Small Business Impact Statement

LCB File No. R050-14

This regulation amends the required form for state agencies to use when adopting, amending, or repealing regulations. This regulation, therefore, applies only to state agencies and not to any business or the public. Further, this regulation does not add any new requirements, but instead updates the form specified in NAC 233B.010 to comply with the current version of NRS Chapter 233B.

EFFECTIVE DATE OF REGULATION:
Upon filing with the Nevada Secretary of State

1. Background:

This regulation will involve no economic effect on businesses or the public. This regulation will involve no adverse or beneficial effects on businesses or the public. This regulation will also involve no immediate or long-term effects on businesses or the public.

2. Description of Solicitation:

N/A

3. Does the proposed regulation impose a direct and significant economic burden upon a small business or directly restrict the formation, operation or expansion of a small business? (NRS 233B.0608(1))

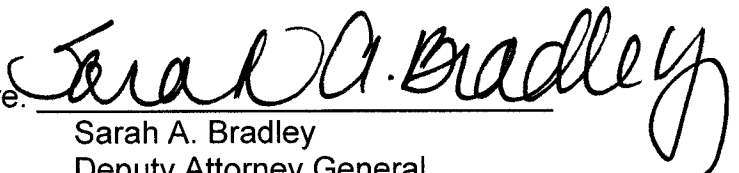

No, this regulation does not impose a direct and/or significant economic burden upon a small business or directly restrict the formation, operation or expansion of a small business.

4. How was that conclusion reached?

The Office of the Attorney General has reviewed the text of the regulation. Because the regulation amends a form that is required to be used only by state agencies, this regulation will have no impact on small businesses.

I, Sarah A. Bradley, Deputy Attorney General for the State of Nevada, Office of the Attorney General, certify that, to the best of my knowledge or belief, the information contained in the Small Business Impact Statement for LCB File No. R050-14 was prepared properly and is accurate.

Dated: 4/20, 2016.
