AUTHORITY: §1, NRS 634.030 and 634.070; §§2 and 3, NRS 634.030; §4, NRS 634.030 and 634.123.

A REGULATION relating to chiropractic; removing the requirement for certain applicants to pass certain examinations; requiring an applicant for a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant to receive certain scores for closed-book and open-book examinations; prohibiting an applicant from bringing certain electronic devices into an examination facility; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Chiropractic Physicians' Board of Nevada to adopt reasonable regulations for the transaction of business and to enable the Board to carry out its duties of regulating chiropractic physicians and chiropractors' assistants. (NRS 634.030)

Existing law requires all applicants for a license to practice chiropractic in this State to pass all examinations prescribed by the Board. (NRS 634.070) Existing law requires an applicant to furnish evidence to the Board that the applicant either: (1) holds certificates which indicate that the applicant has passed Parts I, II, III and IV, and the portion relating to physiotherapy, of the examination administered by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners; or (2) has actively practiced chiropractic in another state for not fewer than 7 of the immediately preceding 10 years without having any adverse disciplinary action taken against the applicant. (NRS 634.090) Existing regulations require an applicant to pass: (1) Part IV of the examination administered by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners; (2) an examination on the statutes and regulations of this State which are related to the practice of chiropractic; and (3) any other subject or examination that the Board determines to be necessary. (NAC 634.290) Section 1 of this regulation removes the requirement that an applicant pass Part IV of the examination administered by the National Board of Chiropractic Examiners since this requirement exists in existing law.

Existing law requires the Chiropractic Physicians' Board of Nevada to specify the formal training, including at least 12 months of study or the equivalent, that a properly qualified applicant to perform ancillary services relating to chiropractic must complete before the Board awards such an applicant a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant. (NRS 634.123) Existing regulations require the Board to at least once a year administer an examination to applicants for a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant. If such an applicant receives a score of at least 75 percent on the examination, he or she is entitled to a certificate as a chiropractor's assistant. If the applicant fails to receive a score of at least 75 percent on the examination the first time he or she takes the examination, the applicant may retake the examination within 1 year without paying an additional fee. If the applicant receives training and employment as a chiropractor's assistant trainee and fails to receive a score of at least 75 percent on the examination after two attempts and wishes to continue working as a chiropractor's assistant trainee, the supervising licensee must, within 30 days after the date of the notice from the Board of the results of the examination, submit a plan for additional training to the Board. (NAC 634.305) Section 2 of this regulation requires an applicant to receive a score of at least 75 percent for a closed-book examination or a score of at least 90 percent for an open-book examination. Section 4 of this regulation makes conforming changes.

Existing regulations prohibit an applicant for licensing as a chiropractic physician or for certification as a chiropractor's assistant from bringing any written or recorded material relating to the practice of chiropractic into the examination facility. (NAC 634.320) Section 3 of this regulation further prohibits such an applicant from bringing any electronic device into the examination facility, unless the electronic device is approved by the Executive Director of the Board.
