Senate called to order at 11:11 a.m.
President Hunt presiding.
Roll called.
All present except Senator Care, who was excused.
Prayer by the Chaplain, Reverend Dr. Jane Foraker-Thompson.
Holy Creator of all that is, we ask Your blessings on the men and women of this legislative body as they seek to make wise and fair decisions in the last few weeks of the Legislative Session. As they struggle to make tough decisions on what programs and needs to fund, let them be guided by Your universal and timeless principles that good government serves the needs of all the people.
Let us all be reminded that as You are patient and compassionate with us so should we be to all people in our society; as You are forgiving to us and offer hope of salvation, so Your compassion for those who have less and are less capable of taking care of themselves is meant to shine through us as we seek to do Your will.
As it says in ancient scripture, “the compassion of human beings is for their neighbors, but the compassion of the Lord is for every living thing. He rebukes and trains and teaches them and turns them back as a shepherd, His flock. He has compassion on those who accept his discipline and who are eager for His precepts.” (Sirach 18:13-14) For You reward those who follow Your ways. “The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment will ever touch them. Those who trust in You will understand the truth, and the faithful will abide with You in love because grace and mercy are upon Your holy ones and You watch over Your chosen.” (Wisdom of Solomon 3:1, 9)
As we are taught in the old and new covenants, You give us the charge to look after the needy. That is the poor, hungry, thirsty, the sick which translates in our day to mean the homeless, the poor, those without sufficient income or health care; the stranger or immigrant; and those in prison—the outcasts of our societies. For Jesus said that in as much as we do it to the least of these in society, we do it unto Him. For we are all members of the one family of God.
Therefore, in these last few weeks of this Legislative Session, “Let justice roll down like waters, and righteousness like an ever-flowing stream.” (Amos 5:24)
God bless all who work on legislation during this Session as they try to make the right choices not only the men and women Legislators but their staff, the Legislative Counsel, the Governor and the citizen lobbyists who come to represent those most in need in our society thus glorifying the Creator in their work.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

Senator Raggio moved that further reading of the Journal be dispensed with, and the President and Secretary be authorized to make the necessary corrections and additions.
