AUTHORITY: §1, NRS 391.040.

A REGULATION relating to education; increasing the fee for an application for a license made by the holder of a provisional nonrenewable license; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law requires the Commission on Professional Standards in Education to fix fees for the initial issuance of a license as a teacher or other educational employee and the renewal of such a license. (NRS 391.040) Existing regulations authorize the Superintendent of Public Instruction to issue a provisional nonrenewable license as a teacher or other educational employee to an applicant who otherwise meets the requirements for a license but has not completed certain course work or tests or cannot provide confirmation of certain practical experience. (NAC 391.056) This regulation increases the fee from $131 to $150 for an application for a license made by the holder of a provisional nonrenewable license before the expiration of the provisional nonrenewable license.

Section 1. NAC 391.0565 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.0565 1. The holder of a provisional nonrenewable license issued pursuant to NAC 391.056 must remove all the provisions under which the license was issued before he or she may apply for a license pursuant to NAC 391.045. An application for a license issued pursuant to NAC 391.045 may be made at any time after the removal of all of the provisions under which the provisional nonrenewable license was issued.

2. The holder of a provisional nonrenewable license for which all of the provisions have not been removed on the date on which the license expires may apply as a new applicant for a license pursuant to NAC 391.045 as soon as the provisions under which the expired provisional nonrenewable license was issued have been removed.

3. If an application is made for a license pursuant to NAC 391.045 by the holder of a provisional nonrenewable license before the provisional nonrenewable license expires, the applicant must pay an application fee of ~~131~~ $150, which includes the fees for processing the fingerprints of the applicant by the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History and the Federal Bureau of Investigation.
