forward and strike down the barriers before them. We are bound by a commitment much larger that the X's that any of us may have marked on any of these roll-call sheets, stronger than any political pressures that may be brought to bear by another colleague, more important than the fear of whether or not we may or may not be returned to our seats in 1978 depending on how we vote on this issue. We are indeed bound and committed to uphold the very basic concepts of America that each and every person is indeed a person in their own right and should never be denied, in any matter, equality under the law.

I originally intended to respond to the many arguments and there were good arguments on both sides—I listened to them all—and I promised myself I wasn't going to get involved this year, I was just going to vote but I couldn't stay away. Two days ago I finally decided absolutely and without irrevocable pressure regardless of what happened, I was going to vote in favor if we had the opportunity and, to be honest, I was beginning to worry that we wouldn't have the opportunity. Destiny has dictated that today each of us would be here standing on, perhaps, the threshold of giving the momentum because there are two other states to go after us, as I understand—but to provide the momentum to go over the top to reach that great American dream that every person would be created equal, that every person would have equal rights before the law. I am not so naive that I do not understand that most of us came here today with our minds firmly made up as to how we would vote, but I do have the hope eternal that something said today will change someone's mind. I have no doubts that the ratification of this Equal Rights Amendment is pretty shaky right now. I am a little ashamed, but I have no doubt.

In closing, I want to implore you, my fellow colleagues, even beg that just this one time, today, right now, when we vote on this issue, I beg you to vote from your heart as to what is best for America, what is best for our United States and to rise above all other pressure.

Assemblyman Wagner: I rise in proud support of the Equal Rights Amendment today as I did in 1975.

I rise as an American, a Republican and a woman. My support initially arises as an American citizen. This, my colleagues, is a national issue—a national principle, equality for all human beings. It has been difficult for me to accept the fact that I must stand here over 200 years since the founding of this country and debate an issue so basic, so just, so fair and so American as legal rights for all. But I must and I shall for as long as it is necessary.

I wonder what Elizabeth Cody Stanton would think today of this debate. I would like to share with you some of her thoughts before the Judiciary Committee of Congress in 1892.

"The strongest reason for giving woman all the opportunities for higher education, for the full development of her faculties, forces of mind and body for giving her the most enlarged freedom of thought and action; a complete emancipation from all forms of bondage, of custom, dependence, superstition; from all the crippling influences of fear, is the solitude and personal responsibility of her own individual life. The strongest reason why we ask for woman a voice in the government under which she lives; in religion she is asked to believe; equality in social life, where she is the chief factor; a place in the trades and professions, where she may earn her bread, is because of her birthright to self-sovereignty; because, as an individual, she must rely on herself. No matter how much women prefer to lean, to be protected and supported, nor how much men desire to have them do so, they must make the voyage of life alone, and for safety in an emergency they must know something of the laws of navigation. To guide our own craft, we must be captain, pilot, engineer; with chart and compass to stand at the wheel; to watch the wind and waves and know when to take in the sail, and to read the signs in the firmament over all. It matters not whether the solitary voyager is man or woman."

I wonder what she would think 85 years later of this debate today.

I wonder what you think of some of the comments I heard during the hearings this past week. The first, "You cannot have freedom and equality." My colleagues, there is no freedom unless there is equality. The second, "We Americans cannot afford equality." My colleagues, we cannot afford inequality.

Since this is a national issue, I must address the concern of the federal government's role.

If you are concerned about federal intervention, I think your concern will be justified if the ERA is not ratified. In late 1973 the U.S. Government filed suit against the State of Nevada to nullify Nevada's labor laws, because they were discriminatory. Those of you who were here in 1975 remember A.B. 219 which addressed that suit in revising our Statutes. We were fortunate then for the federal judge allowed the Legislature to make the necessary changes ourselves, basically because our biennial session was upon us. But we might not be so fortunate again. The day the ERA is finally ratified by 38 states, all sex discriminatory laws are not suddenly and magically rewritten by some unknown person. Instead the initiative will pass once more to the states to us—to you and me—I would prefer that, wouldn't you?

I also rise as a Republican. I have been asked probably more than most why I am a member of that party. There are many reasons, but one of the most important is that the cornerstone of my party is individual freedom and responsibility. The ERA is individual freedom and responsibility. I am proud to represent that GOP philosophy in my vote today.

And finally I rise as a woman—a mother, wife, homemaker. This is the most difficult for me to address for what we are debating today is to what degree I may be treated as an individual under the law.

The statistics demonstrating the inequity in earnings for men and women in the marketplace may not be disturbing to women who feel they are financially secure in their homes. They may not be disturbing to men who still feel that American women are well "taken care of" and really shouldn't be competing with men for jobs. But the 12 percent of all families headed by women should be concerned. The 43 percent of all married women (and their husbands) who work to help support the family, should be concerned, and every individual woman who wants to be assured of an equal opportunity to pursue her own talents in the marketplace should be concerned.

The Equal Rights Amendment will not markedly expand the protections afforded by their piecemeal federal laws, but it will provide needed national impetus for the recognition of women as individuals in the marketplace. It will provide a permanent, accessible, and well-known legal alternative to the limitations imposed by the present patchwork approach.

The day the ERA is finally ratified by all 38 states, all sex discriminatory laws are not suddenly and magically rewritten by some unknown presence. Instead, the initiative will pass once more to the states. ERA will take effect 2 years after ratification, to allow state leglislatures to examine and rewrite their laws.

We have been elected by our fellow Nevadans to defend those principles upon which our country was founded. It is time now for each of us to decide if political considerations or equality under the law is more important.

If the basic convictions of our American society are valid, that all human beings, though infinite in their variety are equal in the sight of God and one another, then the Equal Rights Amendment is merely a long overdue affirmation of that principle.

THE TWENTY-NINTH DAY

CARSON CITY (Monday), February 14, 1977

Assembly called to order at 11:28 a.m.
Mr. Speaker presiding.
Roll called.
All present except Assemblyman Howard, who was excused.
Prayer by the Chaplain, Father Larry Quilici.
Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Assemblyman Demers moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the Speaker and Chief Clerk be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.

Motion carried.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Schofield requested that Father Quilici's prayer be entered in the Journal:

Ladies and gentlemen of the Assembly, this body needs healing of memories and renewing of hearts—a reconciliation to put back the broken pieces. What I would like to do this morning is a little longer than a prayer but short enough, I hope, to renew hearts. I would like to do what we call a Reconciliation Rite or Service. We are gathered here to give thanks to the Lord for His many gifts to us and to ask His healing forgiveness and to learn to forgive and let go. I am reading from the Book of Sirach, 28th chapter, verses 2 through 7:

> Forgive your neighbor's injustice; then when you > pray, your own sins will be forgiven.
> Should a man nourish anger against his fellows > and expect healing from the Lord?
> Should a man refuse mercy to his fellows, yet > seek pardon for his own sins?
> If he who is but flesh cherishes wrath, who > will forgive his sins?
> Remember your last days, set enmity aside;
> remember death and decay, and cease from sin!
> Think of the commandments, hate not your neighbor;
> of the Most High's covenant, and overlook faults.

To these petitions, ladies and gentlemen, I would ask that you respond with the words "Lord forgive us":

For the times we were angry with those closest to us and let them go without being reconciled we pray, "Lord forgive us."

For our refusal to be merciful and compassionate to those who have offended us we pray, "Lord forgive us."

For our refusal to give up our old ways of life and be renewed we pray, "Lord forgive us."

For all the times we have made forgiveness conditional upon another's changing and becoming worthy we pray, "Lord forgive us."

For our unwillingness to go deeper into ourselves to uncover the hurts and the resentments that keep us from loving we pray, "Lord forgive us."

For all these, especially for our inability to see how much You love us, we ask Your forgiveness.

God, our Father, has always been a healer and has always forgiven His stubborn people who repeatedly broke their promises and in return for their infidelity, He loved them even more and sent His Son so that we might be His sons and daughters forever. He is now present in our midst healing us, forgiving us, enabling us to forgive others. Spirit of Christ come upon us not only in the inner recesses of our hearts but in our relationships with one another in this Assembly. Come as Healer, forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Heal our smouldering hurts and enkindle the love of the Spirit in our hearts forevermore. As a sign of this healing I suggest and I ask each of you to turn to the person on the left and right and shake their hands and say "Shalom" or "Peace."

Thank You, Lord, for Your forgiveness and for all the good that You allowed to come into our lives even through this suffering. We thank You for the healing You have brought us this day, Amen

The Senator delivered his message as follows:

Mr. President, Mr. Speaker, Members of the Court and Members of the Legislature and friends:

Somebody once said that one useless man is a disgrace, two of them a law firm, and three or more a legislature.

Somebody else once said that whenever he went to a dinner where there were legislators present he always made sure not to sit next to one of them because they never pass anything.

Well, ladies and gentlemen, that sort of thing is far from true of this Legislature. I am delighted to be here once again and have the privilege of continuing to work with you as I have for so many years to improve the lives of all the people living in our State.

I want to congratulate all of you for the hard work you've done in the past for Nevada and its people. And I want to congratulate you for the fine work you are doing now.

I want to congratulate Governor Mike O'Callaghan too for his outstanding record of service and for his great personal contribution to our State and to all of us who live here.

We in Nevada are fortunate in the excellence, the wisdom and the foresight of the elected officials of our State, the results of whose hard work and understanding of our problems is almost everywhere in evidence today.

Nevada, unlike many other states, is still sound. Nevada is, in fact, one of the few states facing no immediate crises, no insurmountable problems. We are prosperous in most of our industries.

Our construction industry, it is true, needs a healthy boost and the unemployment picture here could certainly be improved. But these present problems with which I am sure we can and we will deal.

A serious problem also confronts the Nevada Test Site. This important facility would be adversely affected by any truly effective international agreement to stop nuclear testing. On this subject let me say in passing that I am frankly skeptical that any really meaningful bilateral agreement can be worked out between Russia and the U.S. and you may be sure I will insist on some very real guarantees against cheating by the Russians, such as we've seen in the past. I will also look for alternate programs for the Test Site. And in the event a nuclear test cessation agreement can be reached, I am hopeful that continued use can be found for this valuable Nevada resource.

We are also facing some other problems which like unemployment and the lag in construction here are reflections of and closely intertied with those of the nation as a whole. Inflation is unfortunately still with us. So is the energy crisis. And both present a severe threat to our future here in Nevada as they threaten the future of all Americans.

Another problem, incidentally, was made very clear to me on my recent trip to the Middle East. That is the very real threat of nuclear proliferation throughout the world. We simply have to reduce the risk of nuclear confrontation and doing so has got to be high on the priority list of goals for the new Administration. The United States simply has to have guarantees that no military capability can result from the sale of any nuclear power plants abroad. And I intend to do all I can to see to it that we get those guarantees.

In the meantime, we would do well not to wait for the federal government to solve our local problems for us but to do in the future as we have in the past and tackle them on our own.

And we haven't done badly. I myself am proud of the many battles I've fought for the people of Nevada over the years. And you can be sure I will continue to fight for Nevada and do all I can to see that the people of this State get a fair hearing in Washington and a fair share of the resources we need to continue to prosper as we have.

I am glad to be able to report that the revenue sharing program to return control and administration of some tax moneys to state and local governments has so far poured some $63.6 million into Nevada since 1972, and we extended the Revenue Sharing Act for a 5-year period.

During the 1977 Fiscal Year Nevada will receive more than $16 million more in revenue sharing funds which are indispensable in providing essential services for which there are no other funds.

I am proud and happy to be able to report, for example, that as a result of legislation for which I fought, Nevada got back more than $40 million—an 80 percent rebate—from the federal slot machine tax in the last 4 years since my bill was enacted. And I want you to know I have proposed new legislation that will up that rebate to 95 percent and bring additional funds into our State's economy.

Of increasing significance after a long but finally successful battle to support the tourism so important to Nevada is the making of air travel more accessible to more and more Americans through lower air fares. And I am also proud of my part in helping to make that come about. The measurable and undeniable success of OTC's—one stop tour charters—now bringing additional thousands of visitors and millions of tourist dollars into Nevada. And the more recent ABC's or advance booking charters are just now beginning to make the same healthy contribution to Nevada's overall economy.

Nevada is furthermore getting the lion's share of the nation's OTC business. Between September 1975 and September 1976, for instance, a total of 4,718 OTC's were proposed to Nevada—now that means 4,718 plane loads of people which represented 55 percent of the total domestic volume of OTC's proposed and 28 percent of the grand total of OTC's flown throughout the world which includes both domestic and international proposals.

It is true that until now Southern Nevada has been the principal point of entry for much of this flow of wealth into our State. But Northern Nevada will soon feel its direct impact in the increased revenues OTC's and ABC's will bring in to the northwestern Nevada area.

While we may make a rough measurement of the tremendous impact OTC's and ABC's have already had on Nevada's tourist industry and on the State's economy as a whole, it is too soon to predict except in generally optimistic terms the continuing impact they will have in the future, but I think it is immeasurable.

It is safe to say, however, that had we not had the foresight to anticipate the benefits of lower air fares and the will to fight for them, Nevada's economy would be much less sound than it is today and much less prosperous than it promises to be in the future.

And speaking of courage and foresight, I would like to congratulate this Legislature for the way in which you have faced up to another problem I've mentioned and one which could have serious, even drastic, consequences for all of us in the years ahead.

I want specifically to congratulate the Legislative Commission of the 58th Legislature for its very fine study issued last September on the overall energy situation here in Nevada and its excellent recommendations as to what we can and should do to meet the problem now.

They have proposed that, among other steps, we undertake a statewide search for any possible oil reserves that might be here. And I am pleased to note in passing that oil exploration in central Nevada has already been encouraging, and there has, as you know, already been a new strike in that part of the State.

They have also proposed we explore and develop the many geothermal wells scattered throughout the State. And let me note here that today, in fact, I was supposed to observe the first flow testing of a second well in a newly discovered geothermal reservoir 50 miles northeast of Reno. I met with these people at breakfast this morning. They have two producing wells at the present time. They are testing out now to get the size of the field and they will attempt to go to a commercial user, if they test out, and make a sale of the use of this very important resource. It is estimated at the present time enough steam could be generated out of this one field to generate electricity for a town of 55 thousand people or more.

The Nevada Legislature's Legislative Commission has also proposed that we explore and develop solar energy facilities and applications throughout Nevada. I agree with that. But the search for new oil, the development of geothermal wells, and the development of solar energy facilities will all take time and we need to find ways to meet our energy crisis now.

For that reason I heartily approve the commission's further proposal that we do a much better job than we have so far of conserving the energy we now have.

For Nevada is a have-not state where energy is concerned. 80 percent or more of the energy we consume is imported and much of it depends on oil, of which we as a nation are so critically short.

Now the Legislative Commission's report in general suggests three courses open to us to meet our energy requirements. One, is to look for new domestic sources of gas and oil. Two, is to look for alternate sources of energy. And three, is to cut back on our dependence on foreign oil through conservation here at home.

I'd like to emphasize the immediate necessity to start as soon as possible on that third course of energy conservation. The exploration and development of new domestic sources of oil and gas will take time—years we can't afford to wait—and may not prove as productive as we might hope. Similarly, the development of alternate sources of fuel will also take time—as much as 10 to 20 years some experts say to bring in geothermal wells, or develop a workable, cost-effective solar heating technology, or even to expand our underdeveloped hydroelectric capacity, or find a way to convert our almost unlimited national supplies of coal to gas.

I've mentioned coal deliberately, for like every other possible source of energy we might tap to meet the immediate national energy shortage, there's little or no coal in Nevada and any immediate answer to our energy problem rests with the nation as a whole.

Nationally, the scene looks pretty desolate. It was one of the great failures of the last Administration that it never developed and stated a clearcut national energy policy. It is one of the great challenges of the new Administration to do so.

Just 3 years after the Arab oil embargo of 1973 and five-fold price increases, we are more dependent on Middle East oil than ever, and more vulnerable to the economic and political pressure of a handful of Arab chiefs. They pulled their embargo at a time when they were supplying only 11 percent of the oil we use and we are now dependent on them for a whopping 18 percent or almost twice as much. Meanwhile, our own production of oil has dropped from 9.2 million barrels a day in 1973 to only 8 million barrels today. That was in November last year. And then came the unusually severe winter of this year to underscore the problem we face. And it has by no means yet been solved.

The tragedy is, we might have avoided the crisis if we had faced it in time. For like the severity of this year's winter storms, the energy crisis was predicted. And yet little or nothing was done to meet the unavoidable emergency.

There are many factors that preclude any easy solution to the immediate energy problem: The opposition of environmentalists, the special concerns of conservationists, the special interests of the many industries and the many more governmental agencies involved not only directly in producing energy but in many associated areas—transportation, land management, defense and foreign affairs, to name only a few.

So, what do we do to meet the problem. For one, we had better find ways around the opposition to available sources of energy like coal. We had better find ways to overcome the opposition to nuclear energy which could provide as much as 26 percent of our energy requirements by 1985. Our hydroelectric energy capability could be upgraded to supply not just the 15 percent of our current electric needs it meets today but enough to supply 40 million Americans and replace two million barrels of imported Arab oil a day.

We must also find a way to tap our all but unlimited supplies of coal, enough to last 450 years at present rates of consumption but whose use is hampered now by ill-informed public opposition, restrictive legislation and high extraction and development costs.

We should further take an objective and searching look at the energy shortage. We should determine more exactly and precisely than we have, just what are our actual reserves of oil and natural gas and whether or not the shortages are real or market determined by some greedy producers.

A recent consensus of studies by both federal and private groups flatly declares, for example, that there is no shortage of natural gas in the United States and that the industry has reserves and potential to carry us well into the 21st Century. What we face, they say, is a shortage in readily available supplies brought on, in part, by the producers' knowledge that they can sell gas today for a higher price in one market area rather than deliver it to another area where the need for gas may be critical.

Producers are also said to be holding back production and distribution this year to take advantage of next year's foreseeably much higher prices. If that is so, there ought to be something that can be done to relieve right now the severity of shortages in unlucky pockets throughout this nation where the weather has been extremely severe and gas in extremely short supply.

There are other things we should be doing now. I see no real reason why, for example, the current building codes throughout the country cannot be upgraded to demand better insulation in all building construction to reduce the amount of energy needed for both heat in the winter and air conditioning in the summer time.

I see no reason why the auto industry can't come up with a more efficient gasoline engine, unless it's the fact that the auto barons of Detroit are less inventive than their European and Japanese competitors, or more unwilling to spend a necessary dollar to retool. The technology is here. The need is certainly here. Perhaps they've had long enough to make a responsible decision on their own and ought to be prodded by Congress and by the Administration to put the needs of the nation at least on a par with the necessity to make a corporate buck.

There are many other things we can do to conserve the fuel we have and thus lessen our dependence on Arab oil. There are certainly better measures we can take than those to which we have been driven by this winter's harshness. Surely, we can rearrange our national priorities so that it is not necessary to close our schools, turn our home thermostats down to the near chilling point, price our elderly and less fortunate Americans out of the fuel market, curtail our business activities and otherwise add to the whopping $2 or $3 billion this winter freeze is likely to cost us before it's over.

I am confident that we will find those ways and means as a nation. I am sure that we in Nevada will find ways and means to meet our energy problems today and forestall any future crisis we may otherwise have to meet.

I am confident that the leadership represented in this Legislature of our State will meet and solve all the problems we face today, just as this body of Nevada's elected representatives has never failed to meet and solve the problems of the past.

I wish you all good luck. I want you to know that in the future, as in the past, I am available to help you in any way I can. My door, as you know, is always open. For I know, as you do, that only by working together can we provide the people of our State with effective government they need and deserve.

I thank you.

Remarks by Assemblymen Chaney and Bennett.

Assemblyman Brookman requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Chaney: I am proud to stand to ask the Assembly to adopt this resolution for I am sure that we all realize the contribution that Blacks have paid to this country and I am glad now to see that they are now being recognized by all Americans and we take this opportunity along with everybody else in the State of Nevada to salute this Black History Week.

Assemblyman Bennett: I certainly stand in support of this resolution. The sole purpose is to commemorate and to bring into focus the role of the Black slaves and descendants of slaves and the contribution they have made in the building of America. This week was started in 1921 by Dr. Woodson of Harvard University because the ways that Black people had contributed to our society had been omitted and this week seeks to list those contributions to point out that a Black man was the first to die in the American Revolution. It was a Black man who performed the first successful heart operation—since most of us seem to have heart problems these days—without the aid of drugs or X-ray.

The President of the Senate welcomed the Senator and invited him to deliver his message.

The Senator delivered his message as follows:

Lt. Governor Bob, Mr. Speaker, various officers of the Joint Session, Members of the Legislature and any number of friends, fellow Nevadans:

Let me say first, as my senior colleague said yesterday, that I, too, am delighted to be out of the East. It's been some rugged winter back there and to come back here into the spring Carson City climate is a very, very welcome change.

Looking over the rostrum I notice that there are several new legislators in this body and I can say that I relate to how you feel, because it was just two short years ago that I was brand new to the United States Senate. I can recall the day I took the oath. I took it early because Senator Bible, as you remember, retired early and I was the sole person to be taking the oath that day. I completed taking it and then appropriately was taken down on the floor and seated next to a fellow by the name of Barry Goldwater. He looked over at me and said, "Paul, how do you feel?" I said, "Barry, I scarcely believe I am here." He looked over at me and said, "Well, I felt just the same way when I was sworn in, but don't worry about it. You will get over it very quickly, because in 6 months you will wonder how the hell the rest of us got here."

Let me discuss for a second or two, and I will try not to go over the ground that Senator Howard did yesterday, in what I perceive to be on the Washington scene. I will move from there to some local issues in which I had great interest as Governor and do now, and close with what I consider to be an overview of our mutual responsibilities.

First, with respect to what I think is the No. 1 problem nationally, and that is the continuing sad state of our economy. That is due in great part to the continuing fiscal irresponsibility of the Congress. I can't believe that two short years ago there were many people in both houses who deplored the prospect of a $100 billion deficit—deplored it loudly and longly throughout this entire country, and yet this time we face the prospect of what could easily be a $150 billion deficit over a 2-year period, and hardly anyone is saying anything in opposition. I think there is great cause for concern by what we see. I think the rebate package that is proposed by the Carter Administration is just as bad as the rebate package that was proposed by the Ford Administration. It makes absolutely no economic sense to be doling out money to millions of Americans at $50 a pop with no demonstrable evidence that it is going to fuel the economy in any appreciable degree, even on the retailer level; and to make matters worse, to go out into the market and borrow $10 billion to pay the tab. Utter fiscal nonsense. As a matter of fact, I seriously question whether or not we need any stimulus at all. We have had ample evidence brought before us in the Congress during the last few weeks indicating from objective, credible sources that the economy is doing perfectly well on its own and doesn't need any stimulus whatsoever. So I am concerned about the same group of economists, the same type of thinking, surrounding our new President as have surrounded the Presidents for the last decade. I see more of the same and it disturbs me greatly. I am disturbed, too, when I see the prospect at the end of this biennium of a $800 billion national debt. Eight hundred billion dollars! For those of you working the money bills around here and working the servicing of bonded debt, we are going to, if you can believe it or not, have into our budget this year, some $50 billion to service the interest alone on our national debt. Fifty billion dollars! This is fifty times your budget, and no one seems to give a damn. I have expressed serious concern as a new member of that body for the last couple of years, and I am constantly stroked by my liberal colleagues, both in my own party and the other side of the aisle, and told that I shouldn't be all that concerned because really we owe it to ourselves. We don't owe it to ourselves at all, and all you have to do is look at the sheets. Those bonds are held by millions of Americans, by commercial institutions in this country, and what is more frightening than anything else by far too many foreign commercial institutions. So we don't owe it to ourselves and the time is going to come, I am afraid, when we are going to have a fiscal day of reckoning in this country not unlike New York's. We may have a printing press there to juice that money out during times of crisis but all we have to do is look at the Englands, the Swedens, the Italys and the Australias to see what reckless continuing fiscal policies can do to a country. I don't subscribe to the belief at all that we are immune from that type of difficulty, and I think personally, it is high time the Congress of the United States get some backbone and guts and make the tough fiscal decisions to try to balance that budget eventually. I do see some light at the end of the tunnel. Two years ago, 4 years ago, 6 years ago, it was fashionable to trot out every conceivable social program and try to take care of any conceivable social element in this country through government and through pouring money by the billions on the social fire. It hasn't worked. And even the liberals in both houses recognize that it hasn't worked. There have to be other solutions.

On our side we enacted 2 years ago a budget committee. The Congress, if you can believe it, never had a budget of its own, and it is quite apparent with the results the last several years; but they have always worked the executive budget. The Congress 2 years ago enacted for the first time a budget committee operating within the structure of both houses. I for one didn't think it was going to work at all because I couldn't conceive how that budget committee would exercise any responsibility over Finance and Appropriations, our two money committees. But it has worked. At the beginning of each of the sessions, they have adopted concurrent resolutions indicating the outer limits for Congressional spending, and they have lived very well with it. It reassures me, believe me, when at this point in my political life I have Ed Muskie acting as my fiscal conscience—the age of political miracles isn't over. When I see Ed Muskie standing on that floor talking about fiscal integrity sounding like Barry Goldwater, it makes me feel a lot better.

There is great restraint in the new programs. Even Ted Kennedy, who would love to trot out his national health insurance bill, recognizes the political mood of the times and the fiscal perils that are involved in trotting out a health insurance bill that is going to cost anywhere from $40 billion to $80 billion, and he is not moving. So there are some good signs in connection with some fiscal responsibility finally being restored to the Halls of Congress. I think the answer is that New York scared the living hell out of us. We needed that kind of message because we didn't relate to England's problems, but when New York took the dive that it did, there was a message loud and clear through the Halls of Congress that we start looking at our own ship of State, and we better start exercising fiscal restraints.

George Meany, as I have indicated in previous talks the last couple of days, continues to be the most powerful political leader, in my judgment, on labor issues in this country barring none and I say that not out of any degree of scorn, I say it out of political envy. This man gets the job done and, believe me, when he seeks to exercise and flex political muscle on either side, you feel it. You are looking at a guy who feels it directly because I, last year, was serving at the time on Labor and Public Welfare, which is the breeding ground of every liberal in the United States Senate. Fritz Mondale was there and Ted Kennedy, Jake Javits, Pete Williams—you name him, if he is a responsible, respectable liberal, he was in the Labor and Public Welfare Committee and somehow I was on the same committee. I was on the receiving end of so many 14 to 1 votes in that committee that sometimes I thought I had political warts. But anyhow, I felt being on that committee the full brunt of what political muscle effectively exercised can do to a legislative body even on that level.

As you will remember, they trotted out common situs legislation. Two years ago, I would say there was hardly anyone in this country including the members of Congress who even knew what common situs was and they ran it through the House of Representatives like a dose of salts. They hadn't dared bring it out before because it is such an obnoxious piece of legislation which basically legalizes secondary boycott. They didn't dare flush it out, and it had been kicking around for some 25 years. But they did kick it out last year. They figured post-Watergate that they finally had the horses. Through the House it went and over to Labor and Public Welfare—our committee. We held a couple of perfunctory hearings and it was reported out 14 to 1. I then had the dubious honor—someone brand new in that bunch—of managing this piece of legislation and, boy, did I learn. I learned plenty. But, in any event, we took them head on. We took organized labor head on. We enlisted the business groups in this country—N.A.M. Chamber, Right To Work—you name it. Many of the groups in this State were directly involved. It was reassuring to me to see that citizen involvement can even defeat a George Meany, because bottom line in that situation was that we finally boosted an original head count, which I ran in the Senate, of 23 to a final vote of 45 and we licked them on one cloture vote. By the time we went to the White House, there were close to a million pieces of mail over there and President Ford and his people received the message loud and clear. It resulted in a veto. Seemingly, that would end common situs but it hasn't, bcause it is coming again. This time if they are able to pass the halls of Congress, the President has indicated he is not going to push it but if it comes through his desk, he is going to sign it. Now, the thing that scares me is not only the effect that this has on the construction industry and the additional muscle it gives organized labor, to me it is a direct encroachment on Right To Work. In those debates on the floor they said, "No, it has nothing to do with Right To Work." But the fact is that common situs started in Denver and it rose out of a construction dispute which was a union job with one non-union subcontractor—a friend of the general's. The union subs all became distressed at this and they ended up picketing the whole job. The Court restrained it on the basis that as to those subcontractors who weren't parties to the disputes—secondary boycott. It eventually went to the Supreme Court and the Supreme Court ruled that as to those not directly involved in dispute, in fact, it was a secondary boycott and therefore illegal. That has been the situation ever since, and that is what concerns me about the effect it would have on a state like ours. Right up in front is going to be the new Secretary of Labor, a fellow by the name of Marshall—a very bright liberal professor from Texas. I have come to the conclusion that there is nothing more dangerous than a Texas liberal. He appeared before our committee. During the course of confirmation, I asked him head-on, "Mr. Marshall, are you going to be a hand maiden of labor just like everybody else who has been Labor Secretary for the last several administrations?" He said, "Oh no, Senator, I am going to balance the conveniences of business in this country and labor." In response to further questions, I found he supports common situs; he would repeal 14B, the Right-To-Work Law; he supports strongly collective bargaining of public employees and came near the edges of supporting strikes of public employees. Finally, to add it all up, he inferred strongly that he was in favor of unionization of the military. Aside from these mild differences, he and I think the same way.

This is the kind of person we are going to have there. He is going to be right out in the front lines. He is going to very effectively tell the story. I think everybody in Washington who is close say that these battles are dead. We can't lick them. I am not sure. On Right To Work, remember there are 20 Right-To-Work states and 40 Senators. I cannot think of any quicker way to political suicide in this country than being a Senator from a Right-To-Work state and vote to repeal Right To Work. So, theoretically, we should have 40 Senators going in. We also have 18 brand new independent Senators on both sides of the aisle—almost all of them in their 30's and 40's. From what I have seen from their voting so far, I don't think that even George Meany will dictate to them how to vote on any given issue. I think they will vote on the merits. If they do, I have a strong suspicion that we may do all right. Now they may lick us eventually; but I'll tell you, if they do—and I will guarantee it—before it is over they are going to have the scrap of their lives, and I think we have an excellent chance of going ahead and winning this very important battle. Because of our State particularly, and I preach this in the Halls of Congress, we are the best evidence of how Right To Work not only doesn't hurt union people, it actually benefits them. You have to have that freedom. If we haven't got a crystal clear case here in Nevada of how Right To Work benefits all concerned, we don't have one in the country.

Let me talk about some local issues—TRPA—another noncontroversial issue. I was Governor when this surfaced some 10 years ago, and I want to refresh your recollection—I don't have to for some of you—as I look around the hall, we all fought that battle. Remember in 1966 or 1967, we had a crisis at Tahoe. It was a serious crisis. We had development going amuck up there; we had sewage being dumped into that lake and the nutrient ratings were absolutely frightening. Shortly after I was elected Governor of this State, every once in a while I would reflect about the possibility of going up to Tahoe and seeing it instantly turned gray, as has happened to lakes around the world. That prospect frightened the life out of me, as it would many responsible people. In both Nevada and California we saw deterioration that at one point could result in being irreversibly deteriorated, and we would lose the most precious treasure we have in the State; one of the most precious treasures in the whole world. Something had to be done, because we did have uncontrolled development up there; we did have sewage being dropped in there; and we had governmental subdivisions at one another's throats proceeding in their own fashion. The more we looked it over, the more we decided that we had to take basin-wide governmental action. The more that we discussed it, the more it came down to the fact that it appeared the most feasible way to go would be regional government. Believe me, for a conservative like me, that was hard to go down. That has to be a last resort situation, and it was just as hard for Ronald Reagan over the hill. But upon meeting on it, we came to the conclusion that the only solution was to merge our political issues from that basin and attempt to create a body which would have an overview and some degree of control over the affairs of Tahoe. The Compact was the result. There were great reservations expressed during the time in the debates; many of them by Jake from Douglas County. I have often thought since then that his concern may have been prophetic because he was afraid lest this would result in the loss of sovereignty in his own county. At times we have been perilously close to that. I was concerned about that aspect of it, but frankly I was far more concerned about what would happen to the State of Nevada in this partnership. Here we are with one half million people and California sitting over there with 20 million people. So I figured we had better protect ourselves in the clinches; otherwise those California "cats" are going to shut us down. So we insisted at that time, in order to insure our sovereignty, that we have a dual majority rule. That was thoroughly discussed; it didn't come off the top of anybody's head. We insisted upon it as a matter of Nevada political survival. I would hope in your deliberations here that you not sacrifice that concept, because the fact of the matter is there are too many elements in California who would like to do away with our gaming interests at Tahoe—don't kid yourselves about it one bit. There are too many elements over there who want to do that. I have argued for years—as a Governor and as a Senator—with my California friends who point with scorn at our South side and what we are doing to Nevada. Well, I'll tell you this: in the last 15 or 20 years, we have done a lot better job with our side than they have done with theirs.

Now let me make one other observation; had that not been pursued at the time, today you would have federal control and domination of Lake Tahoe. Now, as unpleasant as it may be to deal with the TRPA and the California equivalent, at least if you have a grievance, you can walk up and look them in the eye and tell them you don't like what they are doing. The option to that would have been EPA and some bureaucrat runnning the affairs of the basin. I personally feel that the bottom line result has been a good one, as imperfect as the administration of the act has been, and I would hope that this Session recognizes these basic principles and attempts to work out some reasonable accommodations with our friends of California without at the time sacrificing in any degree our sovereignty in the situation.

Let me talk about gaming for a second. During the time I was Governor here we went through some tough waters in gaming. I can remember real well in 1966 we were on the verge of federal investigations. We had an economy in Vegas that was bottomed out. We had thousands and thousands of vacant apartments. We had hotels that were busted. We had subcontractors all over that valley whose bills were unpaid. We were in trouble—serious trouble. At that time we decided that we would embark on a concept of corporate gaming. I think that concept was valid. I think that regardless of the concerns we had then that those of us who looked down the road and felt that this was the answer to all of the insinuations around the country about hidden interests to have these public stockholders out there padding the financing that was needed would give us the kind of credibility that would get the Feds off our back. That has been fine with this one caveat—from the beginning it holds true now simply because we have thousands of stockholders around the country and around the world. I would hope that a fair interest of stockholders differ from our interests as Nevadans that ours controls—not theirs because that is vital to this. Otherwise, we are going to find very quickly that "that corporate tail is going to start wagging the Nevada dog." We didn't want that. We didn't want it then and we don't want it now. These corporations are doing well in the State.

Believe me, an awful lot of them, whatever they have in Nevada, is the pride of their fiscal navies. A lot of them. I don't have to get specific about it. Any time they start complaining about how they need additional help in Nevada, they fall on deaf ears as far as I am concerned. They have never had it so good. Let's not forget it.

I want to compliment the members of the Supreme Court in their recent ruling. I have never had to exercise more restraint during those several weeks than I did when I saw the prospect of a theory coming forth in this State which would convert Nevada gaming into a right rather than a privilege. Believe me, when that sorry day comes, if it ever does in this State, we had better cash in our chips and get done with all of it. I was very reassured that we had a unanimous decision confirming the fact that Nevada gaming is, in fact, only a privilege and should always remain that, because if we ever get into the area where due process in the legal sense in terms of a right ingrains the political thinking of this State we are all going to be in serious difficulty—more quickly than we all know.

Let me comment about the new committee assignments. I have been back there 2 years. We have had a tremendous turnover in the Senate. I have come to the conclusion there is no permanency in any public office any more. I don't have to tell any of you that; I suppose you share the same apprehensions. It used to be that if you went back to the United States Senate, and you came from a small state, it was pretty much a lifetime job. No more. The fact is, in this last class there are eighteen brand new Senators. There is a message in that.

I have been back there 2 years. I have proceeded in seniority from 100 to 72; picked up 28 points in 2 years. One of the reasons that I have been able to get these tremendous committee assignments is because of that type of turnover. I am delighted, nonetheless, to have these new committee assignments. First of all, I am glad to get out of the political purgatory of Labor and Public Welfare. Two years in that place is long enough for me.

Finance is a strong committee—for those who know the Congress, about as strong as it is here—but it is strong. Everything meaningful comes through that committee in one form or another. Of particular significance to me is that it has direct oversight of our friends in the IRS—one of my favorite subjects. I personally, since the time I have been Governor, have tried to make peace with the people in IRS, but I have come to the conclusion that it can't be done. They treat us as second class citizens. Anybody who is at or near the gaming business is suspect. I, personally, am tired of that kind of paranoia. On this committee I will have an opportunity to have direct oversight with IRS. I will be able to have direct accountability for their functions and actions within the State, and look happily at that kind of responsibility.

I went on Energy, as the Lieutenant Governor indicated; this temporary appointment broke Friday. It broke due to a conflict among my friends, the Democrats. They decided they wanted more committee assignments for some of their people so they created additional committee assignments on Energy and Commerce. This broke out the ratios. They try to hold the ratios of 38 to 100 in committee assignments. This opened up a seat on Energy. This is the successor to Interior and Natural Resources. It is going to be a strong committee—very helpful to me. Obviously, it has tremendous connotations for the State. I find that in our job we deal more with the Department of Interior and BLM than any other agencies. This will permit me, as a committee member, to have the additional stroke and go down to that agency and get some answers and questions. I think it is going to be extremely helpful.

A combination of Finance and Energy will enable me to effectively deal with some of our water problems. I don't have to tell you anything about that. Probably the number one critical problem in this State—not only for now—but looking down the road. I am convinced that unless we do some meaningful water planning—and we have certainly been admonished about it the last several years by our water experts—we are going to have a water crisis in this State which will be equivalent to the energy crisis they had in the East. Believe me, when that hits, it is absolutely frightening. I have never seen anyone so tormented as Governor Mills Godwin when he found that he didn't have enough energy to fuel the economy of his state and had to literally shut his state down to the point the retail businesses were shut down to 40 hours—many of them closed entirely—schools closed entirely. Believe me, when that type of reality hits, you say to yourself, "Where was the long-range plan to avoid this." That could happen to us, and I think that we as Nevadans better address ouselves to this with No. 1 priority. I think all of us have to work together to get rid of these legal and political impasses on our major river systems. The Carson River System has been in adjudication for 100 years, I think. We have to get that compact surfaced out of the Congress on the Truckee. It's dead, it's impassed, and I am afraid we are going to get some revocations and lose the benefit of that compact. I can remember as Governor of this State calling a special session in order to push the compact through and that was 8 or 10 years ago—some crisis. Anyhow, I think we have to address ourselves to the systems—the Carson, the Walker, the Humboldt, the compact on the Truckee and, of course, in Southern Nevada we are not so bad off because we fortunately had the foresight down there to have a project. We need some funding on the second phase but we will get to that, and I don't think that is any particular problem.

I am looking forward to serving on Judiciary. I know as a Nevadan I have some awfully big shoes to fill, because a fellow by the name of Pat McCarran served with distinction on that committee for a long while. I was very pleased to get on there because I am satisfied that some of the real problems that we have in dealing with the federal bureaucracy deal with procedure rather than substance. Pat McCarran recognized 25 or 30 years ago that the real evil in this country in terms of deprivation of liberty—individual and through the businesses—was not so much in the Congressional enactments as it was by the administrative procedures used to implement the rules and regulations. I am looking forward, very happily, to getting into that same area because it has been largely neglected. What has happened to us with the BLM and everything else has been within this area. The Organic Act is a beautiful example. Seemingly, when that was presented to us last year, it was an innocuous piece of legislation and represented a codification of all existing laws relating to Interior. No such thing, because the problem in enacting a piece of legislation is that it then becomes a vehicle for the bureaucrats downtown to do the job on you by way of rules and regulations. I think one of the deplorable things we have had in this country the last several years is Congress hasn't had guts enough to make those tough decisions themselves. They send it downtown with fancy general language and let the bureaucrats who are protected by Civil Service do a job on the American citizens. So, I for one am looking forward to getting on this agency, getting on this committee and looking completely into the procedures involved in administrative procedures. I would like to see us have front end advice and consultation on rules and regulations of the type that came down on the miners out of the Organic Act. I have a suspicion that what we have seen so far of the Organic Act is simply the tip of the iceberg because they are going to move on us now with that legislative authorization like nothing you ever saw. Yesterday it was the miners, tomorrow it will be the cattle people, the next day it will be somebody else. But now they are going to use that as a framework to completely deprive the liberty of Americans and particularly Nevadans from proper use of public lands.

I would like to see us also, after they have enacted their rules and regulations, come back to the Congress so we have a chance to look at it, because if you look at those rules and regulations coming down the register, sometimes you can't see any comparison or similarity with the original enabling legislation. This is the heart of what I consider to be a problem. I am going to fight for front and back consultation on rules and regulations so that before rules and regulations appear in the federal register we have an opportunity—all of us—you, us, everybody—to have some input before it hits the federal register so that everybody's political feet are set in concrete. As it is now, just as in the case of the mining regulations which came in during Christmas vacation—great timing—and that is the posture of the bureaucrats. Immediatly those of us in public life have to take a position—public—and everybody is head to head and we end up with no period of negotiation. I think we have an opportunity, as I said, to do a great amount of good for this very, very vital area.

In closing, let me make this observation to you as a westerner. The problems that we are encountering on every level are political problems and the reason we have been kicked around as much as we have is the fact that we don't have sufficient political muscle in the West. They pick us off one state at a time, particularly the Department of Interior and particularly the BLM, and I have observed with great interest the last 2 years those New England states on energy consumer issues —politics are set aside and they vote as a bloc. I personally think it is time that we in the West take a page out of their political handbook and do the same thing. We are in the process now, with a great deal of interest, of forming a western coalition because the fact of the matter is that the political muscle in this country is moving West. It is going to the sunbelt and before long, in 1980, with the reallocation and everything, we are going to have increasing muscle in the House of Representatives. So, it seems to me that if we could form together and get a western coalition rather than two or three straggly western Senators from given states going down to the White House, we are going to have a lot more muscle walking down there as 26 Senators and 150 Congressmen. Then we will be able to deal effectively with a lot of these problems that affect us here in the West. That to me is terribly important because my greatest concern back there, as it was when I served here, is preserving the integrity of this State. I used to say then that we were lucky to be in the very best of the 50 and that was principally a Nevada frame of reference. Since that time I have been back there and I have travelled this country from one end to the other. The more that I travel it, the more that I appreciate our good State of Nevada. We have a mutual bond and responsibility not to let this way of life and the quality of life in this State slip away from us. I for one welcome that challenge. I welcome very much the opportunity of working with you, my fellow legislators, in keeping Nevada as it basically is.

Thank you very much.

NEVADA LEGISLATURE
FIFTY-NINTH SESSION

LETTER TO THE ASSEMBLY

February 14, 1977

It is with humbleness, sincere thanks and deep appreciation that I write this memo to the Members of the 59th Session of the Nevada Legislature and to all the fine people who support this Session. You have been so thoughtful and encouraging and I have appreciated all the nice cards and beautiful flowers which you have sent to me. I assure you that I have not wasted those beautiful bouquets. The long range contacts one can make at a time like this are bound to pay off. Perhaps some of you who are in need of a rest might consider the possibility of this facility for such a purpose.

With the leaderships' permission I will be working actively as much as the powers to be will allow and will be giving my input to the body whether good or bad for consideration. I can assure you I will still try to do my share and bear my weight. I may not be at the Session for some time, but I will be living in Carson and in the closing days I will be attending the Session.

Thanks again for your confidence and support and God Speed for a productive and short Session. I will treasure your cards, thoughts, and gifts all my life.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 19.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Brookman, Murphy, Vergiels, Bennett, Dreyer, Robinson, Jacobsen, Westall, Dini, Horn, Weise, Kissam, Price, Craddock and Mello.

Assemblyman Brookman requested that her remarks be entered in the Journal:

If you will notice on the map, we have 37 states that have annual sessions. The other states of the 13 that do not have them have biennial sessions but they split their days and they come in every year. You ask me why Texas doesn't have an annual session? Their statutes read that they go into session for 145 days and that is why they don't have annual sessions. I mean that's it—who wants to stay there 145 days. If you will notice on the long sheet of paper, our population increased and our budget increased. In 1961 we had a population of just 285,000 and a little more. The budget was $32 million. For 1977–1978 the estimated population is 628,487. The General Fund appropriation for 1977–1978 is over $200 million. If you put both our budgets together for the 2 years, it is $1 billion. Our population projection by 1980 will be almost 728,500. Our projected population by 1990 will be almost one million in the State of Nevada. I don't feel that we can really realistically look at a budget of $1.5 billion by 1990 without having annual sessions. We look to all the states surrounding us in the West. They are on annual sessions. The five states with populations like ours also have annual sessions. The next scope up from 700,000 to 800,000 also have annual sessions. I feel the time has come to start getting this on the ballot and I urge you to vote for this. I would like to say that it would help everybody in the State of Nevada to have a very good working year. When you go in, if you are on the annual sessions, you will be looking at the one-year budget realistically and I think the budget would be much more fair.

STATES WITH ONE MILLION OR LESS POPULATION (1970)

State	Population (in millions)	Session
New Mexico	1.0	Annual
Maine	1.0	Annual
Rhode Island	1.0	Annual
Hawaii	.8	Annual
New Hampshire	.7	Biennial
Idaho	.7	Annual
Montana	.7	Biennial
South Dakota	.7	Annual
North Dakota	.6	Biennial
Delaware	.5	Annual
Nevada	.5	Biennial
Vermont	.4	Biennial
Wyoming	.3	Annual
Alaska	.3	Annual

FIGURES PERTINENT TO THE PROPOSAL FOR ANNUAL SESSIONS

The following states still have biennial sessions:

State	Population
Arkansas[1]	1,923,000
Kentucky	3,219,000
Minnesota[2]	3,805,000
Montana	694,000
New Hampshire	738,000
North Carolina[3]	5,082,000
North Dakota	618,000
Oregon[3]	2,091,000
Tennessee[4]	3,924,000
Texas	11,197,000
Vermont[3]	445,000
Washington[5]	3,409,000

[1]Two-thirds vote allows legislature to extend the 60 days and they do this to allow for meeting in the second year.
[2]The 120 legislative days allowed is divided to meet in both years.
[3]There is no limit on days and legislature adjourns to meet again the second year before adjourning sine die.
[4]The 90 legislative days allowed is divided to meet in both years.
[5]The governor regularly calls a special session in the off year to handle budget matters.

In addition to Nevada then, there are 12 states still using biennial sessions. Of those, only five continue to have true biennial sessions. Of these five, only two have populations over 1 million. The rest, one way or another, hold annual sessions in practice.

Six states—Colorado, Connecticut, Maine, New Mexico, Utah and Wyoming limit the off-year session to budget matters.

COMPARISONS BETWEEN 1960–61 (LAST AND ONLY ANNUAL SESSION) AND 1977

	Population	General Fund Budget	Total Budget
1960–61	285,278	$32,433,902	$74,009,624
1977–78	628,487 (1976 estimate)	218,792,964 (1977–78 proposed)	446,419,028 (1977–78 proposed)

Remarks by Assemblymen Brookman and Craddock.

Assemblyman Price requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Brookman: Mr. Speaker, no words could ever adequately honor the memory of Bob Baskin. The resolution I offer on behalf of myself and so many of my colleagues who knew and respected Bob is inadequate in describing the depth of his character, his wisdom, his sincerity and his sense of devotion to his fellow man. Mr. Speaker, this resolution merely touches lightly on the person who was Bob Baskin. He was a good and decent man, and we will miss him sorely.

Assemblyman Craddock: I had the occasion to know Mr. Baskin personally. He was an avid sports fan and I was with him on hunting trips. I find the memorialization of this individual certainly worthwhile.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Robinson requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal:

I wish to speak for a few moments on the philosophy of representative government and the idea of one person, one vote, as a vehicle for our citizens to express their collective will. I feel very strongly that I am elected by the voters of my district to represent them, not myself, and that I am here to vote on issues in a way that the majority of them would vote if they were here themselves. To that end I have attempted, as I am sure you all have done, to determine how the voters feel about a number of issues which would establish the true thinking of the people of my Assembly district. Not all districts are the same, as we are certainly aware, so we find that each has a different character and personality, and the people of some districts obviously feel differently about some issues than the people of other districts.

An example of this can be found in my own experience as a two-term assemblyman in Clark County District No. 4. On the Equal Rights Amendment issue the voters there let me know by a 3-to-2 margin that they were in favor of it. This was determined by a questionnaire mailed by first class letter to each and every registered voter in that district. There was a substantial response. Since it was in favor of the E.R.A. it was received by the proponents as a very responsible method of determining public opinion and I was commended for voting yea for the E.R.A. on the basis of the results of that questionnaire.

Well, things haven't changed in District 4. Bill Kissam, who now represents the voters there once again found they still favored the E.R.A. by a margin of 51 percent for to 48 percent against, and so he voted the other day for the E.R.A.

Over in District 8 where my new home is located, I was cautiond by my predecessor that the E.R.A. did not have the majority behind it. Once again I sent out the first class mail questionnaire with the identical question No. 1 regarding the E.R.A. but the results in District 8 were 2 to 1 against E.R.A. Clearly, the majority of the voters in District 8 rejected it, and so I have voted no upon it as did Keith Ashworth 2 years ago. Some districts with the same assemblymen voted differently than 2 years ago as public opinion changed, as it frequently does, and we find these assemblymen being castigated and villified. I can't understand this unreasonable attitude when we are doing exactly what the majority of our constituents are wanting us to do. And now, further criticism is coming our way for asking for a vote by all the citizens in 1978 to give their representatives a guide of how they wish the 1979 Legislature to vote on the E.R.A. at that time, (if it is still an issue).

Periodically these emotional issues come before us and our constituents feel impelled to respond in many ways when they oppose our action, or with praise when their opinion prevails. However, the caustic remarks seem to have the more lasting impression on us since we all wish we could please everybody at all times.

To our new members I might note that you can usually depend on hearing from the losing side of an issue while the winners often go home in silent victory.

Therefore, we must be able to withstand intimidation, criticism, and sometimes persecution, but we should never wilt or become discouraged and we must realize that what can't be cured must be endured.

This piece of legislation further expands the definition of real property for the Nevada Housing Finance Law. I might clarify several things: First, we are actually able to have a person from the State Department come in and give us a definition of "How high is up" which is a first. Secondly, it does provide a better definition for them when they start doing some of the building and financing that they intend to do in some of the rural areas.

I might add as a note that I would like the record to reflect so that this is an internal definition change and would in no way be considered a conflict by myself, Mr. May or Mrs. Westall who are all active in real estate and serve on that committee. We are not in conflict. This is an internal definition and would not affect the industry per se.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Moody requested that Assemblyman Mello's remarks be entered in the Journal:

While we are speaking about Mr. Howard, I would like to say a few words. Mr. Howard and I have worked together for many years on Ways and Means. He is a very, very competent individual and one that I miss and I know the people of this State miss him too. I am in contact with him on an almost day-to-day basis. He still has a lot of input on the committee. We have some proposals that hopefully we will get on a little later that he will be sponsoring. So, he is still here really.

Assemblyman Gomes requested that her remarks be entered in the Journal:

The League of Women Voters is an organization which was an outgrowth of the women's suffrage movement. Once the suffragettes had secured the vote for women, at their national convention they voted to become the League of Women Voters on the premise that now that they had the vote, they should study the issues and know how to use the vote they had acquired. While they are completely nonpartisan and support no candidates or political parties, they do encourage all members to become actively involved in support of the candidate or party of their personal choice. The League is always active in citizen education on governmental issues, believing that study without action is futile but that action without study is fatal. One of its chief functions is Voter Service as evidenced by its recent sponsorship of the Presidential Debates, its publication on the ballot issues in the general election of 1977, and other projects to give candidates the opportunity to meet and explain to the public their views. Believing in the full equality of all citizens, the League is open to all citizens and in line with their policy and support of nondiscrimination based on gender, it has opened its membership to men.

The Committee on Escort in company with The Honorable James Santini, United States Representative for Nevada, appeared before the bar of the Assembly.

Mr. Speaker welcomed the Representative and invited him to deliver his message.

The Representative delivered his message as follows:

I want to thank "you all"—you see how quickly I am picking up the new Washington jargon—I want to thank you all for letting me come and share with you some highlights on the coming legislative session and some of the profound and none too profound assessments of the coming legislative directions. I want to thank you for letting me disrupt your chaotic morning with these messages. I want to thank you, too, for the way in which you aggressively pursued the legislative process in this Session. You have been marvelous. You have been working so fast and so hard in getting so many bills out, that you have created a complete distraction of all the media from any of us in Washington, D.C. You have given us a total breather back there. I am most appreciative.

I will share with you at the outset one specific legislative urging. This last election I was the direct beneficiary of one of the most enlightened and progressive legislative products of your last Session. Now, I am sure that as each one of you who has stood the test of ballot survival will appreciate, there is nothing more rewarding than seeing one's name pitted on an election ballot against "None of the Above." We have all shared this gambit of election highs and election lows. But until you have experienced the glorious sense of triumph over "None of the Above," there will always be a void in your elective lives. Realizing that you all probably feel a sense of having been cheated, I know that this legislative session will amend that legislative proposal so that when the '78 election rolls around, we will all stand together locked arm in arm against the most formidable of anonymous adversaries—"None of the Above." I am going to ask whenever you get a chance if you will run on back to Washington, D.C. and stand side by side with me in the trenches of committee warfare when we get back there. I am going to run through the highlights of the present committee responsibilities as I perceive them in terms of future responsibility. Then I would make or hazard a few legislative projections and wind up with the most difficult of all projections—the role of President Carter in the future of the Nation. That is a sizeable load, but the easy one is the committee responsibilities.

Starting out this Session, we will take on the additional committee responsibility of Judiciary. A multitude of committee assignments is nothing new to many of you. The House of Representatives has a rule that because there are 435, no member can serve on more than one major committee. They waived that rule on the Judiciary Committee this Session of Congress and this Session alone. I decided to jump into that particular committee simply because, as a delegation of one, the more friends I can make, the better, and the farther I can spread my chubby little Italian body around, the larger the opportunity is that I can make on a one to one basis a case on behalf of our Nevada needs and interests. I think we have made some marked progress in Judiciary already. The original Rodino bill made provision for the creation of several federal judgeships in the nation. It did not include a federal judge from Nevada. Our federal court system is buried here North and South. Our difficulty was that on a population based on a statistical basis we showed two federal judges. What we didn't show was almost 500 miles between those two judges and the logistical difficulties we have in coordinating court activities North and South. Now, as a result of being able to sit down and talk on a one to one basis, which you appreciate and do each and every day, and explain our dilemmas to the chairman, the chairman has responded by filing a new bill this last week that does include a new federal district judge for the State of Nevada. As disabling as the prospect is of trying to get around in seven and eight subcommittees every single morning between the hours of 10 and 12, I won't be able to do it. I will have to highlight and hit as many as I can when I can and make a determination of Nevada interest in participating on those committees. I do think that when such vital Nevada issues come, it is extremely beneficial if you have a chance of being there in the front row instead of the back row pleading the case.

Commerce Committee will continue to surge forward. Commerce, as you may appreciate and as there is some overlap with your own jurisdictional activities, encompasses everything from health to consumer affairs to energy to transportation and tourism. Serving on the Transportation subcommittee gives me at least a first hand look at any legislative propositions that are going to get into the tourism area such as the inventive legislative suggestion by one of my distinguished colleagues from California that we permit gambling 3 miles off the shore of San Diego. That never somehow or other saw the light of day, but I am sure similarly enlightened propositions will find their way into that subcommittee and we will have our battles again on that kind of issue.

Interior Committee—obviously a committee of major concern and import to the State of Nevada since 67 percent of our land is under direct jurisdiction and responsiblity of the Secretary of Interior and of the 86 percent federal lands, that is a major chunk. Interesting, I suppose, are the words "developments in the interior front." First of all, Interior is now the largest committee in the House of Representatives. We have 46 members on the Interior Committee. We are like a little caucus back there of Democrat and Republican members. Secondly, we have a new chairman of the Interior Committee—Representative Udall of Arizona. I believe Representative Udall is perhaps one of the keenest legislative minds on the House front today. I also recognize that Representative Udall and I are going to find perhaps points of difference in terms of some of the legislative packages that he will be sharing with us during this next session. But he is moving like a house afire. It is the fastest moving committee in the House of Representatives already. We had hearings even before we were formed as committees on issues to come before that committee. We have twelve new Democratic members on the House Interior Committee. Of the twelve, eleven do not have one acre of Department of Interior land in either their Congressional district or their state. Eastern and midwestern representatives have joined us on the Interior Committee. That was not, in my judgment, an idle happenstance. We are going to have our hands and our minds full in trying to communicate the needs and concerns in a public land state with the hard working and able representatives from other districts who haven't the foggiest conception about what the realities of such a large federal land holding within a state means in terms of impact on that state and its people. I am going to ask you to join with me in some of those battles of persuasion.

I am continuing to serve on the Select Committee on the Aging because again, I feel that aging problems often are addressed in the context of what it means to live as a senior citizen, as an aged person, in this country in a urban center. Rarely does the dialogue transform itself into "what does it mean to be a senior citizen in a low density population area or a rural area." Medical help, transportation, the acute needs of the elderly, are every bit as difficult if not more so because of the isolated circumstance of population. We will keep plugging on that one too.

I know realistically that most of our legislative forays are going to be uphill battles. That is the reality of one of 435. That is the reality of not having a delegation of 30 or 40 to automatically stand up and be counted everytime an issue impacts on your district. Encouraging precedents, encouraging experiences, in the 94th Congress suggest that we will be in there pitching doing our best and doing your best in some instances to win some of those battles.

Payments in lieu of taxes to compensation to the local governments for the presence of the large federal land holding within that local government had been a concept floating around for 30 years.

The Federal Land Law Review Commission said in 1970 this should be done in terms of basic equity and it still floated, and I offered that thing in as an amendment to the BLM Organic Act and was told that whatever limited mentality I had preserved, I had just dissipated with that wild foray. Yet, payment in lieu became a legislative reality in the sense of $5.5 million to the State of Nevada. More important in my judgment was the possibility to approach the form of explaining and communicating the needs of a large public land state such as Nevada. Once that pursuasion battle was waged and won, I am persuaded we have got a chance of doing it again. I know that the problem with the smelter in Ely will arise again. The Clean Air Act legislation is going to hit again. It is going to become imperative to try and communicate the differences between having a standing emission such as the nonferrous smelter at McGill, White Pine County, Nevada, and having that standing emission in downtown Pittsburgh and that is a tough battle because they want to write rules and regulations in absolutes that encompass all sins and evils that they are endeavoring to reach and invariably they can create as many sins and evils as they are attempting to rectify. That battle will be with us again. The fun battles will be there again too. I am going back after limousines. Last Session we got it on an amendment to the Limited Energy Bill that came out of the House of Representatives, knocking out almost all of the authorizations for 800 limousines and chauffeurs. In arresting little political manueverings they removed my amendment when the House and Senate conference committee got together to work out the differences between the two bills. We are going to try and work that difference right back in.

The sugar labeling bill—I believe that people buying products containing sugar believe that they have a right to know if that product contains more than 10 percent sugar and how much sugar is in that product. It doesn't sound like too radical a legislative proposition, I guess, but we will be back on those.

I am encouraged because I have created a unique partnership in terms of the history of the House of Representatives. I am not really a member of the California delegation. The California and Nevada delegations have joined together. It means immediately that once a week when they caucus in their Wednesday morning breakfast that I am going to have somebody to eat with. It means, I hope more directly and particularly, I am going to have the chance to share on a personal basis over a donut rather than the impersonal basis running up the capitol steps, some of our Nevada problems. We have got common problems. God knows we do. Drought probably is the most manifest of those problems. That is not going to be with us today or tomorrow. It is probably the problem of our generation that we have got to contend with. California, as you appreciate, has been acutely impacted with this same problem. They have had to deal and contend with it already. They have emergency actions in place. One district already has relief for their agriculture and livestock industries going. We are already bringing extra cups of water for the Marin County representative to our meetings each week. We are working together on these kinds of problems. Drought is a problem for which, I think, if any solution is going to present itself, at least in this century, it has got to come out of the Columbia River Basin. For 10 years there has been a moratorium on even studying the transfer of water—the moving of water out of the Columbia River Basin into the Great Basin —the logical holding areas of Pyramid Lake and Walker Lake—and into California. If California is ever going to get any relief, we could take that water out of the spillway, out of the area in which the Columbia River spills into the Pacific Ocean and is lost in terms of any constructive use of domestic populations. Take that water and bring it down. Senator Jackson was not even inclined to allow the issue to be studied. The 10-year moratorium comes off next year. There is another bill pending to extend it for another 10-year moratorium—not to say you got to move the water down; but to say that you cannot even study whether or not the water should be moved down. We will be fighting that one. Now, I think for the first time, the California delegation is going to get actively involved in that particular issue.

The legislative prospects for the future. In some instances I am sure your appraisal or projection would be far better than mine but with some, I hope, that I am on target. I know one thing and I think this can be fairly said—confrontation government is going to be eliminated. No more national legislative practices of one-upmanship or legislative chicken. No more posturing, no more polarizing between the executive and the legislative branches each pointing fingers and trying to figure out whose program is going to get done while nobody's program gets done. I am very optimistic and I believe that my optimism is justified in terms of the immediate legislative activity that is taking place in the House of Representatives and in the United States Senate. History will assess the objectivity of my optimism but I believe it is there and I believe you can see it in several vital areas. First of all, energy; second, government reorganization; third, the ethics revision; and fourth, the immediate economic stimulation. In each one of these areas there are no—as you appreciate far better than most— instantaneous panaceas that are going to rectify the problems; but I darn well know that if we don't jump in there with an initial legislative product now, if we don't take the decisive first step, nothing can get done at any time.

Energy is the classic example. We have a hopeful record of remission—legislatively and executively—in that realm on the national scene. That dismal record is, I believe, about to be rectified. The concept for the Department of Energy is not somebody's wild-eyed dream that will translate out of a study commission coming down the road 3 years from now. By mid-March Secretary Schlesinger will have in place his Department of Energy. It will be an established reality. Now it may be modified or changed but it is going to be there and it is going to be there mid-March. An energy policy—67 different pieces of legislation came forth from the 94th Congress dealing directly or indirectly with energy without one solid energy policy. President Carter will have a comprehensive energy policy to the House of Representatives and the United States Senate. Not 3 years from now—by April 20 a comprehensive energy policy will be presented to the legislative bodies for consideration and evaluation and I believe implementation. Let me share with you one of my private asides and frustrations in terms of national policies. We will get a national energy policy. I personally believe very strongly and I think the record substantiates it, we critically need a national mineral policy on all of the non-energy minerals—the magnesiums, aluminums, chromes, nickel, tin. We are in a state of national oblivion—abyssmal national oblivion. We don't know in terms of our domestic resources where we are today, where we want to be tomorrow, what we want to stockpile, what we want to import, where we want to go. We talk about Rhodesian chrome. We say, "alright, let's cut out Rhodesian chrome pending a piece of legislation." That is marvelous except the consequence is that we have to go from Rhodesia and buy it from Russia. We were doing that 6 years ago. When we bought it from Russia the price was increased 2½ times in the space of 2 years in terms of chrome. We are getting ourselves and the nation in several critical minerals. Cobalt—we are dependent for importation of 100 percent of our cobalt. What it means is that the day to day lives of every American is impacted in terms of an annual dependency of 40,000 pounds of minerals. We don't conceive of minerals in that sense. We are walking down that same blind road in my assessment that we found ourselves on in '73 with the OPEC Nations in dealing with petroleum products and we are traipsing right down that blind trail when it comes to the mineral issue. We are doing this in the same sort of blind and blithe expectation that the mineral fairy is going to send from fairydom and drop the large blump of mineral resources under our pillows as we lie sleeping at the switch and no one has an alternative plan. I am hoping, and I have already sent to the President a letter in which I have been joined by 43 other members of the House of Representatives asking for three things and I think they are fair and reasoned requests. First of all, we need a national minerals policy. Secondly, I believe we need a national minerals advisor. The only national area of economic or social dependence that has absolutely no voice at the upper echelons of government. Unless a U.S. Geological survey has managed to filter something up to the Bureau of Mines through the labyrinth of bureaucratic process in the Department of Interior, no word was ever said, either pro or con with regard to the mineral resource issue. Thirdly, I would hope that we would be able to sit down and discuss this issue on a person to person first hand basis with the President. We have made these three requests, that letter is pending. I hope it is going to be productive.

Government reorganization—I hope they never get the government reorganized because they are going to eliminate some of the principal political issues for the balance of the 20th century. We are moving, and in no area is the concern about no automatic panaceas more clearly demonstrated. But Carter already has his legislative proposal for government reorganization to the Senate and to the House. Not government reorganization in the 21st century—government reorganization in place and plan now.

Carter, secondly, has done another interesting thing. He has instituted a "Visit to the Bureaucrat Day." Imagine the shock and dismay of those GS 47's who have inhabited those environs of decision making for so many years and have seen Democrats and Republicans come and go and just drift in and out and certain impervious sense because it doesn't make any difference. He dropped by HUD and he has done the same with many other departments. I think the other day he dropped by Transportation and he went in and came up with a novel concept, I thought. He said you and I are working together and we are working for the American people, not on them. Now, I think there was probably some psychological adjustment in some parties' minds in front. I do know that he is probably going to have considerable difficulty when he carries his visit of bureaucrat program one step further and tries to get over the sand bags and machine guns that are lodged in front of the Internal Revenue Service. Because if he can get through that message to them that they are working for us, he will have accomplished more than any President in the history of the United States.

He has done another thing now—done in place. No longer will we have to deal on a day to day basis with the nameless, faceless bureaucrat. He has directed, and you talk about imagination, that the author of the rules and regulations put his name on the rule and regulation. Now, this too, can have considerable unsettlement within the structure—the system. Now they will only be faceless. We have got the name and we, within the legislative process, can have the opportunity at least to pursue them on an individual basis and find out if we feel it is inconsistant with legislative intent. "What the Devil did you, Mary or Harry, think you were doing in writing this regulation this way?" We will get to call up the authors and have them stand up and get the acclaim they deserve.

He said another interesting thing. This may set the legal profession back 20 years but it may have some merit. President Carter has instructed that rules and regulations be written clearly in an understandable language. Now I want to say for my unemployed brethren in the bar, I intend to resist this to the final blow. But I think we are dead on this one and I think we are understandably dead. Because far too long the gobbledegook that has eminated could have taken four or five Supreme Court Justices and four law professors to construe and we would have had nine different opinions about what that rule and regulation was supposed to say.

Ethics. We are going to have next week in the House of Representatives probably the most encompassing legislative ethics reform bill of any legislative body in the United States. Full financial disclosure, limitations on outside income to 15 percent of the salary, limitation on honorarium incomes and again, when these topics have floated and jumped around and been discussed with a fair degree of vigor certainly on the national scene for many years. It is going to happen and going to happen now. There will, of course, be a little bit of blood spilled in the aisles before it comes out the other end of the legislative chute, but we are going to have it and it will be a reality within this year.

The immediate economic impetus or stimulus package—I think that fairly and logically and reasonably individual points of difference can be expressed with regard to the contents of that immediate stimulus package, but I think a very important message should be communicated through all of that and that is the fact that that package is here, it is now, it is done. It is not 6 months of debate and 6 months of legislative revamping and upping and downing and changing and turning. We are in a new environment. We are in a climate of action now in the legislative body and I hope constructive, productive and rational legislation now. In this sphere the person that looms the largest in terms of importance of the direction of all of this obviously is that incredible President of the United States, Jimmy Carter. Incredible in the sense that any man with the first name Jimmy could descend to the Presidency of the United States. I firmly believe he has the potential to be the most cohesive and the most impressive of the presidents of the 20th century. The potential is there. Reality remains to be assessed and judged. I think you can say the potential is there in just looking at his political ascendency and background. He leaped from literally goobers to greatness, or the potential for greatness. I can remember, one member of this body and I were at the Kansas City mini-Democratic Convention 2 years ago. Walking in, they had a presidential suite invitation—come on in and meet the presidential candidates. This was my first encounter with that incredible man, Jimmy Carter. We walked in and there I immediately observed he had great teeth and had nice hair, except he could have used a little more white. I walked out of that room and in another one of my profound exercises of personality assessment I said, "Can you imagine the colossal gall of that man offering himself for candidacy for the Presidency of the United States and the Senator agreed with me. And lo and behold, he is probably the most remarkable political figure in this 20th century. How did he get there? He got there with one basic premise that appealed immediately and that was the people's dissatisfaction with the status quo of the political process. They were upset, they were dissatisfied. He recognized, he realized, and now he is going to move from Plains to the Potomac. The impossible dream became a reality because of this man's incredible industry and this man's incredible sensitivity. Watch another ingredient in Carter the President. All of us who are in the political morass from day to day can have an appreciation. He has a considerable flair or ability. He has the intuition to realize that the public perception of the White House should not simply be on the White House steps. He reaches down—particularly when he is fooling around with the temperature gauge and freezes us out with 55° to 65° recommendations, with sweaters, with jeans, with walks down Pennsylvania Avenue hand in hand, or visitations to bureaucracy with uninhibited commitment to a religious belief and a pride in that religious belief. He is coming from an uncharacteristic political direction. If I have any feel or sensitivity or any understanding of this extraordinary man at all. He is coming from a prospective that perhaps has never inhabited the White House in exactly those same dimensions. He even issued a memo which Ann put on the mirror in the bathroom instructing all of his staff not to become so wrapped up in their jobs that they forget about their families. I said, "Yes, dear."

He has got something. He has got some kind of extraordinary ability and I say this because I know whatever the ultimate Carter road is, and we may find ourselves here in Nevada and I may find myself as a legislative representative, not walking down that same road. I am not going to be a blind adherent to any administration under any and all circumstances and that taken as a given-means it has already occurred, but there are going to be points of difference. Nevada's needs will never in all instances comport with the President's or the Administration's definition of a national need or his own interest or concern. But while I know that there will be emphatic points of difference, I think it is important that we do everything we can together collectively to give our input in terms of the perspective of the small population state with a large federal land mass into the dimensions of that problem.

I am never going to retreat to the legislative wall if it takes 25 amendments to the BLM Organic Act I will offer those in the constructive expectation that I can produce a better legislative product and I can produce a more balanced result. We can curse the darkness in Washington, D.C. day in and day out and, Lord knows, there is enough of it that has been exhibited in the past, but I believe this earnestly. We have had problems with administrative bureaucracies in the past—pick your favorite—OSHA, BLM or IRS. We have had those problems with each one of these agencies in the past and we darn well are going to have the same problems in the future. That is not going to change the reality of governmental process at all. But I believe that we must together work in the direction of trying to push the process forward, not simply condemn it or slim it down with each and every misdeed. That's the much harder row to hoe to be sure.

I have no delusions about it and I know it is that uphill battle process that we have got to look at, but I hope that you feel that you can join me and Senator Cannon and Senator Laxalt to work together to help to push, to advise, to guide and direct our President and his administrators in those bureaucratic agencies to better understand, to feel and respond to our needs and problems in Nevada. I hope you can join me in that direct communication effort. Like you, we are just ordinary legislators and I am one of 435, you are one of 20 or 40, whatever the individual instance is but together we can have a collective force and input and I think we have got to stand and make it in that federal arena. Together I hope we can join not just our minds but our hearts in extending a helping hand to the President and to his administrators so that we can guide this nation emphatically forward. Lord knows, it needs that push and we have got to do it together. You can't work out your legislative ambitions or thrusts or purposes alone working single handedly in an isolated context. I can't do it back there and I think recent history has demonstrated that with all of the power and prestige of the White House that the President cannot do it alone either.

Now, I think with President Carter's proven capacity to feel and understand the problems from the street level as well as the White House level that if we are willing to take the affirmative charge and to take the positive step forward that we can have certainly an exciting challenge and certainly an opportunity to help mold and create and positively direct the immediate future of the Carter Administration in this nation.

I believe we can. I hope all of you share a part of that belief with me. I want to thank you for all of the past help that you have given me and I want to thank you in advance for all of the future dependency that I am going to exact of you. Thank you for sharing the shots with me this morning. Phones there—I'll be there. I will do whatever I can to bring this collective message together because I believe we can do it and I hope that you do too.

Thank you very much.

Assembly Bill No. 301.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Horn, Gomes, Ross, Price and Coulter.

Assemblyman Mann requested that Assemblyman Horn's remarks be entered in the Journal:

I am pleased to inform this honorable body that the Elections Committee heard testimony on A.B. 301 and voted it out of committee "Do pass, as amended" by a vote of 6 to 1.

We heard considerable testimony regarding this issue but one comment continued to ring clear throughout the hearing—Assemblyman Don Mello said, "What is wrong with the people expressing their point of view at the polls?" I, too, believe that we should let the people speak and advise us of their wishes concerning the Equal Rights Amendment.

I believe the people's wishes have been represented during the past two sessions and I think A.B. 301 will give the people of the State of Nevada an opportunity to speak their minds in the voting booth and advise the 1979 Legislature of their will.

We have been elected to represent our constituents. What clearer format can be used than to allow the voters of this great State to speak than at the polls? This will allow them to express their point of view to their elected representatives and to do it in the privacy of the voting booth.

Those who believe in representative government have to believe also in the rights of the people, when called upon, to express their point of view.

A great president once said that, "civility is not a sign of weakness and sincerity is always subject to proof." I believe this is not only the intent, but the spirit of A.B. 301.

I feel the purpose of A.B. 301 is clear; the intent of A.B. 301 is clear; the spirit of A.B. 301 is clear. This is a matter of great import—it should not be taken lightly.

Again, Kennedy said, "I do not shrink from my responsibility—I welcome it." None of us are shrinking from our responsibilities by seeking the views of those who elected us. We are welcoming their input so that we can better determine the course that lies ahead—so that we can navigate a course for the betterment of the citizens of the State of Nevada.

Let me conclude with the words of Robert Frost, "Some . . . see things the way they are and ask why?—I dream dreams that never were and say why not." Again, I ask why not A.B. 301; why not let the people speak; why not allow the people to voice their opinion at the polls?

I encourage your support of A.B. 301.

Assemblyman Brookman requested that Assemblyman Price's remarks be entered in the Journal:

I am rising to speak in favor of A.B. 301 with some doubts because of possible intentions of colleagues; but I am pleased to see that at least at this point in time some of my fellow colleagues have agreed that there are some merits to allowing the people to vote on certain issues because I can recall some of them that at their own time and expense 2 years ago came to Carson City to speak against a vote of the people on certain issues like consolidation. At any rate, someday, hopefully, we will attain equal rights and opportunities for everyone in these United States by some method or other. One thing that was crystal clear during the last 4 years of testimony, and I guess if there was testimony in the session prior to that, is that everyone claims to be in favor of equal rights. I never heard anyone get up and say "We don't want equal rights for women." Everyone claimed to be in favor of equal opportunity. Apparently, at face value, the difference is how do we get there—do we follow the normal procedure that was set forth of the Legislature's ratifying the proposed amendment or do we put it to a vote of the people or at the same time, do we carry along a state equal rights amendment?

I am going to be voting in favor of this today and I am going to be urging all of my colleagues to vote in favor of it. I am going to urge you also to stand on your principles and do everything that we can to see that A.J.R. 27 passes through these halls so we can guarantee in our State and affirm our real belief in equal rights for everyone.

Roll call on Assembly Bill No. 301:

Assembly Bill No. 301 having received a constitutional majority, Mr. Speaker declared it passed, as amended.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Robinson requested that Assemblyman Brookman's remarks be entered in the Journal:

I don't know if I did right or wrong in voting for A.B. 301 but I think that maybe it will help all of us. On the other hand, I would certainly urge the members of the Judiciary Committee and the members of this House who have always said that they want a state equal rights amendment and that they would abide by that to try to get A.J.R. 27 out of committee. I think that is the only fair thing we can do to show that we have really searched in our hearts and said "no federal intervention but you would certainly go for a state equal rights amendment." You have it. You have the catalyst and I would approve that you urge every other legislator in this House to get the Judiciary Committee to have a hearing—or you don't even have to have a hearing—just get that resolution out.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Assembly Bill No. 121.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Harmon, Wagner, Weise, Mann, Price, Demers and Kosinski.

Assemblyman Demers requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Harmon: A.B. 121, as amended, was reported out of the Commerce Committee with a vote of 6 to 1 after 8 hours of extensive and in-depth hearings. Experts on both sides of this issue gave testimony. The committee concluded that a great number of Nevadans are using and wish to use Laetrile as a cancer treatment. At the present time, Nevadans must go to Mexico to purchase Laetrile and literally smuggle it across the border back to their homes while the FDA, the NCI and ACS all claim Laetrile to be worthless. The fact is, Laetrile is being used in 26 countries as a cancer treatment. A report issued by Dr. Myron Issahary and Dr. David Rubin of the famous Tel Hashomer Hospital in Jerusalem in October of 1976 concludes: 1. Laetrile is not quackery, 2. It is non-toxic, 3. Laetrile has a definite palliative effect and 4. that clinical evidence suggests it inhibits tumors.

The United States has the highest incidence of cancer in the world. More people per capita die of cancer here in the United States than in any other nation in the world in spite of our so-called war on cancer which has cost the taxpayers in excess of $1 billion per year. I think that is one of the strongest reasons for passing A.B. 121. Our war on cancer is not succeeding and Laetrile does show promise of aiding in slowing the incidence of cancer.

The committee saw fit to amend into A.B. 121 the drug Gerovital H3. This Romanian drug has been clinically proven to be safe and is currently used in 42 countries of the world. The drug is an anti-aging drug. In addition, it is an anti-depressant and an anti-arthritic drug.

Other uses from topical applications include aiding certain skin problems, hair loss and color changes. The fact that Nevada would consider legalizing both these drugs is indicative of the basic failure of federal regulatory agencies. America is suffering from a drug lag because of the enormous amounts of money required and over a decade of research and clinical testing required to obtain federal approval for marketing. We are being deprived of the use of not only these drugs but many others because of the bureaucratic red tape. Lastly, the issue of freedom of choice is a moral at stake here. As Americans we should have free access to drugs which are designed to aid us in times of personal medical stress and doctors should be allowed to prescribe drugs to patients which they believe would aid them in recovering from whatever ills have befallen them.

We urge the Assembly to assist us in bringing these wonderful drugs onto the open market for all Nevadans to use. I might also point out that Laetrile is legal in Alaska, the Maryland State Senate passed it last week 38 to 3 and the Oklahoma Assembly passed it 71 to 23.

We urge your support.

Assemblyman Wagner: I rise to express some concern about A.B. 121. However, I would comment I think the bill is much more satisfactory with the amendments adopted on Monday. I understand the basic support rises either from a sense of freedom of choice or suspicion of the FDA.

I appreciate the argument of freedom of choice particularly here in Nevada. I appreciate the concern over a federal agency, particularly in Nevada. But I find it hard to accept the statement mailed to me and I quote "Bureaucrats and key members of the medical establishment are responsible (for the ban on Laetrile) and they are trying to keep them in line just as the establishment as a whole is trying to keep the American people in line." Who is the establishment? I'm certainly not a part of the establishment, far from it.

I do have some concern about placing two totally unrelated substances into the same bill—maybe that is my greatest concern. If the reason is freedom of choice, then maybe we should be addressing the question of no drug control at all and allowing the American people or Nevadans a choice of any and all drugs and substances rather than singling out two.

I do have some concern why the effort to legalize especially Gerovital was not pursued in California where the previous factory was established, although I do realize because of the Statutes, it would be more difficult. It would seem that a state, if not California, with a larger population base would have been a logical course to pursue.

It is difficult to address both these drugs but I would like to make some comments about Laetrile.

Fear of cancer is nearly universal and becomes increasingly more acute the closer one comes to the disease, either as a patient or as a member of the family of the patient. Standard treatment now unfortunately may be so fearsome in itself that many sincere people are strongly tempted to seek other methods of treatment. I can understand that.

I can understand the argument that cancer patients who have failed to respond to other therapies should be allowed to receive Laetrile. But I do have a concern that if Laetrile is legalized, many cancer patients may bypass the more standard treatments for a less complicated solution and ultimately we, as legislators, may be doing them a great injustice.

But I do hope that what I have read, that Laetrile experts advocate balanced treatments involving the conventional methods along with Laetrile, will occur.

I do resent, however, the statement received in a letter on Monday. "There are always two reasons for a decision: the one offered and then the real one. The reasons offered by the opposition are completely without foundation. What the real reason is I do not know." Obviously, it would be much simpler for me to vote "yes" since I suspect I may be one of a few voting "no." But my position was not reached easily.

I, as a legislator, am untrained in scientific methodology and despite the mass of information I have read which often was contradictory, I feel I do not know enough about either Laetrile or Gerovital to support their use and manufacture in Nevada.

Assemblyman Weise: I am a member of the Commerce Committee, I did file the Minority report and I would like to approach the bill concerning the two commodities because I don't want to call them drugs—I don't believe they are drugs—but to consider them separately.

I think the first thing we should all keep in mind is basically what does the bill accomplish. Neither Laetrile—B17, Amygdalin—or whatever you want to call it, it is all the same thing, nor Gerovital are illegal in the State of Nevada today. I don't think anyone has ever contested that. I don't think that any of the testimony we had in committee recognizes either of them as a drug as such. There is some controversy but I think it can be pretty well substantiated that neither of them are, in fact, drugs. I think what we are talking about in A.B. 121 is giving the physician and presumedly ultimately the patient the opportunity to request either one of these drugs for whatever reason they may believe to be legitimate.

Starting with Laetrile, I think there is only one real question that the proponents and opponents get down to. The opponents being primarily the people who are involved with the Cancer Society and doctors that are very involved with cancer therapy and what have you. The ultimate question that they get down to is this: Do we lose people—do people die—as a result of going to Mexico to get Laetrile rather than to stay in this country and get what we consider to be orthodox treatment for cancer. Orthodox treatment being chemotherapy, immunotherapy, operations, or whatever it would be. I think that on this particular drug the question I had to wrestle with and I believe everyone in this room will have to is: If doctors are, in fact, allowed to prescribe the drug in the State of Nevada, would the doctors prescribe Laetrile even if they didn't believe it had any beneficial use other than as a placebo to keep the patients in the State of Nevada so they can also take other forms of therapy at the same time? In other words, it would be a companion item to chemotherapy or immunotherapy or an operation where the patient comes in and says, "But Doctor, I have heard so much about Laetrile and so much about the wonderful things that can happen and people who have been saved by the use of it. . . ." Rather than lose these people—having them go down to Mexico and spend precious time taking Laetrile when, in fact, it may not be doing them any harm but at the same time not curing them, and coming back and saying, "Gee, I found out that didn't work, now I would like to try out the conventional treatment" and the doctor says "The conventional treatment is just not going to work, it is too late; we have lost that precious time" and the patient dies.

We did, in fact, have documentation where patients have left their doctors because they were afraid of the after-effects of chemotherapy or radiation treatment—they were going to lose their hair or something and here is an easy way out—they don't have to cut, scar or burn me; I can just take a little pill and be saved.

My feeling is that if we allow this drug to be prescribed by the physicians and dispensed by pharmacists in the State of Nevada, these people will not go to Mexico; they would be inclined to stay with their doctors and I would hope that the physicians will exercise the discretion to prescribe Laetrile rather than lose the patient that would go to Mexico. Why not prescribe Laetrile as a placebo if it is nothing more than that. Maybe, in fact, it is a treatment—I don't know; we didn't have any testimony to that effect. But at least maybe they will stay here and take it in conjunction with the full program and maybe they won't go to Mexico and get ripped off. We had one Nevada family testify that they spent $26,000 on their mother to send her down to Mexico, they kept her there, they conned her, they took all her money and then they sent her back here and she has been given one week to live as of the time we had our testimony. So, for that one reason alone, I think the question is whether it will keep people here or will we lose people as a result of not allowing it. I think that my answer to that one question is that the people will stay in Nevada and hopefully the doctors will prescribe Laetrile if for no other reason than as a placebo.

Gerovital H3—same thing again. I question seriously if this is a drug and even the proponents would question this. It is probably a companion and could be justified on this bill if for no other reason than that neither of them are drugs; but that either physicians or pharmacists could, in fact, be punished as a result of prescribing these drugs and that the freedom of choice really boils down to whether you want to allow the physician to do this.

Gerovital, obviously, and I think it has been well demonstrated, not only through committee testimony but through information I requested myself, is, in fact, very successful as an anti-depressant which would assist physicians treating people primarily for mental health reasons, I think, as much as anything. I don't think we have any testimony that either of these commodities is harmful. I can't say I started out on the side of either one of these in the beginning but I do believe that we wouldn't be creating any ill effects on behalf of the residents of the State and that we, in fact, might be providing a service if we did allow physicians to prescribe the drug.

The last thing that has been mentioned against both of these commodities is the protection afforded to the consumer—is it going to be a consumer rip-off or a con job or will it have some controls? The amendments do provide that the State Board of Health control the manufacturing and processing of the drugs. The bill as it now stands has a disclaimer that neither of the drugs or commodities are sanctioned by the FDA and most importantly, if both of these items have to be issued on a prescription and if your doctor wants to prescribe one of these to you for whatever reason, I don't know what other quality control you could ask for. If we have physicians in the State who are going to abuse these things, then I am sure that the local authorities or district attorneys or maybe the Legislature itself will have to take appropriate measures to correct that.

I would urge your support.

Assemblyman Mann: I would like to make a couple of clarifications on statements that have been made. First of all, I would like to commend my last colleague on his very enlightening testimony. I would also like to make known to this body that in personal contact with the only person in the United States that has a right to manufacture this H3 substance, he has indicated to me that it has never been manufactured in California or in any other state.

I would also like to bring to your attention probably the most moving testimony that I heard the night that I spent 7 hours with some of my colleagues. They had to be there. I was there as many of you were because this is important. I had a grandfather who died of cancer and suffered for 10 years. We didn't have Laetrile or we didn't know about it. A lady came up before that body and she said, "You know I am dying—all I am asking for is help. I get some $200 a month from Social Security. If they stop me at the border, they take my Laetrile. I don't have the money to replace it." It is not a question that Laetrile or H3 hurts anyone. The most violent opposition would never even indicate that these substances would hurt anyone. They never testified to that. They testified to the things that we always hear from bureaucracy—we haven't had time to test it enough—we don't think it does any good. My colleague from Washoe pointed out I think one very basic thing—I don't care personally if it doesn't do any good at all—it doesn't hurt people and you can't underestimate the psychological good.

I had a grandfather who would have given anything—in fact he gave his life—but he would have given anything for something like this to hold onto. These two substances hurt no one. If you were at the testimony, you know what I mean. I ask for your support on this matter.

Assemblyman Price: I might just re-emphasize what was said during the entire course of the testimony on Laetrile. There was absolutely no indication whatsoever through the extensive testing by the FDA or otherwise that there were any harmful effects and one of the things that was brought out about the method in which the FDA tested and I guess by which they test other items is that the proponents of Laetrile have consistently said that it must be used in conjunction with the other therapy, but when the FDA was conducting their tests, they were conducting the test on Laetrile only and not in conjunction with the other types of therapy that this is supposed to be used with. This is probably because of money—I don't know what their reasons are—but they testified to that themselves. So, therefore, when they say they got no good results, they got no bad results, it is not surprising. Laetrile, we were told, is the only non-toxic medicine that is being used in conjunction with cancer therapy. The other some 35 drugs that they use are all highly toxic and in most cases if used improperly, would actually kill you. It is just that simple.

At any rate, after the testimony and everything else, it appeared to the committee and it appeared to me that there is absolutely no reason why in our State—and we are only following Oklahoma now—that this should not be available to our people.

Another thing that was brought out, as you all know, is that these people are going down into Mexico to get Laetrile. O.K., many people have insurance and their insurance doesn't pay because it is considered an illegal substance. They have to go across the border and smuggle it back in. I was approached by a cancer insurance agent this past weekend who said he certainly hoped that they would get the thing covered—that we would legalize it—because then their company could go ahead and pay for what they consider, or at least in his mind, to be a useful therapy even if it is only psychological.

In the case of the Gerovital there has been extensive testing on that. The simple thing that happened is that the companies pay for a lot of this and they ran out of money but there has been extensive testing by the FDA and even in Las Vegas for our own doctors. Some of our own doctors who were there to testify that they had used it and in no case did they ever find anything—their estimates ran from it helped a little bit to it helped a lot. There was nothing on the negative side whatsoever. After spending the 7 or 8 hours there and listening to the testimony and considering that in the case that we would be bringing new industry into our State—they are going to have to build a manufacturing plant—I think we are looking into something that will be beneficial not only to Nevada but beneficial to the other people in the states and I urge your "do pass" on A.B. 121.

Assemblyman Demers: Mr. Speaker, I wanted to make a couple of points to the members of the Assembly with regards to the Food and Drug Administration in regards to both Gerovital H3 and Laetrile.

Laetrile was a substance that was invented or discovered right here in Carson City in about 1912. And that is one of the problems that we have had, people say "Why don't they have more extensive testing?" The basic problem is this. Because it was invented so long ago, it is a nonpatentable item. It is in the public domain so no major manufacturing company can come up with the necessary money, or let's put it this way the incentive isn't there to go ahead and start producing this and doing the massive clinical tests that have been done partially already with Gerovital H3.

Gerovital H3, on the other hand, has another peculiar problem and that is to get a drug approved in the United States of America today, you have to do about 12 years of extensive testing and have to spend approximately $20 million.

I want to make that point because in the Congress of the United States, there are two bills that would remove this problem by taking away the efficacy requirements that the FDA now has by federal law. HR 53 and 54, the two bills, have a combined total of sponsorship of 46 members; 10 percent of the House of Representatives have co-sponsored these two bills. I think it is important to recognize that because as Mr. Harmon said in his opening statements, we are suffering from a very significant drug lag in this country. There are many drugs other than Gerovital and Laetrile being used in other countries in the world; some of them aren't even drugs. You can buy them like aspirin in West Germany and England and some of these other countries simply because they don't have to go through these extensive testing requirements, and they don't have to come up with these huge chunks of money.

I would certainly urge your support for the bill.

Assemblyman Kosinski: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly: I am going to vote against this bill today—not because I think that the chemicals contained or authorized in this bill may be harmful but because I am not convinced that these chemicals have any therapeutic value or that they are safe.

I remember in one of the beginning days of the session, we had a joint meeting of the two finance committees and a very wise old rancher from one of the rural counties came before us and spun some homey yarns for us for awhile. He finished up by saying that he urged all of us when considering legislation, "When in doubt, vote 'no'." I am not convinced this morning and I will vote against this bill.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Mann requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Horn: I'd like to commend our Assembly Basketball Coach, John Polish, for his brilliant coaching effort—brilliant because we WON. Had we lost, it would have been a miserable effort—since we won, it was brilliant.

Coach Polish made two great defensive moves. One was putting Sue Wagner in the game. The other was Joe Dini. Our Speaker smuggled in his own version of Gator Ade or "swamp spirits" which kept half of the Senate team wondering what the Assembly was drinking and encouraged spirited play. The other was Assemblyman Sue Wagner who received several passes from the Senators. She also got the ball once or twice but she kept the other half of the Senate team busy chasing her all over the court which enabled Assemblyman Vergiels to score enough points for us to WIN. Some Senators said we had no cheerleaders but I say the cheerleaders were Assemblymen Westall and Hayes, and they also deserve some credit. Assemblyman Westall shouted, "Come on Team" and Mrs. Hayes said "What?" So Mrs. Westall repeated herself. I suggest to you that two "Come on Teams" constitute cheerleading.

These are just three examples of the brilliant coaching effort of John Polish. Of course, we couldn't have won had not Assemblyman Ross kept the score and Assemblyman Weise refereed the second half of the game.

Hats off to our coach and the Assembly victory!

Remarks by Assemblymen Dini and Jacobsen.

Assemblyman Weise requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Dini: I had the privilege of serving 10 years with Senator Brown and I think that this resolution doesn't exemplify all the fine things that he did in distinguishing himself as a great leader in the State of Nevada. I think that he did more to help us in the rural counties when we were trying to get started in the legislative process than any other Senator that I can speak about. I think it is only fitting that our House also honor Senator Brown as the Senate has by the adoption of this resolution. I believe tomorrow night the three Senators in these three resolutions are going to be honored at a party by the Senators that served with them during the many years that they were in service in our State. It is a fitting tribute for us to commend Senator Brown by this resolution.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: I certainly join with our Speaker in adding a few comments in Senator Brown's regard. I am only sorry that we don't adopt this resolution when he would be present here in this Chamber.

As has already been said, he has served with a great deal of distinction in Nevada and I think one of the important factors that maybe many people are not aware of is that he served on two national committees—he served on the executive committee on both. He was one of those people who was certainly instrumental in Nevada becoming a part of the national organizations.

I had occasion to travel with him to a number of national meetings. I would say that his stature was about as high as a person can get. He knew a lot of people and had a lot of friends. I was simply amazed at the type of friends he had and the way he was able to communicate with them. I remember one day we were in Washington, D.C. at a meeting and the meeting was concluded and we took in a ball game and on the way back to the hotel he decided we would stop at some little place along the way and have a milkshake and a hamburger. So we pulled up a chair and all of a sudden he turned around and said, "How would you like to meet the Governor of Pennsylvania?" He called him by his first name and, of course, I was almost shocked to think that a person from Nevada could realize and acknowledge somebody from the other side of the country. At every one of the national meetings, and certainly I took a lot of pride in the fact, he would single out the representatives from Nevada and take them around and introduce them to all the people that were at these conferences.

In my opinion, he was one of the greatest guys that ever served in this Legislature and one of the great Nevadans of this time.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 21.

Assemblyman Demers moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Rhoads and Jacobsen.

Assemblyman Weise requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Rhoads: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, I think that Senator Monroe, although in Elko County I have always been in the opposite party, has always been a leader and has helped us with many of our problems for many years, especially in helping deal with the federal government in northeastern Nevada.

I think he has had a very deserving rest the last few months down in Scottsdale, Arizona playing golf. I know we certainly respect him up there. We feel it is a very fitting honor. Thank you.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, I guess this is a significant thing to talk on each one of these; it probably is more with respect to age than anything else. I served with Snowy for a good many years, him on the other side of the House. He had the ability to take almost every legislator, Assemblymen and Senators, to task in his little articles in the paper. I notice he hasn't lost that ability because he still continues it—sometimes good and sometimes bad, depending on whether you are on the receiving end or not.

But Snowy had a lot of ability and was one of those Nevadans that you never turned around. He ordinarily had his mind made up and continually stuck with it.

Also, in traveling with him, one of my observations has been that he really enjoyed his breakfasts—I guess maybe significant of the area he came from, he always had cooked cereal for breakfast. I think that spoke for his hardiness and all of his endeavors during the Legislative Session.

He also served on a number of national committees and was fortunate enough just prior to his retirement to be chairman of the Council of State Governments Task Force on Transportation.

He was probably one of those people who had trouble occasionally with the NHP and seemed to take a little pride in that. I think there were times when probably he did outrun them, but I think he was a person who believed in upholding the law. I think he was great for Nevada, and it certainly can be said that he was great for Elko County.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 22.

Assemblyman Demers moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen May, Craddock and Jacobsen.

Assemblyman Weise requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman May: I am sure that each of us on this floor could look in our hearts and find a few nice words to say about Senator Helen Herr but since I am a business associate of hers, I was given the honor of making those on behalf of all of us.

I first met Senator Herr many years before I first came to these Halls and at the same time I began my legislative career was the same year that Senator Herr moved from the Assembly after 10 years into the Senate. I worked with her in these Halls and in the old building for the last 10 years but I think I really began to know her and understand her and appreciate her more when I became a business associate of hers some 5 years ago.

A lot of people in legislative positions or in political positions in general will seek to use those positions perhaps not always to the greatest advantage of the general public as is possible; but I watched people come in off the street—little people—people with a problem—people in need of a service—and I have seen Senator Herr take time away from her business and devote herself and her abilities and her efforts to attempt to solve those problems for those people at her own expense. She really is a great humanitarian. I certainly miss her this year.

Assemblyman Craddock: I have nothing but kind words to say about Senator Herr myself. She is a tremendous lady—one of a kind. And I say this in spite of the fact that she was never my boss.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: I am certainly not trying to prove a point today by speaking for these three Democrats but I think its goes without saying that some of my best friends are Democrats. Helen Herr was certainly one of those.

I served with her for a number of years in the Assembly. If there was ever a lady that had dedication, it certainly was Helen in regard to state institutions. Many years ago at each session, she would line up the National Guard plane and we would visit every one of them and I think that is something that is not common any more today and one of the things that I think is really missed. We would land at Caliente in the National Guard plane out in the sagebrush where there was hardly any resemblance of an airport. She was always very gracious in looking after her committee members and making sure that they were exposed to everything that was present at any institution. She was very diligent in her legislation in that regard not only with those in Clark County but all over the State—whether it was Caliente, Elko or Carson City. I think Helen really left her mark, especially with institutions. Everyone knew her. Everyone respected her. It is really fitting today that we can honor her because I think she, too, is one of the great Nevadans.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 23.

Assemblyman Demers moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Polish and Jacobsen.

Assemblyman Glover requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Polish: I would like to say a word or two about Senator Gallagher from White Pine County. Known to have never said a bad word about anyone and, of course, he was a member of this House way back there even before my time—I believe it was 1913 and 1915. He was a very outstanding citizen in our White Pine County and, of course, in this State of Nevada.

He had as his profession, photography and, of course, this let him in with many people in our county. He also was a world traveler. I believe Senator Gallagher had traveled around the world three times and each time kept the citizens in our community up with what was happening in various places.

For those of you who didn't know Senator Gallagher, he was a bachelor and a jolly old fellow. We know we are going to miss him very much and I know that he has worked hard for our State and nation.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: If I might, I would like to add just a few words. Having served with Senator Gallagher and as John said, I doubt whether he even knew a bad word because he sure never uttered one. He was a very gracious person. He was very gracious with the ladies even though he was a bachelor. He was one of those kinds of citizens here in this State that was a real historian. He knew a lot about his State. He was just a grand gentleman and one of those people I certainly really respected. I think he was a great Nevadan.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Land without rent to you

A child every year to you
A long life, and may your bones rest in Ireland.
Happy St. Patrick's Day

LEGISLATIVE BLARNEY

Oh, tis irony that Irish green is worn today
Just as our green stops on this 60th day.
Speaking of green, I have this to say
Ernie Newton, no green to the state he would pay.

Saint Paddy hopes for one and all
After a session of bills big and small,
And endless witnesses short and tall
That we won't all need Gerovital.

Old Saint Patrick is glad to see
Legislators each with an office for privacy.
Now when you have an attaché on your knee
You won't find it reported by the wide-eyed AP.

Sure St. Patrick laughs at me
For legislative blarney is a certainty.
I hope you'll think of that isle far away
And have a green and glorious St. Patrick's Day.

Remarks by Assemblyman Robinson.

Assemblyman Harmon requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Robinson: I think the resolution explains many accomplishments that Ray Germain had during his career as a Nevadan and in the publishing business.

I have known him for many, many years as a member of our Rotary Club. He was the publisher of our Rotary Bulletin for years and years. He was just really a great guy. He had a great sense of humor. I remember the day he came to Rotary Club and he had cut off his big toe with his lawn mower and he laughed about how awkward he was to have done such a thing and he followed it up with an article in the Rotary Magazine on safety in the home—a tongue-in-cheek sort of thing.

He was well respected in the community of Las Vegas. I am happy to count him as a former friend.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Hayes: Today we honor one of the finest organizations and some of the most dedicated public spirited people in the world. The organization is the Girl Scouts of America and the people are the wonderful girls and their Scout Leaders.

Truly as the twig is bent, the tree grows and the training that these girls receive in the Girl Scout program prepares them to be the outstanding leaders of the future. The dividends and rewards that the Girl Scout Leaders receive for their work are the richest in the world for they are realized in the improving and enriching of the lives of these young girls.

There are no office hours in Girl Scouts and a lot of gasoline and time are burned in providing this program for the girls. As a mother of four daughters—three of whom have participated in the Girl Scout program and one anxiously awaiting to be a Brownie—I know personally of both the sacrifices made by the Girl Scout Leaders and the benefits gained by Girl Scouts and the members of their families as a result of this marvelous program. Dedicated leaders and enthusiastic workers make a good team. So it is with the Girl Scouts.

Mr. Speaker, today I ask the members of this House to join with me in honoring these dedicated leaders and girls.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Hayes moved that the rules be suspended and that the resolution be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Assemblyman Mann: This bill came out of the Elections Committee 6 to 1. It is one of the pieces of legislation that we can credit to the State Supreme Court. As you realize, they held the Clark County districting to be unconstitutional. This would mandate or give authority in law to go ahead and redraw those boundaries. Per the Speaker's request at the start of the Session, it is the intent of the Legislature that Clark County be required to have individual districts both in the primary and in the general election. This has been agreed to by the County Commissioners as well as the Senate side and I would appreciate it if the record would show that the intent of the Legislature is that there be individual districts.

Assemblyman Glover moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Glover and Jacobsen.

Assemblyman Demers requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Glover: Dan Murphy was a truly dedicated public servant who literally gave his life for the youth of this area. He was a man that was tough enough to deal with individuals who were in trouble, yet with enough compassion to give them real help. We never could have been able to pay him enough for the long exhausting hours he put in as a juvenile probation officer and as a juvenile master. The 2-o'clock in the morning calls to go down to the jail were frequent and the 7-day work weeks were routine. Dan had a great belief in youth and was an outspoken advocate for a youth center in Carson City, battling the Board of Supervisors, the Legislature and all other obstacles to advance this program. I am proud to say I was a friend of Dan Murphy.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, I certainly join with my colleague in the adoption of this resolution. Coming from the neighboring county, I certainly can express the same sentiments that Alan did. It is one of those things many times that we suffer from a lack of words. Especially today, I am pleased to see his wife here who was one of those young people of many years ago that I ran around with in Carson City. Maybe it is well that those things do happen in our past because many times in the future we have to rely on our memories to remember those people that we love and trust and respect. Certainly Dan Murphy was one of those people. He gave a lot of assistance to Douglas County in the juvenile area and I, for one, certainly would hope that each of you would adopt this resolution.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Resolved by the Assembly and Senate of the State of Nevada, jointly, That section 1 of article 10 of the constitution of the State of Nevada be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. The legislature shall provide by law for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation, and shall prescribe such regulations as shall secure a just valuation for taxation of all property, real, personal and possessory, except mines and mining claims, when not patented, the proceeds alone of which shall be assessed and taxed, and when patented, each patented mine shall be assessed at not less than five hundred dollars ($500), except when one hundred dollars ($100) in labor has been actually performed on such patented mine during the year, in addition to the tax upon the net proceeds; shares of stock (except shares of stock in banking corporations), bonds, mortgages, notes, bank deposits, book accounts and credits, and securities and choses in action of like character are deemed to represent interest in property already assessed and taxed, either in Nevada or elsewhere, and shall be exempt. Notwithstanding the provisions of this section, the legislature may constitute agricultural and open-space real property having a greater value for another use than that for which it is being used, as a separate class for taxation purposes and may provide a separate uniform plan for appraisal and valuation of such property for assessment purposes. If such plan is provided, the legislature shall also provide for retroactive assessment for a period of not less than 7 years when agricultural and open-space real property is converted to a higher use conforming to the use for which other nearby property is used. The legislature may separately classify for the purposes of assessment real property which is owned and occupied as a principal residence by persons 62 years of age or older. Personal property which is moving in interstate commerce through or over the territory of the State of Nevada, or which was consigned to a warehouse, public or private, within the State of Nevada from outside the State of Nevada for storage in transit to a final destination outside the State of Nevada, whether specified when transportation begins or afterward, shall be deemed to have acquired no situs in Nevada for purposes of taxation and shall be exempt from taxation. Such property shall not be deprived of such exemption because while in the warehouse the property is assembled, bound, joined, processed, disassembled, divided, cut, broken in bulk, relabeled or repackaged. The legislature may exempt motor vehicles from the provisions of the tax required by this section, and in lieu thereof, if such exemption is granted, shall provide for a uniform and equal rate of assessment and taxation of motor vehicles, which rate shall not exceed five cents on one dollar of assessed valuation. No inheritance or estate tax shall ever be levied, and there shall also be excepted such property as may be exempted by law for municipal, educational, literary, scientific or other charitable purposes.

Assemblyman Mann requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Sena: Today it gives me great pleasure to be one of the many sponsors of A.B. 300. This legislation will allow the students of the schools of our State the right to do something that we in this chamber do everyday. This bill provides for silent meditation, prayer and reflection in our schools and it completely protects the rights of those students who for one reason or another choose not to do so. Far too much has been made of the so-called school prayer issue. I feel that it is a hollow issue and that the overwhelming majority of the people of our State favor the opportunity for silent prayer in our schools. But, just as the vast majority may favor this bill, we must protect the right of those who choose not to pray. In an era of rendering unto the state the things that are the state's, this bill gives those who desire to do so the right to render unto the Supreme Being and for this I urge the adoption of A.B. 300.

Assemblyman Horn: I, too, rise in support of A.B. 300. I believe that the pendulum once again has swung the other way and that the era that proclaimed "God is dead"—that era is now dead. The people of this land recognize that this country was founded on the principle of faith in God and communication with Him through prayer. Historians even point out as does our very currency reflect the feeling of the motto, "In God We Trust." I believe that it is the will, as Mr. Sena indicated, of an overwhelming majority of people in this State not to allow a handful of people armed with a court decision to deny the majority the right to worship God as they please. A.B. 300 does not force anyone to pray—only to be silent to allow those who wish to reflect, or meditate, or pray the right to do so. If they choose not to pray, or reflect, or meditate, their right not to do so has not been violated. If need be, I think it is about time that we challenge again this principle in our courts and, if that doesn't work, to change the Constitution to reflect the will of the majority. In the meantime, I think that we should pass A.B. 300 so that we can begin anew to reinforce our basic freedom to reflect, to meditate, or to communicate with our Maker.

Assemblyman Banner requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Goodman: First of all, I want to say that I am not against prayer or religion; but I firmly believe we are going to have a constitutional problem with A.B. 300 and the cost to the State for litigation will be tremendous. I will cite from Everson vs. The Board of Education, a Supreme Court decision: "Neither a State or the Federal Government can set up a church. Neither can pass laws which aid one religion, aid all religions or prefer one religion over another." It is the issue of aiding all religions that is declared to be unconstitutional in Everson vs. The Board of Education and I believe that this is very much the controlling issue. The Supreme Court has not backed off on separation of church and state and I oppose A.B. 300 on the belief of separation of church and state.

Assemblyman Ross: Mr. Speaker, due to the fact that we did not have a roll call vote on A.C.R. 18, it may not be obvious that I voted against it and I would like to make it public that I have. I believe it is a value judgment as to whether or not we wish to spend the money for a medical school in the State of Nevada. I agree that we must go forward and have it a 4-year school or we must phase it out. I, for one, would be in favor of phasing it out. I recognize it is a value judgment but I believe the State could better spend its money elsewhere than on the few students that would benefit from it. It is my understanding that there are sufficient doctors in this country—we have sufficient doctors in Nevada. I, for one, am very favorable to encouraging doctors to settle in the rural areas of Nevada. I think we can find more responsible, less expensive methods to do it.

Eternal God, by whatever name we call to You, before Whom all human beings of every race and creed are equally Your children, send truth into our minds and love into our hearts. Through the men and women in whose behalf I beg leave to stand before You, who have been chosen to fashion laws for the great State of Nevada, remind us all that in Your hands is the supreme law on which the governance of earth must ultimately rest. Enlighten our convictions with the grace of humility that we may learn to listen and strengthen us with courage that we may not hesitate to speak at the behest of conscience. Help us to balance and merge the elusive will of the people with the inner voice of clear reason, to seek and find the guidance of Your divine wisdom and always to temper justice with compassion. You are sovereign ruler of all things—from a child's dream to the galaxies of infinite space. Therefore, the trials and burdens of responsible leadership are known to You. Gird us with faith—faith in You, in our State and country and in ourselves—that we may bear trial and burden to the glory of Your name. Amen Assembly Bill No. 376 having received a constitutional majority, Mr. Speaker declared it passed.

Bill ordered transmitted to the Senate.

Assembly Bill No. 400.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Horn, Price, Vergiels, Brookman, Dreyer, Mann and Demers.

Assemblyman Robinson requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Horn: The Education Committee and the Education Subcommittee heard testimony from interested citizens who felt that education in the State of Nevada is such a high priority as evidenced by the fact that almost 60 percent of the budget goes to education each biennium and that the people are making such a considerable investment with their tax dollars in our educational system and that they have a right to expect that a level of proficiency be established and a level of competency be insured.

A.B. 400, as amended, is a composite of several bills. It takes much of its new language from A.B. 9, Assemblyman Dreyer's bill, and A.B. 293, Assemblymen Gomes' and Goodman's bill.

A.B. 400 establishes the guidelines and allows the State Board of Education the latitude to establish the procedures to implement proficiency based testing.

A.B. 400 deals only with the three R's. It is a return to basics and provides for testing at the third, sixth and ninth grade levels with no penalties attached. The objective is learning and not holding someone back a grade. In other words, this test for those grade levels is only a warning or maybe a symptom that there are some problems with one or more of the three areas, and as a student passes on to the next grade, both the student and future teachers are aware of the area or areas that need attention. In the twelfth grade, it is the intent that the proficiency exam would be given early in the school year so that the student could repeat the exam a second or third time if need be in order to correct the deficiencies—again with the attempt of not penalizing anyone—only to require a minimum level of proficiency in order to graduate.

The bill also contains two additional points—a grandfather clause which will apply to any pupil who is in the ninth grade as of the effective date of the bill. They will not be subject to this bill. It would therefore start with those in the eighth grade giving them 4 years before the final test in the twelfth grade and graduation. These 4 years will also allow the State Board of Education ample time to evaluate and polish the program. It also allows that different standards of proficiency may be adopted for pupils with diagnosed learning disabilities.

The objective of A.B. 400 is not to penalize anyone or hold anyone back up to the twelfth grade. Its objective is learning. Its objective is to strengthen weakness early in a student's school life and to ensure minimum levels of proficiency in the three R's before graduation. I urge your support.

Assemblyman Price: With regard to the definition of "writing" in the bill, are we talking about cursive writing, punctuation, and that sort of thing or, for instance, creative writing?

Assemblyman Vergiels: In committee we talked some about writing from the technical aspect, i.e., writing neatly. But most of all, we are talking about writing so it can be understood; punctuation, clearness of intent of what you want to say—so you can put it down in writing so that other people can understand it. That is what we are basically talking about.

Assemblyman Brookman: Do you still give certificates of completion if you don't have a high school graduation certificate?

Assemblyman Vergiels: Yes.

Assemblyman Brookman: Could you qualify with this bill?

Assemblyman Vergiels: There was a lot of discussion about people receiving certificates versus regular diplomas. The committee encouraged the continuation of the granting of certificates of completion or attendance or whatever within the flexibility of the bill. The bill is very flexible. It allows the State Board and it allows the local boards to set a lot of the policies. So, they could implement it in a whole variety of ways. We tried not to be specific enough to infringe upon their rights to grant diplomas or the different kinds of certificates they wish to grant.

Mr. Speaker: Mr. Vergiels, perhaps your committee might explain lines 17, 18 and 19 concerning graduation from high school. That is specific.

Assemblyman Dreyer: Mr. Speaker, as it says there, "He shall not be graduated until he is able, through remedial study, to pass the examination." The point being that he may have to go back and take the test three or four times, but upon completion he would be given his graduation diploma.

Assemblyman Mann: Mr. Speaker, to you and through you to the body, I rise in support of this measure. I do have some problems with the word "writing" as far as the definition, but I think we may have solved that in that you stood up and let it be known what the legislative intent was. As far as those lines 17 and 18, it has been my experience over the years that I have taught, that you would be surprised how fast these kids pass these tests when they know something is on the line.

Assemblyman Vergiels: I am on a committee for the State Board of Education relative to competency based testing for graduation and basically we heard quite a bit of testimony—I think they made three presentations to us, some in joint session with the Senate—relative to what was being done in that committee. This allows that to go on, and because they are already doing it we assumed that would be the outcome because they are already onto it. In fact, if some of the members in the body would like, we could get you examples of some of the test items that are being developed right now and are in the initial stages. We will distribute those for you, if you like, to give you an idea of what they are doing. Keep in mind, these are minimal proficiency tests—what every student should know when they graduate from high school in reading, writing and arithmetic. They are minimal standards. Probably 80 percent of the Legislature could pass this test.

Assemblyman Demers: I understand what we are trying to do here and I would like to take exception with something Mr. Horn said. Because of what we are really trying to do, I don't think he should be referring to reading, writing and arithmetic as the three "R's".

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Jacobsen requested that The Reverend St. John's prayer be entered in the Journal:

Eternal God our Father, on this day we come praising You for this nation and State in which we live. Thank You for the people of this State—the old and the young, the rich and the poor, the laborers, the managers of industry, the artists, the poets, the factory worker and the professionally skilled and for all who contribute to the good of the State. We thank You for the divergent backgrounds—for peoples of different traditions, different colors and different creeds.

But we thank You not only for those things which we can see, but for the things that are unseen—the spirit of this nation and State that keeps it going and vibrant and alive.

And though we are filled with thanksgiving for all of Your blessings to us, we are made sorrowful for the ways the dreams and hopes for complete justice have not been realized. Forgive us for being content with the status quo. Forgive us for our blindness to needless misery and poverty. Forgive us when love of money has calloused our social conscience. Forgive us when we have not cared deeply about the needs of others.

Hear also our prayers of intercession. Today we pray for those who are in authority, who lead us in government—especially for our Governor and these legislators. Give to them an unswerving dedication to justice and freedom. Help us to support them in the cause of helping all attain their potential.

So let this new legislative day begin with the recognition that You are in charge of our lives and destinies. Amen

THE STATE OF NEVADA
EXECUTIVE CHAMBER

CARSON CITY, NEVADA, March 25, 1977

MRS. MOURYNE B. LANDING, Chief Clerk, Nevada State Assembly, Carson City, Nevada 89710

RE: A.B. 7 of the 59th Legislative Session

DEAR MRS. LANDING: Pursuant to Article 4, Section 35 of the Nevada Constitution and Nevada Revised Statutes 218.420, I hereby veto A.B. 7 "An Act relating to motorcycles; excluding adult drivers and passengers from requirement to wear headgear and other protective devices; and providing other matters properly relating thereto" with the following objections and comments:

A legislative measure requiring the use of helmets by motorcyclists was passed by the Nevada Legislature in 1971. The measure has been effective in saving lives on Nevada highways. Following its enactment, which became effective January 1 of 1972, the number of motorcycle deaths dropped dramatically. Indeed, 4 years passed before total motorcycle fatalities even came close to the 2-year period prior to enactment of the helmet law. From 1972–1975, forty-five persons died in motorcycle accidents compared to forty-two deaths from 1970 through 1971.

Some who call for repeal point to last year's motorcycle fatality rate of twenty-five as indicative that the law is not working in our State. I do not agree that one year's abnormally high rate is a persuasive argument for repeal. Moreover, if we are going to play the statistical game, I might point out that so far this year, only one motorcycle fatality has been reported, compared to six at this time last year.

I am concerned over the fact that states which have repealed or weakened their mandatory motorcycle helmet laws have experienced a significant increase in fatalities. Six states which repealed or weakened their helmet laws prior to October, 1976 were compared over a 5-month period (May–September) in 1975. Their combined total of motorcycle fatalities represented a 21 percent increase. In comparison, thirty-six other states which had retained their helmet law experienced no combined increase for the first 8 months of 1976.

Some legislators have argued that the helmet can be a deterrent to safety. No evidence has been documented to support this contention. If, in fact, these legislators strongly felt the helmet was detrimental to safety, it is curious that they mandated the helmet for 16- and 17-year-olds. The law requiring 16- and 17-year-olds to wear the helmet also would create a significant enforcement problem.

An argument of those in support of the repeal of the helmet law is that drivers and passengers of automobiles are not required to wear safety belts. They should know that during the 5-year period of 1970–1975 in Nevada, 85 percent of motorcycle accidents resulted in injury or death, while only 37 percent of automobile accidents resulted in injury or death. Obviously, then, cyclists face a greater risk in being totally unprotected on their vehicles.

The saving of lives and reduction of severe injuries is my primary concern on this issue. However, Nevadans must also be concerned with the inevitable cost to our State. The repeal of the helmet law will cause those costs to rise.

In upholding a helmet requirement, the Michigan Supreme Court said that mandatory use laws are a "creative, relatively nonintrusive response of government to protect the public from detrimental technological change. Wearing a helmet is a minor burden, the effects of which benefit not only both parties involved in an accident, but society as a whole."

In this connection, I quote from testimony on Assembly Bill 7 which was presented February 8 of this year:

"Judy Lemen, representing the 23,000 members of the Nevada PTA was the next to testify. She stated that the Nevada PTA supported retention of the helmet law because of its proven safety benefits. She introduced Darrell Taylor, from Battle Mountain, who had suffered a severe head injury while not wearing a helmet in a motorcycle accident when he was 17 years old.

"Darrell testified that he had run off the road and landed in soft dirt hitting his head on a rock. He suffered no injuries except a blow to the head. Had he been wearing a helmet, he would have escaped injury."

The Nevada Industrial Commission thus far has expended a total of some $59,000 to date for this individual and has reserved some $77,500 for further compensation and medical care. It is estimated, then, that this single accident eventually will obligate the State of Nevada for at least $136,000.

The constitutionality of the helmet law has been upheld in the high courts of twenty-six states. Also, the U.S. Supreme Court has refused on several occasions to overturn decisions which sustained the constitutionality of the law.

Many motorcyclists testified they are fully aware of the safety benefits of the helmet and said if the repeal were successful they would continue to wear it. However, surveys of other states tend to refute this testimony. A Michigan/Illinois bi-state study, and an independent California study, show that in motorcycle accidents fewer than 30 percent of the injured were wearing helmets. Also, in Nebraska, a study showed that helmets were worn by less than 30 percent of all persons injured or killed in motorcycle accidents.

So much for statistics and dollar signs. Let us address the essential issue: the preservation of human life. When we come down to it, we cannot measure this precious gift by any numeral.

In my judgment, motorcycle helmets help to preserve the lives of those who wear them.

It is for this reason that I veto Assembly Bill 7.

Sincerely,

MIKE O'CALLAGHAN
Governor of Nevada

The question was put: "Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?"

Remarks by Assemblymen Demers, Kissam, Coulter, Jacobsen and Harmon.

Assemblyman Weise requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Demers: Mr. Speaker, I rise in support of the Governor's veto. I do so as a co-sponsor of A.B. 7, as a member of the Committee on Transportation who voted it out of committee and as a member of this body who cast an affirmative vote for it. I believe the Governor's message was well written and well thought out. I believe he justified his position on this. I would like also to point out to the members of the body that there are many other bills in the Committee on Transportation that can be amended to make some minor modifications to this law that obviously wouldn't be as extensive as A.B. 7. I feel that the matter is before us and we should act responsibly. It is highly unlikely that the veto would be overridden in the State Senate and accordingly, I would urge the body to sustain the Governor's actions.

Assemblyman Kissam: Mr. Speaker, to you and through you to this body, I am here in support of our overriding the veto of A.B. 7 by the Governor. This bill was co-sponsored by myself and 18 others and voted out of the Chamber by a vote of 28 ayes and 10 nays and in the Senate voted out of there with 11 ayes and 8 nays. In both cases, a majority was reached in spite of the Governor's open intention of wanting us to repeal this motorcycle helmet bill.

As the poll taker on A.B. 7, I feel that each member of this body that committed themselves to going through and overriding the veto will have to search their own conscience to find out if they can, in their own minds, release themselves from the commitment. I know we do have some amendments due on some bills that might give us motorcycle riders and off-roaders some benefits that might not be included that naturally is not going to include the repeal of the motorcycle helmet law. I still feel that this right to wear the helmet is up to the individual. I urge your support of the overriding of the veto.

Assemblyman Coulter: Mr. Speaker, Members of the Assembly, I also rise in support of overriding the Governor's veto. I think it is sadly ironic that on this day we are voting to override this veto dealing with motorcycle helmets. An article was placed on our desks from the Review-Journal dealing with the motorcycle accident. The person died and he had a helmet on. This is the second time this week that this has happened in Southern Nevada. You saw it in the Review-Journal on Tuesday. In North Las Vegas another young man died in a motorcycle accident and he was wearing a helmet.

The veto message goes into great detail on a number of statistics. The committees on Transportation in the Senate and Assembly heard a great deal of debate on this issue from both sides. I think it is interesting to note that 26 percent of the fatalities on motorbikes have head injuries. At the same time, 28 percent of the fatalities in cars are a result of head injuries. They have some 600,000 motorcyclists in California where they have never had a helmet law. There are something like 20,000 or so here in Nevada. We do have a helmet law but statistics indicate that percentage-wise, the fatality rate in the two states is just about the same.

The Office of Traffic Safety has led the opposition to removal of the helmet bill. Looking at the statistics that they have put out, it talks about in 1971 there were some 19,000 registered motorcyclists in the State. There were some 698 accidents that year. In 1972 there were indeed fewer accidents when the helmet bill went into effect. There were 598 accidents but there were nearly 4,000 fewer motorcycle riders in this State. Quoting here from the Office of Traffic Safety report:

> When the mandatory motorcycle helmet law went into effect on January 1, 1972, the legal age for riding a motorcycle was raised from 14 to 16.
> There have been 22 motorcycle fatalities in Nevada during 1976, this figure is only one below our highest ever and 14 above 1975.

So even with the helmet law we have in this State, we had a record number of motorcycle fatalities and the total number of registered people in this State to ride motorcycles has never reached the height we had in 1971.

I am told that thirteen states have now repealed their mandatory motorcycle helmet law. Maine, I am told, was the last one. Arizona has repealed it. California never had one. Idaho, Oregon and Utah are expected to repeal, I am told.

I have received a lot of input on the motorcycle bill since I introduced it from people all over the State of Nevada. I got one letter from a couple in Babbitt, Nevada. I didn't know the people at all. I have never even been to Babbitt. But they wrote their concern about the repealing of the helmet law. They sent me a copy of a column written by James J. Kilpatrick who is carried in the Nevada State Journal. For those of you who don't know him, he is a conservative columnist. His column is called, "A Conservative View." The headline says, "Congress Ends Motorcycle Madness." This deals with just after Congress had voted to repeal and part of what he says is:

> As a matter of principle, the supporting rationale is no more than Orwellian humbug. The idea is that without a helmet, the cyclist is more accident-prone; if he has an accident, public funds must be spent to clear the road and to cart him to a hospital; thus all taxpayers have an interest in requiring that helmets be worn. But this spurious reasoning, once accepted, could be extended infinitely. There is no human pursuit that does not carry some risk of accident. The smothering solicitude of Big Government, as manifested in this pompous compulsion, is what liberals tend to support and conservatives tend to oppose.

He views it as a conservative-liberal issue. It is interesting though, that the American Civil Liberties Union in Southern Nevada has gone on record urging the repeal of the helmet law and when you can have James J. Kilpatrick and the ACLU agreeing on something, you have got to have a bill that has got to have some real merit, I think.

The bill mandates that those people under 18 years of age must wear a helmet. That is also the group that has the highest accident rate. Once they become legally of age at 18 when they are adults, they can then make their own decision. This is how I think it should be. In the veto message a case is mentioned of a 17-year-old who was not wearing a helmet—and the present law was in effect, that a person who is 17 would be mandated to wear a helmet. The helmet, I believe, is a legitimate safety device but then so is the seat belt. The question is: How far should government go to protect us from ourselves? The Office of Traffic Safety spokesman testified that they also favored mandatory wearing of seat belts. There are those who favor mandatory air bags in cars and some who believe automobile drivers should wear a helmet. One person has written me suggesting that since the major area of injury on motorbikes is not the head—indeed it is trauma to the heart as the doctors explain—perhaps we should mandate shin guards and other types of protective clothing.

The question again is: Just how far we want to go? The move today, I believe, is not toward more liberty, but less. We are continually eroding individual rights a little at a time, often for reasons that seem very noble and worthwhile. The helmet is a legitimate safety device. The question is: Should we return an area of individual responsibility to the people? Helmet laws mandated by a bureaucratic edict in Washington is essentially what we have here. We were told to adopt or lose our highway funds. Most of the states complied with that. Congress eventually overrode that ruling with a compromise. Adults have the freedom of choice. People under 18 years of age would have to wear motorcycle helmets. The choice was left to the states. I say the move now for many states is to repeal the law. I think we have a choice here today. A.B. 7 is a compromise on the issue. I urge you to vote to override the veto for the people.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, I truly rise in support of the Governor's veto. I think each and every one of us realize that sitting here as Assemblymen is not trying to win a popularity contest and certainly as Governor of this State I am sure he views it in the same manner. I think it is a responsible veto and I think one that each and every one of us should adhere to. It is one of those things that I am sure the Governor did not make the decision lightly. If he wasn't responsible to every person in the State of Nevada, I am sure we would be really unhappy about that.

Over the years, each and every one of us have been subjected to some kind of imposition. The fact is a good many people lost their lives defending our liberty and the things that we hold dear. I think asking individuals to wear a helmet is a very small imposition for the sake of safety.

I would hope that each and every one of you stand by the Governor and sustain his veto.

Assemblyman Harmon: I rise in support of the Governor's veto. I voted "No" on A.B. 7 the first time it was on the floor of this Body, and I intend to do it again.

I polled my district before the beginning of this Session and found that 75.9 percent were against repeal, 21.7 percent in favor of repeal and 2.4 percent didn't care. I urge you to support the veto as I am going to do.

The roll was called, and the Assembly sustained the veto of the Governor by the following vote:

Assemblyman Price: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. Assembly Bill No. 466 is a meritorious piece of legislation that may well be one of the more significant things that we do this year. It allows the court a broader discretion in the sequestering of the juries. As we all know, the Legislature has been criticized from time to time unjustly, perhaps even today, for failing to adopt socially progressive legislation. In A.B. 466 we have an excellent opportunity to refute such allegations. Upon its passage, we will be abandoning that old Nevada custom whereby we lock up the juries overnight while the defendant is out on bail.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Jacobsen requested that The Reverend St. John's prayer be entered in the Journal:

Our Father, we come to You now with thanksgiving for another new day of our lives and to have You tell us what we need and what changes we need to make. Our friends flatter us and tell us what is good. Our foes find fault and tell us what is bad. Everyone seems to be sure. We have a hard time sorting out where we are right and where we are wrong. But You can help us because You see us as we really are—in our weakness—and in our strength—in our right and in our wrong. We need to look into the mirror of Your word and there see ourselves as we are. We cannot always trust our own judgment. We judge ourselves in the ways we want to see ourselves. We can give good reasons for our wrong actions. We can justify our hate by calling it a form of love. We can justify our selfishness by calling it enlightened self-concern. We can justify our worry by calling it concern. So help us to examine ourselves. Help us to redeem the time, make the most of the days and hours You give us. We live them only once. We can't recall them to live over again. So help us to make the most of the time we do have.

We pray for others. Help us to be caring people, ready not to see the worst in our fellow human beings but the best.

So we pray for guidance this day of our lives, confident that You are near us, loving and caring for us. May this day of our legislative session be the best day of our lives.

Amen

Amendment No. 75.

Amend section 1, page 1, line 1, after "Section 1." by inserting:

"NRS 483.470 is hereby amended to read as follows:

483.470 1. The department [is hereby authorized to] may suspend the license of a driver without preliminary hearing upon a showing by its records or other sufficient evidence that the licensee:

(a) Has committed an offense for which mandatory revocation of license is required upon conviction;

(b) Has been involved as a driver in any accident resulting in the death or personal injury of another or serious property damage;

(c) Is an habitually reckless or negligent driver of a motor vehicle;

(d) Is an habitual violator of the traffic laws;

(e) Is physically or mentally incompetent to drive a motor vehicle;

(f) Has permitted an unlawful or fraudulent use of such license;

(g) Has committed an offense in another state which if committed in this state would be grounds for suspension or revocation; or

(h) Has failed or refused to comply with the terms and conditions of issuance of a restricted license.

2. As used in this section, "traffic violation" means conviction on a charge involving a moving traffic violation in any municipal court, justice's court or district court in the State of Nevada, and includes a finding by a juvenile court pursuant to NRS 62.083 that a child has violated a traffic law or ordinance other than one governing standing or parking.

3. The department shall establish a uniform system of demerit points for various traffic violations occurring within the State of Nevada affecting any holder of a driver's license issued by the department.

4. Such system shall be a running system of demerits covering a period of 12 months next preceding any date on which a licensee may be called before the department to show cause as to why his driver's license should not be suspended.

5. Such system shall be uniform in its operation and the department shall set up a system of demerits for each traffic violation coming under this section, depending upon the gravity of such violation, on a scale of one demerit point for a minor violation of any traffic law to eight demerit points for an extremely serious violation of the law governing traffic violations. In the event of conviction of two or more traffic violations committed on a single occasion, points shall be assessed for one offense, and if the point values differ, points shall be assessed for the offense having the greater point value. Details of the violation shall be submitted to the department by the court where the conviction is obtained. The department may provide for a graduated system of demerits within each category of violations according to the extent to which the traffic law was violated.

6. The department shall not assess demerit points for any violation of the national maximum speed limit.

7. When any driver has accumulated three or more demerit points, but less than 12, the department shall notify him of this fact. If, after the department mails such notice, the driver presents proof to the department that he has successfully completed a traffic safety school course, approved by the department, for the number of hours prescribed by the course, with the approval of the department as constituting a course of instruction, the department shall cancel three demerit points from his driving record, pursuant to this subsection; but if such driver accumulates 12 or more demerit points before completing the traffic safety school, he [will not be] is not entitled to have demerit points canceled upon completion of such course, but shall have his license suspended. A person shall be allowed to attend only once in 12 months for the purpose of reducing his demerit points. The three demerit points can only be canceled from a driver's record during the 12-month period immediately following the driver's successful completion of the traffic safety school.

[7.] 8. Any three-demerit-point reduction [shall apply] applies only to the demerit record of the driver and shall not affect his driving record with the department or insurance record.

[8.] 9. When any licensee has accumulated 12 or more demerit points the department shall suspend the license of such licensee until the total of his demerits has dropped below 12 demerits in the next preceding 12 months.

[9.] 10. The director of the department of motor vehicles [is hereby empowered to] may set up a scale of demerit values for each traffic violation.

[10.] 11. Upon suspending the license of any person as authorized in this section, the department shall immediately notify the licensee in writing, and upon his request shall afford him an opportunity for a hearing as early as practical within not to exceed 20 days after receipt of such request in the county wherein the licensee resides unless the department and the licensee agree that such hearing may be held in some other county. Upon such hearing the administrator, or his duly authorized agent, may administer oaths and may issue subpenas for the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant books and papers, and may require a reexamination of the licensee. Upon such hearing the department shall either rescind its order of suspension or, good cause appearing therefor, may extend the suspension of such license or revoke such license.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 29.

Assemblyman Demers moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Rhoads.

Assemblyman Demers requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Rhoads: Mr. Speaker, it certainly gives me great honor to talk about the late Eyer Boies. Eyer was a well-known rancher in Elko. He lived just outside of Wells towards the Idaho line. He had an outstanding ranch. He and I served on the Elko Fair Board together. Also the Airport Advisory Board. Just about every board and commission that I have served on, Eyer was on it at one time. In fact, at the time that he passed away, as many of you know, he was running for the State Senate.

He and I were very close. We talked almost daily. I talked to him about three or four days before he passed away.

Eyer left a wife, Marla, who is now running the ranch along with her son, Steve, a former University of Nevada student, and two daughters, one currently in medical school.

Eyer Boies was very well thought of and I am sure that if he had lived, he would certainly have been one of our leaders down here in the other House. It certainly gives me great honor to urge your support for this resolution.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Mr. Speaker announced that if there were no objections, the Assembly would recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Out of anxiety may come confidence. Out of hurry may come the willingness to wait and out of frustration may come rest and strength. Deliver us from the fear of what might happen and give us the grace to enjoy what now is and to keep striving after what ought to be. In this Easter season, may the spirit and power of the resurrection be a personal experience for each of us. Amen

Senate Bill No. 57.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Westall, Glover, Brookman, Mann, Hayes, Weise, Barengo, Ross and May.

Assemblyman Westall: Mr. Speaker, this is a bill that is designed to have the senior citizens be able to get treated exactly the same way as every other one of the drivers. It has been the practice to require senior citizens to have a driver's license renewed every 2 years whereas everyone else is every 4 years. Some of the testimony that we heard in the committee was that the senior citizens are the lowest insurance risk. This has to say that they have less accidents. Other testimony said that other states do not require that they be treated in a manner any different from other drivers and we would ask a "do pass."

Assemblyman Glover: Mr. Speaker, Members of the Assembly, it is very difficult to stand up and oppose legislation that is designed to help our senior citizens. But the reason this legislation was enacted in the first place was in an effort, and I mean a sincere effort on the part of the people of the State, to protect some of the older people who are getting drivers' licenses, and the general public.

As many of you know, as we get older, our reflexes and our health tends to deteriorate. When people get up in years, I think it is important for them to come in and have an examination to see if they are still capable of driving a car. A lot of us can relate to personal experiences in our families where we have people—and one of the last vestiges of their independence is their driver's license—but they are not really capable of driving. It is hard for someone—for a son or a daughter—to say to their parents, "No, Mom or Dad, we are going to take your license because you are really not capable." But the State can do this in an effort to protect the individuals involved and the general public. I personally have seen several cases where someone went in before the law was changed and in the 4 years in which they had their driver's license, their eyesight and general health deteriorated so badly that they were a menace on the highway and I have known several people who were killed simply because of this fact. I think the law is a protection for everyone involved the way it is today. You get into the area of discrimination against older people. Well, we do this in the area of younger people also. I know many 13-, 14- and 15-year-old kids that are pretty good sized and are physically capable of driving a car but yet we say that they can't drive a car, so I think we must be fair to everyone involved and try to protect the lives of these people who are really dear to us.

Assemblyman Brookman: Mr. Speaker, I think one of the prime reasons I helped get this bill through before was to help the premiums of the insurance go down. Now, if this happens that they do not have to have their examinations every 2 years, will their premiums go up again?

Assemblyman Glover: Mr. Speaker, through you to Mrs. Brookman, that would be very difficult to ascertain because that is an underwriting decision on the part of the companies and it is very hard to anticipate what they might do in that area.

Assemblyman Mann: Mr. Speaker, to you and through you to Mrs. Hayes, didn't we pass a bill earlier in the session where we reduced the cost of drivers' licenses to senior citizens because of the inequality of having to take the test every 2 years?

Assemblyman Hayes: No, we didn't pass it because of the inequality, we passed it just because we felt it was more equitable.

Assemblyman Weise: Mr. Speaker, in theory I understand what my colleague Mr. Glover is saying, but if indeed we want to draft a law to discriminate against people based on their age because we feel at some particular age we are no longer capable of performing certain tasks, I think that we would have a difficult time to tie it to 70 or 60 or 55 or 85. For that reason, I would ask support of this bill. I believe that we, as a State, even though our intentions were good, are, in fact, discriminating against the senior citizens. We are saying that because they have reached a certain birthdate that they have to do something twice as often as the rest of us in terms of going down and going through the rigamarole to take the examination. Possibly if we wanted to lower it to 2 years for everybody or 3 years for everybody or something along that line I would be more supportive. I also feel that at the time these people do receive this last license or any other license as far as that goes, they could be tested to see what their reactions are and how capable they are. Fortunately, I have a member in my district who is over 100 years old who still drives his car every day. He is a real "hotdog." He gets around real well. He doesn't wear glasses. He is an amazing individual. I am sure he is more capable and more competent than a lot of people who are in their 60's who wouldn't be affected by this legislation.

Assemblyman Barengo: Mr. Speaker, to you and to Mr. Murphy, I have two grandmothers that are both over 70. Do I have a conflict on this bill?

Assemblyman Ross: Mr. Speaker, with reference to Mr. Weise's "hotdog," it appears to me that he wouldn't have any difficulty in passing the exam. I think if we have a piece of legislation that we are in favor of, we call it discrimination but if we have a bill here which seems to have a reasonable basis so it is an arbitrary age, we can call it a distinction as opposed to a discrimination. I, for one, am not in favor of saying that anyone over the age of 70 cannot drive; but I think that the age and what it does as we get older—I think it makes it a reasonable proposition to say that those people will be required to take a test. I don't feel that the test should be any more difficult than for anybody else but I am not offended by them having to take a test.

Assemblyman May: Mr. Speaker, I stand to agree 100 percent with the remarks Mr. Glover made and yet to ask, not as he did, that the members present support the bill. At one time, the measure as a bill was dead in Transportation. It had to be revived—not had to—it was revived probably because of the insistence of one or more individuals who indicated that they felt very strongly that it was a discrimination based entirely on age. There is a disclaimer in the bill on lines 5 and 6 on page 2. However, upon advice from legal counsel, it was indicated that it was shaky at best. I simply feel that we should pass this to avoid a lawsuit that the State would very likely find itself in. Not under a threat—not under the sort of thing, roughly saying, that would just hang over our head, but perhaps it was unfair to begin with and here is a chance to rectify a wrong.

Assemblyman Weise: I have one last comment that if we are going to discriminate against people on the basis of age, that possibly we shouldn't allow anyone to have a driver's license until they are 30 because I think we find most of the violations and most of the accidents are people who have obtained licenses between the ages of 18 and 30 and not the people in excess of 70.

Assemblyman Glover: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, it is difficult for us to put down on paper the great qualities that Bill had. He was somebody who was truly dedicated to Carson City and the citizens of this community. He proved it by the things he was involved in—not only the Fire Department and Juvenile Probation but football and boxing. I know that this community was very saddened by his death and I am sure we will deeply miss him in our community.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, I certainly join with my colleague, Mr. Glover, in asking for your adoption of this resolution. I think for years and years it has been very significant in the rural areas of Nevada how they cooperate with each other and especially the knowledge that we gain from individual people that reside in different areas. Bill Bernardini was one of these people that in my association with the Fire Department from Douglas County I began to know, appreciate and respect especially when you stand side by side with him fighting fires for the protection of everyone. Also, speaking for the people of Douglas County, he was certainly very instrumental in their juvenile affairs and also in the field of athletics where competition between Carson and Douglas has always been one of those highlights, I think, in the activities of youth in both counties. I think it is a real blessing that the Lord blesses us with a memory, because certainly this type of person is gone from our view but certainly not from our memory, and with that I would hope that each of you would adopt this resolution.

I would like to add that I think it is a real honor that today at my desk I have his mother, Mrs. Bernardini, and also his sister, Mrs. Laxalt.

Assembly Bill No. 499.
Bill read third time.
Remarks by Assemblymen Dini and May.
Assemblyman Mann requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Dini: A.B. 499 was originally introduced as a request from the Lions International District 4N so that Nevada could join 37 other states in providing identification on drivers' licenses for eye donors. The Lions International's primary project is eyesight conservation. This identification, either on the driver's license or in the wallet allows the Lions Clubs in our State to improve their service to the people of our State. After a death, you have 6 hours to use an eye for a transplant. Anyone can pledge an eye who is over the age of 18 years no matter what health they are in. All major religions approve the eye donor project. The Reno Host Lions Club has an eye bank, but the major source is the San Francisco Lions eye bank where we have been sending referrals for many years. Every member pays into it to help maintain the eye bank in San Francisco. Working together and through hospitals, they are pledging to work to get an eye bank for Southern Nevada. Each club has pledged to purchase two vacuum containers to transport eyes in. Local law enforcement and the Highway Patrol have pledged their cooperation in this project. There have been amendments to the bill by Assemblyman Bennett and Assemblyman Chaney to consider all parts of the body.

This is a worthwhile cause and everyone should cooperate and work hard to help people to donate parts of the body, under the Anatomical Gift Act. I urge and encourage your support.

Assemblyman May: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, to you and through you to the other Members of the House, a summary of this as the former speaker indicated—the previous speaker is still the Speaker—it all began with the donation of eyes only. The Committee on Transportation heard additional testimony from other people interested in donating one or more organs of the body including eyes. The Committee on Transportation enlarged the bill to provide for any of those organs. The Department of Motor Vehicles is cooperating real well with us. They have already sent a copy of a small form that may be affixed to the back of the driver's license that carries the full authorization for whatever you designate to be donated —any one or portions of your organs—upon death. Beyond that, the mechanics have been pretty well worked out. The Lions Clubs throughout the State have offered to pick up the major cost of the program. We do urge your support.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Barengo requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal:

In order to clarify the intent of the Assembly regarding A.B. 347, the following has been requested:

A.B. 347 deals with the exemption from the highway tax for vehicles using natural gas.

A question arose during the debate as to the effect of this bill on a pending case brought by the Nevada Highway Department to collect taxes from certain taxicab companies which are currently using natural gas.

I, Mr. Barengo, moved A.B. 347 to the Chief Clerk's desk. Mr. May, Chairman of Taxation Committee, opposed this move based upon the fact that this bill was only prospective in application and therefore would have no effect on the collection case. The motion was then defeated, and the bill passed. Afterwards remarks were made indicating the Assembly's intent not to interfere with pending collection cases. The Assembly concurred in these remarks and thus asked that this clarification be placed in the Journal for this legislative day.

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 45—Memorializing the late Assemblyman John P. Harriman.

Remarks by Assemblyman Gomes.

Assemblyman Gomes: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. John Harriman was one of those "Westerners" who in passing removes something basic from our Nevada way of life. Mr. Harriman was that type of pioneer who loved the broad open spaces of Nevada—its mountains, its deserts and plains. He lived close to the land in the northern reaches of Washoe County in isolated areas so he had to be in harmony with land and nature to sustain himself. He was a wise and generous man and father who helped give Nevada the important things this State should stand for—beautiful open space—lofty mountains—and places to be alone to help keep ourselves and the world in perspective.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Horn requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Chaney: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, to you and through you to the body and especially to Mr. Horn, I want to express my appreciation for giving notice of reconsideration on A.B. 333. We were hoping that I would be able to explain why I sponsored the bill and yet voted against it. I know most of you know that the bill originally was designed to do one thing and when we finally passed it out of here, it does nothing but create more problems. I happen to know what the problem is. I happen to live in the area where the problem is. I guess somebody was able to persuade most of the legislators here and tell them that they all had problems and it seemed that they did and everybody liked the bill the way it was and the way it is now. I just want to remind you that the problem will be next session when we will really have to deal with it and I am sure you will be aware of what you have created this time in A.B. 333.

These findings and recommendations are not binding on the parties except as provided in subsections 6 and 7.

2. If the parties are unable to agree on an impartial factfinder within 5 days, either party may request from the American Arbitration Association a list of seven potential factfinders. The parties shall select their factfinder from this list by alternately striking one name until the name of only one factfinder remains, who will be the factfinder to hear the dispute in question. The employee organization shall strike the first name.

3. The local government employer and employee organization each shall pay one-half of the cost of factfinding. However, each party shall pay its own costs of factfinding incurred in the preparation and presentation of its case in factfinding.

In a regular legislative year, in cases involving school districts, the governor may exercise his authority under this subsection within 10 days after the adjournment of the legislature sine die. The exercise of this authority by the governor shall be made on a case by case consideration and shall be made on the basis of his evaluation regarding the overall best interests of the state and all its citizens, the potential fiscal impact both within and outside the political subdivision, as well as any danger to the safety of the people of the state or a political subdivision.

(a) A preliminary determination shall be made as to the financial ability of the local government employer based on all existing available revenues as established by the local government employer, and with due regard for the obligation of the local government employer to provide facilities and services guaranteeing the health, welfare and safety of the people residing within the political subdivision.

(b) Once the factfinder has determined in accordance with paragraph (a) that there is a current financial ability to grant monetary benefits, he shall use normal criteria for interest disputes regarding the terms and provisions to be included in an agreement in assessing the reasonableness of the position of each party as to each issue in dispute.

The factfinder's report shall contain the facts upon which he based his recommendations or award.

9. Any reasonable and adequate sum of money necessary to insure against the risk undertaken which is maintained in a self-insurance reserve or fund shall not be counted in determining the financial ability of a local government employer and shall not be used to pay any monetary benefits recommended or awarded by the factfinder.

(a) The portion of the percentage change in the index in excess of a multiple of 10 percent is disregarded and each dollar amount shall change only in multiples of 10 percent of the amount prescribed on July 1, 1976, or the date of its addition to this chapter, whichever came first;

(b) The dollar amounts shall not change if the amounts required by this section are those currently in effect as a result of earlier application of this section.

2. If the index is revised, the percentage of change of the designated dollar amounts shall be calculated on the basis of the revised index. If a revision of the index changes the reference base index, a revised reference base index is determined by multiplying the reference base index then applicable by the rebasing factor furnished by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor. If the index is superseded, the index referred to in this section is the one represented by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor as reflecting most accurately changes in the purchasing power of the dollar for consumers.

Father, we pause this morning to forget ourselves and our work and to realize if there is any hope, it is in You, with You, and through You. Lord Jesus, be our hope and give us hope as we tackle the challenges ahead of us. Remind us gently that without You there is no lasting hope; but in You, there is eternal hope. We thank You, Lord, for Eileen Brookman's continued recovery and for her good health and for her healing and that You continue to be with her and bless her in love.

Amen, Shalom

Remarks by Assemblymen May, Murphy, Ross, Coulter, Robinson, Price, Barengo, Weise and Craddock.

Conflict of interest declared by Assemblyman Ross.

Assemblyman May: Mr. Speaker, first of all, with regard to the legislative intent, Assembly Bill 562 is drawn to apply to every trust or foundation under its jurisdiction. Two, citing a specific example, I would like to refer from this point forward only to one that would be affected by this provision or to be passed. That specific one is known commonly as the Fleischmann Foundation. Two years ago a member of this house, no longer present, and myself sponsored a resolution that was adopted that caused a staff study to be done under the jurisdiction of the Legislative Commission—a study on ways of encouraging private and community foundations. It was Bulletin No. 77–21. The date on the front is December 1976. That report came back indicating three separate proposals that might be used to preserve a particular foundation. Each of those required the consent and permission of the trustees if there were any to be involved in the measure. Assembly Bill 562, as you see before you, is a fourth alternative to those three recommendations, none of which I felt to be personally acceptable.

In Assembly Bill 562—again using the Fleischmann Foundation only as an example and not for any specific purpose—on lines 3 through 7, the Legislature recognizes that in the last two decades there have been major economic, social legislative changes, etc. It further provides that with regard to a foundation such as Fleischmann, seeking to expire under its terms and the trustees of that particular foundation, again only as an example, has already issued a press release stating they would distribute the corpus of the trust as the terms of the original maker requested, as of July 4, 1980. The current assets of the Fleischmann Foundation are somewhere between $100–114 million depending on today's stock market.

Since the trust was first created at the death of Major Max Fleischmann some years ago, it was created with approximately in excess of $50 million. As of June 30, 1976, the total disbursements made by that trust have been $76,393,922. Over half of those dollars have gone into Nevada grants. Those grants have been made in areas of education, medical research, hospitals, law, conservation use, libraries, health relief and social agencies, museums and historical projects and religion. In my own mind, the Fleischmann Foundation, again in example, not a specific, is too valuable of an asset to Nevada to let expire without at least some examination being provided by a judicial review, such as Assembly Bill 562 would purport to do. It would simply provide, beginning on page two of the bill that sets forth certain criteria the trustees must comply with prior to disbursing the corpus of the trust or the principal of the trust itself. It provides a judicial review, it provides input on behalf of all the people of the State of Nevada, either in person, in written comment or in editorial comment, but primarily through the Attorney General of this State, acting as parens patriae, as my legal advisor said, the big daddy of the people of the State. The court requires notification by the trustees for the advertising of the hearing to take place to be circulated in newspapers in the larger cities and larger counties in the State—most populous counties of the State.

As indicated on line 33, the court shall hold a full hearing on all matters, taking consideration of such evidence as offered. On page three, line 7, at the conclusion of the hearing, the court may then take any one of five options. It may allow the trust to disenfranchise itself, as the trustees have requested. It may in (b) permit the partial or complete dissolution or termination of it on a varied time schedule. It may delay a partial or complete distribution. It may deny the petition for distribution. It may modify the trust agreement. The jurisdiction of the Fleischmann Foundation, again as an example, not because this would apply only to it or was so designed, resides in the First Judicial District in Carson City. I submit to you that the Fleischmann Foundation is an asset that Nevada at this point and time in history, a point in time and space Major Max Fleischmann could not have seen at the time of his untimely death. And I submit to you further, that were Major Max Fleischmann alive today, from what I have read about him, from what I know of him, in my own mind I suspect, the Major would wish that trust continued beyond its proposed expiration date. I earnestly solicit on behalf of the people of Nevada your support for Assembly Bill 562.

Assemblyman Murphy: Mr. Speaker, being from Northern Nevada and being very familiar with the Fleischmann Foundation and its operation, I would really concur with Mr. May's remarks. I think the bill as drawn is certainly appropriate. I think it in no way makes an end-run on the Fleischmann Foundation money but really it is the logical thing, and something that should be followed through just simply for the purposes of information, if for no other reason. I think the bill is well and carefully drawn to preserve the integrity of all involved, and I urge do pass on Assembly Bill 562.

Assemblyman Ross: Mr. Speaker I rise in opposition to A.B. 562. I think we have a philosophical question here. We have to decide whether the property of an individual belongs to the individual or whether it belongs to the State. Essentially many of us cannot earn a living unless the State allows us to by licensing. The State dictates how we will conduct our method of business, earning a living. The State then takes a portion of what we earn in the form of taxes and the State specifies how, if we choose to leave it to another generation or to charitable purposes, and in what manner we must do this. And of course, the State takes a portion of it in the way of taxes. But at the present time, when that's all said and done, the way a person wanted those assets to go is finally the way it will be done. The purpose of 562 is to change that. It's to say that if the individual sets up a foundation such as the once-upon-a-time Fleischmann Foundation, which of course is just only one specific example of how this bill could apply, that what the trust specifically says, how it will end and how it makes specific arrangements for the assets to be distributed upon that termination, the state now has the right, if this bill were passed, to rewrite the document or the court can choose to ignore the document and order it some other way. So it's a philosophical question.

There is a second issue here which I will not dwell at great length on, but I will, in relating some of the testimony that came before the Judiciary Committee, I think you will see the second issue and that is, attracting to the State of Nevada people of wealth who will establish trusts and foundations and the problems that might be incurred with those people with reference to A.B. 562. I think it's important to understand what we are not talking about in A.B. 562. We're not talking about a situation where if a person dies and leaves all their money to fight cancer and 50 years or 30 years from now cancer is conquered and there is no cancer. Those situations are taken care of by case law and one would go into court and get a change of beneficiary. We're not talking about the situation where one leaves their money to a specific university in trust for that university and the university goes out of business. In those situations the law well provides by case law that the trustees of the foundation can go into court and show that their university no longer exists and that a different university should be chosen that would be consistent with the person's original desires. I'd like to call your attention to page 1, lines 19 and 20, which was the amendment that was added recently; it makes it clear that this bill would only apply if no specific remainderman had been designated and in the cases I'm talking about, with a specific named university or disease, there would be a specific remainderman. We are talking about the situation where an individual says that on such and such a date, my trust will end and the trustees will decide how to give the money away.

Looking at the bill, I'd like to point out some highlights Mr. May went through and take you through them in detail. I think what we're saying here on page 1, lines 8 through 10, specifically indicates that the policy of this Legislature and of the State is to encourage the creation and retention of private, charitable trusts, private foundations for the benefit of citizens and I believe that this bill will have the opposite effect. Also where it specifies other types of evidence that can be presented to the court, on page 2, showing on lines 41 and on, what we're talking about is the Attorney General or somebody else can come in and show that there have been some substantial social, economic or legislative changes affecting the trust or foundation. I would suggest that any trust or foundation that is set up for any length of time, by the nature of our dynamic society, there would have to be substantial changes. So we're saying that in every trust or every foundation, these kinds of changes can be shown.

Also, calling your attention then to subsection 5 of line 44 on page 2, we're talking about whether or not the termination or dissolution of the trust will have an adverse or beneficial effect on the general health, safety, welfare and comfort of the people of the State. Obviously, a trust of any magnitude or any trust where the money is not going to be continued to be used for the charitable foundations and purposes for which it has been used, would have a negative or adverse effect. And this is why I think we're into that philosophical question of whether a person should have a right to do with their money what they choose to do. I'd like to call your attention to page 3, line 17, which gives to the court the power to modify the trust instrument. And that's the bottom line. It also states that in exercising this power to modify the instrument, the court shall consider the general interest of the public and is not unreasonable in view of the circumstances surrounding the request and subsequent social, economic or legislative changes, etc. It might again be, if it's best for the entire State for the State to have the money, it doesn't matter what the person wanted to have done with the money.

I'd like to call your attention to some of the testimony that was given in the Judiciary Committee. The director and executive vice president of the Nevada Bankers Association testified as to the adverse effect on all trusts if it were to pass. I think it's also important to realize that this bill will affect not only future trusts, which might make it difficult to attract trusts, but it also affects existing present trusts, such as the Fleischmann Trust. That director did testify, and I'll use his words as it stated in the minutes, "A man should be able to do what he wants to do when it comes to disposing of his own assets and property." He went on to testify that essentially what we're talking about is that the State of Nevada has attacked the sovereignty of those types of institutions and people will be skeptical as to whether or not their wishes will indeed be carried out as they had set out. Interestingly enough, we also had testimony from an individual who appeared to be aware of the interests and needs of Major Fleischmann and pointed out that the reasons for the original foundation were such that he was fairly certain that the Major would feel that the purposes had been satisfied and that the trust should be dissolved. And I think that's the major problem, is that when someone has passed away, we don't really know at this point in time what they wanted or what they would want today because they're not here. It's pure speculation. We can only go by the document they drafted at that time and I think it would be inappropriate to have a court modify it. I would also like to state to the Speaker that on this bill I deem I have a conflict of interest because I think that this bill will encourage substantial litigation in this area, and as an attorney, I think I will indirectly benefit from it. But I intend to vote no.

Assemblyman May: Mr. Speaker, through you to Mr. Ross, I'd like to thank him for his last remarks. In rebuttal very briefly, I would address the attention of the house to the lines to be found on page 2 beginning with 31 through 35. "The court shall hold a full hearing on all matters concerning the proposed partial or complete distribution or termination including: 1. The terms of the original instrument, if included therein, as to the time and nature of the partial or complete distribution or termination of the trust." On page 3, the court, remember, has five options open to it, only one of which is to deny, one of which is to allow the dissolution or termination as requested by the trustees in compliance with the original document. Lines 24, 25, page 3: "In rendering its decision the court shall particularly consider: 1. The settlor's intent as expressed in the creating instrument." With regard to the attraction of new trusts into the state, unfortunately, again quoting from the staff study report, I referenced earlier, page 5 of that report, three brief lines: "Although foundations are creatures of state law, federal tax laws exert virtual life or death control over their formation and continued existence." Four more lines on page 6: "Changes in the Internal Revenue code effected by the 1969 act which ostentaciously were necessary to correct previous abuses throughout private foundations have tended to discourage formation and continued existence of private foundations and conversely to encourage formation of community developments." I did leave in Judiciary and do not have with me at the moment a chart showing the tremendous drop-off from after the enactment of that 1969 Internal Revenue ruling with regard to the formation and perpetuation of this type of trust anywhere in the country.

Assemblyman Coulter: Very briefly, Mr. Speaker. I would have to support Mr. Ross in his statements. There were two "no" votes in committee. My major concern and Mr. Ross', was we felt this was an ex post facto law, a law to the fact, and therefore in clear violation of the U.S. Constitution. We appreciate the good that the Fleischmann Foundation has done. There is a resolution coming along urging the foundation to reconsider, but we don't feel that this is the proper approach to take.

Assemblyman Murphy: Mr. Speaker, like my colleague from Washoe, I do not feel I am competent enough to make a ruling for the Supreme Court of the United States, but I do believe that Mr. May is correct in his remarks. I believe this bill is sound. I think the process set forth is a fair one. I think it is a process that is not going to gut any foundation's money but simply go to the process as to whether or not the original intent, indeed, could be changed by the fact of the occurrences over the last 30 years. I think it's a reasonable bill and the philosophy behind it is a good one. I urge a do pass.

Assemblyman Robinson: For some years, Mr. Speaker, there has been a comic around Las Vegas who shouts "nobody can tell me how to spend my money." He spices it up a little bit but I wouldn't want, if I had established a trust, somebody telling me how it should be done, especially some judge after I'm dead. Perhaps Mr. May lacks a little respect for the dead. I really think when a man, a person, or a woman or whoever, wants to set up a trust, if that's their desire, and they've gone to all the trouble to do this in all legal form, that the recipients should be thankful for what they have received. The wishes or desires of the person who set up the trust should be respected. For that reason, I am going to vote no on the bill.

Assemblyman Price: Thank you Mr. Speaker. I don't think it's to be taken lightly, the wishes of the departed. However, obviously none of us have the ability to look very far into the future. And during the testimony, the people who knew the Major, testifying on both sides, indicated that when he set the trust up, his fear was based on another trust, that he formed this after, that the trustees would somehow over the long period of years try in some manner to benefit from this and not carry out his wishes as far as benefiting the people in the United States and the people who are needy and deserved that which he was able to bestow. That has never happened. People on both sides have indicated this has probably been one of the better or at least a very good example of how a trust should be run. Now, what we've really got, and I'm not making light of this, but the best thing that I can think of would be like a bird in the hand is worth two in the bush; and in relation to Mr. Ross, in 1969 the federal government put additional restrictions on trusts which apparently have somewhat dissuaded people from setting up these large trusts again. It was indicated that there may not be very many more trusts of this size. And what we have is a $114 million trust that has been helping hospitals, both in Nevada and out of Nevada, scientific projects. My book is upstairs, but when you go down through the list, it's tremendous what they've done with this trust. And it started out, I think, with $57 million or $60 million when he started it and they've given all the money away and they have $114 million today. There are no heirs. If this is dissolved, the $114 million will go out to beneficial things, but that will be it. So what we're really talking about is are we going to take $114 million that has been built up from his generosity and continue to help the people of the United States and the people of Nevada and in the gentleman's name, and hopefully go on forever. I'm obviously going to be supporting it, but I certainly do not think that it will be any type of direspect to his memory for us to support this.

Assemblyman Barengo: Mr. Speaker, while not trying to pass on the constitutionality because I don't think anyone really can, a real direct reference to Chapter 163, entitled the Trust Acts for the State of Nevada. Under this chapter, it says that the declared policy of the State of Nevada shall be to conform to any IRS interpretations and to do things that make trusts more available in the State of Nevada. Going along with that and looking at this bill, the specific procedure is here for amendment of trust instruments. It says that "the Legislature hereby declares that the policy of the State is to maximize the funds available for charitable purposes by minimizing, to the greatest extent practicable, the imposition of federal income and excise taxes upon trust assets otherwise available for charitable purposes." Then it goes down further, under 163.540 and says: "Any district court of the State of Nevada having jurisdiction over any trust to which NRS 163.420 to 163.550, inclusive, (that's a charity trust we're talking about here) apply may amend any trust instrument to conform to the provisions. . . ." So what we're saying here is if the IRS acts, the federal government acts, can make provisions of the trust so that our state laws would jeopardize it, we'd be going to what the settlor intended anyway. So I think this procedure is already outlined in our laws and it seems to me that if the criteria as set forth in the bill can be applied, we may in effect do what the settlor intended to do in the long run and I would ask your passage of it.

Assemblyman Weise: Thank you Mr. Speaker. Very briefly, I support the bill and I think one distinction we have to keep in mind is these are charitable trusts as opposed to private trusts and I think there is a significant difference. I think probably if you look at page 3, at Section 8 of the first three things that the court is to consider, I think two of them are very important. One is the settlor's interest as expressed in creating the instrument and number (3) the opinion of the trustees, who have been appointed to carry out the trust. I think these two particular items that we are by statute bringing to the court's attention very strongly would protect the original intent of this charitable trust and preserve its integrity and I too would support it.

Assemblyman May: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. For the benefit of those of you who are not Nevada history buffs and haven't read enough to be familiar with the personality that was Major Max Fleischmann, let me tell you about the time that Lester Moody was head of the Nevada State Police. He made the Major an honorary member. The Major at that point had his car equipped with a siren; he wore a great big gun and actually went out onto the highways of the State and hauled in speeders. Later on when Governor Vail Pittman fired Lester Moody as superintendent of the state police, the Major went to Moody's defense. It did not help. Former Nevada Senator Pat McCarran came to Max Fleischmann's rescue at that time. He had the Major appointed as a deputy U.S. Marshal. The gun went back on, the siren started whirring again, the great big Stetson was added and Major Max Fleischmann continued to patrol the highways of the State. It was his adopted state.

Reading a press release from the Gazette, and I assume that it is the Reno Gazette, dated 10–25–61:

"Fleischmann made only two restrictions:

"1. No money shall be given to any organization, the earnings of which would go to the benefit of any shareholder or private individual.

"2. None of the money shall be used either by the recipients or by the trustees

The Major's request.

Assemblyman Barengo: Yes, Mr. Speaker, just one more thing. In reading the statute I did forget a section that said that at a hearing, pursuant to a section I just read where the district court may amend it, the court or judge may authorize the trustees to amend, revise, delete or add provisions to trust articles to conform with the policy of the State, that I read previously, in order to avoid penalties and liabilities prescribed in sections of the Internal Revenue code. So if we can do it for the IRS, we ought to be able to do it for the State of Nevada.

Assemblyman Craddock: Mr. Speaker, it would appear to me that anyone that is frugal and ingenious enough and if they have enough tenacity to accumulate amounts of money that's beyond what we can imagine, they would probably respect their own opinion in a number of ways. If we attempt to establish a policy of disregarding the opinion of this kind of an individual, it would seem apparent to me that they would go elsewhere with their money in the event that they decide to leave it with anyone.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Assembly Bill No. 613.
Bill read third time.
Remarks by Assemblymen Harmon, Jeffrey and Craddock.
Assemblyman Ross requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Harmon: Both police and fire protection are extremely serious issues. When we discuss these issues we are talking about saving citizens' lives and protecting their property. Government has no higher priority.

We have an obligation to put aside differences, and work to provide the best, most efficient and most cost effective services possible.

While in Clark County, now, we have good fire departments and highly dedicated firefighters, there is room for improvement in the way these services are delivered. A.B. 613 is an effort to help in that improvement. My interest in sponsoring this bill was inspired by a simple desire to have, in the Las Vegas Valley, the best and most efficient structure for the support of fire services. A single, streamlined and well organized fire department can result in considerable improvement in the quality of service available to urban Clark County residents.

We all know the advantages that are normally cited as byproducts of merging departments. These are extremely important and should not be underestimated. But, there are, with fire services, a number of additional and unique benefits which would come as a result of combining into a single unit. These include:

1. Better response time,
2. Improved backup coverage,
3. Increased safety for firemen,
4. Better highrise fire protection, and
5. The potential of lower fire insurance costs through a lower rating.

Yesterday, in its editorial, the Review Journal called the fire merger and A.B. 613 a "plus for the people." That's exactly what this bill was intended to be. I would urge your support.

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 54.

Resolution read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Horn, Gomes, Chaney and Bennett.

Assemblyman Ross requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Horn: A.J.R. 54 memorializes Congress to propose and submit to the states an amendment to the Constitution prohibiting the busing of public school children for the purpose of achieving racial balance.

Mandatory busing deprives the school children of the opportunity to learn in the familiar environment of their own neighborhood schools.

Such busing forces children to spend excessive amounts of time and energy in transportation to and from distant schools. Such busing adds unnecessary and unfair costs to education and to the already heavy burden of the taxpayer and is disruptive of and interferes with the educational process.

Assemblyman Gomes: I rise in opposition to A.J.R. 54. The questions of racial equality and quality education are questions that have to do with racial balance. If there is anyone who does not believe that, they are playing a game with semantics. In a state like Nevada where there are large rural areas, busing long distance is a way of life and if you think then that busing cannot be used to achieve racial balance I would paraphrase what the NAACP said, "It's not the distance, it's the niggers."

The background for Brown versus the Board of Education which was the beginning of busing children to achieve racial balance, started in 1896 with Plessy v. Ferguson and we decided that Black people would have separate but equal education. In 1954 the Supreme Court said that separate but equal education was not equal. I would like to read from the foreword of an anthology called "Simple Justice" about Brown versus the Board of Education: "Of the ideals that animated the American nation at its beginning, none was more radiant or honored than the inherent equality of mankind. There was dignity in all human flesh . . . All men were to be protected alike from the threat of rapacious neighbors and from the prying or coercive state. If it is a sin to aspire to conduct of a higher order than one may at the moment be capable of, then Americans surely sinned in professing that all men are created equal—and then acting otherwise . . . Some protested, to be sure. But no political leader risked all of his power and no sector of the nation's governmental apparatus was fully applied against this grave injustice—until the Supreme Court of the United States took that step. There was irony in this because the nine Justices constitute the least democratic branch of the national government."

They heard five cases which technically now have become Brown versus the Board of Education of Topeka. "Probably no case ever came before the nation's highest tribunals affecting more directly the minds, hearts, and daily lives of so many Americans. Already decades later the scholars have assigned this case a peak in the literature of liberty. The decision marked the turning point in America's willingness to face the consequences of centuries of racial discrimination. Now unheralded people persevere in widespread communities over long, hard decades to keep going what the Supreme Court decided on the Seventeenth of May 1954."

I think that Nevadans would be proud to continue that effort and to reject A.J.R. 54.

Assemblyman Chaney: Mr. Speaker, Members of the Assembly, I rise in opposition to this resolution. I really couldn't believe what I was seeing. I think I could understand a resolution like this coming from somebody from one of the rural areas where the problem might not have existed, but not from somebody that is familiar with the area—especially Clark County. I don't think that the busing in that area is designed to achieve racial balance in the first place. I think it is designed to achieve quality education. In the West Las Vegas area, as most people from Clark County know, there is no high school or junior high school. I'm sure the people in our community would much rather have a high school or junior high school but we have never been able to convince the State of Nevada that it was needed. They seem to like to bus us out of the area into another one. This busing has been going on so long that it never seemed to be a problem as long as Blacks were being bused from one area to another. The problem seemed to come up when Whites had to be bused as well. I am sure you know the conditions, especially those of you from Clark County. I am not familiar with the busing in other areas, although I do see the buses and do know they run, but I don't think they have the problem with the Black people on the buses so that would not be a big problem. But, if you have to get elected or reelected by passing legislation like this or even recommending things like this in order to please a constituent, then I think that your reelection is on a very, very thin string. I would recommend that those of you that have that problem look for another job and vote "no" on this.

Assemblyman Bennett: Mr. Speaker, Members of the Assembly, I stand in opposition to this resolution. It is more of a source of embarrassment than anything else. Having come from the states of George Wallace, Talmadge and Thurman in the South where previously 8 or 10 years ago or 16 years ago, this was used as racial bait. Even now in Georgia and Mississippi, you see they have seen the light of day and recognize that all of God's children must live and work together and try to be of one society with respect and dignity for all. To find that once we have succeeded in the southern part of this country is just like a two-headed snake. You kill it there and it rises up right here in Nevada. It is beyond my comprehension that anyone would use this type of racial bait to help flame the fire of racialism. In Clark County alone over 25,000 kids are bused every day and of that, for racial balance 12,000 Black kids are bused every day for 12 years for racial balance. White kids—3,000 are bused one year. So you can see that's way out of proportion. They have to bear the brunt of the burden. I think it is in Revelations 6:5, the Revelator says something about "saw a man riding a black horse with balances in its hand" and it seems to me it's unjust that we, as Black people, must help bring equality and balance to a society that is out of focus. I think the poet put it in proper perspective when he said, "I sat on a man's back making him carry me and yet feeling very scrry for him and wishing to do something to lighten his load except by getting off of his back." I think, at the time of this problem, we as legislators and responsible leaders for the people, must be the headlight and not the taillight and get off the back of the poor and depressed people of this State who have suffered long. The time is up for this type of foolishness.

Assemblyman Ross: Mr. Speaker, with reference to the work done by the staff of the Department of Commerce prior to this bill being referred to the Judiciary Committee, I would like to commend them for their efforts in that regard. They had an almost impossible task to accommodate all the legitimate but conflicting interests with this type of legislation. They tried very hard to resolve all of these conflicts before it was referred to the Judiciary Committee. The competing interests are not completely happy with the efforts that have been made by the Judiciary Committee; however, I believe it is a good bill and it is a responsible compromise.

361.803 1. The legislature finds that:

(a) Senior citizens of this state live, as a rule, on limited retirement incomes which remain fixed while property taxes and other costs constantly rise.

(b) The erosion of senior citizens' income in terms of true value threatens to destroy the ability of many to retain ownership of the homes in which they had planned to spend their later years.

(c) Senior citizens are often forced to divert an excessive portion of their incomes into the property taxes on their homes, thus leaving insufficient funds for other things essential to their well-being.

(d) Many senior citizens who rent their home or mobile home lots also pay an excessive portion of their income into property taxes through the media of rent payments.

(e) [Fifteen] Seventeen percent of the rent senior citizens pay [for the occupancy of their homes] approximates their contribution toward residential property taxes.

2. The legislature therefore declares that:

(a) It is the public policy of this state to provide assistance to its senior citizens who are carrying an excessive residential property tax burden in relation to income.

(b) The purpose of the Senior Citizens' Property Tax Assistance Act is to provide relief to eligible senior citizens, through a system of property tax refunds and transfers from the senior citizens' property tax credit memoranda, assistance account.

Sec. 4. NRS 361.805 is hereby amended to read as follows:

361.805 For purposes of NRS 361.800 to 361.877, inclusive, and section 1 of this act, the terms listed in NRS [361.807] 361.810 to 361.832, inclusive, have the meanings ascribed to them in [such] those sections.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

By Assemblymen Dini, Banner, Barengo, Bennett, Bremner, Brookman, Chaney, Coulter, Craddock, Demers, Dreyer, Glover, Gomes, Goodman, Harmon, Hayes, Hickey, Horn, Jacobsen, Jeffrey, Kissam, Kosinski, Mann, May, Mello, Moody, Murphy, Polish, Price, Rhoads, Robinson, Ross, Schofield, Sena, Serpa, Vergiels, Wagner, Weise and Westall:

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 60—Memorializing the late Assemblyman Melvin B. (Bode) Howard.

WHEREAS, The heart of every member of this body is deeply grieved by the tragic passing of Assemblyman Melvin B. (Bode) Howard, whose untimely death constitutes a severe blow to the legislature of the State of Nevada; and

WHEREAS, The profoundly shocking death of Mr. Howard has removed from the midst of the Assembly one of its most admired and respected members, whose 16 years of service established him as its veteran legislator; and

WHEREAS, Assemblyman Howard's able representation of his widely spread constituency of Assembly District No. 34, encompassing Eureka, Humboldt and Lander counties and Carlin Township of Elko County, which permitted him to seek the office six out of nine times unopposed, was largely due to his enviable ability to stay close to the people he represented; and

WHEREAS, Born April 9, 1921, in Winnemucca, Assemblyman Howard's loyal devotion to this state exemplified by his selfless dedication to public service illustrated the true spirit of native pioneer Nevadans; and

WHEREAS, Assemblyman Howard was a distinguished veteran of the Committee on Ways and Means, was one of its most gifted members and was considered an authority on the state's budget; and

WHEREAS, The pleasing disposition and gentle manner of the soft-spoken legislator will be sorely missed on the Assembly floor and in the committee rooms of the house where Assemblyman Howard conscientiously labored; and

WHEREAS, Assemblyman Howard's humanitary devotion was far-reaching, including service in the National Guard from 1941 to 1961 when he retired as a major, and also his membership in the American Legion; VFW; Elks Lodge No. 1757, as well as his past presidencies of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and Chamber of Commerce; and

WHEREAS, Aside from Assemblyman Howard's civic and political contributions, he was an honorable and hard-working businessman and a devoted husband and father who served as an inspiration to his family and countless friends; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the Assembly of the State of Nevada, the Senate concurring, That the members of the 59th session of the legislature of the State of Nevada extend their heartfelt sympathy to the family of Assemblyman Melvin B. (Bode) Howard, whose death has touched all of us with deepest sorrow; and be it further

Resolved, That a copy of this resolution be transmitted forthwith by the legislative counsel to Marian, Assemblyman Howard's widow and their three children, Melvin B. "Buddy" Howard, Jr., Joan Chesser and June Dayton.

Assemblyman Demers moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblymen Jacobsen, Mello, Mann, Robinson, Chaney, Weise, Bennett, Wagner, Sena, Horn, Craddock, Dreyer and May.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, it is really difficult at a time like this to say what is within our hearts. I know our feelings are certainly all similar. I imagine I probably knew Bode better than most. We had the privilege and pleasure of serving for a number of years. He always epitomized to me the real Nevadan that he was. It's somewhat personal and I know many of you in this house that he has attached some kind of title to, whether it was in a nickname, or whatever, and I think by that token that showed his respect for you. As I look around the room and I know many times he commented to me about certain individuals and yet I never heard him say anything bad about anyone. He might not have agreed at times and even between the two of us, we didn't always agree. I think our voting record shows that our philosophy was somewhat the same. We represent the same kind of people. Strangely enough, we work for the same employer. Bode was the type of guy that over the years truly represented his constituents. He communicated daily with them and, you might say, was even part of them. To me he was somewhat of a member of my family. In discussing his passing with my family the other evening, even my children were emotionally upset because my two older boys had had occasion to hunt with him along with myself. I couldn't help but remember about a year or so ago when we were hunting pheasants in Winnemucca, I saw him walking down the fence line, and I couldn't help but, in my own mind, realize what kind of a guy Bode was. As he walked down the fence line he had no fancy hunting clothes, he had two cock pheasants tucked under his belt, just as proud as he could be that he had mastered that hunt. Yet each time that he came in contact with not only my children but with many others, he was always instrumental in teaching and showing them the good parts of life. I could hardly realize this morning in coming to work that Bode just wasn't going to be here anymore. It is hard for each and every one of us to compromise because a death in a family is always hard to understand and realize, and I kind of feel that we are a large family here. We get to know each other's problems and each other's philosophies and appreciate each other's ways. I am sure that the Good Lord in His wisdom will certainly grant Bode the peace that he so well deserves. I would truly stand in support of this resolution.

Assemblyman Mello: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, I am not very good at things like this. Bode Howard not only was a friend of mine, I served 13 years with him, I know his wife, I know he was a good husband and a wonderful father. I know his children. He was a tremendous legislator. We served many, many years together as I did with Jake on Ways and Means, and when I became chairman some three sessions ago, I looked to Mr. Howard for guidance and he was there and willing to give it. Even though we were from different, opposite parties, that never interfered with our work on Ways and Means. He was a very kind man. I don't recall ever hearing him speak ill of anyone. This State and the people of this State are going to miss him.

Assemblyman Mann: Mr. Speaker, to you and through you to this body, I rise to support this resolution. Very few times in a man's life does an individual affect him as much as Mr. Howard affected me 2 years ago when he spoke on the last day of that session. He had some very potent remarks that he made about Mr. Weise and myself after Mr. Weise and I had what was, I think, a controversial session. The remarks that he made were much needed, I think, by two freshmen legislators at that time. That is the kind of man he was. It didn't matter that he was a Republican or that I was a Democrat, he came to my needs on that last day of the session. I have never forgotten that man for that particular time and I know that Mr. Weise, and I am sure many others, feel the same way. He was truly a man who affected my life and I can't think of anybody in this body that he hasn't affected in a positive way. I am sure the Good Lord is taking care of him at this time.

Assemblyman Robinson: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think one of the great values of living in a state such as ours is the small population where from all corners of the state we can get well-acquainted with one another. I first met Bode in 1941 when he, Bill Reinkin and I, and a lot of other young people at that time, were called to duty in the Army through our membership in the Nevada National Guard. Bode was a member of Battery B in Winnemucca. I was a member of Battery D, Las Vegas, and Bill was Headquarters Battery up here. I first met him in Campon, California, an occasional meeting as you would in a military outfit of several hundred people. Then after the war, I was active in the Junior Chamber of Commerce. I ran into Bode Howard again at a JC function in Winnemucca and got well acquainted with him through that. I would hunt with him. He was always wanting to show us places around Winnemucca that were interesting. For those who were interested in rock hunting, he would always take the time to show them his country. He was so proud of it. He really knew the territory up there—every little nook and cranny of that part of the State. There was hardly a place that Bode hadn't climbed over. He was a member of the Elks Lodge and I met him through lodge activities. Jim Schofield met him there, too, as we were attending the State Elks' functions. Today I am reminded of words from the Civil War song called "The Empty Chair" which is part of an Elk's ritual: "We shall meet but we shall miss him. There will be the vacant chair. Though we no more possess him, still our hearts his memory bear. But awhile ago we gathered friendship beaming in each eye, now the golden cord is severed, he has passed to realms on high." I'm really going to miss this man.

Assemblyman Chaney: Mr. Speaker, to you and through you to the members of this body, I rise in support of this resolution. I didn't really get to know Mr. Howard as a Republican but I got to know him as a friend. I, along with the other members of this body, sympathize with his family for they have lost a loved one and we have lost a friend.

Assemblyman Weise: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I didn't know Bode as long as a number of you here, but I did get to know him pretty well. After his first illness in February, I was thoroughly impressed beyond words how seriously he took his job and his commitment to his state, his people and his constituents. We didn't know it here but Marian and her sister, June, were kept busy full time typing letters while Bode was sick and convalescing. He kept in touch with all of his people. He was doing his job as ill as he was. He kept up on all of his bills. He would call and he would ask for specific information so he could stay on top of things. He was so up on the budget it was amazing. I know when Dean took his position on Ways and Means Committee he spoke with Bode and Bode had a lot of comments—not casual—not like: "I remember this came up," but rather he had gone through and he knew what was going on and he knew what the changes were. He had a lot of input and he made sure that the input was known to this body. He represented his people all the time, not just for that first month. He stayed on top of things and did his job right up through Friday. I know that a lot of us had some reservations after he collapsed Friday as to whether or not he should have come back to this House or whether he should have gone home and taken care of himself. If any of you had a controversy with him in these last few weeks we want you to know that after the autopsy it was learned that the pressure of the Legislature and the Session was not a factor in his death. The situation was such that it wasn't going to matter whether he went home. I personally feel, and I talked with Marian and was with her Saturday and Sunday, and she agrees that his anxiety in not being in this Session would have been much more damaging to Bode than the fact that he came down here and worked and argued and was involved as a legislator. The idea of him going home and sitting there and thinking, "what if they need one more vote for a bill," would have been too much for him. I am sure that would have been a pressure that he couldn't take. His greatest desire was to be here. In the hospital they had to take his clothes away from him to keep him in the hospital. I don't know if some of you knew that. He was ready to leave the hospital and come back here. That was his commitment to his family, to the people in his district and to the people of the State of Nevada. He was just a wonderful human being. I am glad I got to know him. Marian said she didn't realize what a wealthy person Bode was in his friendships until his death. I don't think we realize how much wealthier we are for having known Bode. I support this resolution, as I know you all will. We are going to miss him very, very much.

Assemblyman Bennett: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, I certainly stand in support of this resolution. We all know what Mr. Howard was like, we all know his great attributes. He has now joined the ranks of the immortal. He has now made a significant exchange—the earthly for the heavenly—the mortal for the immortal—the terrestrial for the celestial. No pain now, for he is at rest.

Assemblyman Wagner: Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I remember going home to Reno one day on a Friday afternoon. I stopped off to see Bode, and as Mr. Weise commented, he was working on his budget. In fact at the time when I knocked on his door he was calling a secretary of the Ways and Means Committee, somewhat irritated because the current minutes had not been delivered to him. I was somewhat astounded and amazed that he would take that much interest and that much concern when he, indeed, was not feeling very well. Bode and I may have had different philosophies even within the Republican Party but the one thing that I will always remember Bode for is the fact that he appreciated and was concerned about those differences, but it made no difference as far as a personal relationship is concerned. For that reason and for many others, I will sorely miss him.

Assemblyman Sena: Mr. Speaker, fellow members of this body, I, too, rise to support this resolution but I rise to pay my humble respect to my amigo, Bode. I believe that everybody has truly stated what a great gentleman this individual was. We can all count our blessings because we have had the opportunity to work with and love a person who is a very unique individual. I only request that each one of you in your own way ask the Dear God Above to embrace Bode for all the work he has done for us.

Assemblyman Horn: Mr. Speaker, as a freshman, I didn't get to know the man as well as most of you, but I got to know the image—the image of strength, of dedication, of love, of concern, of his commitment. We will miss him. For us it is a great personal loss. For the State it is a monumental loss, for the State will miss a giant of a man and a true servant of the people.

Assemblyman Craddock: Mr. Speaker, to you and through you to the members,

I'll never forget the way that Bode would stand up and address this honorable body. If I ever knew an honorable man in my life it was Bode Howard. I may forget a number of things that he and I have discussed over a period of time and I am sure that applies to the rest of you. But I'll never see the day when I'll question the honor and the integrity of Bode Howard, one of the finest gentlemen I have ever met in my life and a man among men.

Assemblyman Dreyer: Yes, Mr. Speaker, in 1971 when I came to this Legislature as a freshman, and like a freshman you look to guidance from some of the older hands, Bode Howard was certainly one that I went to, and one that, frankly, I will miss very, very much. I can recall when you, Mr. Speaker, appointed me to the Ways and Means Committee. When I went to my first meeting Thursday, Bode looked at me and the first thing that he said was "Thank God, we have another 'no' vote." I am going to miss him very, very much and, needless to say I think he was one hell of a man.

Assemblyman May: Mr. Speaker, Members of the House, I've been sitting here trying to compose myself before I was to speak. I haven't done it successfully yet. I guess I first met Bode Howard in 1967 when I first served in this Legislature. As Mr. Dreyer inferred, sometimes being a freshman you kind of wonder: (1) How you got here, and (2) If you are ever coming back again. You really have, deep within your heart, a burning desire and a feeling of trying to do a good job. You look around and you watch those people who have been here before, and you single out those who you would most like to be like. Bode Howard, to me, was that kind of a person. Bode was the kind of a person who never got excited about legislation unless it affected his own district or his own constituents, and then he jumped into battle. He didn't involve himself in every single measure before this body. He was very selective. Only if that measure concerned his people or his district or his home counties would he make his wishes known. To me he was one of the most effective people I have ever seen in this Legislative Hall. I've fought battles with Bode and I've fought battles against him. He won most of them. I don't regret any one of them. I will miss him terribly also.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Demers moved that the rules be suspended and that the resolution be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

Motion carried unanimously.

(a) The National Consumer Price Index is the price index prepared by the Bureau of Labor Statistics of the United States Department of Labor and the percentage of its increase is measured for the months of October 1976 through September 1977.

(b) The relevant taxes are:

(1) The tax accrued pursuant to the Sales and Use Tax Act. The dollar amount of the increase in its yield is determined by subtracting from the total accruals for the two calendar quarters beginning April 1, 1977, and ending September 30, 1977, an amount equal to 112 percent of the total accruals for the two calendar quarters beginning April 1, 1976, and ending September 30, 1976.

2. If the net increase in the combined yield of the two relevant taxes is at least $427,632 but less than $855,265, and the increase in the National Consumer Price Index is 5.5 percent or more, the amounts respectively allocated for each fiscal period from each appropriation shall not exceed 40 percent of the amount appropriated, to provide an approximate 1-percent salary adjustment.

3. If the net increase in the combined yield of the two relevant taxes is at least $855,265 but less than $1,069,081, and the increase in the National Consumer Price Index is 6.5 percent or more, the amounts respectively allocated for each fiscal period from each appropriation shall not exceed 80 percent of the amount appropriated.

4. If the net increase in the combined yield of the two relevant taxes is $1,069,081 or more and the increase in the National Consumer Price Index is 7 percent or more, the entire amount of each appropriation may be allocated for the appropriate fiscal period, to provide an approximate 7-percent salary adjustment.

5. Before making any allocation from any of the appropriations made by section 4 of this act, the state board of examiners shall review the yields of the relevant taxes and the increase, if any, in the National Consumer Price Index to determine whether the conditions of subsection 2, 3 or 4 have been met, and shall make appropriate allocations accordingly.

JUDY AHLSTROM

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Weise requested that the following remarks be placed in the Journal:

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker and my colleagues of the Assembly, yesterday was a sad day for this Legislative Session as we laid our colleague, Bode Howard, to rest in the community that he loved and in this State that he was so proud of.

If he were here today, I know in my heart that he would want to say "Thanks."

In that view, Mr. Speaker, I would like to pinch hit for Bode and say "thanks" to everyone for your thoughts, words, deeds, prayers and especially your attendance at yesterday's services. Your numerous kind words were truly appreciated.

How great it is that we care. How wonderful it was that Bode cared and truly shared a part of his precious life with you and me.

We would ask, O Lord, that You keep Bode within Your sight and under Your protection. Grant him the peace and glory he so richly deserves in Heaven Above.

Remarks by Assemblyman Jacobsen.

Assemblyman Wagner requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker and Members of the Assembly, probably not too many in this body were familiar with Assemblyman Thomas Kean. Very few of us here served with him. Those that represent Washoe County, I am sure, are well aware of Tom Kean and all the things that he has done for Washoe County.

In my opinion, he was probably one of the most knowledgeable legislators that I have ever served with. His knowledge covered a real variety of subjects. It is interesting that in his young engineering days he worked for Howard Hughes on the building of that wooden airplane.

He served three times as Minority Leader here in the Assembly under the Republican Party. He had the ability to correspond on almost any subject. He sat where Mr. Craddock sits. He was responsible for naming this back row here "death row."

He was the type of legislator that availed himself to everything that transpired in Nevada. He had a great deal of interest in mining, trucking and anything in the manufacturing field. One of the things that I remember about him was in the area of drugs when L.S.D. and those types of things were really common and there was nothing in our statutes to relate to them. He was the owner of a business that catered to the general public in all of these types of materials that make up these types of drugs. I was pleasantly surprised when we discussed it in committee and all of a sudden he said, "You know, I think possibly that I sell this in my own business." He jumped up and went to the phone and disguised his voice and with regard to the contents of L.S.D., the girl on the other end asked him how much of the product he desired. He really became upset at that point and I think he was one of those that was responsible for including L.S.D. as a dangerous drug.

He served in the Navy in World War II, and he truly was a family man.

The reason that Mr. Abraham Lincoln is hanging here today is because of his wife, Josie, along with Mrs. Bill Swackhamer, who were instrumental in moving him from the old Assembly Chambers over to these Chambers.

He served with a lot of distinction and with a lot of merit because everything that he was involved in he put his whole heart and soul into, not only here in the Legislature but also in community affairs.

I would ask your support in the adoption of this resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Moody.

Amendments adopted.

The following amendment was proposed by Assemblyman Weise:

Amendment No. 1262A.

Amend section 1, page 15, by inserting between lines 2 and 3:

"(l) The governing body shall maintain a current list of real property known to be available for exchange and participate in negotiations with the United States, the State of Nevada or the State of California or with other owners of real property in order to effectuate exchanges of real property by owners of real property affected by the governing body's regulations."

Assemblyman Weise moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen Weise, Dini, Demers, Jeffrey, Robinson, Jacobsen, Mann, Ross, Rhoads and Craddock.

Assemblyman Wagner requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Weise: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, I am going to attempt to answer in advance some of the opposition to the amendment. The greatest line that will probably be brought is that it would be too difficult to get concurrence at this stage of the game. We have just amended the bill three times previous to this amendment so it will not create any undue hardship to include this amendment with the bill which will go back to the Senate for possible concurrence.

The amendment does one thing. It doesn't make any imposition on any individual or on any government agency or entity or affect dual majority or anything else other than to say that the governing body will maintain a list of real property known to be available for exchange and participate in negotiations with the United States, the State of Nevada, the State of California or with the owners of other real property in order to effectuate changes in real property by the owners of real property affected by the governing body's regulations.

Basically, what this means is that the people who have purchased property in the Basin and purchased it, not only in good faith, but with the consent of the governing body as to what could be done with the property and this—we have to differentiate—is well off from speculations. This is not speculation. These people went up there—and the State of Nevada and Washoe County and the TRPA and everybody involved at the time said you can do this with the property—and they bought it in good faith saying that is all I want to do with it. Then the governing body turned around and changed the zoning after they purchased it. A number of these people have already lost their land. They have lost it because they are still paying the taxes on that original intent—what they were told they could buy it for. These people are not paying taxes on greenbelt land—they are paying taxes on commercial property, on high density uses, on residential property. No one has ever let them off the hook of paying these taxes. They just said that you can't do anything with it. One might have a piece of property that you could have 300 units and now you can only put one unit on it. As I said, this has gone on so long that a number of these people have lost their land because they just can't afford, between the interest, the financing and taxes, to carry it any longer. They have had to walk away from substantial investments. These are not the Boise Cascades we are talking about. Most of these people are people who came up with retirement moneys, with small investment moneys, to come up and buy a piece of property at the lake. Hopefully one day they can sell a piece or they can build a small commercial building because it was zoned that way and they could sublet the building and cover their cost and what have you. These are the people we are talking about. What the amendment will allow, and it has happened in a perilous situation with Point Reyes National Park, where the government in California wanted to obtain all of this land for a national park. What they did is they allowed the people who owned the property there to trade it all over the country —not just in California. Actually, quite a bit of BLM land in the State of Nevada went to California residents in trade for the property they had there. What we are saying here is the TRPA is probably correct in a number of instances as to what type of development should go on here but it is the only governmental body that I have ever seen and probably the only one that most of you have ever come in contact with that ever went into an area and condemned the land—out and out condemned it—and did not give the people any compensation for it.

You know when someone builds a highway through your property at least they come along and you can take it to court and at least get fair market value for it. You can either negotiate it or if you don't like negotiation, you can go to court and get judicial review and hopefully just compensation for it. Lake Tahoe and the TRPA is one entity that has never done that. They condemn the property outright contrary to the good faith those people had with the governing body and have never compensated them for it. All we are saying here is that the BLM or the State of Nevada or the State of California will make a list of lands that they have available for these people to trade out. So that the fellow says, "Look, O.K., if you are not going to pay me for it, at least give me another piece of land somewhere else in the country in return for what you are condemning that I own and take me off the hook for paying the taxes on it." These people are still paying taxes on this on the original density. So, we are saying go to California, go to Ohio, go to Florida—wherever this government property might be and we will start some trades. It will be the best thing for the Lake. It will get this private property onto the public rolls and it will give relief to these property owners. I would urge your support.

I would also tell you I appreciate more than I can tell you those people who were committed to support the dual majority on my behalf. I know that the pressure has been most intense. I know that there is at least one individual in this building right now that must be tired from all the running that he has done. I do understand the pressure you have been under. I do not expect to hold you to that commitment. However, I would appreciate it if you can continue to support this amendment on behalf of the people up there and I thank you for your support up until this time.

Assemblyman Dini: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, I have to concur with Mr. Weise's concept of offering this amendment. However, I believe the amendment goes far beyond what he is saying it is really going to do because if we are just going to have a little list for known property to be exchanged, and this and that, there really isn't a fiscal impact to the State of Nevada or its residents. When we start participating in a negotiation with the federal government and with other real estate owners in order to effectuate changes in real property, you are talking about committing the State of Nevada to many millions of dollars in buying up this land and actually involving our agency within the State spending a lot of money to put this thing together. I think the concept behind the amendment is great but in actual reality the fiscal impact would be a tremendous burden on the people of the State of Nevada. You would probably see us issuing a bond issue for many millions of dollars to carry this thing through. At least, we would have to shore up the TRPA with many more dollars and, as you all know, California isn't participating too well on the TRPA financially. Until we can get this thing through and get rid of the CTRPA up to that point I think we should resist this amendment and stay with the bill as it is and as we have already amended it.

Assemblyman Demers: I rise in opposition to the amendment, also. Basically, the same reasons, but I believe there is a statute on the books, if I am not mistaken, that states that we cannot exchange state lands without an act of the Legislature and I don't think that this amendment with that in mind and that sort of a statute in existence would really have any effect. I think it is a bad amendment and I urge you to defeat it.

Assemblyman Jeffrey: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, I have to arise in opposition to the amendment also. I think the concept is good but as other members in the body have said, "I am not an attorney," but it seems that this may cause us some legal problems down the road. I understand some of these portions are in litigation now and we may be saying, at least in the opinion that I have heard, if we pass this amendment we may be putting ourselves in jeopardy in those lawsuits.

Assemblyman Robinson: Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore. I, too, rise in opposition to the amendment because of the testimony heard in Government Affairs Committee that the state lands are not exchangeable and, as I recall, in the last session of the Legislature, we did pass a bill which instructed our State Land Use Planning Agency to assist all Nevada residents who have property in the Basin who desire that they would assist them in making exchanges with federal land that was available. I think that is about as far as we can go right now until we change the statutes that have to do with exchange of Nevada land.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore and fellow colleagues. I, too, like Bob Weise, would like to thank those of you who have supported our stand in regard to Tahoe and especially to these amendments that we have had here recently. I know that each one of us believe in our constitutional rights and I think this is one of them—that right being to have and to hold and do whatever you want to with your property and your possessions. I think Tahoe is an example where a few people have been denied that right to have and hold their property and do what they want with it. They have been down-zoned with no compensation whatsoever. Many of those people there that are underneath this type of an axe would simply like to get a fair market price for their property and get out of there.

I think if we are going to impose this type of restriction on one segment, then I think they are entitled to some compensation. This type of legislation I have pursued ever since it started. I don't think there is anything wrong with cataloging that property. I doubt whether there is one of you sitting here today that have any idea how much property is involved. I think it is really unfair that you talk against this kind of amendment and do not advocate it because if one of you were a property owner in that area, under this circumstance, I am sure that you would have no other alternative than to vote for it. I guess the greatest fault of the Tahoe agency is that it only concerns a few people.

I can probably give some other comments that would be relative and I fully realize the decision that is made here today is by people that are not directly involved. I know you have had pressures on you from other areas, too, even in the political sense, which I think is wrong because I think this body is intelligent enough in its own manner to make that kind of decision. I fully realize, too, that those who fully support it and have rallied around these Halls to try to change opinions are the ones that are going to have to take the heat.

I have a question for you. I am seeking advice at this point. As a representative of that area, I would like for you to tell me how I relate or correspond to those people. This is not a hard thing for you; it is easy, because you go home where the problem does not exist. Daily, people are on my back to "what are we going to do, what am I going to do with my property, other than pay the taxes for it?" Frankly, I don't have an answer and I don't think you would have an answer under these conditions. I think it is something down the road that each one of you, in your hearts and minds, have to become more familiar with and maybe next session try to take steps that would compensate those people in some manner or means, because I just think it is justified.

Assemblyman Mann: I just would like to concur with Mr. Jacobsen. I find it very interesting. You know, we sit here and we are willing to take away people's livelihood but earlier this year in Government Affairs there was a move by some of the local governments in Southern Nevada to do the exact same thing—to tie up property for over a year and make the people pay taxes on it and not let them do a thing with that property. We defeated that in Government Affairs. We thought it was unjust and I would just say, figure this is your house and it cost you $35,000 and some governmental body came in and downgraded your zoning and gave you $10,000 for the house and you had no legal recourse to this. This is what is happening to those poor people up there at Lake Tahoe. Whether we would influence a court decision or not, it might be good to influence the decision because their land is being stolen from them and that is exactly what it is. I wholeheartedly support the amendment.

Assemblyman Ross: I rise in opposition to this amendment. I think my concerns have been voiced when you put together the remarks of Mr. Jacobsen and Mr. Mann. It seems to me that if the individual property owners in that area have a constitutional right to compensation as Mr. Jacobsen is concerned about, they will receive compensation in the courts. If that is their right, the Constitution provides for it. What I am concerned about is that this amendment may be giving them a statutory right to compensation which I am not sure that this body is ready to move in that direction without recognizing what the financial impact is. From the remarks of Mr. Mann, I take it to be that his position would be that if this amendment gives them rights that are beyond the Constitution, he is in favor of it and I am not. By this type of an amendment, I think it is possible that when you are stating to people that they have a right to talk in terms of an exchange of property, you are stating that they have lost something and that they should be compensated for that loss by having their property exchanged for another piece of property that they can use. Once you are saying to them that they have lost something, then you are saying that they have a right to compensation. I am opposed to that because we do not have the money available. It is not budgeted. We haven't faced that issue squarely. It is more than a list.

Assemblyman Rhoads: Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore. I rise in favor of this amendment. I would like to say for the benefit of my colleagues that Elko County was very much involved in the Point Reyes exchange which is basically what this would set up. There were many thousands of acres in Elko County exchanged for land at Point Reyes. It served two purposes: Point Reyes got their park and many areas in the State of Nevada had land blocked up for better management purposes. I have heard of no legal problems with the Point Reyes situation and I can see no problem with this particular amendment.

Assemblyman Craddock: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore, I, as many others have indicated, do not take this type of an amendment lightly. The thing that we are considering really is the environment. We have to evaluate the general need of the total population that is served by the water from the Lake Tahoe area. I think when we evaluate and compare with the quality of the environment and the water that we have no choice but to defeat the amendment.

Assemblyman Weise: Thank you, Mr. Speaker pro Tempore. I think the leadership consistently stated that the concept is good but there is great fear that it is going to cost a lot of money. There is nothing in the bill that commits to what extent that the State would have to become involved in negotiations. It certainly doesn't say anything in the bill where the State is going to have to buy this land. I will tell you this—I don't think that is the worst idea. I wouldn't mind putting an amendment in here just to tell the State of Nevada or the federal government to buy out those property owners for cash and let them run and be off with it. We do it every day. I don't see what the great mystery is. The state parks people are out right now in Lyon County and all over the State negotiating and appraising for property that the State is going to buy for state parks. The State, by the way, has quite a few pieces of land that would be available. What we are saying in the statutes is that if this House would accept the amendment and the Legislature approve it and California does the same thing (I understand that this bill is supposed to be in pretty good shape in California, contrary to all the assurance everybody has that pass this bill, that it is going to die anyway) we will be providing at least something for our Nevada residents to get them out of a totally hopeless predicament. The State of Nevada has given up an awful lot with this whole bill we are amending. California is giving up one thing—dual majority. I guess I am getting off the subject but what we are talking about here is an amendment to the bill and how it is going to affect the State of Nevada. I will say the things we are giving up overshadow what California is giving up and this is at least one way we can protect some Nevada residents. The question was the Legislature has to approve a trade. There is nothing wrong with that. Let them work for the next 2 years if we can get some agreement between property owners and between the Division of State Lands in this State. Any agreements that they can enter into could certainly be brought before the next Legislature and have the Legislature approve those negotiations. We are not asking to usurp any legislative prerogatives here.

Everybody says the concept is good. I am glad to see that everybody—that Mr. Speaker, the Majority Leader and the Majority Whip—feels that the concept is good because it doesn't affect them. It is great. I think you should be able to be entitled to your own land. That is a good concept except for the people at Tahoe! That is a shame. I think the people at Tahoe are entitled to that same right. What has happened up there is no different from someone coming down and taking your front yard or your house away from you or anything else away from you in Clark County, Nye County, Elko, Eureka, Carson City, Washoe County or anywhere else—just take it away—it is not yours and we are not giving you anything for it except you better pay the taxes or we will take what is left away too. I think this is a good concept and I would like to see it extended to the people at Lake Tahoe.

Mr. Ross is concerned about the statutory provisions here. Mr. Ross, I do believe we have statutory provisions which deal with condemnation in this State already. We have said when you put a freeway through, or a state highway or a state park—I think they call it eminant domain— I am not an attorney, but I think we have provided for that in the statutes and I see no reason why we cannot provide for this type of compensation by statute. What we are talking about is a terrific opportunity to give up a small amount of private land at Tahoe with a high value for some of this BLM land that we keep saying by resolution that we would like to get into some private hands or some private control. This is what we do. Half of the resolutions that we send to Washington, D.C. are to get lands out of federal government hands and into the private sector so we can get them tax producing and cultivate them and get them going. This is what we are talking about. We are talking about trading. I will tell you how it works for those of you who don't understand. This compact has to be approved by California and then by the federal government. The federal government can then come in and make a list of federal lands available as they did with Point Reyes and allow these people to trade for property in Elko and wherever else it might be and get it on the private rolls.

I know that the administration is totally opposed to anyone touching their bill but I am trying to find some kind of remedy for a small group of people who are citizens in this State, and I suppose some who are not, to get some form of relief from the Legislature who I am sure they have questionable belief in now. In the sense of fairness, we have to do something.

Amendment adopted on a division of the house.

Bill ordered reprinted, re-engrossed and to third reading.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Dreyer requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

THE 59TH SESSION

by Sally Dunfield

The early days of settling in
Brought revelations by the score,
As freshmen learned to stand up less
While they learned to listen more.

The Senators and Congressman
Each made his customary call
And brought the news from Washington
To Legislators, one and all.

It started on an even keel
And moved along at quite a pace.
The printers and the bill drafters
All were in a frenzied race.

Lobbyists were slow to start
To inch their way upon the floor,
But then they quickened up their step
Which prompted Bill to bar the door.

Added to the toil and trouble
There were also lighter jokes
Such as special reading matter
Found in "johns" for special folks.

There have been problems, joys, and sorrows
Then, too, there's been fun and games,
But always all these men and women
Have moved to master all their aims.

Now to all friends, old and new,
The time has come to say goodbye
Knowing they have done their job well
As they vote to sine die.

The bill room group have all been faithful
Doing for you every day.
Now we send you all best wishes
As you go your separate way.

Assemblyman Harmon moved the adoption of the resolution.

Remarks by Assemblyman Sena.

Assemblyman Dreyer requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Sena: Mr. Speaker, one of the greatest days in Mexican history is celebrated by the Mexicans at home and those living in the Southwest know it as the Cinco de Mayo, the 5th of May. On this day the Mexicans or Latinos observe the anniversary of the Battle of Guadaloupe near Puebla, Mexico, which was fought in 1862 by a Mexican force of about two thousand against the French forces of six thousand. This battle, "Cinco de Mayo" stands as almost the only military victory against foreigners, and for this reason the Mexican people are proud to celebrate this day.

Mr. Speaker, with the indulgence of the Chair, I would like to present a short history of the role that our State of Nevada has played as our association with Mexico and the role the Latinos have played in the development of our great State.

The territory now occupied by the State of Nevada was formerly held by various Indian tribes, Paiute, Shoshoni and Washo and until the early part of the 19th Century was claimed by the Spanish Empire. It was not until 1821 that Mexico successfully waged a war of independence against Spain, resulting in direct Mexican control of all former Spanish Territory of the area known as the Southwest which included the states of California, Nevada, Utah and most of Arizona and parts of New Mexico, Colorado and Wyoming. Around 1847, with the migration of the Mormon people into the fertile Salt Lake valley, the White settlement started moving into the Great American Desert or the more restrictive term, Great Basin or Fremont Basin. Soon thereafter, the United States commenced negotiations with Mexico for the purchase of this territory, on July 4, 1848, with the signing of the Treaty of Guadalupe Hidalgo. It was in the last quarter of the 18th Century that the Spanish missionaries crossed the southern tip of Nevada in an attempt to reach the California area from Santa Fe. These missionaries and explorers are said to have established the approaches to the old Spanish Trail, sometimes referred to as the Mormon Trail.

Later in Nevada's history, Spanish speaking people played a part in the Comstock era of mining. In Virginia City in the 19th Century, there were two Spanish speaking societies. At one time, a mine owner named Gabriel Maldonado was said to be one of the richest men in Virginia City.

Today, in Nevada, persons of Mexican ancestry continue to play a significant role in our State. Latinos are vital to the agricultural, hotel and gaming industries as well as many other fields.

The Department of Employment Security informs me that there are over 35,000 persons in Nevada with Spanish surnames. So, Mr. Speaker and members of this honorable body, in behalf of the Latinos of Nevada, I urge for support of A.C.R. No. 65. Muchos Gracias.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Demers moved that the rules be suspended and that the resolution be immediately transmitted to the Senate.

By Assemblymen Jacobsen and Dini:

Assembly Resolution No. 35—Memorializing the late Matthew "Matt" Bernard, Douglas County clerk-treasurer.

Remarks by Assemblymen Jacobsen, Dini and Polish.

Assemblyman Jacobsen: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore and Members of the Assembly, Matt Bernard was one of my closest personal friends. I have known him for many years and his parents also. He was probably the only person that I ever had the opportunity to recommend to the Governor for a position in state government. That was on the Department of Fish and Game. He was truly a real asset in our area both at Tahoe and in the valley area. He served as an employee of Harvey's Wagon Wheel for many years. He was in charge of the counting room and was probably one of his most trusted employees. His family and mine over the years have been very close. His daughter worked for us here in this session in the supply room as a part time employee being a senior in high school. His children and mine are somewhat in the same age bracket and at times we hardly knew where they were, but we knew they were in one house or the other. Matt was truly a terrific sportsman and well known throughout the State. He had a real fine interest in fish and game. He was a native of the Speaker's area. He was one of those people that you just hate to see leave this life because they have so much to offer and certainly do. He served only a short time as County Clerk in Douglas County. During his 2½ years he was threatened a number of times with recall and there were a number of other chastisements to maybe have a tendency to bend the law a little bit which he refused to do, and by that token gained the respect of everyone in the community. His funeral was one of the largest I have ever attended. I would ask your endorsement of this resolution.

Assemblyman Dini: Mr. Speaker pro Tempore and Members of the Assembly,

I guess I have the distinct pleasure of the members here present of knowing Matt. As kids, we grew up together. I think he was one year behind me in school. We were on athletic teams together. We hunted and fished together. We used to trade rabbits. We both raised rabbits when we were kids during the war and exchanged breeding stock. We did all the colorful things that young people do. I watched him grow up to become a man of integrity and high esteem. If you happen to know the background of his family, my establishment in Yerington was owned and started by his grandfather. My parents lived in a house built by his uncle. Our association with the Bernards has been since 1926 as a family relationship. I just feel it was a real tragic day when we lost Matt. I know he was an avid sportsman. He was on the Fish and Game Commission for awhile. I think Nevada does well by adopting this resolution in reflecting our support to his family and the loss to Nevada.

Assemblyman Polish: Mr. Speaker, I would like to say a word or two also about Matt Bernard. I knew him and Joe at Yerington High School when I was down there coaching. Matt was a real fine athlete. I enjoyed having him on my football and basketball teams. I later got to know him and his family and, of course, knew his father and mother real well. I certainly approve of the adoption of this resolution for a fine young man.

Resolution adopted unanimously.

Assemblyman Weise moved that the remarks regarding appointment of the Committee on Conference for further consideration of Senate Bill No. 266 be entered in the Journal.

Sec. 2. NRS 454.201 is hereby amended to read as follows:

454.201 "Dangerous drug" means any drug, other than a controlled substance as defined in chapter 453 of NRS, unsafe for self-medication or unsupervised use, and includes the following:

1. Any drug which has been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for general distribution and bears the legend: "Caution: Federal law prohibits dispensing without prescription"; [or]

2. Any substance which has been licensed by the state board of health for manufacture in this state but has not been approved as a drug by the Food and Drug Administration; or

Sec. 3. Chapter 585 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section which shall read as follows:

1. The state board of health may from time to time license for manufacture in this state one or more substances which are not at that time approved as drugs by the Food and Drug Administration of the United State Department of Health, Education and Welfare, if the board finds after a hearing that the substance is not allergenic or toxic if used in reasonable amounts. Such licensing does not require a finding, or constitute a representation, that the substance has any therapeutic effect.

(a) Adopt regulations which prescribe minimum standards for manufacturers in preparing, compounding, processing and packaging the substance.

(b) Conduct inspections of manufacturers of the substance.

3. There is hereby imposed upon the gross receipts of a manufacturer from the sale of each substance licensed for manufacture pursuant to this section a tax of 10 percent, payable quarterly to the department of taxation. The Nevada tax commission shall prescribe by regulation appropriate forms for reporting such gross receipts, and shall when appropriate recompute the tax and collect any deficiency in the manner provided for taxes required to be paid pursuant to Title 32 of NRS. Each manufacturer shall report his sales and pay the tax during the months of January, April, July and October for the respective preceding calendar quarters.

4. The legislature determines that amygdalin (laetrile) and procaine hydrochloride with preservatives and stabilizers (Gerovital H3) are substances suitable to be licensed for manufacture pursuant to this section. Assemblyman Dreyer moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate amendments to Assembly Bill No. 201.

Remarks by Assemblyman Dreyer.

Motion carried.

Assembly Bill No. 438.

The following Senate amendment was read:

Amendment No. 277.

Amend sec. 2, pages 1 and 2, by deleting lines 2 through 22 on page 1, and lines 1 through 5 on page 2 and inserting:

"Sec. 2. The state engineer shall as soon as practicable:

1. Obtain the right to cause water to be pumped from Lake Tahoe into the Truckee River and thus to lower the level of the lake below its outlet to the extent necessary, if the needs of the inhabitants of the cities of Reno and Sparks and of the unincorporated areas of Washoe County for reasonable domestic use cannot otherwise be met.

2. Effect the storage of water, including that saved by the installation of watermeters or similar devices, in available reservoirs or other facilities within the watershed of the Truckee River for the later use of the inhabitants of the watershed.

3. Report the results of his efforts to accomplish the results required by subsections 1 and 2 to the 60th session of the legislature, with any recommendations for appropriate legislation."

Amend sec. 3, page 2, by deleting lines 6 through 11 and inserting:

"Sec. 3. The legislature finds and declares that:

1. If the winter of 1977–1978 is as dry as the winter of 1976–1977 has been, the public utilities providing water to Washoe County, including the cities of Reno and Sparks, will be able to deliver on a daily basis no more than half the present daily consumption of water. This will result not only from shortage of surface water but also from the depletion of underground water because of lack of snow and rainfall in the mountains which normally replenish the underground supply.

2. Such a severe shortage would require not only the prohibition of any watering of lawns or other landscaping but also the limitation of the use of water by tourist accommodations which are vital to the economy of the region.

3. The only means to avoid these disastrous consequences are to obtain the pumping right described in section 2 of this act and to practice all feasible means for the conservation of water, including the use of watermeters. The immediate adoption of these conservation practices is essential not only to meet the need for water in the long run but also to provide evidence of sincerity to those whose cooperation is essential to obtain the pumping rights and effect the storage of water necessary to meet the immediate emergency and the intermediate needs of the region.

4. The factors set forth in subsections 1, 2 and 3 create a unique situation to which a general law cannot be made applicable."

"Sec. 4. 1. This act shall become effective upon passage and approval."

Amend the bill as a whole by deleting sections 5 and 6.

Amend the title of the bill to read: "An Act relating to the supplying of water; repealing the prohibition against the installation and use of watermeters; requiring certain other arrangements for emergency supply and for conservation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto."

RECEDE FROM ASSEMBLY AMENDMENTS

Assemblyman Mello moved that the Assembly do not recede from its action on Senate Bill No. 233, that a conference be requested, and that Mr. Speaker appoint a Committee on Conference consisting of three members to meet with a like committee of the Senate.

Motion carried.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Mr. Speaker appointed Assemblymen Mello, Harmon and Vergiels as the Committee on Conference to meet with a like committee of the Senate for the further consideration of Senate Bill No. 233.

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Senate Bill No. 516.

Bill read third time.

Remarks by Assemblymen Mello, Hickey, Bremner, Vergiels, Kosinski, Serpa and Horn.

Assemblyman Jacobsen requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal:

Assemblyman Mello: This Act authorizes expenditures by the various agencies of state government from funds not appropriated from the General Fund or Highway Fund. The major source of funding in this legislation is from the federal government with the balance coming from interagency payments, fees, fines, licenses and other miscellaneous sources. This Act and the General Appropriation bill combined, constitutes the budget recommendations for the next biennium.

The total authorizations, excluding gaming, for the 1977–79 biennium exceed $487 million with approximately $280 million of this amount projected to come from the federal government. The bulk of the federal funding will be budgeted for Human Resources' programs, such as welfare, health, mental health and rehabilitation, for elementary, secondary and higher education, and for the Highway Department.

Section 2 of this bill contains the authorization for the operation of the Nevada Gaming Control Board for the next biennium. These funds are authorized from the General Fund pursuant to NRS 463.330.

Section 3 authorizes $903,000 for expenditure of motor fuel tax moneys and matching federal funds for the development of boat marinas.

This bill is the culmination of the money committees' in-depth review of the 310 individual budgets contained in the Executive Budget. The amounts authorized for each of the agencies and departments of state government are, of course, subject to change during the next 2 years, as some funding may not fully materialize, and perhaps other funding may be greater. Therefore, Sections 5 and 6 of this Act contain the necessary language governing augmentation and de-augmentation of these amounts. This language is consistent with that contained in past expenditure acts.

Assemblyman Hickey: The general fund appropriations and gaming authorization approximate $460 million for the operation of state government for the next 2 years. The Highway Fund appropriations are approximately $22 million and, therefore, the total operating budget for the 1977–79 biennium, including authorized, general funds and highway funds is approximately $969 million.

In addition to this $969 million, over $60 million has been appropriated or authorized in separate legislation for Capital Improvements and park improvements, bringing the total new spending to over $1 billion.

Assemblyman Bremner: This bill and the General Authorization Act, S.B. 516, are the final result of the session-long deliberations by the Assembly Ways and Means Committee and the Senate Finance Committee. The committees separately reviewed the 310 individual budgets in the Executive Budget, and held several joint meetings to resolve differences.

This general act and the other appropriations bills considered and passed, continue Nevada's tradition of sound money management and fiscal integrity. The appropriations meet the responsibilities of our state government within the revenue produced by our taxes. The required cash reserves are maintained to insure against economic uncertainties.

OVER–ALL GENERAL FUND SUMMARY AND ESTIMATED CASH BALANCES ON JUNE 30, 1977

The joint recommendations of the money committees on the operating budget requests call for General Fund appropriations of slightly over $460 million for the 1977–79 biennium balanced with an equal amount of estimated General Fund receipts. The operating recommendations on capital improvements, supplemental requests, and one-time appropriations, will leave the General Fund with an estimated June 30, 1979 reserve of $25 million. This reserve combined with the $3 million appropriated to the Interim Finance Committee will provide Nevada the safeguards we need should a sudden economic slowdown occur. On the other side of the coin, your money committees have recommended the trigger mechanism to provide additional support for state employees and local school districts should the state revenues rise above projections.

Assemblyman Vergiels:

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE SPENDING RECOMMENDATIONS

The Executive Budget is over 800 pages with 310 individual budgets and 50 one-shot and supplemental requests, so I am only going to briefly touch upon some of the major programs.

Education

As in previous bienniums, our public schools and University System will receive the largest portion of our General Fund support (almost 60 percent). The appropriation to the State's Distributive School Fund is contained in A.B. 735 and has been reported upon previously. I simply want to mention the growth in special education units from 550 to 630, the additional $2.5 million added to the Governor's recommendations, and the trigger mechanism should additional revenues be generated.

In higher education, initial funding of $270,000 was requested and is recommended to convert our 2-year School of Medical Sciences to a 4-year degree-granting school. A special loan fund of $1.25 million was created to provide low interest loans to Nevada students attending professional schools under the WICHE exchange program.

Assemblyman Kosinski:

HUMAN RESOURCES

Human Resources covers Health, Welfare, Mental Hygiene and Retardation, Youth Institutions, and Rehabilitation programs. The many programs in this area are vital to Nevada's citizens. The Governor has requested and the money committees recommended cost-of-living increases in all of the categorical aid programs including Aid to Dependent Children and the Aged and Blind. Mental Hygiene and Retardation programs are recommended for continued expansion. Full operations are funded for the Emotionally Disturbed Children's Facility in Washoe County, and the Sierra Development Center for Retarded Children will be constructed and operated during the biennium. These programs duplicate facilities approved in Clark County last session.

Public Safety

The Southern Nevada Correctional Center in Jean is budgeted to be fully operational for 250 inmates, and capital construction will expand the facility by an additional 100 beds. Renovation of the 100-year-old Maximum Security Prison in Carson City is recommended along with an additional 90-man unit at the Northern Nevada Correctional Center. By 1978–79, 30 additional positions are funded for the State Department of Parole and Probation to keep pace with an ever expanding case load. A full time professional Parole Board is funded to replace the part-time Board currently in operation.

Assemblyman Serpa:

GAMING

The gaming industry in Nevada provides the life blood of our tourist economy. To keep pace with the growth in number, size, and complexity of this vital industry, 54 new positions have been added to the Gaming Control Board. Thirty-two of these positions are auditors to complete the gaming audits on a timely cycle and insure that adequate controls exist within the industry.

These are only a few of the highlights contained in the General Appropriation Act. Several of the other appropriations that make up the $460 million General Fund Operating Budget are contained in other bills already voted into law including increases for Senior Citizens Property Tax Assistance, salary increases for state employees and the public school finance formula.

S.B. 516 authorizes $487 million in non-state revenues, the General Appropriation Act contains $460 million in General Funds and $22 million from the Highway Fund for a total operating budget for 1977–79 of $969 million. In addition, over $60 million has been appropriated or authorized in separate legislation for capital improvements and park improvements bringing the total new state spending to over $1 billion.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Bremner requested that the following report be entered in the Journal:

REPORT OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE ON THE PUBLIC SERVICE COMMISSION

Fifty-Ninth Session
Nevada Legislature

A.C.R. 22 directed a study of one aspect of the Public Service Commission, questions about the integrity of the members of the commission. The committee concentrated its efforts on this one matter. On other aspects of the Public Service Commission and public utilities generally, members and other interested parties are referred to Legislative Counsel Bureau Bulletin No. 77–2, Study of Electric and Gas Utilities and the Public Service Commission of Nevada.

A.C.R. 22 was passed March 29, 1977. Pursuant to the resolution, Speaker Dini appointed Assemblymen Bremner, Demers and Wagner to the select committee. Majority Leader Gibson appointed Senators Dodge and Foote. The speaker designated Mr. Bremner as chairman.

The committee held a formal hearing on April 19, 1977, in Carson City. Mailgrams were sent out on April 17 to all local governments and a number of other interested parties advising them of the hearing. In addition to the hearing, the committee contacted every district attorney in the state and the attorney general, asking each if they knew of any allegations of wrongdoing by any member of the PSC, and specifically if they were aware of any existing charges or any charges in the past.

All three members of the PSC, Chairman Clark, Mr. Granata and Mr. Hardy, attended the hearing and were questioned by members of the committee. Each member was asked the following questions:

1. Have you ever given any special consideration to a public utility under your jurisdiction which would allow them to make an excessive profit?

The answer was no by all three.

2. Do you now or have you ever had an economic interest in a public utility under your jurisdiction?

The answer was no by all three.

3. Do you receive any outside economic consideration from any business source other than the salary you receive as a member of the PSC?

Mr. Clark stated that he had received honoraria from several groups such as the Rand Corporation, the National Governor's Conference and the Western Governor's Conference.

Mr. Hardy stated that his wife was employed.

Mr. Granata stated that he had no other income.

4. Have you ever been approached by an employee of a utility company with any particular offers of favors for special considerations for any actions that you might take in the future?

All answered no.

5. Have you ever owned stock or any negotiable instrument issued by a private utility or have you been offered stock or a negotiable instrument?

All answered no.

6. Have you or, to your knowledge, any other members of the PSC ever accepted any gifts or other emoluments from people that were connected with utility industries?

Mr. Clark recalled some gifts such as a fifth of liquor but they were all over 15 years ago.

Mr. Granata recalled similar gifts plus a book from the Union Pacific, but no gift since 1970.

Mr. Hardy had received no gifts.

The members of the PSC told the committee that the allegations which have been seen in newspaper columns, letters to the editor, to the commission and to elected officials, seem to be a product of the frustration and even rage that many consumers understandably feel about mounting utility bills.

Representatives of Nevada Power, Sierra Pacific, Southwest Gas and the motor transport industry all testified before the committee. The three named utilities all confirmed that no member of the PSC or members of their families owned any stock in any of the companies. Mr. Guinn, representing the motor transport industry, stated that his industry was far from happy with PSC decisions affecting them but that in his 27 years of experience with the commission, he never had any reason to doubt the honesty or integrity of a member.

Consumers and representatives of consumer groups also testified. Mr. Al Demers felt that while the members of the commission may receive no payments, there could be political contributions to the appointing authority. Toni Herbert, representing Citizen Alert, felt that there needed to be consumer representation on the PSC. She questioned some of the particular decisions made by the PSC in terms of their wisdom and effect on the public interest. Ms. Herbert's main concern was how well the PSC represents the people. She did not think it was very well. She offered no testimony concerning the honesty or integrity of the commission.

All responses from district attorneys and from the attorney general were to the effect that no charges of any sort were pending against any member of the PSC and that no allegations had been made about any impropriety on the commission. Some district attorneys volunteered the observation that many people were very upset about utility rates and, in part, blamed the Public Service Commission for the rates. None was aware of any allegations of impropriety, however.

The select committee concluded that there is a high level of discontent concerning utility rates throughout the State. The reasons for the high rates are extensively documented in LCB Bulletin 77–2, referred to above. The select committee not only found no evidence of any impropriety concerning the members and staff of the PSC but could find no one who would make an allegation of such impropriety. The high utility rates that are causing so much hardship and frustration among so many of the citizens of Nevada have doubtless led to allegations of impropriety or unethical practices by the PSC. The select committee, while appreciating and understanding the origins of such allegations, found no evidence whatever to support any such allegations.

Assemblyman Banner: Mr. Speaker, I would like to acknowledge a gift that was given to me by the members of the Labor and Management Committee. It was a watch. I thought it was more than appropriate and I thought I would go back in my lifetime regarding a pocket watch.

When I was a little boy, my father took a lot of time and taught me how to tell time with a broken dollar watch. I learned how to tell time early in life with this watch. Soon afterward, he took me to the drug store and he bought me a dollar watch and I carried it around with much pride.

Later on in life during World War II, I managed to have a few rusted out on me while I was carrying them some of the places that I went. Later, when I became a carpenter, it was my style to have, again, a dollar watch on my bib overalls tied with a shoelace. Later on, the same type of watch was with me when I was a union official. I remember one time when I was in Washington, D.C. with the Labor Department when they had me tied to the rack, so to speak. I was looking over the Treasury Building looking at the White House and I pulled out this old watch that had turned to brass and the guy asked me why I had it and I said it was for me to remember who I was and what I was there for.

When I was with the NIC, what I did was pull out the watch when I went through the coffee room and it seemed to bother the people who worked there because I was the boss. The people from the NIC presented me with a watch. I still have that watch and I used it in our Labor and Management Committee meetings to time some of the people because we were getting some pretty hot arguments going. The members of the Labor and Management Committee presented me with a watch. I don't know if they realize how touching it was because a pocket watch, in my lifetime, has been an item that has meant a lot to me in remembering my Dad, and so forth. For the rest of my life I will cherish this watch.

Assemblyman Demers moved that the Assembly recess until 7:30 p.m.

"Section 1. The purpose of this bill is to enable innovation and experimentation to reduce the rising cost of health care in Nevada."

Amend sec. 2, page 2, by deleting lines 5 through 14 and inserting:

"Sec. 2. 1. Except as provided in subsection 2, an insurer who is authorized to transact the business of health insurance in this state shall not reduce benefits payable under its contracts because of any refunds or inducements offered by a hospital if the refunds or inducements are based upon hospitalization of a patient for:

(a) Any elective or emergency surgery, when actually performed on a Saturday or Sunday; or

(b) Any laboratory tests, when conducted on a Saturday or Sunday.

2. Subsection 1 does not apply to:

(a) Contracts under which the insurer is otherwise obligated to pay 95 percent or more of the usual and customary hospital charges; or

(b) Contracts of workmen's compensation insurance.

3. This section applies to:

(a) Health insurance policies issued pursuant to chapter 689A of NRS;

(b) Group health insurance policies issued pursuant to chapter 689B of NRS;

(c) Hospital, medical or dental service contracts issued by corporations pursuant to chapter 695B of NRS; and

(d) Evidence of coverage issued by health maintenance organizations pursuant to chapter 695C of NRS.

4. Failure of an insurer, hospital, medical or dental service corporation, or health maintenance organization to comply with this section constitutes an unfair trade practice and the commissioner may order:

(a) If the insurer, hospital, medical or dental service corporation, or health maintenance organization knew or reasonably should have known that it has committed an unfair trade practice, payment of an administrative fine of not more than $500 for each act or violation, but not to exceed an aggregate penalty of $5,000; or

(b) Suspension or revocation of the license of the insurer, hospital, medical or dental service corporation, or health maintenance organization."

(c) The effect which refunds or other types of inducements have on the utilization of hospital services when admissions occur during certain days of the week.

2. The commissioner shall notify each hospital in the state of the study. Any hospital which has offered refunds or other types of inducements as described in section 2 of this act any time during the preceding 12 months shall become a participant in the study and shall notify the commissioner within 30 days.

3. The commissioner shall assess the entire costs of the study against the participating hospitals on an equitable basis. Each participating hospital shall pay its portion of the costs of the study as they are billed. The commissioners may require all participating hospitals to pay the costs of the study in advance.

4. If any hospital begins a program offering a refund or any other type of inducement described in section 2 of this act after the commissioner notifies the hospital of the study, that hospital shall be deemed to be a participating hospital.

5. Any hospital which does not pay its portion of the cost of the study within 5 days after demand is thereafter subject to a civil penalty of not more than $100 per day for each day on which the costs remain unpaid.

(b) For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1979, and ending June 30, 1980, the sum of $114,106.

2. Expenditure of the following sums not appropriated from the general fund is hereby authorized by the fire marshal:

(a) For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1978, and ending June 30, 1979, the sum of $9,000.

(b) For the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1979, and ending June 30, 1980, the sum of $12,370.

3. Any money which is appropriated to the department of commerce by the 59th session of the legislature for duties performed by the fire marshal shall revert to the state general fund."

Amend the title of the bill by deleting "session." and inserting: "session; and making an appropriation."

Assemblyman Jacobsen moved the adoption of the amendment.

Remarks by Assemblymen Jacobsen, Mello and Price.

Assemblyman Jacobsen requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal:

Senate Bill No. 523 makes a number of corrections to 278. It was the desire of the rural counties to try to re-establish the fire marshal. We could not do this on 278 because it had already gone to enrollment. We found that this was the only means that we could try to reinstate it.

Your Government Affairs Committee on this side had Senate Bill No. 435 that related to the fire marshal. All of our testimony in committee was that the rural areas wished it to be retained.

Now, I fully realize that many times during the session, it is hard to fit legislation that will cover all 17 counties. There are occasions where it works in the more populous areas and not in the rural counties and vice versa. The State Fire

Marshal's functions are valuable to the rural areas because they do not have the expertise to take care of the problems that are beyond their control. Most of the rural areas are volunteer in nature in their fire departments. When the fire is over the volunteers return to their employment and continue on with their jobs. There is nobody to follow up, especially in the case of arson.

It is fully realized that maybe this is a little bit improper. I have checked it out with Mr. Mello and the money committees. Of course, there was concurrence between the two money committees that this office be transferred over to the Department of Insurance. Now, many years ago, it was in the Department of Insurance and the rural people had very little cooperation with it. So, after a lot of hard effort on behalf of the rural people, we were able to set it aside as a separate agency where it could cater to our needs. I fully realize that over the last couple of sessions, there has been a great deal of controversy about this. In more than one instance, the fire marshal has been advised to stay out of the larger counties and that is well and good. If they don't need his service, that's fine, but the rural counties do need it, so I would ask you to adopt this amendment. I realize that it is going to cause some problems on the other side and will end up in a conference, but I would ask you to adopt Amendment No. 295.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, re-engrossed and to third reading.

Sec. 4. NRS 34.380 is hereby amended to read as follows:

34.380 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section a writ of habeas corpus may be granted by each justice of the supreme court or judges of district courts at any time.

2. Each of the justices of the supreme court may issue writs of habeas corpus to any part of the state, on petition by, or on behalf of any person held in actual custody, and may make such writ returnable before himself or before the supreme court, or before any district court in the state or before any judge of the district court, as provided in section 4 of article 6 of the constitution of the State of Nevada.

3. A district judge may only issue writs of habeas corpus on petition by, or in behalf of, any person held in actual custody within the judicial district of the district judge to whom application for the writ is made, as provided in section 6 of article 6 of the constitution of the State of Nevada.

4. A district court shall not consider any pretrial petition for habeas corpus:

(a) Based on alleged want of probable cause or otherwise challenging the court's right or jurisdiction to proceed to the trial of a criminal charge unless a petition is filed in accordance with section 1 of [this act.] Assembly Bill 38 of the 59th session of the Nevada legislature.

(b) Based on a ground which the petitioner could have included as a ground for relief in any prior petition for habeas corpus or other petition for extraordinary relief.

5. When an application is made to a justice of the supreme court for a writ of habeas corpus and the application is entertained by the justice, or the supreme court, and thereafter denied, the person making such application has no right to submit thereafter an application to the district judge of the district wherein such applicant is held in custody, nor to any other district judge in any other judicial district of the state, premised upon the illegality of the same charge upon which such applicant is held in custody.

6. An applicant who has petitioned the district judge of a judicial district, as provided in this chapter, and whose application for such writ is denied, may appeal to the supreme court from the order and judgment of the district judge or district court refusing to grant the writ or to discharge the applicant, but such appeal shall be taken within 15 days from the day of entry of the order or judgment.

7. The State of Nevada is an interested party in habeas corpus proceedings, and, in the event the district judge or district court to whom or to which an application for a writ of habeas corpus has been made shall grant such writ, then the district attorney of the county in which the application for the writ was made, or the city attorney of a city which is situated in the county in which the application for the writ was made, or the attorney general in behalf of the state, may appeal to the supreme court from the order of the district judge granting the writ and discharging the applicant; but such appeal shall be taken within 15 days from the day of entry of the order.

8. Whenever an appeal is taken from an order of the district court granting or denying a pretrial petition for habeas corpus based on alleged want of probable cause, or otherwise challenging the court's right or jurisdiction to proceed to trial of a criminal charge, the clerk of the district court shall forthwith certify and transmit to the supreme court of Nevada, as the record on appeal, the original papers on which such petition was heard in the district court, and if either the appellant or respondent demands it, a transcript of any evidentiary proceedings had in the district court. The district court shall require its court reporter to expedite the preparation of such transcript in preference to any request for a transcript in any civil matter. When such appeal is docketed in the supreme court of Nevada, it stands submitted without further briefs or oral argument, unless the supreme court otherwise orders.

9. [NRS 1.230 is applicable] Any procedure provided by law for a change of judge in a civil proceeding before any court of this state, except the supreme court, applies to the proceedings set forth in this section."

If the justice of the peace determines that there is no actual dispute between the parties as to the alleged unlawful detainer and the tenant is guilty of an unlawful detainer, the justice of the peace may issue a summary order for removal of the tenant or an order providing for the nonadmittance of the tenant pursuant to subsection 2. If the justice of the peace determines that an actual dispute does exist between the parties as to the alleged unlawful detainer, he shall refuse to grant either party any relief, and shall require that any further proceedings be conducted pursuant to NRS 40.290 to 40.420, inclusive. If the landlord rents the property for a term beginning before the expiration of the rental agreement, the agreement terminates as of the date of the new tenancy, but the former tenant is liable for any actual damages of the landlord which may result from the abandonment. If the landlord fails to make reasonable efforts to rent the property at a fair rental or if the landlord accepts the abandonment as a surrender of the tenant's interest in the property, the rental agreement is deemed to be terminated by the landlord as of the date the landlord has notice of the abandonment. If the tenancy is from month to month or week to week, the term of the rental agreement for this purpose is deemed to be a month or a week, as the case may be."
