

Digest for Adopted Regulation R_052-12

Existing law authorizes the State Environmental Commission to adopt regulations to establish a voluntary program of electronic monitoring of emission information from certain vehicles. (NRS 445B.767) Section 2 of this regulation establishes the program, sets forth the requirements for participation in the program and sets forth the grounds for termination from the program. Section 3 of this regulation sets forth the requirements to be an authorized vendor of a data management system used for participation in the program.