AUTHORITY: §§ 1-3, NRS 284.065 and 284.345.

A REGULATION relating to human resources; revising provisions relating to administrative leave with pay for state employees; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Human Resources Commission of the Division of Human Resource Management of the Department of Administration to adopt regulations necessary to carry out provisions of law relating to the Human Resources System, including regulations for attendance and leave with or without pay for state employees. (NRS 284.065, 284.345) Existing regulations establish circumstances under which it is: (1) mandatory for a state employee to receive administrative leave with pay; and (2) discretionary for a state employee to be granted administrative leave with pay. (NAC 284.589) Sections 1 and 3 of this regulation create separate sections of the Nevada Administrative Code for mandatory and discretionary administrative leave by: (1) removing discretionary administrative leave with pay from the existing section in section 3; and (2) reenacting discretionary leave with pay in section 1. Section 2 of this regulation makes a conforming change to apply the definitions in existing regulations to the new section created by section 1.

Section 1 makes it discretionary for a permanent employee to receive administrative leave with pay for any period: (1) after the employee fails to complete a trial period after a voluntary transfer or attain permanent status in a position to which the employee was promoted; and (2) before the restoration of the employee to his or her former position or any other placement.

Sections 1 and 3 add attendance at certain resolution conferences or mediation through any mediation program offered by the Division to the circumstances under which administrative leave with pay is mandatory or discretionary.

Existing regulations make it mandatory for an appointing authority to grant administrative leave with pay to an employee to attend an initial appointment and one follow-up appointment for counseling through an employee assistance program. (NAC 284.589) Section 3: (1) provides that such administrative leave may be granted to an employee to receive counseling through an employee assistance program offered by the State of Nevada or by any other employer that offers an employee assistance program that is available to the employee; and (2) limits the amount of such administrative leave to not more than the maximum number of appointments an employee is entitled to receive free of charge through an employee assistance program offered by the State of Nevada.
