Assembly called to order at 11:07 a.m.
Mr. Speaker presiding.
Roll called.
All present.
Prayer by the Chaplain, Dr. Ken Haskins.

Father of Lights, You are light and in You there is no darkness. Your Word is a lamp unto our feet and a light unto our path. Enable us to see clearly the issues set before us and grant us the wisdom to make decisions which will brighten the lives of all the citizens of this great state. I pray in the Name of the One who is even now the Light of the World.

AMEN.

Pledge of Allegiance to the Flag.

General File and Third Reading

Senate Joint Resolution No. 2.
Resolution read.
Remarks by Assemblymen Buckley, Angle, Carpenter, Giunchigliani, and Anderson.
Conflict of interest declared by Assemblywoman Angle.
Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

Assemblywoman Buckley:
Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I think the Minority Leader of the Senate said it pretty well yesterday. Over the years we see a lot of resolutions, and I don’t think any, with the exception of Yucca Mountain, is as important with regard to the federal government and states’ rights as this one. Recently, the President, in an attempt to reduce the soaring federal deficit, has recommended in his budget that money generated by federal land sales in Clark County be funded to the national treasury. Specifically, the proposal is to siphon off 70 percent of our landsale revenue, or some $700 million a year, to pay for the staggering $527 billion deficit.

Since the Southern Nevada Public Land Management Act was adopted in 1998, land sales in southern Nevada have generated approximately $1.6 billion. That is much higher than anyone ever anticipated. Five percent goes to our schools, ten percent for water infrastructure, and 85 percent for environmental restoration, parks and recreation projects, and sensitive land acquisition throughout the state, including 300 million dollars specifically for Lake Tahoe, one of Nevada’s treasures.

Now Washington wants to take it away from us. If the Bush budget is adopted, it will be devastating for Nevada. Projects like the Clark County Shooting Range, the Spring Mountains Information Center, improvements at Lake Mead and Red Rock, our treasure in southern Nevada, and the purchase of 770 acres of Incline Lake property east of Lake Tahoe, among others, will be jeopardized.

Not long ago, Interior Secretary Gale Norton came to Nevada and praised our program and how it was working: the idea of taking money and earmarking it for special programs and uses, and the way it was operating here. She didn’t mention, however, that the President was so impressed by our program that he planned to take all of our money away.

Mark my words, they will come after Clark County next. Next time it will be Lincoln County and northern Nevada land sales as well. Nevada has done enough. We already receive much less in federal funding than we contribute in taxes. We only get about 70 cents on the dollar returned to Nevada.

Furthermore, the federal government owns about 86 percent of land in our state, more than any other state in the continental U.S. This is land that cannot be developed and remains outside our tax rolls, which is a terrible deterrent to economic development and us controlling the destiny of our state.

Nevadans are proud Americans. We want to do our share. We pay our taxes. We play by the rules. We work hard. We support lowering the federal deficit, but don’t do it at the expense of Nevada. Enough is enough. The money from the sale of land in Nevada should stay in Nevada to preserve our Nevada treasures, to build our infrastructure, and to educate our children. Nevada deserves no less. I urge your support of this resolution.

Assemblywoman Angle:
Thank you, Mr. Speaker. As you know, I am an advocate for the Constitution, a strong supporter of the Tenth Amendment, state sovereignty, and state rights, but I have a conflict of interest and I will not be able to vote on this bill.
ASEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:
Thank you, Mr. Speaker. To me this is a pretty simple issue. The money that comes from the sale of lands in Nevada ought to stay in Nevada. So I support this resolution.

ASEMBLYWOMAN GIUNCHIGLIANI:
Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I guess my colleague from Elko took what I was going to say. What goes in Nevada stays in Nevada, but that wasn’t really what I was going to say. I think the Majority Leader summed it up. Our lands are 84 percent already owned by the federal government. We have tried years and years and years to come up with some creative ways to get the government out of our business. Luckily, Senators Ensign and Bryan, at that time, actually wrote the Public Lands Act bill, which gave us some dollars back for our public. It is time that we pass this resolution, saying, “stop trying to raid our coffers.” We are spending millions of our own taxpayer dollars to fight them on Yucca Mountain, for example. Every time we turn around it is the federal government trying to take money out of our pockets. It is time for them to live within their own means and not come to Nevada for our dollars. Thank you.

ASEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:
Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I guess it would be nice to indeed just say we all have that kind of conflict. I rise in support of this resolution. None of us likes to remind the federal government the uniqueness of Nevada and Nevada land. Because of when we became a state, we are one of the few states in the United States that has such an onerous ownership of public lands. It detracts from everything we do. The availability of land makes us one of the highest metropolitan states in the United States. We don’t think of us as a metropolitan area, and yet that is the reality of life because we are hemmed in by the national government in terms of what our rights and the rights of the citizens of this state are. So, clearly, this resolution only reaffirms us to an equal position with the other 49 states, and it would be negligent of our obligations not to support this resolution. Thank you, Mr. Speaker.

Roll call on Senate Joint Resolution No. 2:
YEAS—41.
NAYS—None.
NOT VOTING—Angle.
Senate Joint Resolution No. 2 having received a constitutional majority, Mr. Speaker declared it passed.

Resolution ordered transmitted to the Senate.
