BRIEFING ON MINING TOPICS

Tim Crowley is the President of the Nevada Mining Association (NMA) and has served in that position since December 2008. Previously, he ran his own lobbying firm with his longtime friend and business partner, Josh Griffin. Prior to cofounding the Griffin Crowley Group, Tim was the director of public affairs for the Nevada Resort Association and before that served as the director of government and community relations for the NMA. Tim also brings a wealth of government experience as a senior member of Former Governor Bob Miller's administration and as a legislative aide to United States Senator Harry Reid. He is a native of Reno and graduated from the University of Nevada, Reno in 1992 with a bachelor of science degree.
