

REVISED PROPOSED REGULATION OF THE COMMISSION ON PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS IN EDUCATION

LCB File No. R034-15

August 31, 2015

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§ 1-5, NRS 391.019.

A REGULATION relating to education; revising the requirements for an initial license and to obtain full state certification for purposes of federal law; requiring certain educational personnel who hold a nonrenewable license to complete certain courses when an examination on the subject is not an available alternative; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

The No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, 20 U.S.C. §§ 6301 et seq., requires schools to employ highly qualified teachers to teach certain core academic subjects. Pursuant to that federal law, to be considered highly qualified a teacher cannot have any certification or licensure requirements waived on an emergency, temporary or provisional basis. (20 U.S.C. § 7801(23)) Existing law requires the Commission on Professional Standards in Education to develop regulations prescribing qualifications for licensing teachers and other educational personnel. Existing law requires these regulations to prescribe coursework on parental involvement and family engagement. (NRS 391.019) Section 1 of this regulation provides that a person has obtained full state certification for the purposes of the No Child Left Behind Act if the person satisfies the requirements for a renewable license to teach in this State, regardless of whether the person has completed the requirements regarding parental involvement and family engagement prescribed by the Commission.

Existing regulations require an applicant for the initial issuance of a license as a teacher or other educational employee to submit evidence that the applicant has successfully completed a course regarding parental involvement and family engagement. (NAC 391.030) Section 3 of this regulation removes the requirement that an applicant for an initial license complete a course regarding parental involvement and family engagement. Section 2 of this regulation instead makes the completion of a course regarding parental involvement and family engagement a qualification for becoming a licensed employee of a school district. Section 2 also provides that a person who holds a nonrenewable license may pass an examination for a required course, other than a course regarding parental involvement and family engagement, instead of taking the required course if the Department of Education has developed an examination for the course. If the Department has not developed such an examination, the person is required to take a course on the subject.

Section 1. NAC 391.013 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.013 The Commission determines that a person has obtained “full state certification” for purposes of the No Child Left Behind Act of 2001, 20 U.S.C. § 7801(23), if the person satisfies all the requirements for the issuance of a renewable license to teach in this State, regardless of whether the person has:
