The following information is provided for R078-22, pursuant to the requirements of NRS 233B.0603:

1. The need for and the purpose of the proposed regulation or amendment.

The introduction of R078-22 will revise the provisions governing the application process for the examination for a designated representative of a court reporting firm by providing a deadline for the submission of an application; establishes certain requirements for the contents of such an application; revising the procedure for certifying and providing notice of the results of that examination; prescribes the manner in which the Board will inform an applicant of the approval or rejection of his or her application; and requires the refunding of the examination fee or its application under certain circumstances.

2. Either the terms or the substance of the regulations to be adopted, amended or repealed, or a description of the subjects and issues involved.

See item #1 for response.

- 3. The estimated economic effect of the regulation on the business which it is to regulate and on the public. These must be stated separately and, in each case, must include: (a) Both adverse and beneficial effects; and (b) Both immediate and long-term effects.
None known at the time of this posting for R078-22.
- 4. The estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the proposed regulation.
None known at the time of this posting for R078-22.
- 5. A description of and citation to any regulations of other state or local governmental agencies which the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates and a statement explaining why the duplication or overlapping is necessary. If the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates a federal regulation, the notice must include the name of the regulating federal agency.
None known at the time of this posting for R078-22.
- 6. If the regulation is required pursuant to federal law, a citation and description of the federal law.
None known at the time of this posting for R078-22.
- 7. If the regulation includes provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation that regulates the same activity, a summary of such provisions.
None known at the time of this posting for R078-22.
- 8. Does the proposed regulation establish a new fee or increases an existing fee?
No new fee or fee increase related to R078-22.

The following information is provided for R193-22, pursuant to the requirements of NRS 233B.0603:

- 1. The need for and the purpose of the proposed regulation or amendment.
The introduction of R193-22 will require a court reporting firm to sever itself from a designated representative of a court reporting firm under certain circumstances; requiring court reporters and firms to contemporaneously offer or provide services or products to each party to a proceeding or to the attorney of each party; requiring court reporters and firms to provide certain transcripts and recordings of such transcripts to third-party requesters under certain circumstances; authorizing the Board to consider and admit into evidence certain mitigating and aggravating circumstances in disciplinary proceedings; making various changes relating to the provision of transcripts to parties; requiring each court reporter and designated representative of a court reporting firm to complete at least 15 continuing education credits every 2 years; and making other changes relating to continuing education.
- 2. Either the terms or the substance of the regulations to be adopted, amended or repealed, or a description of the subjects and issues involved.
See item #1 for response.
- 3. The estimated economic effect of the regulation on the business which it is to regulate and on the public. These must be stated separately and, in each case, must include: (a) Both adverse and beneficial effects; and (b) Both immediate and long-term effects.
