FLEX RATING THRESHOLDS

EFFECTIVE DATE OF REGULATION:
Upon filing with the Nevada Secretary of State

1. BACKGROUND.

Assembly Bill 376 (“the Bill”) of the 83rd Legislative Session (2025) of the State of Nevada establishes a program of flex-rated filing in Section 20.3. A rate filing submitted to the Nevada Division of Insurance is eligible for the program of flex-rated filing if the filing has been submitted through the System for Electronic Rate and Form Filing under the program of flex-rated filing and meets the requirements of Section 20.3 of the Bill. Pursuant to Subsection 20.3(5) of the Bill, on or before June 1, 2026, the Commissioner shall establish the maximum percentage of overall rate impact and the maximum percentage of individual rate disruption for a filing for a proposed increase in a rate to qualify for filing under the program of flex-rated filing. This regulation establishes those thresholds at 4 percent for the maximum percentage of overall rate impact and 10 percent for the maximum percentage of individual rate disruption.

2. DESCRIPTION OF SOLICITATION SHOWING A CONCERTED EFFORT. NRS 233B.0608(1).

The Division did not conduct an extensive solicitation to see how the proposed regulation would affect small businesses. The proposed regulation sets maximum thresholds required by statute for insurers to file small rate increases for home insurance via a streamlined process. It is not anticipated that setting these parameters will impose a direct and significant economic burden.

3. DOES THE PROPOSED REGULATION IMPOSE A DIRECT AND SIGNIFICANT ECONOMIC BURDEN UPON A SMALL BUSINESS OR DIRECTLY RESTRICT THE FORMATION, OPERATION OR EXPANSION OF A SMALL BUSINESS? NRS 233B.0608(1).

NO YES

4. HOW WAS THAT CONCLUSION REACHED? NRS 233B.0608(3).

The regulation sets maximum thresholds required by statute for insurers to file small rate increases for home insurance via a streamlined process. It is anticipated that most insurers submitting such filings are not small businesses as defined in NRS 233B.0382. Moreover, the program of flex-rated filing is limited to insurance of real property for personal lines and so would not affect any insurance product purchased by a small business in Nevada.

I, NED GAINES, Commissioner of Insurance for the State of Nevada, hereby certify that, to the best of my knowledge or belief, a concerted effort was made to determine the impact of the proposed regulation on small businesses and that the information contained in this statement is accurate.
