No businesses appeared or responded. The only appearances and responses before the Commission were individuals / representatives from law enforcement government agencies and no mention was made concerning any impact on small business.

Pursuant to NRS 241.020 (2)(c), a copy of supporting materials for the meeting may be obtained by contacting Scott Johnston at (775) 687-7678, Ext. 3335 Commission on Peace Officers' Standards and Training at 5587 Wa Pai Shone Avenue, Carson City, Nevada 89701.

- 2. The manner in which the analysis was conducted, including the methods used to determine the impacts of the proposed regulation on small business.

The Commission determined that since this regulation only relates to or impacts law enforcement agencies, small business would not be impacted in any way. This was confirmed by the Commission through the workshop and public comment hearing when no small business appeared and no impact was mentioned.

- 3. The estimated economic effect of the proposed regulation on the small businesses which it is to regulate, including, without limitation:
(a) Both adverse and beneficial effects; and
(b) Both direct and indirect effects.

None, it does not apply. See #1.

- 4. A description of the methods that the agency considered to reduce the impact of the proposed regulation on small businesses and a statement regarding whether the agency actually used any of those methods.

N/A. See #1.

- 5. The estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the proposed regulation.

There is no additional cost to agencies. These changes allow POST and agencies to be more efficient without any additional expense.

- 6. If the proposed regulation provides a new fee or increases an existing fee, the total annual amount the agency expects to collect and the manner in which the money will be used.

N/A. No fees associated with this regulation.

- 7. If the proposed regulation includes provisions which duplicate or are more stringent than federal, state or local standards regulating the same activity, an explanation of why such duplicative or more stringent provisions are necessary.

There is no duplication and no other statute or regulation affected.

- 8. The reasons for the conclusion of the agency regarding the impact of a regulation on small businesses.

The regulations in this chapter of the NAC's pertain only to law enforcement governmental bodies and peace officers and has no impact on small business.

I hereby certify to the best of my knowledge or belief a concerted effort was made to determine the impact of the proposed regulation on small businesses and that this statement was properly prepared and the information contained herein is accurate.
