LCB File No. R098-25

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: § 1, NRS 391.019 and 391.021, as amended by section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 286, chapter 372, Statutes of Nevada 2025, at page 2452.

A REGULATION relating to education; revising provisions exempting certain applicants for licensure as a teacher or other educational personnel from the requirement to pass a competency test in basic reading, writing and mathematics; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires the Commission on Professional Standards in Education to adopt regulations prescribing the qualifications for licensing teachers and other educational personnel. (NRS 391.019) Existing law also requires the Commission to adopt regulations governing examinations for the initial licensing of teachers and other educational personnel and required such regulations to exempt an applicant from any requirement to pass a competency test in basic reading, writing and mathematics, at the level of competence specified by the Commission, if, after not passing such a test, the applicant completes a course of study approved by the Department of Education, with a grade of B or better, in each subject area of the competency test that the applicant did not pass. (NRS 391.021) Assembly Bill No. 286 of the 2025 Legislative Session (A.B. 286) instead requires these regulations to exempt an applicant from any requirement to pass a competency test in basic reading, writing and mathematics, at the level of competence specified by the Commission, if, at any time before or after completing such a test, the applicant completes a course of study approved by the Department, with a grade of B or better, in each subject area of the competency test that the applicant did not pass. (NRS 391.021, as amended by section 1 of Assembly Bill No. 286, chapter 372, Statutes of Nevada 2025, at page 2452) This regulation revises the existing exemption created in regulation to be consistent with the requirements of A.B. 286.
