Also, I have the honor to inform your honorable body that the Assembly on this day adopted Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 1.

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Assembly Concurrent Resolution No. 1—Adopting the Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 22nd Special Session of the Legislature.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, THE SENATE CONCURRING, That the following Joint Rules of the Senate and Assembly for the 22nd Special Session of the Legislature are hereby adopted:

APPLICABILITY OF JOINT RULES

Rule No. 1. Generally

THE JOINT RULES FOR THE 22ND SPECIAL SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE ARE APPLICABLE ONLY DURING THE 22ND SPECIAL SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Rule No. 2. Procedure Concerning.

1. In every case of an amendment of a bill, or joint or concurrent resolution, agreed to in one House, dissented from in the other, and not receded from by the one making the amendment, each House shall appoint a committee to confer with a like committee to be appointed by the other; and the committee so appointed shall meet publicly at a convenient hour to be agreed upon by their respective chairmen and announced publicly, and shall confer upon the differences between the two Houses as indicated by the amendments made in one and rejected in the other and report as early as convenient the result of their conference to their respective Houses. The report shall be made available to all members of both Houses. The whole subject matter embraced in the bill or resolution shall be considered by the committee, and it may recommend recession by either House, new amendments, new bills or resolutions, or other changes as it sees fit. New bills or resolutions so reported shall be treated as amendments unless the bills or resolutions are composed entirely of original matter, in which case they shall receive the treatment required in the respective Houses for original bills, or resolutions, as the case may be.

2. The report of a conference committee may be adopted by acclamation, and such action may be considered equivalent to the adoption of amendments embodied therein. The report is not subject to amendment. If either House refuses to adopt the report, or if the first conference committee has so recommended, a second conference committee may be appointed. No member who served on the first committee may be appointed to the second.

3. There shall be but two conference committees on any bill or resolution. A majority of the members of a conference committee from each House must be members who voted for the passage of the bill or resolution.

MESSAGES

Rule No. 3. Procedure Concerning.

1. Proclamations by the Governor convening the Legislature in extra session shall, by direction of the presiding officer of each House, be read immediately after the convening thereof, filed and entered in full in the Journal of proceedings.

2. Whenever a message from the Governor is received, the Sergeant at Arms will announce: “Mr. President, or Mr. Speaker, the Secretary of the Governor is at the bar.” The secretary will, upon being recognized by the presiding officer, announce: “Mr. President, or Mr. Speaker, a message from His Excellency, the Governor of Nevada, to the Honorable, the Senate or Assembly,” and hand same to the Sergeant at Arms for delivery to the Secretary of the Senate or Chief Clerk of the Assembly. The presiding officer will direct any message from the Governor to be received, read and entered in full in the Journal of proceedings.

3. Upon introduction, any bill or resolution that sets forth the names of primary joint sponsors must be numbered in the same numerical sequence as other bills and resolutions of the same House of origin are numbered.

4. Once a bill or resolution has been introduced, a primary joint sponsor or nonprimary joint sponsor may only be added or removed by amendment of the bill or resolution. POLICY AND PROCEDURES REGARDING SEXUAL HARASSMENT

1. The Legislature hereby declares its intention to maintain a working environment which is free from sexual harassment. This policy applies to all Legislators and lobbyists. Each member and lobbyist is responsible to conduct himself or herself in a manner which will ensure that others are able to work in such an environment.
2. In accordance with Title VII of the Civil Rights Act, for the purposes of this Rule, “sexual harassment” means unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when:
   (a) Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person’s employment;
   (b) Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the person; or
   (c) Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.
3. Each person subject to these Rules must exercise his own good judgment to avoid engaging in conduct that may be perceived by others as sexual harassment. The following noninclusive list provides illustrations of conduct that the Legislature deems to be inappropriate:
   (a) Verbal conduct such as epithets, derogatory comments, slurs or unwanted sexual advances, invitations or comments;
   (b) Visual conduct such as derogatory posters, photography, cartoons, drawings or gestures;
(c) Physical conduct such as unwanted touching, blocking normal movement or interfering with the work directed at a person because of his sex;
(d) Threats and demands to submit to sexual requests to keep a person’s job or avoid some other loss, and offers of employment benefits in return for sexual favors; and
(e) Retaliation for opposing, reporting or threatening to report sexual harassment, or for participating in an investigation, proceeding or hearing conducted by the Legislature or the Nevada Equal Rights Commission or the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, when submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a person’s employment or submission to or rejection of such conduct by a person is used as the basis for employment decisions affecting the person or such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a person’s work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment.

4. A person may have a claim of sexual harassment even if he has not lost a job or some other economic benefit. Conduct that impairs a person’s ability to work or his emotional well-being at work constitutes sexual harassment.

5. If a Legislator believes he is being sexually harassed on the job, he may file a written complaint with:
   (a) The Speaker of the Assembly;
   (b) The Majority Leader of the Senate; or
   (c) The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, if the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate.
   The complaint must include the details of the incident or incidents, the names of the persons involved and the names of any witnesses.

6. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 7, the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate, as appropriate, shall refer a complaint received pursuant to subsection 5 to a committee consisting of Legislators of the same House. A complaint against a lobbyist may be referred to a committee in either House.

7. If the complaint involves the conduct of the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate, the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau shall refer the complaint to the Committee on Elections, Procedures, Ethics, and Constitutional Amendments of the Assembly or the Committee on Legislative Operations and Elections of the Senate, as appropriate. If the Speaker of the Assembly or the Majority Leader of the Senate is a member of one of these committees, the Speaker or the Majority Leader, as the case may be, shall not participate in the investigation and resolution of the complaint.

8. The committee to which the complaint is referred shall immediately conduct a confidential and discreet investigation of the complaint. As a part of the investigation, the committee shall notify the accused of the allegations. The committee shall facilitate a meeting between the complainant and the accused to allow a discussion of the matter, if both agree. If the parties do not agree to such a meeting, the committee shall request statements regarding the complaint from each of the parties. Either party may request a hearing before the committee. The committee shall make its determination and inform the complainant and the accused of its determination as soon as practicable after it has completed its investigation.

9. If the investigation reveals that sexual harassment has occurred, the Legislature will take appropriate disciplinary or remedial action, or both. The committee shall inform the complainant of any action taken. The Legislature will also take any action necessary to deter any future harassment.

10. The Legislature will not retaliate against a person who files a complaint and will not knowingly permit any retaliation by the person’s supervisors or coworkers.

11. The Legislature encourages a person to report any incident of sexual harassment immediately so that the complaint can be quickly and fairly resolved.

12. Action taken by a complainant pursuant to this Rule does not prohibit the complainant from also filing a complaint of sexual harassment with the Nevada Equal Rights Commission or the federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.

13. All Legislators and lobbyists are responsible for adhering to the provisions of this policy. The prohibitions against engaging in sexual harassment and the protections against becoming a victim of sexual harassment set forth in this policy apply to employees, Legislators, lobbyists, vendors, contractors, customers and visitors to the Legislature.

14. This policy does not create any enforceable legal rights in any person.

I represent rural Nevada and I have some concerns regarding Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1. Page 2, line 25 states, "An initiative petition shall be in the form required by Section 3 of this Article and shall be proposed by a number of registered voters from each congressional district in this State equal to 10 percent or more of the number of voters who voted at the last preceding general election.” You could have an initiative petition qualify even though the signature takers would not need to go outside of Clark County and maybe to Pahrump to collect some signatures. I think that is too narrow a field for an initiative petition to be based.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Senator Coffin requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

This is the third proclamation we have received this morning. I guess they are all in the proper form except for one thing which I object to. I object to the Governor adding in a termination time for the Special Session to end. It seems to me that what he has done is to create three special sessions today by somehow placing an ending time. The Constitution makes no mention of the Governor having the authority to tell the Legislature when it can terminate a Special Session he has called. The Constitution only gives the Governor the authority to tell us what subjects to consider. I object to that. I want my complaint stated in the record for this day. I do not want us to fall in to the precedence setting habit of simply going along with what we are seeing here.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Senator Wiener requested that her remarks be entered in the Journal.

Thank you, Madam President. I would like to take a moment to talk about our Minority Leader, Dina Titus.

She has taught us so much. She has taught us that it is possible to actively participate in two or more conversations while simultaneously drafting and later delivering an eloquent floor statement on just about any subject.

She has taught us to appreciate the advantages of mastering at least two languages. One of those is rooted in small-town Georgia, USA.

She has taught us that civilized people drink tall teas when exchanging tall tales. She has taught us when someone teaches long enough that students can one day become colleagues. Is that not so, Senator Hardy?

She has taught us that every person's ideas count, especially those people who have quiet voices and great needs. She has taught us that the legislative process is the people's process and that we should be strong listeners because there is so much for us to learn from others.

She has taught us that our legislative lives are measured in more than 120-day or 121-day cycles and should encompass continuous doses of passion, purpose and people. She has taught us, the Senate Democrats, that we should be constant in our efforts to maximize every moment because the people of Nevada are counting on us.

Dina, we have counted on you this session and in all sessions past every day and in every way. For this and for so many more reasons we want to say thank you. I was privileged to be the one to shop for you. This is something from the Democrats that you can take with you wherever you go, whether traveling the State of Nevada or the world. Thank you, Senator Titus.

Senator Nolan requested that his remarks be entered in the Journal.

The hour is late. I am not going to address the many successes, hard work and merits this body has accomplished in the last 121 days. It is my distinct honor and privilege, as the Assistant Majority Leader to recognize our friend and leader during the past 120 days, Senator Raggio. I have truly marveled at his wisdom his energy and his wit. I have come to accept the fact Senator Raggio is timeless. For more than 35 years he has connected Nevada's history and culture with the legislative process. We have watched as resolution after resolution commemorating people, places and things that are important to Nevadans. Very rarely is there a resolution brought forward that Bill does not have a connection to, in some way. He truly is a part of a unique fabric that makes us all Nevadans.

One of these days we might even think about replacing the "Tulé Duck" as the State of Nevada artifact with Bill Raggio. Those of us who have served in the other House understand the differences in leadership styles, from House to House. We might disagree on issues and have very different philosophies but Bill is a leader and expects the members of this body to treat one another with dignity, civility, decorum, honor and respect. There is no question that when he gives his word he will honor that word and promise.

On behalf of our caucus, the Democratic caucus and the staff, we want to thank you for leading this body and the State of Nevada through the 73rd Session and the 22nd Special Session. We want to offer you a "21 Whistle Salute," to say "Back at you, Bill." The Republican caucus presents a token of our appreciation for your leadership.
