EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: § 1, NRS 293.124, 294A.380 and 294A.420.

A REGULATION relating to elections; revising certain provisions relating to the waiver or reduction of certain penalties for violations of statutes relating to campaign finance; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law provides that a candidate, person, organization, committee, political party or nonprofit corporation that violates certain provisions of the Nevada Revised Statutes relating to campaign finance is subject to certain civil penalties. Existing law further authorizes the Secretary of State to waive such a civil penalty for good cause shown. (NRS 294A.420) Existing regulations authorize the Secretary of State to grant a waiver if the person, committee for political action or entity: (1) files a written request for a waiver; and (2) properly files the appropriate report that was the cause of the civil penalty. (NAC 294A.097)

This regulation sets forth certain circumstances that constitute good cause. In addition to the existing requirements to receive a waiver, this regulation requires the person, committee for political action or entity to establish: (1) that the person, committee for political action or entity has properly filed each report that the person, committee for political action or entity was required to file for the immediately preceding 36 months; and (2) one of the circumstances that constitutes good cause. Further, this regulation authorizes the Secretary of State, with the approval of the Attorney General, to grant a waiver in certain circumstances without requiring the person, committee for political action or entity to request the waiver or take certain actions.

Existing law provides that if the Secretary of State waives a civil penalty for good cause, the Secretary of State is required to: (1) create a record which sets forth that the civil penalty has been waived and describes the circumstances that constitute the good cause shown; and (2) ensure that the record is available for review by the general public. (NRS 294A.420) Existing regulations require the Secretary of State to: (1) compile each record into a quarterly report; and (2) post the quarterly report on the Internet website of the Office of the Secretary of State. (NAC 294A.097) This regulation provides that such requirements also apply when the Secretary of State reduces a civil penalty for good cause shown.
