LEGISLATIVE POLICE

The Legislative Police serve the Legislative Counsel Bureau and Nevada Legislature in Carson City and Las Vegas. The Legislative Counsel Bureau has approximately 320 employees and, when the legislature convenes every two years, an estimated 250 additional session employees are brought on staff. The Legislative Building is a modern 184,000 square foot facility and is situated on 12 acres of beautifully manicured grounds flanked by the State Capitol and the Supreme Court.

The Legislative Police serve and protect all legislative employees and property, as well as citizens drawn here and to Las Vegas by the legislative process. We are an independent agency, working only for the legislature and are not a subsidiary of any other state division. While the Legislature is in session, officers will work a minimum of 120 days. All officers have extensive law enforcement backgrounds, and many are retired law enforcement officers from around the country.

We have members in the National Legislative Services and Security Association (NLSSA), FBI Law Enforcement Education Development Association (LEEDA), Nevada Sheriff's and Chief's Association (NSCA), International Association of Chief's of Police (IACP), and Federal Bureau of Investigation National Academy.

As well as having a thorough knowledge of all aspects of the law enforcement profession and Nevada's laws, our officers:

- * Maintain current Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) requirements, Incident Command System (ICS), and National Incident Command Systems (NIMS) certification;
- * Administer emergency first aid;
