

LEGISLATIVE REVIEW OF ADOPTED REGULATIONS--NRS 233B.066
Informational Statement
LCB File No. R175-22

1. A clear and concise explanation of the need for the adopted regulation.

Regulation (R175-22) revises procedures concerning the filing of certain briefs and other documentation in an appeal to the Nevada Tax Commission; and provides other matters properly relating thereto.

Under existing law, all decisions of the Executive Director or other officer of the Department of Taxation are final unless appealed to the Nevada Tax Commission. (NRS 360.245) Existing regulations establish the procedures for pursuing such an appeal, including, without limitation, prescribing the period during which an appellant is required to file his or her opening brief with the Commission. (NAC 360.175) This regulation revises those procedures by prescribing the period for the filing of an answering brief by a respondent and a reply brief by the appellant. This regulation also requires a brief or other documentation filed with the Commission in connection with an appeal be accompanied by an acknowledgement or affidavit showing service of the brief or other documentation on all other parties of record. This regulation also authorizes an appellant to request or stipulate to an extension of the time to file such documentation. This regulation also provides that the Commission may dismiss an appeal for failure to file the documentation within the required time.

2. Description of how public comment was solicited, a summary of public response, and an explanation of how other interested persons may obtain a copy of the summary.

The Department of Taxation, as staff to the Nevada Tax Commission, solicited comment from the public by issuing a questionnaire to interested parties regarding any impact on small businesses and sending notice of workshops and hearings by electronic or regular mail as follows:
