“TEXT OF REPEALED SECTIONS

281.477 Public hearing on request for opinion as to whether person committed act to impede success of political campaign: Request; notice; response; continuance; actions of Commission; judicial review of final opinion.

1. If a request for an opinion is filed with the Commission pursuant to NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346, the Commission shall conduct a public hearing on the request. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the hearing must be held as expeditiously as possible, but not later than 15 days after the receipt of the request for the opinion.

2. Such a request must be accompanied by all evidence and arguments to be offered by the requester concerning the issues related to the request. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if such evidence and arguments are not submitted with the request, the Commission may:

(a) Draw any conclusions it deems appropriate from the failure of the person or group of persons requesting the opinion to submit the evidence and arguments, other than a conclusion that a person alleged to have violated NRS 294A.345 acted with actual malice; and

(b) Decline to render an opinion.

The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit the Commission from considering evidence or arguments presented by the requester after submission of the request for an opinion if the Commission determines that consideration of such evidence or arguments is in the interest of justice.

3. The Commission shall immediately notify any person alleged to have violated NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 that such an opinion has been requested by the most expedient means possible. If notice is given orally by telephone or in any other manner, a second notice must be given in writing not later than the next calendar day by facsimile machine or overnight mail. The notice must include the time and place of the Commission’s hearing on the matter.

4. A person notified pursuant to subsection 3 shall submit a response to the Commission not later than the close of business on the second business day following the receipt of the notice. The response must be accompanied by any evidence concerning the issues related to the request that the person has in his possession or may obtain without undue financial hardship. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if such evidence is not submitted within that time, the Commission may:

(a) Draw any conclusions it deems appropriate from the failure of that person to submit the evidence and argument; and

(b) Prohibit that person from responding and presenting evidence at the hearing.

The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit the Commission from allowing that person to respond and present evidence or arguments, or both, after the close of business on the second business day if the Commission determines that consideration of such evidence or arguments is in the interest of justice.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, the Commission shall allow any person alleged to have violated NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 to:

(a) Be represented by counsel; and

(b) Hear the evidence presented to the Commission and respond and present evidence on his own behalf.

6. At the request of:

(a) The person or group of persons that filed the request for the opinion pursuant to NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346; or

(b) The person alleged to have violated the provisions of NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346, the Commission may grant a continuance of a hearing held pursuant to the provisions of this section upon a showing of the existence of extraordinary circumstances that would prohibit the Commission from rendering a fair and impartial opinion. A continuance may be granted for not more than 15 days.

Not more than one continuance may be granted by the Commission pursuant to this subsection.

7. The person or group of persons that filed the request for the opinion pursuant to NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 has the burden of proving the elements of the offense, including that a person alleged to have violated NRS 294A.345 acted with actual malice. The existence of actual malice may not be presumed. A final opinion of the Commission rendered pursuant to this section must be supported by clear and convincing evidence. In addition to the other requirements for issuing an opinion pursuant to this subsection, the Commission shall not render a final opinion determining that a person has violated NRS 294A.345 unless the Commission makes specific findings that:
   (a) The person caused to be published a false statement of fact concerning a candidate;
   (b) The person acted with actual malice in causing the false statement to be published;
   (c) The person acted with the intent to impede the success of the campaign of the candidate in causing the false statement to be published; and
   (d) The publication of the false statement did in fact impede the success of the campaign of the candidate.

In addition to the other requirements for issuing an opinion pursuant to this subsection, the Commission shall not render a final opinion determining that a person has violated NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 unless a finding that each of the elements of the offense has been proven receives the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the Commission.

8. The Commission shall render its opinion, or decline to render an opinion, as expeditiously as possible, but not later than 3 days after the date of the hearing. If additional time is required to determine the state of mind or the intent of the person alleged to have violated the provisions of NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346 or to determine the amount of any civil penalty that may be imposed pursuant to NRS 281.551, the Commission may continue its jurisdiction to investigate those issues but shall render its opinion as to the truth or falsity of the statement made concerning the candidate or the ballot question or its opinion as to whether the person impeded the success of the campaign or induced another person to impede the success of the campaign. If the Commission continues its jurisdiction pursuant to this subsection, it may render a final opinion after the time set forth in this subsection.

9. A final opinion of the Commission rendered pursuant to this section is subject to judicial review pursuant to NRS 233B.130. The district court shall give a petition for judicial review of a final opinion of the Commission priority over other civil matters that are not expressly given priority by law. Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 233B.130, the court may provide for such expedited review of the final opinion, including shortened periods for filing documents, as it deems appropriate for the circumstances.

10. Each request for an opinion filed pursuant to NRS 294A.345 or 294A.346, each opinion rendered by the Commission pursuant thereto and any motion, evidence or record of a hearing relating to the request are public and must be open to inspection pursuant to NRS 239.010.

11. For the purposes of NRS 41.032, the members of the Commission and its employees shall be deemed to be exercising or performing a discretionary function or duty when taking any action related to the rendering of an opinion pursuant to this section.

12. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a meeting or hearing held by the Commission to carry out the provisions of this section and the Commission's deliberations on the information or evidence are not subject to any provision of chapter 241 of NRS.

13. As used in this section:
   (a) “Actual malice” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 294A.345.
   (b) “Publish” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 294A.345.

294A.345 Impeding success of campaign of candidate by causing publication of certain false statements of fact concerning candidate prohibited; civil penalty imposed by Commission on Ethics.

organization as the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit without ordering an election.

Sec. 27. 1. If no employee organization is designated as the exclusive representative of a workplace relations unit, the Board shall order an election to be conducted within the workplace relations unit if:

(a) An employee organization files with the Board a written request for an election which includes a list of its membership showing that it represents at least 30 percent but not more than 50 percent of the employees within the workplace relations unit; and

(b) No other election to choose, change or discontinue representation has been conducted within the workplace relations unit during the preceding 12 months.

2. If the Board designates an employee organization as the exclusive representative of a workplace relations unit pursuant to subsection 1 or section 26 of this act, the Board shall order an election if:

(a) Either:

(b) Any other employee organization that, on or before the date that is prescribed by the rules established by the Board, files with the Board a written request to be placed on the ballot for the election and includes with the written request a list of its membership showing that the employee organization represents at least 30 percent of the employees within the workplace relations unit; and
(c) A choice for “no representation.”

2. If a ballot for an election contains more than two choices and none of the choices on the ballot receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election, the Board shall order a runoff election between the two choices on the ballot that received the highest number of votes at the initial election.

3. If the choice for “no representation” receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election or at any runoff election, the Board shall designate the workplace relations unit as being without representation.

4. If an employee organization receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election or at any runoff election, the Board shall designate the employee organization as the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit.

Sec. 29. 1. The Board shall preside over all elections that are conducted pursuant to this chapter and shall determine the eligibility requirements for employees to vote in any such election.

2. An employee organization that is placed as a choice on the ballot for an election or any employee who is eligible to vote at an election may file with the Board a written objection to the results of the election. The objection must be filed not later than 10 days after the date on which the notice of the results of the election is given by the Board.

3. In response to a written objection filed pursuant to subsection 2 or upon its own motion, the Board may invalidate the results of an election and order a new election if the Board finds that any conduct or circumstances raise substantial doubt that the results of the election are reliable.

Sec. 30. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an exclusive representative shall:

(a) Act as the agent and exclusive representative of all employees within each workplace relations unit that it represents; and

(b) In good faith and on behalf of each workplace relations unit that it represents, individually or collectively, engage in discussions of workplace relations with the Executive Department concerning the terms and conditions of employment for the employees within each workplace relations unit that it represents, including, without limitation, any terms and conditions of employment that are within the scope of supplemental discussions of workplace relations pursuant to section 38 of this act.

2. If an employee is within a workplace relations unit that has an exclusive representative, the employee has the right to present grievances to the Executive Department at any time and to have those grievances adjusted without the intervention of the exclusive representative if:

(a) The exclusive representative is given an opportunity to be present at any meetings or hearings related to the adjustment of the grievance; and

(b) The adjustment of the grievance is not inconsistent with the provisions of the workplace relations agreement or any supplemental workplace relations agreement then in effect.
Sec. 31. If the Board designates an employee organization as the exclusive representative of a workplace relations unit pursuant to this chapter, an officer of the Executive Department may not, pursuant to NRS 281.129, withhold any amount of money from the salary or wages of an employee within the workplace relations unit to pay dues or similar fees to an employee organization other than the employee organization that is the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit.

Sec. 32. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative shall begin negotiations concerning a workplace relations agreement within 60 days after one party notifies the other party of the desire to negotiate.

Sec. 33. 1. If the parties do not reach a workplace relations agreement within 120 days after the date on which the parties began negotiations or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, either party may request a mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

2. The mediator shall bring the parties together as soon as possible after his appointment and shall attempt to settle each issue in dispute within 30 days after his appointment or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties.

Sec. 34. 1. If the mediator determines that his services are no longer helpful or if the parties do not reach a workplace relations agreement through mediation within 30 days after the appointment of the mediator or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, the mediator shall discontinue mediation and the parties shall attempt to agree upon an impartial arbitrator.

2. If the parties do not agree upon an impartial arbitrator within 5 days after the date on which mediation is discontinued pursuant to subsection 1 or on or before any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, the parties shall request from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service a list of seven potential arbitrators. The parties shall select an arbitrator from this list by alternately striking one name until the name of only one arbitrator remains, and that arbitrator must hear the dispute in question. The party who will strike the first name must be determined by a coin toss.

3. The arbitrator shall begin arbitration proceedings within 60 days after his selection or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties.

4. The arbitrator and the parties shall apply and follow the procedures for arbitration that are prescribed by the rules established by the Board. During arbitration, the parties retain their respective duties to negotiate in good faith.

5. The arbitrator may administer oaths or affirmations, take testimony and issue and seek enforcement of subpoenas in the same manner as the Board pursuant to section 18 of this act, and except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the provisions of section 18 of this act apply to subpoenas issued by the arbitrator.

6. The Executive Department and the exclusive representative shall each pay one-half of the cost of arbitration.
Sec. 35. 1. For each separate issue that is in dispute after arbitration proceedings are held pursuant to section 34 of this act, the arbitrator shall incorporate either the final offer of the Executive Department or the final offer of the exclusive representative into his decision. The arbitrator shall not revise or amend the final offer of either party on any issue.

2. To determine which final offers to incorporate into his decision, the arbitrator shall assess the reasonableness of:
   (a) The position of each party as to each issue in dispute; and
   (b) The contractual terms and provisions contained in each final offer.

3. In assessing reasonableness pursuant to subsection 2, the arbitrator shall:
   (a) Compare the terms and conditions of employment for the employees within the workplace relations unit with the terms and conditions of employment for other employees performing similar services and for other employees generally:
      (1) In public employment in comparable communities; and
      (2) In private employment in comparable communities; and
   (b) Consider, without limitation, such other factors as are normally or traditionally used as part of discussions of workplace relations, mediation, arbitration or other methods of dispute resolution to determine the terms and conditions of employment for employees in public or private employment.

4. The arbitrator shall render a written decision within 45 days after the conclusion of the arbitration proceedings or before any later date which is set by agreement of the parties.

5. Except as otherwise provided in section 36 of this act, each provision that is included in a decision of the arbitrator is final and binding upon the parties.

Sec. 36. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a party may seek judicial review in the district court of the decision of an arbitrator made pursuant to section 35 of this act based upon jurisdictional grounds or upon the grounds that the decision:
   (a) Was procured by fraud, collusion or other similar unlawful means; or
   (b) Was not supported by competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record and based upon the factors set forth in section 35 of this act.

2. If a party seeks judicial review pursuant to this section, the district court may stay the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator until the court rules on the matter.

3. The district court may affirm or reverse the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator, in whole or in part, but the court may not remand the matter to the arbitrator or require any additional fact-finding or decision making by the arbitrator.

4. If the district court reverses any part of the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator, the court shall enter an order invalidating that part of the decision of the arbitrator, and that part of the decision of the arbitrator is void and must not be given effect.

Sec. 37. 1. If a provision of a workplace relations agreement does not require an amendment to existing statute by the Legislature to be given effect, the provision becomes effective pursuant to the provisions of the workplace relations agreement.

2. If a provision of the workplace relations agreement requires an amendment to existing statute by the Legislature to be given effect, the provision becomes effective, if at all, on the date on which the necessary amendment to existing statute becomes effective.

Sec. 38. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Executive Department and the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit may engage in supplemental discussions of workplace relations concerning any terms and conditions of employment which are peculiar to or which uniquely affect fewer than all the employees within the workplace relations unit if such supplemental terms and conditions of employment are not included in any provision of the workplace relations agreement then in effect between the Executive Department and the workplace relations unit.

2. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative may engage in supplemental discussions of workplace relations pursuant to subsection 1 for fewer than all the employees within two or more workplace relations units that the exclusive representative represents if the requirements of subsection 1 are met for each such workplace relations unit.

3. If the parties reach a supplemental workplace relations agreement pursuant to this section, the provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement:

(a) Must be in writing; and

(b) Shall be deemed to be incorporated into the provisions of each workplace relations agreement then in effect between the Executive Department and the employees who are subject to the supplemental workplace relations agreement if the provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement do not conflict with the provisions of the workplace relations agreement.

4. If any provision of the supplemental workplace relations agreement conflicts with any provision of the workplace relations agreement, the provision of the supplemental workplace relations agreement is void and the provision of the workplace relations agreement must be given effect.

5. The provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement expire at the same time as the other provisions of the workplace relations agreement into which they are incorporated.

6. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative may, during discussions of workplace relations conducted pursuant to this chapter, negotiate and include in a workplace relations agreement any terms and conditions of employment that would otherwise be within the scope of supplemental workplace relations conducted pursuant to this section.
Sec. 39.  1. Except as otherwise provided by specific statute, an employee organization and the Executive Department may sue or be sued as an entity pursuant to this chapter.

2. If any action or proceeding is brought by or against an employee organization pursuant to this chapter, the district court for the county in which the employee organization maintains its principal office or the county in which the claim arose has jurisdiction over the claim.

3. A natural person and his assets are not subject to liability for any judgment awarded pursuant to this chapter against the Executive Department or an employee organization.

Sec. 40. The terms of any workplace relations agreement remain in effect until a new workplace relations agreement takes effect.

Sec. 41. NRS 281.129 is hereby amended to read as follows:

3. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, leaves of absence prescribed pursuant to subsection 2 must not be of lesser duration than those provided for other state officers and employees pursuant to the provisions of this chapter. The provisions of this subsection do not govern the Legislative Commission with respect to the personnel of the Legislative Counsel Bureau.

5. Assemblywoman Buckley moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate amendment to Assembly Bill No. 384.

Remarks by Assemblywoman Buckley.

Assemblywoman Buckley requested that her remarks be entered in the Journal.
Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I want to read a couple comments, in the record, about the amendment, in hopes that I never have to do another payday loan bill again.

A new section 21.8 was written to clarify that financial terms have the meaning ascribed to them in federal law, the Truth in Lending Act (TILA) and Regulation Z. It is the intent that case law interpreting this federal law, and particularly Ninth Circuit case law, be relied on in construing such terms.

Section 31 was amended to clarify that the written loan agreement must disclose every type of fee or charge, regardless, of the name given to it and regardless of whether TILA would require disclosure of same as part of the finance charge. The written loan agreement must also disclose the customer’s opportunity to enter into a repayment plan on default.

In Section 34, it has now been made even more clear that if more than one loan is made to a customer at any one time the lender cannot raise the interest rate on a subsequent loan, and cannot charge any fee whatsoever on a subsequent loan. There is one exception to the no fee rule for lenders who meet some very narrow criteria in Section 43 of the bill.

In Section 35 it has now been made clearer that a licensee must disclose, in the written loan agreement, not only all that is required to be disclosed under the federal Truth in Lending Act (TILA), but also a description and amount of every fee charged. There are a few fees which under TILA need not be included and disclosed as part of the finance charge. This section is to make it very clear that even if TILA does not require that a fee be included in calculating a finance charge, that State law require disclosure of every fee or charge in the loan agreement.

In Section 38 the title lender’s right to self-help repossession as it exists today under NRS Chapter 104 was restored. Basically, insofar as concerns a default on a title loan, the rights and obligations of the parties under Chapter 104 remain the same with the exception that this bill provides the lender may not seek any deficiency from the customer after a default, repossession, and sale of the vehicle. Even though subsection (3) was deleted from the First Reprint, providing for a return to the customer of any surplus proceeds from the sale of the vehicle, no adverse intent should be inferred there from, because existing law, under NRS Chapter 104 already provides that a surplus must be returned to the debtor.

Section 44, which is the most important portion of the bill, was rewritten to make it even more clear that after default, the lender may only collect what was legally owed at the time of the default, minus payments, plus interest at prime plus 10 percent. That’s it. In other words, no late fees or any other type of fees no matter what innovative term is used to describe them. Treble damages for a bad check cannot be sought. Only one $25 returned check fee can be sought. Interest cannot continue to accrue at the contract rate for an indefinite time because rollovers are limited to 60 days and because, upon default, the interest rate drops to prime plus 10 percent, and the prime plus 10 percent rate is not indefinite either; it is limited to 90 days. At that point, no interest can be charged. Even though, under existing law, Treble damages cannot be charged, this was added to make it even clearer that such a legal argument is specious and not allowed.

Lastly, Section 74, which provides for a private right of action for violations of the law, was written. Subparagraph (1) provides a private right of action for violations of certain sections of the act, and for recovery of actual and consequential damages, punitive damages, and attorney’s fees and costs. Subparagraph (2) provides for the recovery of statutory damages for violations of certain sections of the act, in addition to any other remedy or penalty. Subparagraphs (3) and (4) provide an affirmative defense and was taken from the language provided in the Federal Truth and Lending act, at 15 U.S.C. § 1640 (c). It is the intent that case law interpreting that TILA section, and particularly Ninth Circuit case law interpreting that section, be relied on in construing these subparagraphs.

was testimony we received at a hearing that the regents did have already in their policy. So the intent was not to change that but to make sure it goes into their handbook. Thank you.
