Assembly called to order at 9:20 a.m.
Madam Speaker presiding.
Roll called. All present.
Prayer by the Chaplain, Terry Sullivan.
Let us pray. This, folks, is as good as it gets. I know we’re all tired and overworked and certainly in the case of you elected folks, underpaid. And still it’s as good as it gets. So Lord, we’re all about thanking you today because we’re all Americans and, more importantly, we’re Nevadans. So when I say this is as good as it gets, I think that’s pretty durn good. Lord, we sure do thank You for that. It’s the last day here, Lord, and we’re all headed somewhere, so we ask that You get us there as safely as possible. Finally, Lord, I think I speak for all of us when I say we’re all grateful for having had this opportunity to serve the good folks of our great state and being part of this incredible process. We sure thank You for that, too.

AMEN.

Pledge of allegiance to the Flag.

REPORTS OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEES

Madam Speaker:
The Conference Committee concerning Assembly Bill No. 140, consisting of the undersigned members, has met and reports that:

It has agreed to recommend that Amendment No. 771 of the Senate be concurred in.
It has agreed to recommend that the bill be further amended as set forth in Conference Amendment No. 8, which is attached to and hereby made a part of this report.

Conference Amendment No. CA8.
AN ACT relating to real property; revising provisions relating to a notice of sale of real property under execution; establishing the crime of defacing a notice of sale of real property under execution or a notice of sale of real property pursuant to a trustee’s power of sale; establishing rights and duties of a purchaser of real property pursuant to a foreclosure sale and establishing rights and duties of a tenant in possession of such property; revising provisions relating to a sale of real property pursuant to a trustee’s power of sale; requiring a landlord to make certain disclosures to a prospective tenant; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Sections 2 and 7 of this bill revise existing law by requiring that a notice of sale of real property under execution or a notice of sale of real property pursuant to a trustee’s power of sale be served upon the State Board of Health if the real property is operated as a licensed health facility. Sections 2 and 6.7 of this bill require, if the sale of property is a residential foreclosure, a separate notice to be served upon any tenant or subtenant, other than the judgment debtor, in actual occupation of the real property subject to a notice of sale under execution or a notice of sale pursuant to a trustee’s power of sale to inform the tenant or subtenant that the property is subject to a notice of sale. (NRS 21.130) Sections 3 and 8 of this bill make it unlawful for a person to willfully remove or deface a notice of sale under execution or a notice of sale pursuant to a trustee’s power of sale which is posted on real property. (NRS 21.140, 107.084) Sections 4 and 6 of this bill require the purchaser of a vacant residential property at a foreclosure sale or a trustee’s sale to maintain the exterior of the property. Sections 4 and 6 also authorize the appropriate governmental entity to assess a civil penalty of up to $1,000 per day, under certain circumstances, for failure to maintain the property. Existing law provides that a person who holds over and continues in possession of real property that has been foreclosed after a 3-day notice to quit has been served upon him may be removed. (NRS 40.255) Section 5 of this bill provides that a tenant or subtenant, other than the person whose name appears on the mortgage or deed of trust, may be removed only after the expiration of a specified period not to exceed 60 days if the property has been sold as a residential foreclosure. Section 5 also requires the tenant or subtenant who remains in occupation of the real property to remit rent to the new owner of the property pending expiration of the specified period. Section 5 further prohibits any person from entering a record of eviction for a tenant or subtenant who vacates the property within the specified period if the property has been sold as a residential foreclosure. Finally, section 5 allows the new owner of the real property, if the property has been sold as a residential foreclosure, to negotiate a new purchase, lease or rental agreement with the tenant or subtenant in occupation of the property or to offer a payment in exchange for the tenant or subtenant vacating the property on a date earlier than the end of the specified period.

Section 5.5 of this bill requires a landlord to file proof of service with the court of any notice required to be served before the removal of a person who holds over and continues in possession of real property after receiving a 3-day notice to quit. (NRS 40.280)

Section 9 of this bill requires a landlord to disclose in writing to a prospective tenant if the property to be leased or rented is the subject of foreclosure proceedings. Section 9 also makes it a deceptive trade practice for any landlord to willfully fail to make such a disclosure.

Section 10 of this bill amends section 3 of Assembly Bill No. 149 of this session to ensure that social security numbers are redacted from the copy of a promissory note before it is attached to a notice given before a trustee’s power of sale is carried out. (NRS 107.085)

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 2. NRS 21.130 is hereby amended to read as follows:

(3) Publishing a copy of the notice three times, once each week, for 3 successive weeks, in a newspaper, if there is one in the county. The cost of publication must not exceed the rate for legal advertising as provided in NRS 238.070. If the newspaper authorized by this section to publish the notice of sale neglects or refuses from any cause to make the publication, then the posting of notices as provided in this section shall be deemed sufficient notice. Notice of the sale of property on execution upon a judgment for any sum less than $500, exclusive of costs, must be given only by posting in three public places in the county, one of which must be the courthouse;

(4) Recording a copy of the notice in the office of the county recorder;

   NOTICE TO TENANTS OF THE PROPERTY

You may either: (1) terminate your lease or rental agreement and move out; or (2) remain and possibly be subject to eviction proceedings under chapter 40 of the Nevada Revised Statutes. Any subtenants may also be subject to eviction proceedings. Between now and the date of the sale, you may be evicted if you fail to pay rent or live up to your other obligations to the landlord. After the date of the sale, you may be evicted if you fail to pay rent or live up to your other obligations to the successful bidder, in accordance with chapter 118A of the Nevada Revised Statutes. If the property is sold and a landlord, successful bidder or subsequent purchaser files an eviction action against you in court, you will be served with a summons and complaint and have the opportunity to respond. Eviction actions may result in temporary evictions, permanent evictions, the awarding of damages pursuant to Nevada Revised Statutes 40.360 or some combination of those results.

Under the Justice Court Rules of Civil Procedure:
1. You will be given at least 10 days to answer a summons and complaint;

Assemblyman Conklin moved that the Assembly adopt the report of the Conference Committee concerning Assembly Bill No. 140.

Motion carried by a constitutional majority.

Madam Speaker announced if there were no objections, the Assembly would recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Assembly in recess at 9:27 a.m.
Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

Let’s turn our attention to some of our legislators who won’t be returning to the Assembly. May we consider Mark Manendo?

Assemblyman Manendo has been a member of this body since 1994. We were in the same freshman class together, along with, on the Democratic side, David Goldwater and Genie Ohrenschall. The rest of the freshman class were Republicans. It was the year of our 21-21 tie.

Mark has served in a variety of positions—as Assistant Majority Whip, chairman of Government Affairs, vice chairman of both Transportation and Health and Human Services, and chair of the Legislative Commission’s Subcommittee to Study Categories of Misdemeanors. But he is really known to all of us for his ready smile, his idealism, and his energy. There is probably no person that I have met that cares more about the people of his district or works harder to serve them than Mark Manendo.

Mark is a native of Pennsylvania. He first became interested in politics as a child when his mother, whom we all know and love, ran for the local school board. Although she lost, Mark was bitten by the political bug and has been involved in politics ever since. His family moved to Las Vegas when he was a teenager, and he graduated from Chaparral High School in 1985. In 1990, he became involved in the legislative campaign of his predecessor, Assemblyman William Petrak. In 1994 when Mr. Petrak expressed an interest in retiring, Mr. Manendo ran for the Assembly himself.

During his service, Mark has concentrated on legislation that helps to directly improve the lives of citizens. He sponsored a bill that authorized police departments to train citizens to write tickets to drivers who park illegally in handicapped spaces. That had been an area where the police didn’t really have time to enforce it, and folks that were truly disabled had trouble. As a result of his efforts, compliance has greatly improved.

Mark’s father was a veteran. and he has always been a champion of the interests of veterans. In 2003, he sponsored legislation to allow the acceptance of gifts to support the veterans’ cemeteries. He has been just as active with mobile home parks, and he’s been instrumental in the passing of several pieces of legislation ensuring the safety of mobile parks and protecting the rights of those who rent space in parks. He has been the chairman of our mobile home caucus for the last several sessions. He has also championed laws regarding drinking and driving. To many of the freshmen—sometimes it takes a while for ideas to gain acceptance. Mark was at the forefront before anyone else with regard to DUI. He fought for sessions to get the law passed to lower the threshold from .10 to .08. It wasn’t too long ago that we just really didn’t take seriously the issue of DUI and the people killed on our roads by others. He was also instrumental in passing laws prohibiting the use of minors in distributing materials promoting alcohol and requiring DUI offenders with blood alcohol content exceeding .18 to get treatment. As a result of these efforts, he was three times given the Legislative Leadership Award by the National Commission Against Drunk Driving.

Mark Manendo’s passion is encouraging citizens to get involved in the political process. He works to reach out to the people in his district and find out what issues most concern them. He walks his district and knocks on every door. He is one of the rare legislators that actually walks and knocks on doors during the session on the weekends. He constantly attends and participates in community events. He is a tireless volunteer for all kinds of causes that benefit the community. He frequently returns to his alma mater, Chaparral High School, to speak to students in social science and government classes. He is especially passionate about reaching new voters and often carries with him a stack of voter registration forms. He is involved in anything that happens to his community. We have a saying that no one can outwork Mark Manendo. The people return him here because they know him, they like him, and they trust him. You’ve been a good friend to me, Mark, since our freshman days. We’ve gone through a lot together and seen a lot of changes together. This body will miss you. Thank you for your years of service.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SPIEGEL: I stand to thank Mark Manendo for reaching out to the whole community. It is said very often that all politics is local. Mark is the epitome of somebody who gets out there and reaches out to meet people, encourage them, and help them.

I first met Mark a number of years ago before I ever thought of running for office. Mark was always there with a smile and encouragement and looking to see what the problems were and if there was something he could do to help. His tireless energy—we see every day. Anybody who has ever been in a committee meeting with Mark will hear him say very often, “I just got an email from a constituent.” “I was just in the supermarket, and I saw a constituent who said that we need to be doing this.” “I just got a phone call from a constituent.” “I don’t know if there is anybody in this building who is in better contact with their constituents than Mark Manendo. I know the people of Nevada have been really fortunate to have you, and I hope I have learned a lot from you on how to work with and to reach out to constituents. I hope that the lessons of Mark Manendo continue, because Nevada will be a better place for them. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN MORTENSON: I would like everyone to look at the pinwheel on Mark’s desk. There is something significant about that—spiritual, I think. There is no other pinwheel in this whole Assembly that is turning except for Mark’s. The funny thing is that it turns even when he is not there.

I have to bring up an incident that happened a few years ago. Somehow or other, all the legislators’ laptops got a virus, and then it was blamed on Dennis Nolan. Dennis used to sit right over here somewhere. So the next day he came in with a paper bag over his head and two slits cut in for his eyes, and he held up a sign, “I didn’t do it.” Everybody laughed very hard, and then he held up a second sign that said “Mark Manendo did it.”

I think Mark has one of the greatest senses of humor in this Assembly, and his culprit who is sitting next to him used to be second-in-command in that area. or maybe first. They are two peas in a pod. We are going to miss him terribly. Of course, again, I’m not going to be here to miss him, but I will miss him wherever I am. Thank you very much, Mark. We love you and we’ll miss you.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN PIERCE: I can’t add to what the Speaker said. You work tirelessly for your constituents, and you always have the little guy in your thoughts as you move through this process. I just wanted to thank you for your service.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLABORN: I have to say some good things about my good friend Mark. He is a great guy, and everybody is right: He is the hardest worker that you can imagine. I can remember when I first came here, he was so concerned about the noise barriers. People were saying, “Those would cost millions of dollars.” He said he didn’t care—you put them on the other side of town, you can put them on our side of town. He fought fearlessly, like a gladiator fighting a big lion. And guess what? Today you have wall barriers all over 215, all over the freeways where he was wanting them in his district.

Mark, you are a great guy. I love you. You’ve got a great family. Take care of Robin. I’m not going to miss you because I’m going to be with you and see you all the time. We will always be pals until they close that lid down on this fat boy. Thank you, Mark.
Thank you, Mark. We’ve always been friends; we’ve always had a great time. I’m going to miss you, too. If you ever need a real home in a mobile home park, come to Elko.

I rise in support of my neighbor, Mark Manendo. I have known him much longer than I’ve been in the Legislature. I remember coming up to the Legislature with the PTA and advocating. One of the things I do remember was the DUI stuff that he was doing. Year after year, we tried to get it, but we just couldn’t get it quite there. Mark was always there fighting for that. My other colleague just mentioned the sound barriers. Every time I travel anywhere now and I see a sound barrier on a freeway, I always think of Mark and the testament that if you work something long enough, eventually you’ll get it. I appreciate all that you do. I appreciate your commitment and your passion. Nevada is a better place because of your service. Thank you.

I think Assemblyman Manendo gave new definition to the word “fight” for sound barriers, and I’ll just leave it at that.

One of the things I appreciate about you, Mark, is your ability to understand people and know who needs to be recognized in committee, to involve everybody’s opinion and be able to focus without them even saying anything, and to know how to involve everybody on the committee. It was very admirable. As I, as a freshman, came to Government Affairs and watched your ability to include people and their comments and work that committee, I appreciated that. Thank you, Mark.

Yesterday Mark mentioned a little bit about a trip that we made around the state. As Paul Harvey would say, “I’d like to tell you the rest of the story.” What really happened is we started out in Las Vegas with a number of legislators in a van; it was sponsored by NACO and the Nevada League of Cities when I was with them. We made the tour up through the rural area. Many of the legislators had never been on that route. We stopped at a ranch, and there happened to be a number of cattle that were watering there. As we were talking to the people that owned the ranch, Mark kind of wandered off. We thought, “Well, I wonder where he’s gone?” So we snuck around to see what Mark would do. He was over there—and I’ll exaggerate it a little bit—but he was saying, “Moo, moo.” So we had to tell Mark to be careful—that those cows were trying to mother up with their calves, and they may mistake Mark for one of the calves.

That night when we went to Elko—we couldn’t resist it—we did buy him that bell, but not only the bell but a big collar to go with it. The next morning when we left Elko, Mark had the bell on, and it rang, and it rang, and it rang until—I think it was Ms. Koivisto—told him “Mark, take off that damn bell or we’re throwing both of you out the window.” Mark, it was a good trip, and we appreciate it.

I have had the pleasure of having Mr. Manendo on the Judiciary Committee. His predecessor, who was also on the Judiciary Committee, first brought Mark up, and he would sit in the back of the committee room in the old Judiciary, which is now a hallway. I got to know him early on as somebody who cared deeply about the political process first, and then as a member. When I look at my almanac for the day, June 1, there is a statement from Captain Lawrence about his pending loss of his ship: “Don’t give up the ship.” While Perry gets the credit for the use of that term on the name of his ship in Lake Erie, it was Lawrence who is often forgotten about.

“Don’t give up the ship” is Mark Manendo. When my colleague wondered about the pinwheel on Mark’s desk that was constantly turning, I thought it was appropriate because he is a Don Quixote, that is, someone who tilts at windmills that seem impossible to others, but he will make sure that he lifts them as soon as he gets the opportunity. Mr. Manendo, for your tenacity, for your “don’t give up the ship” attitude, for all those drunk drivers who are going to stay off the road because you gave them a second chance to show them the error of their ways and they changed their behavior as a result, the people of this state are thankful for your presence here.
ASSEMBLYMAN STEWART:
I’ll remember my friend Mark Manendo for his strong advocacy of the cultural arts, and I appreciate that. Also, he is always cheerful and caring. The only time I’ve seen him when he wasn’t cheerful was when he was concerned about a certain bill about a week and a half ago—he got a little angry then. We’ll miss you, Mark, and thank you for your service.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHRENSCHALL:
I first met Mark at Paradise Democratic Club meetings and Young Democrats meetings, before he was elected to the Assembly. I am proud of everything that you have done for your constituents and how you delivered for the Whitney area of Las Vegas, everything you’ve done for the veterans’ home in southern Nevada, everything you’ve done for victims’ rights groups and for mobile home parks. You’re really someone who has brought home the bacon to the people you represent. We’ll miss you, Mark.

ASSEMBLYMAN ATKINSON:
I got to know Mark before I came to this body. I work for the county, but I used to be a neighborhood liaison, and I staffed the Whitney town hall. I believe Mark was there more than I was. I later learned that he was the Assemblyman for the area, and I admired his work ethic and what he meant to his constituents. I believe staff and I were supposed to lead those meetings, but I remember somehow he led most of them. You can tell that his constituents really admire his work and how hard he works for them. It was no wonder to me when I read and understood later how much he walked his district and how much he walked during the interim. Over the years, Mark and I have become pretty good friends, I believe. We talk from time to time when we’re not in session about a lot of issues.

I have been privileged to have him as vice chair of the Transportation Committee the last two sessions. We don’t always agree, but I understand where he stands. He is very, very strong when it comes to safety in our state. He really, really wants to do what is right when it comes to safety, whether it is texting, seat belts, or cell phone usage. You guys don’t sit by him and have to disagree with him in committee. He doesn’t give up, and he’s almost had me a couple times the last few sessions. He was close; if we had gone 123 days, he would have had me. He is just a fighter.

I’ve always admired that about you, Mark. I know you are a good man, and I know you’re not done. I know you have a lot more to contribute to our state. I will end by wishing you all the best of luck, and I am sure that the following of your district doesn’t end today. Good luck, and we appreciate you.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN MCCLAIN:
Mark, we have been friends for a long time. We have had a lot of fun together. You are a great advocate for your constituents, and I know you work really hard. It has been great working with you.

ASSEMBLYMAN HOGAN:
I rise to defend our friend, Mark, against any slings or arrows that might be cast his way. He has become one of my closest friends here, and I have enjoyed his humor and his friendship and his clever ideas on where to go at night. I keep getting surprised in and around my own district when people that I’m trying to convince that I’m a heck of a legislator say, “Yeah, but do you know a fellow up there named Manendo?” He is one of the most widely known folks in my district, which is not particularly close to his, but everybody seems to know Mark. He makes a lasting impression in one way or another.

Everyone has mentioned the sound walls. The thing I think about every time I look at Mark is how someone who looks so young could be termed out. We must have a very short term limit period that it could happen so quickly to someone who looks like he is still reaching for age 27 or 28. It leaves us all to wonder who could possibly take up the cause as effectively as Mark has carried the cause of bringing blessed silence to our very, very noisy city by extending sound walls up and down every street and avenue until finally we are totally enclosed, totally soundproof, and able to enjoy the peace and quiet of our own families. Thank you so much, Mark, for all of the fun, for all of the excellent legislative contributions, and for giving us a good example of how to fully cultivate the crop of constituents who live on our respective farms. Thanks again, and we will be seeing you regularly.

SENATOR DENNIS NOLAN:
Thank you, Madam Speaker, for extending me the privilege of the floor. It really wasn’t planned. It was fortuitous that I was here during this celebration of my good friend Mark Manendo’s time here in this house. I would be remiss if I didn’t stand up and say a couple of things, having spent eight years here and coming here in 1995 with Mark. We hadn’t met each other before coming here in 1995. I guess we’re the original members of the vertically-challenged caucus, and we’ve had this ongoing debate about who is taller. But I guess when you’re under 5 foot 6 inches, it really doesn’t matter who is taller.

We have had a great time together, and that’s what happens in these chambers. You get to enjoy each other’s company and develop friendships that you never thought you would have. I do have to share a couple of stories about Mark that maybe aren’t too well known. The first rural tour we took, we went down to Minden to see a dairy farm. We were in the middle of this large round building where the cows step onto a conveyor belt, and they throw the mechanism on the udder to get the milk. We were kind of amazed by that, not having seen it before, and I saw a photo opportunity for Mark. I wanted to get a picture of Mark with one of the cows with this whole contraption on her in the background. I got the camera ready, and I asked Mark to back up so we could just see the tail end of the cow, because the cows were face in and they were going around this big conveyor belt. I noticed the next cow coming across had its tail up. I wasn’t too sure about a lot of things with cows, but I kind of figured what that was. So I asked Mark to take another step back. Just about that time, he took a guacamole shower. It was a terrible thing to do, but he and I were always goofing and getting into trouble.

One of our favorite times was putting a whoopee cushion behind Sandi Krenzer as she sat between the two of us. We just looked at it, and she would lean back and lean forth and lean back and lean forth, and then she started to lean back and David Goldwater stepped behind her. It went off, and they both stared at each for two seconds thinking, “Oh, my gosh.”

Some of the best times we had were challenging the chairman of Judiciary’s patience and mettle, and he finally had to separate us in that committee.

Mark is a wonderful friend. Mark says he is coming over to the Senate. All I can say is get ready to leave your youthful appearance behind, because when you step through that magic looking glass, you start looking like them—you get old.

Madam Speaker, thank you very much for the opportunity. Mark, happy trails, and maybe we’ll see you on the other side.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:
Mark, thank you for your service. Thank you for everything you’ve done for our state. Thanks for the cow stories, too.

Now, may we consider Assemblywoman Kathy McClain?

Kathy was also first elected in 1998. For the past two sessions, she has served as chair for the Committee on Taxation, a position which was especially critical this session. During the most recent interim, she chaired the study on the issues relating to senior citizens and veterans. She has also chaired the Task Force for a Healthy Nevada, the Nevada Commission on Aging, and the Nevada Commission on Veterans’ Services.

I got to know Kathy during her first term in 1999 when we served together on Judiciary and Health and Human Services. I soon realized that she was smart, hardworking, and plain-spoken. She always said exactly what she meant and let the chips fall where they might. She has been a great sounding board to me. I think probably this session, I have gotten to know Kathy better than in all the other sessions because we worked so closely together on the budget.

Kathy was born in Greeley, Colorado, during World War II. What—it must have been the very end. Her father was in England in the Army Air Corps, and her mother was living with her grandparents and working in a munitions factory in Denver. After the war, her family moved back to the farm in Iowa, where she grew up with four siblings and acquired her strong work ethic. Later she returned to Colorado, where she lived until she moved to Nevada. Kathy earned a bachelor’s degree in public administration from Regis University in Denver and a master’s in public administration from UNLV. She also earned an academic certificate in gerontology, reflecting her strong interest in the study of the elderly. She has a strong passion in policies affecting senior citizens.

During the most recent interim, she chaired the study relating to senior citizens. If you were asked any questions recently by Kathy about interim committees and study committees this interim, it was because I promised her she could have her committee on seniors and veterans, but only if she removed some of the 35 committees that we had unwittingly authorized this session. She took on the task—not a pleasant assignment—because of her passion for senior citizens’ and veterans’ issues. Another of her passions has been health care. She strengthened many of our public health programs when she chaired the Task Force for a Healthy Nevada. It also ended up improving her health habits. As you know, one of the jobs of the Task Force is to determine how to improve public health and how to fund antismoking activities. Kathy, herself, at the time was a heavy smoker and in fact used to sneak cigarettes in her office, thinking I would not find out about it. But I find out about everything in this building and had to do some enforcement of our no smoking rules. One of the witnesses before the Task Force was Dr. Elizabeth Fildes, the director of the Nevada Tobacco Users’ Helpline, and she prevailed upon Kathy to set an example by breaking her own smoking habit, which she did.

Throughout her legislative career, Kathy has represented an older area of Las Vegas. She fought to ensure her district and areas like it get the schools, public facilities, and services they need. In recent years, much of our attention has focused on the growing suburbs, and Kathy has always been an important voice for our older neighborhoods.

Kathy has also been a mentor and an inspiration for the young women who are just entering politics. She is an active participant and member of the faculty for the new leadership program at UNLV, a program to educate and empower the next generation of women leaders. At the conclusion of this week-long seminar at UNLV for college-age women, she always invites the participants to her home to meet the other women in the Legislature. She has fought for funding for that program and has made it possible. They were just recognized nationally, won an award, and I think it is in large measure due to Kathy’s support of the program and her fight for the funding. I also have to thank her because I got one of our interns from the new leadership program when I went to speak most recently. Edith Gonzalez Duarte, who is a Regents Scholar and whom I think you have all met, approached me and said “You inspired me. Can I volunteer for you at the special session?” She volunteered for two of them, and then came back. When I see young, bright women like that who ultimately will take one of these seats, she was inspired through Kathy’s vision and that program.

So whether it is her work with veterans, the commission, or every piece of legislation—they are tremendous tributes. I have never seen a better tribute given by this body than the ones arranged by Kathy McClain for our veterans. Whether it is veterans, seniors, public health, or inspiring the next generation of women, you have left your mark on this body, and for that we applaud you. Thank you for your service.

Assemblyman Manendo:
Ms. McClain and I have been friends for a long time. We have worked on a lot of projects together. We have had opportunities to have a little fun, and we certainly know that she and her husband Dave throw some nice get-togethers at their house, and we are grateful for that because it brings all of us together. Some of our caucus meetings we’ve had at your house, and we’ve had an opportunity to eat bread together as an extended family.

We are absolutely grateful for her work in the community for seniors and veterans. The state is going to miss her.

Kathy, you are a good spirit, a hard worker, and we’re going to miss you. We appreciate your dedication and your hard work for the State of Nevada, and we love you. Thank you.

Assemblyman Claborn:
Kathy is a real good friend of mine along with my family. She is a real great legislator, but better than that, she is a great cook. I have been to her home many times, and she is a fabulous cook. Kathy, I wish you luck in all your endeavors, and I know you will go places. I am not going to miss you, either, because I going to be around here helping you do whatever you want to do. It is good to see you today, and I will see you tomorrow, too. Goodbye, now. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN MORTENSON:
Everybody has talked about Kathy as a legislator; I want to talk about her as a lobbyist. My first session here, she represented local government as a lobbyist, and she was a fearsome lobbyist.

It was my first session, and I was trying to right all the wrongs of local government. I had a bill that said something to the effect that when there was testimony before the commissions or the councils, the negative side would have equal time with the positive side in these discussions and in the debates and so on. Local government did not like that at all, and Kathy, I think, was the fearsome one who led the charge, and it was dreadful. I finally backed off and pulled the bill. She was the one who made me do it. She is really good at that, but she is also a great legislator. She puts the same fearsomeness in the tax committee that she did earlier. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:
Kathy, you and I have been on a number of committees together, and you’ve always worked hard. Last session, we were on the corrections committee, and we did a lot of good things there to hopefully stabilize the prison population. Because if this time we’d have had to put as much money in the budget as we did last session, we’d have had to get maybe $2 billion in tax increases. Thank you for all your hard work and for being my friend.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:
First of all, Kathy clearly knows the way to a man’s heart is through his stomach. Her food is no doubt a telling point. My lips, this time, have missed the opportunity to burn with the hot peppers. Kathy’s tales of the sea adventures of her and her husband have always fascinated me.

I can’t think of Kathy without thinking of her sidekick, because I see the two of them together and think of them as a single force in the Judiciary Committee. After some time in committee, the two of them would take time to get a smoke, and you could see that all they wanted to do was get out of there to go have a smoke.

Kathy’s passion for veterans is what endears her to us all. She cares for veterans as few people could understand. It is just not another thing to do because of the flag. It is not just the right thing to do because they are veterans. It is a group of people that she will advocate for under any circumstance. Her passion of advocacy is for the right way all the time, not just some of the time. Even if she is standing by herself, Kathy is always the kind of person we all hope to be, and it has been a pleasure to serve with her.

ASSEMBLYMAN GOICOECHEA:
My colleague from Reno was talking about something that would make his lips burn. I want to thank Kathy for giving me a new vice, and to my colleague from Reno, I guarantee you it will help.

In the 2003 Session, my freshman session, I sat next to Kathy, and we had a very contentious session. I will say that Kathy never abandoned me all through that session, even though we were on different sides of the fence. I really have to thank her for that. She showed me that as well as being a good legislator, she can be your friend. I want to thank you, Kathy.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN KOIVISTO:
Kathy and I have been friends since she was up here as a lobbyist my first session, and then when she came back as a legislator, it was even more fun. Kathy is a gourmet cook, as you have heard, and my husband and I spend time with her and her husband eating a lot. We have enjoyed conventions together, and we are not going to miss each other because we are going to see each other. As you have heard, if there is a veterans’ event, if there is a seniors’ event, you know Kathy’s fingerprints are on it. She is passionate about what she does. Kathy, keep directing that passion. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ATKINSON:
I keep saying I am not going to speak about the next person and then someone I am very well connected to comes up. Kathy is a strong, strong fighter. I have known Kathy for a lot of years now. We actually have two different sets of employers. We have gone through some times together. We have laughed together, we’ve cried, we’ve even cursed together. I have gotten some of my cursing skills from Kathy and Ellen. Once Kathy considers you a friend, you are a friend, and she will do anything for you. I have gotten a lot of my will to fight from her.
I remember calling her during our most difficult time and wanting to give up. After listening to her, I got off the phone, cursing and swearing, and thought “I’ve got to fight. I’ve got to fight.”
Because she wasn’t going to let me give up either, and I want to thank her for that. She has been a true friend, and I want to thank her for that.

Again, as I said earlier about other people, I know this isn’t the last stand for her. She has a lot more to contribute. I remember her fight for seniors before I even knew anything about her legislative aspirations. She has been doing that for a long time in the county. I had a community center and I remember having to set up plenty of times for her for her senior events, so I know she has always been a fighter for seniors even before people thought she was a senior. She is still not a senior, but she has been doing that for a long time, so that just tells you she really cares about them, and it has been in her heart. I know she is not done, and I just want to let her know that if there is anything you ever need from me, I am your friend and I am there for you. Thank you, Kathy.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of

ASSEMBLY IN SESSION

At 10:34 a.m.
Madam Speaker presiding.
Quorum present.

Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

If the body will permit, we will consider Assemblyman Harry Mortenson.

Harry Mortenson was first elected to the Nevada State Assembly in November 1996, and at the end of his current term of office, he will have completed 14 years of service to this honorable body. He is now completing his seventh regular session in the Assembly and previously served in nine special sessions.

Harry was born in our nation’s capital and was educated at a number of excellent colleges and universities. For his undergraduate degree, Harry attended classes at the University of Maryland and received his bachelor of science degree in physics and math at Roanoke College in Virginia.
His initial graduate studies were at American University and Catholic University, which were followed by studies at Duke University, where he was awarded his master’s in math and physics.
Harry also attended the University of Virginia in Charlottesville for post-graduate studies. All of this education enabled Harry to work in his chosen career as a nuclear physicist.

Harry embarked on his second career as a Nevada Assemblyman at the age of 66, an age when many have lost the energy and intellectual curiosity to pursue something totally new and challenging. Harry’s first session in 1997 must have convinced him that he indeed had found a perfect way to learn and to serve his fellow Nevadans at the same time. Harry has a large, supportive, and loving family. He and his wife Helen have been married for 52 years. We all love Helen as much as we love Harry. Their children Eric, Lisa, and Kirk have blessed Harry and Helen with many grandchildren to love. Their fourteenth grandchild just arrived on the thirteenth of this month, so congratulations are, yet again, in order.

As you might expect, Harry has a wide range of hobbies and interests. His legislative biography lists a number that are technical in nature including astronomy, photography, optics, archaeology, paleontology, nuclear energy, and natural sciences. His interests and skills in computer technology qualify him as a computer guru. Among some of his other interests include sailing, scuba diving, high-fidelity sound, and the Nevada Ballet Theater.

As a member of the Assembly, Harry has served on a number of different standing committees. During the current session, he served on Judiciary, a committee that he served on in three previous sessions. He also served on the Assembly Committee on Corrections, Parole, and Probation this year. Harry has always enjoyed the rather technical procedures involved in amending the Nevada Constitution through two sessions of the Legislature and one vote of the people. He served on the Assembly Committee on Constitutional Amendments during the 1999 and 2001 Sessions and was chair in 2003. Since 2005, this committee has been combined with our elections committee, and Harry takes the gavel for all proposed constitutional amendments. Harry has long been an advocate for amending the constitution to allow the Legislature to convene a limited special legislative session on extraordinary occasions. His A.J.R. 13 from the 2003 and 2005 Sessions found legislative approval and narrowly lost in 2006. An improved version of this proposal was introduced and approved again this session, with Harry and Assemblyman Ohrenschall being the primary cosponsors. Assembly Joint Resolution No. 5 must be returned to the 2011 Session for a second legislative approval before going to the voters in 2012.

Just like fine wine, Harry’s legislative achievements have improved over the years. During his first three regular sessions, Harry gained passage and approval of two bills for which he was the primary sponsor on election matters, ballot question language, and petitions. He was probably ahead of his time on a number of his early proposals, such as A.B. 434 that he sponsored in 2001. It did not pass, but it would have provided exemptions from taxes for researching and developing renewable energy, an idea that finally found its time. From the 2003 Session to the present, he has successfully guided a number of important bills through the legislative process. Of particular note are those concerning Nevada’s precious natural resources. Earlier this session, three of Harry’s bills on paleontology became law. One protects paleontology sites, another provides for an ex-officio state paleontologist, while the third designates April as Paleontology Awareness Month in Nevada. His bill to protect the Spring Mountains National Recreation Area in southern Nevada also became law. Perhaps most significant is A.B. 369, which provides tax exemptions for property held by the Archaeological Conservancy, the Nature Conservancy, the American Land Conservancy, and the Nevada Land Conservancy. Such land must be held for eventual transfer to local government or state government and held indefinitely for education, environmental protection, or conservation purposes.

Over the years, Harry has served on a number of interim committees of the Legislature including allocation of the limousines, long-range mass transit, care of the mentally ill, and protection of natural treasures. He certainly found a perfect match as a member of the Legislature’s Committee on High-Level Radioactive Waste. Harry has served on that committee continually from 1997 to the present. He was selected to chair that committee in 2001-2002 and again in 2007-2008. Whether it is elections, constitutional amendments, high-level radioactive waste, or protecting our state and our treasures, I’ve learned so much from Harry Mortenson and his enthusiasm and love of this state and all the diversity it offers. You have left a mark on this institution, and we are so incredibly thankful for your years of service. Thank you, Harry.
I do want to mention one funny story. For those who are not on Elections, Procedures, Ethics, and Constitutional Amendments, we are kind of a bunch of renegades, but Marcus and Heidi watch over us so that we don’t get crazy. One day Marcus happened to walk out of the room, and Harry got a glint in his eye and smiled and said, “We’re going to vote on A.J.R. 1.” We didn’t know any better, and so we called the question, and lo and behold, we voted on A.J.R. 1 and it passed. Marcus came back and said, “Oh, my gosh. What’s happened here? How did this happen?” So anyway, we are kind of a renegade bunch, and Harry and Ellen both lead the troops, but we are kept it check by Marcus and Heidi. Thank you, Marcus and Heidi, and thank you, Mr. Mortenson, for being so great.

ASSEMBLYMAN CONKLIN:
Thank you for letting me go after my colleague, Mr. Segerblom. At the end of the 2005 Session when Mr. Mortenson was passing out committee gifts, he called me up and referred to me as his nemesis. That is exactly how he called me up: “my nemesis.” We haven’t always agreed, Harry. We know that, but we’ve always talked and we’ve always shared our ideas. We’ve always listened to each other, tried to understand, and agreed where we could. But we’ve both stood by our guns when we couldn’t agree, too. For that, I will never forget you, and I will always be reminded that I need to be patient and listen and be open. I certainly appreciate all of the conversations that we’ve had, particularly on the constitutional amendments, ballot initiatives, and the election portions, because there are always more sides. I don’t know that anybody is right or anybody is wrong; I think we’re just trying to get it right. God bless you for that. I appreciate you.

ASSEMBLYMAN OHERNSCHALL:
Last session—my freshman session when I thought I knew it all—I wanted very desperately to be liked and to be part of the team. Every now and then, that didn’t always work with how I felt on a bill. Last session I learned a lot from Harry. He really helped me find the courage to stand by my convictions, and I really appreciate that, Harry. I’ll miss you very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN STEWART:
As one who is old, Harry, I appreciate your ability to protect things that are old. I’ll always appreciate that very much. I also appreciate your skills with photography. Each session that I have been here, you’ve presented me with a picture of myself which made me look halfway good, and I really appreciate that. We’ll miss you, Harry. Thank you very much.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:
To me, Harry has always been the most interesting legislator. He is certainly, I think, the smartest. On many committees, when there are bills up, sometimes Harry and I are the only ones who vote for them or against them. That’s kind of refreshing. Harry, I’ve always enjoyed you, and you’re a great friend. One of these days, I hope you get to be the administrator or director of the next fusion atomic power plant.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:
Harry is not big on mornings, and Judiciary meets in the morning. Harry occasionally would have preferred to stay in bed, because things that happen later in the day are much more to his time clock. But having Harry in Judiciary has always been one of the more important parts of my day, knowing that Harry was there with his great stories about his youth and the misgivings about the things that he may have done, and all of us cringing, knowing that it was going to be on the public record.

When Harry first came, he served, I think, on Government Affairs in the morning. After a few sessions, he asked if I thought it would be okay if he came to Judiciary, to which I explained I have no control over that issue—who is on what committee—but I thought that he would do very, very well there. I know that Harry is going to tell me the truth whether I want to hear it or not. He told me just recently very, very clearly—not the first time I’ve heard it, of course—but very, very clearly that I was probably the only person who could pull off pompous and get away with it. I love Harry for his honesty and his straightforward attitude about who you are and what we all are. With Harry’s youthful exuberance and his constant ability to learn a new task and to keep an open mind, he follows that Aristotle concept that it is possible to entertain a thought without embracing it. You can discuss it without making it your own. I’ve always admired that quality in him and his ability to help us all. Thank you, Harry, for your service.

ASSEMBLYMAN MANENDO:
When Mr. Mortenson came in as a freshman, I had been here just one term prior to that. When I read his bio—he’s a nuclear physicist—I felt really intimidated, and I kind of stayed away from him and didn’t realize what a gentle and caring man he is. In one of the pictures up on the board, he looks like Santa Claus. Back in the old days, I would take the legislative guides around door-to-door, and sometimes in the classrooms, I would give them to teachers and kids. The kids would look through and say, “That’s Santa Claus.” I would say, “I think it is,” because he is such a caring, gentle man that has a passion and love for people.

One thing that has not been mentioned is his passion for photography. Mr. Mortenson over the years has blessed us with having a wonderful photo album—photos of anything and everything. It’s really a great opportunity to reminisce about the old days and all the way up until this session. He appreciates the art of photography, and if you go into his office—sometimes I don’t know if it’s going to blow up or not, he’s got so many electronic devices—but he has a lot of pictures, including one of his wife Helen. She is just a gem.

We appreciate your service and your passion to the State of Nevada. It is a better place because of you. I’ve learned so much from you, and I am so honored that we’ve become such close friends. I wouldn’t trade that for the world. Harry, thank you very, very much for everything that you have done in bringing me into your life. I’m grateful, thank you.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DONDERO LOOP:
My recollections of Harry and Helen are on a personal note. I would be remiss if I didn’t thank you both for being friends to me and mostly—at the risk of talking about my momma—to my mother. Thank you for taking care of her while I’ve been up here.

Thank you mostly for just being a voice of reason and for coming to Judiciary in the morning and having the expertise that you have. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GANSELT:
I want to thank you for your work here in the Legislature. You’re a gentleman and a scholar. I’ve so enjoyed being on your committee in constitutional amendments. We do have great debates in there, and we do have some renegades. It’s always a lot of fun, and I appreciate that you’re open to the debate. You want everyone to discuss things, to ask the questions, and to get the testimony. Thank you for your dedication and your service.

ASSEMBLYMAN CLABORN:
I’ve got a lot of stories to tell about Harry. Harry and I have been friends for many years. I used to move his trailers around when he was campaigning, a couple of sessions before I ever ran. Anyway, I’m not going to tell any stories about that. I’m going to tell a few stories about Harry.

Since I’ve become a chairman, I would look at the agenda and say, “Oh, my gosh. Here comes Harry again with paleontology.” Every time I see that I want to hide underneath the desk for the simple fact that back in the old days, I used to run all kinds of heavy equipment. The first thing Harry did, along with Helen on videoconference from Las Vegas, was talk about all of these skeletons and all of the artifacts that these big caterpillars and tractors tore up from all the ground around the Twin Lakes area, how they took all of our treasures and hid them, and then Germany came over and grabbed some of them. That’s about the time that I wanted to hide.

After about three sessions, I finally had to admit it. I had to tell him. After I got Helen and everybody calmed down about stealing all of the artifacts, I had to admit it. I said, “I’ve got to apologize, Harry. I was one of the guys that dug all of those up and hauled them off and hid them back in the old days so we could build Twin Lakes Reservoir and put a settlement out there.” He understood, but I still feel sad about that. To me, dirt was dirt and bones were bones. Whatever it was, rock was rock and we had to move it. I feel bad about it, but one thing that he taught me is how to say “paleontology.”

Thank you, Harry. It’s been a wonderful ride, and it’s not over yet. It’s not over until they close that big lid down on you and me. We’ve still got a few good years left. It’s been a pleasure working with you, Harry, and you’ve done a lot for the state. I hope those Germans and whoever stole our artifacts will give them back one of these days. Thank you very much.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:
Harry, for your years of service and the mark that you left, I thank you.

Amendment No. 1001.

AN ACT relating to legislative affairs; creating the Legislative Committee on Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice; prescribing the powers and duties of the Committee; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:
Section 3 of this bill creates the Legislative Committee on Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice and provides for the appointment of its membership by the Legislative Commission. Section 5 of this bill prescribes the duties of the Committee, including the evaluation and review of issues relating to child welfare services and juvenile justice in this State. Sections 6 and 7 of this bill authorize the Committee to conduct investigations and hold hearings and provide for the administration of oaths, the deposition of witnesses and the issuance of subpoenas in connection with those investigations and hearings.

Section 9 of this bill provides that the members of the Committee will be appointed following the 2011 Legislative Session, unless before then a sufficient amount of money is collected through gifts, grants and donations to establish and provide administrative support for the Committee.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 218 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 to 8, inclusive, of this act.

After the initial selection of those officers, each of those officers holds the position for a term of 2 years commencing on July 1 of each odd-numbered year. The Chairmanship of the Committee must alternate each biennium between the houses of the Legislature. If a vacancy occurs in the Chairmanship or Vice Chairmanship, the vacancy must be filled in the same manner as the original selection for the remainder of the unexpired term.

3. A member of the Committee who is not a candidate for reelection or who is defeated for reelection continues to serve until the convening of the next regular session of the Legislature.

(g) The feasibility and necessity for the independent monitoring of state institutions and facilities for the quality of care provided to juvenile offenders; and
(h) Programs developed in other states which provide a system of community-based programs that place juvenile offenders in more specialized programs according to the needs of the juveniles.

Sec. 6. 1. The Committee may:
(a) Conduct investigations and hold hearings in connection with its duties pursuant to section 5 of this act;
(b) Request that the Legislative Counsel Bureau assist in the research, investigations, hearings and reviews of the Committee; and

Sec. 7. 1. If the Committee conducts investigations or holds hearings pursuant to section 6 of this act:
(a) The Chairman of the Committee or, in his absence, a member designated by the Committee may administer oaths;
(b) The Chairman of the Committee may cause the deposition of witnesses, residing within or outside of this State, to be taken in the manner prescribed by rule of court for taking depositions in civil actions in the district courts; and

(c) The Chairman of the Committee may issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and papers.

2. If any witness refuses to attend or testify or produce any books and papers as required by the subpoena, the Chairman of the Committee may report to the district court by petition, setting forth that:

(a) Due notice has been given of the time and place of attendance of the witness or the production of the books and papers;

(b) The witness has been subpoenaed by the Committee pursuant to this section; and

(c) The witness has failed or refused to attend or produce the books and papers required by the subpoena before the Committee which is named in the subpoena, or has refused to answer questions propounded to him, and asking for an order of the court compelling the witness to attend and testify or produce the books and papers before the Committee.

3. Upon such petition, the court shall enter an order directing the witness to appear before the court at a time and place to be fixed by the court in its order, the time to be not more than 10 days after the date of the order, and then and there show cause why he has not attended or testified or produced the books or papers before the Committee. A certified copy of the order must be served upon the witness.

4. If it appears to the court that the subpoena was regularly issued by the Committee, the court shall enter an order that the witness appear before the Committee at the time and place fixed in the order and testify or produce the required books or papers, and upon failure to obey the order, the witness shall be dealt with as for contempt of court.

Sec. 8. Each witness who appears before the Committee by its order, except a state officer or employee, is entitled to receive for his attendance the fees and mileage provided for witnesses in civil cases in the courts of record of this State. The fees and mileage must be audited and paid upon the presentation of proper claims sworn to by the witness and approved by the Secretary and Chairman of the Committee.

Sec. 9. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Legislative Commission shall appoint the members of the Legislative Committee on Child Welfare and Juvenile Justice created pursuant to section 2 of this act following the 2011 Legislative Session.

Assemblywoman Koivisto moved the adoption of the amendment.

Amendment adopted.

Bill ordered reprinted, reengrossed and to third reading.

Senate Bill No. 212.

Bill read third time.

Amendment No. 1002.

AN ACT relating to initiative petitions; providing a procedure for a petition proposing a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution to be placed on a ballot; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law requires that an initiative petition proposing a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution be signed by a number of registered voters that is equal to at least 10 percent of the voters who voted at the last preceding general election. (Nev. Const. Art. 19, § 2) Existing law also requires an initiative petition be signed by a number of registered voters from each county in the State that is at least equal to 10 percent of the voters who voted in the entire State at the last preceding general election multiplied by the population percentage for that county. (NRS 295.012) The United States District Court for the District of Nevada declared that the current existing law violates the Equal Protection Clause of the United States Constitution because it results in the signatures of voters from counties with lower population carrying more weight than the signatures of voters from counties with higher population. (Marijuana Policy Project v. Miller, 578 F.Supp. 2d 1290 (D. Nev. 2008)) This bill repeals and replaces the current existing law.

Section 3.2 of this bill requires the Legislature to create petition districts from which signatures for a petition for initiative must be gathered. Section 14 of this bill defines “petition district” to mean congressional district until July 1, 2011, at which time the Legislature must have established petition districts for the period after that date. Section 3.4 of this bill requires the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau to retain a copy of maps of the petitions district and make them available to any interested person for a reasonable fee not to exceed the actual cost of producing the copy. Section 12 of this bill requires a petition for initiative to be signed by a number of registered voters in each petition district in the State that equals at least 10 percent of the voters who voted in that petition district in the last preceding general election.

Section 5 of this bill requires the Secretary of State to determine, as soon as practicable after each general election, the number of signatures required to be gathered from each petition district. Sections 6-9 of this bill provide procedures for the verification of signatures on a petition proposing a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution. Sections 7 and 9 require the Secretary of State to adopt regulations concerning these procedures. Section 10 of this bill requires the Secretary of State to provide on his website a current list of the registered voters in this State that indicates the petition district in which each registered voter resides. Section 13 of this bill authorizes the person signing a petition to indicate his petition district on the petition and, if not so indicated, requires the circulator of the petition to indicate the petition district of the person if known. Section 13 further allows a voter to consult the website of the Secretary of State to determine within which petition district he resides and to rely on that information.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 293 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 and 3 of this act.

Sec. 2. "Petition district" means a district established by the Legislature pursuant to section 3.2 of this act.

Sec. 3. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 3.2. 1. The Legislature shall establish petition districts from which signatures for a petition for initiative that proposes a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution of this State must be gathered. The petition districts must be established in a manner that is fair to all residents of the State, represent approximately equal populations and ensure that each signature is afforded the same weight.

2. Petition districts must be:

   (a) Based on the population databases compiled by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce as validated and incorporated into the geographic information system by the Legislative Counsel Bureau for use by the Nevada Legislature.

   (b) Designated in the maps filed with the Office of the Secretary of State pursuant to section 3.4 of this act.

Sec. 3.4. The Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau shall:

1. Retain in an office of the Legislative Counsel Bureau, copies of maps of the petition districts established pursuant to section 3.2 of this act.
2. Make available copies of the maps to any interested person for a reasonable fee, not to exceed the actual costs of producing copies of the maps.

3. File a copy of the maps with the Secretary of State.

Sec. 4. NRS 293.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.010 As used in this title, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 293.013 to 293.121, inclusive, and section 2 of this act, have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 5. NRS 293.127563 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.127563 1. As soon as practicable after each general election, the Secretary of State shall determine the number of signatures required to be gathered from each petition district within the State for a petition for initiative that proposes a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution of this State.

2. To determine the number of signatures required to be gathered from a petition district, the Secretary of State shall calculate the amount that equals 10 percent of the voters who voted in that petition district at the last preceding general election, by the population percentage for that county.

3. As used in this section:

(a) "Total population of the State" means the determination of the total population of the State by the national decennial census conducted by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce pursuant to Section 2 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States and reported by the Secretary of Commerce to the Governor pursuant to 13 U.S.C. § 141(c).

(b) "Population percentage for that county" means the figure obtained by dividing the population of the county, as determined by the national decennial census conducted by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce pursuant to Section 2 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States and reported by the Secretary of Commerce to the Governor pursuant to 13 U.S.C. § 141(c), by the total population of the State.

Sec. 6. NRS 293.1276 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.1276 1. Within 4 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, after the submission of a petition containing signatures which are required to be verified pursuant to NRS 293.128, 293.165, 293.172, 293.200, 295.056, 298.109, 306.035 or 306.110, the county clerk shall determine the total number of signatures affixed to the documents and, in the case of a petition proposing a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution, shall tally the number of signatures for each petition district contained fully or partially within his county and forward that information to the Secretary of State.

2. If the Secretary of State finds that the total number of signatures filed with all the county clerks is less than 100 percent of the required number of signatures, or if a sufficient number of signatures are not properly verified or are determined not to be in the required form, the Secretary of State shall notify the county clerks and order them to verify or reverify the signatures as required by law.
registered voters, he shall so notify the person who submitted the petition and the county clerks and no further action may be taken in regard to the petition. If the petition is a petition to recall a county, district or municipal officer, the Secretary of State shall also notify the officer with whom the petition is to be filed.

3. After the petition is submitted to the county clerk, it must not be handled by any other person except by an employee of the county clerk’s office until it is filed with the Secretary of State.

Sec. 7. NRS 293.1277 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.1277 1. If the Secretary of State finds that the total number of signatures submitted to all the county clerks is 100 percent or more of the number of registered voters needed to declare the petition sufficient, he shall immediately so notify the county clerks. Within 9 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, after notification, each of the county clerks shall determine the number of registered voters who have signed the documents submitted in his county and, in the case of a petition proposing a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution, shall tally the number of signatures for each petition district contained or fully contained within his county.

2. If more than 500 names have been signed on the documents submitted to him, a county clerk shall examine the signatures by sampling them at random for verification. The random sample of signatures to be verified must be drawn in such a manner that every signature which has been submitted to the county clerk is given an equal opportunity to be included in the sample. The sample must include an examination of at least 500 or 5 percent of the signatures, whichever is greater.

3. In determining from the records of registration the number of registered voters who signed the documents, the county clerk may use the signatures contained in the file of applications to register to vote. If the county clerk uses that file, he shall ensure that every application in the file is examined, including any application in his possession which may not yet be entered into his records. The county clerk shall rely only on the appearance of the signature and the address and date included with each signature in making his determination.

4. In the case of a petition proposing a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution, when the county clerk is determining the number of registered voters who signed the documents from each petition district contained fully or partially within his county, he must use the statewide voter registration list available pursuant to NRS 293.675.

5. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, upon completing the examination, the county clerk shall immediately attach to the documents a certificate properly dated, showing the result of his examination, including the tally of signatures by petition district, if required, and transmit the documents with the certificate to the Secretary of State. If a petition district comprises more than one county and the petition proposes a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution, the appropriate county clerks shall comply with the regulations adopted by the Secretary of State pursuant to this section to complete the certificate. A copy of this certificate must be filed in the clerk's office. When the county clerk transmits the certificate to the Secretary of State, the county clerk shall notify the Secretary of State of the number of requests to remove a name received by the county clerk pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015.

§ 6. A person who submits a petition to the county clerk which is required to be verified pursuant to NRS 293.128, 293.165, 293.172, 293.200, 295.056, 298.109, 306.035 or 306.110 must be allowed to witness the verification of the signatures. A public officer who is the subject of a recall petition must also be allowed to witness the verification of the signatures on the petition.

§ 7. For any petition containing signatures which are required to be verified pursuant to the provisions of NRS 293.165, 293.200, 306.035 or 306.110 for any county, district or municipal office within one county, the county clerk shall not transmit to the Secretary of State the documents containing the signatures of the registered voters.

§ 8. The Secretary of State [may] shall by regulation establish further procedures for carrying out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 8. NRS 293.1278 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.1278 1. If the certificates received by the Secretary of State from all the county clerks establish that the number of valid signatures is less than 90 percent of the required number of registered voters, the petition shall be deemed to have failed to qualify, and the Secretary of State shall immediately so notify the petitioners and the county clerks.

2. If those certificates establish that the number of valid signatures is equal to or more than the sum of 100 percent of the number of registered voters needed to make the petition sufficient plus the total number of requests to remove a name received by the county clerks pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015 and, in the case of a petition proposing a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution, that the petition has the minimum number of signatures required for each petition district, the petition shall be deemed to qualify as of the date of receipt by the Secretary of State of those certificates, and the Secretary of State shall immediately so notify the petitioners and the county clerks.

3. If the certificates establish that the petitioners have 100 percent or more of the number of registered voters needed to make the petition sufficient but the petition fails to qualify pursuant to subsection 2, each county clerk who received a request to remove a name pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015 shall remove each name as requested, amend the certificate and transmit the amended certificate to the Secretary of State. If the amended certificates establish that the petitioners have 100 percent or more of the number of registered voters needed to make the petition sufficient \[1\] and, in the case of a petition proposing a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution, that the petition has the minimum number of signatures required for each petition district, the petition shall be deemed to qualify as of the date of receipt by the Secretary of State of the amended certificates, and the Secretary of State shall immediately so notify the petitioners and the county clerks.

Sec. 9. NRS 293.1279 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.1279 1. If the statistical sampling shows that the number of valid signatures filed is 90 percent or more, but less than the sum of 100 percent of the number of signatures of registered voters needed to declare the petition sufficient plus the total number of requests to remove a name received by the county clerks pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015, the Secretary of State shall order the county clerks to examine the signatures for verification. The county clerks shall examine the signatures for verification until they determine that 100 percent of the number of signatures of registered voters needed to declare the petition sufficient are valid. If the county clerks received a request to remove a name pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015, the county clerks may not determine that 100 percent of the number of signatures of registered voters needed to declare the petition sufficient are valid until they have removed each name as requested pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015.

2. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if the statistical sampling shows that the number of valid signatures filed in any county is 90 percent or more but less than the sum of 100 percent of the number of signatures of registered voters needed to constitute 10 percent of the number of voters who voted at the last preceding general election in that county plus the total number of requests to remove a name received by the county clerk in that county pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015, the Secretary of State may order the county clerk in that county to examine every signature for verification. If the county clerk received a request to remove a name pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015, the county clerk may not determine that 100 percent or more of the number of signatures of registered voters needed to constitute 10 percent of the number of voters who voted at the last preceding general election in that county are valid until he has removed each name as requested pursuant to NRS 295.055 or 306.015. In the case of a petition for initiative that proposes a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution of this State, if the statistical sampling shows that the number of valid signatures in any petition district is 90 percent or more but less than the sum of 100 percent of the number of signatures of registered voters required for that petition district pursuant to NRS 295.012 plus the total number of requests to remove a name received by the county clerk in that county or county clerks, if the petition district comprises more than one county, pursuant to NRS 295.055, the Secretary of State may order the county clerk to examine every signature for verification.
3. Within 12 days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, after receipt of such an order, the county clerk or county clerks shall determine from the records of registration what number of registered voters have signed the petition and, if appropriate, tally those signatures by petition district. If necessary, the board of county commissioners shall allow the county clerk additional assistants for examining the signatures and provide for their compensation. In determining from the records of registration what number of registered voters have signed the petition and in determining in which petition district the voters reside, the county clerk must use the statewide voter registration list. The county clerk may rely on the appearance of the signature and the address and date included with each signature in determining the number of registered voters that signed the petition.

4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, upon completing the examination, the county clerk or county clerks shall immediately attach to the documents of the petition an amended certificate, properly dated, showing the result of the examination and shall immediately forward the documents with the amended certificate to the Secretary of State. A copy of the amended certificate must be filed in the county clerk’s office.

5. For any petition containing signatures which are required to be verified pursuant to the provisions of NRS 293.165, 293.200, 306.035 or 306.110 for any county, district or municipal office within one county, the county clerk shall not forward to the Secretary of State the documents containing the signatures of the registered voters.

6. Except for a petition to recall a county, district or municipal officer, the petition shall be deemed filed with the Secretary of State as of the date on which he receives certificates from the county clerks showing the petition to be signed by the requisite number of voters of the State.

7. If the amended certificates received from all county clerks by the Secretary of State establish that the petition is still insufficient, he shall immediately so notify the petitioners and the county clerks. If the petition is a petition to recall a county, district or municipal officer, the Secretary of State shall also notify the officer with whom the petition is to be filed.

8. The Secretary of State shall adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this section.

Sec. 10. NRS 293.4687 is hereby amended to read as follows:

293.4687 1. The Secretary of State shall maintain a website on the Internet for public information maintained, collected or compiled by the Secretary of State that relates to elections, which must include, without limitation:
(a) The Voters’ Bill of Rights required to be posted on his Internet website pursuant to the provisions of NRS 293.2549;
(b) The abstract of votes required to be posted on a website pursuant to the provisions of NRS 293.388; [and]
(c) A current list of the registered voters in this State that also indicates the petition district in which each registered voter resides;
(d) A map or maps indicating the boundaries of each petition district; and
(e) All reports on campaign contributions and expenditures submitted to the Secretary of State pursuant to the provisions of NRS 294A.120, 294A.125, 294A.140, 294A.150, 294A.200, 294A.210, 294A.220, 294A.270, 294A.280, 294A.283, 294A.360 and 294A.362 and all reports on contributions received by and expenditures made from a legal defense fund submitted to the Secretary of State pursuant to NRS 294A.286.

2. The abstract of votes required to be maintained on the website pursuant to paragraph (b) of subsection 1 must be maintained in such a format as to permit the searching of the abstract of votes for specific information.

3. If the information required to be maintained by the Secretary of State pursuant to subsection 1 may be obtained by the public from a website on the Internet maintained by a county clerk or city clerk, the Secretary of State may provide a hyperlink to that website to comply with the provisions of subsection 1 with regard to that information.

Sec. 11. Chapter 295 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto a new section to read as follows:

“Petition district” has the meaning ascribed to it in section 2 of this act.

Sec. 12. NRS 295.012 is hereby amended to read as follows:

295.012 [1] A petition for initiative that proposes a statute, an amendment to a statute or an amendment to the Constitution must be proposed by a number of registered voters from each [county] petition district in the State that is at least equal to 10 percent of the voters who voted in [the entire State] that petition district at the last preceding general election, multiplied by the population percentage for that county.

2. As used in this section:

(a) “Total population of the State” means the determination of the total population of the State by the national decennial census conducted by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce pursuant to Section 2 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States and reported by the Secretary of Commerce to the Governor pursuant to 13 U.S.C. § 141(e).

(b) “Population percentage for that county” means the figure obtained by dividing the population of the county, as determined by the national decennial census conducted by the Bureau of the Census of the United States Department of Commerce pursuant to Section 2 of Article I of the Constitution of the United States and reported by the Secretary of Commerce to the Governor pursuant to 13 U.S.C. § 141(c), by the total population of the State.

Sec. 13. NRS 295.055 is hereby amended to read as follows:

295.055 1. The Secretary of State shall by regulation specify:
(a) The format for the signatures on a petition for an initiative or referendum and make free specimens of the format available upon request. The regulations must ensure that the format includes, without limitation, that:
(1) In addition to signing the petition, a person who signs a petition [shall print]:

(I) Shall print his given name followed by his surname on the petition before his signature [.] and
(II) May indicate the petition district in which he resides. If the person does not indicate the petition district on the petition, the circulator [shall] indicate the petition district of the person if known.

(2) Each signature must be dated.
(b) The manner of fastening together several sheets circulated by one person to constitute a single document.

2. The registered voter may consult the list of the registered voters in this State posted on the website maintained by the Secretary of State pursuant to subsection 1 of NRS 293.4687 to determine the petition district in which he resides. The registered voter may rely on the information contained in the list when he indicates the appropriate petition district, unless he believes that the information is inaccurate.

3. Each document of the petition must bear the name of a county, and only registered voters of that county may sign the document.

4. A person who signs a petition may request that the county clerk remove his name from it by transmitting his request in writing to the county clerk at any time before the petition is filed with the county clerk.

Sec. 14. Notwithstanding the definition of “petition district” set forth in sections 2 and 11 of this act, until July 1, 2011, “petition district” as used in chapters 293 and 295 of NRS means congressional districts established for the State of Nevada.

of the Governor?”
Remarks by Assemblyman Segerblom.
Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:
Thank you, Madam Speaker. It is a very simple bill and it deals with a very inequitable situation. Currently, if you have a golf course—and because the Legislature has said they want to encourage the golf course use of open space—a golf course is taxed as open space which means they basically pay no tax. However, there are some golf courses that are taking advantage of this tax exemption and are marketing themselves to be sold as property for developing houses, so, they pay no property tax but they are out there and available to be used as a subdivision. If they were taxed as a subdivision they would pay a lot more tax.
This bill says that if you are going to be a golf course and take advantage of that open space tax exemption then you have to agree to be a golf course. I urge your support to override the Governor’s veto. Thank you.

Bill read.
The question was put: “Shall the bill pass, notwithstanding the objections of the Governor?”
Remarks by Assemblymen Anderson and Kirkpatrick.
Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:
Thank you, Madam Speaker. Assembly Bill 491 will remedy common problems faced by judgment debtors: first, to assist judgment debtors to claim their exempt properties; second, to declare the number of court hearings needed to determine the exempt status of the properties; and third, to decrease the volume of exempt properties that are seized and then returned to the constable’s office. Under current law, when a bank receives a writ of execution on a debtor’s bank account, the entire balance is frozen. Debtors can file an affidavit of exemption and request that exemption amounts be returned. However, this process has been taking as long as 45 days. Section 2 of the bill leaves at least $1,000 in the bank account available to debtors until the court can determine if other amounts are exempt. This is to allow a judgment debtor to access funds needed for the day-to-day necessary transactions, such as rent, food, and medications. Particularly in this day of electronic transfer of funds, this is an essential factor. The interplay of federal law governing exempt benefits and state garnishment laws raise potential liabilities that banks face when choosing to follow federal regulations or state laws. This bill resolves that conflict and balances the needs of the bank to follow all applicable state and federal procedures and the need of the debtors to support themselves while trying to figure out their financial problems.

In the Governor’s veto message, he states specifically, “Making the ‘wildcard exemption’ of $1,000 automatic instead of requiring the debtor to file for the exemption will make it even more burdensome for businesses to collect what is rightfully theirs.” This is simply not true. Currently, a debtor’s assets are not distributed to creditors until all exempt properties are returned to the debtor. Assembly Bill 491 will help streamline the process and allow the debtor to continue to pay for the necessities of life. Madam Speaker, I urge this body to support the bill and pass it out of this house unanimously.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN KIRKPATRICK:
Thank you, Madam Speaker. I rise in support of the override on Assembly Bill 491. I started with this bill in the summertime, and it has changed somewhat. But I will tell you that one of my constituents, who I think most of you met—she was here on a credit bill that we were trying to help her with. She received the notice for her garnishment the day after they took it. Consequently, she had no groceries, she could not pay her bills, she had automatic withdrawals, she was not even notified of the court document. How fair is that when you are trying to resolve it? In her instance, she had $20,000 in medical debt that she was paying. However, a creditor did not want to wait any longer—they wanted all their money up-front—so they took her to court. She had over $2 million in medical debt when her husband died, and she has been faithfully trying to pay these off.

I will tell you that ten other states are doing this very same thing, so I ask you to please support this override.

The roll was called, and the Assembly overrode the veto of the Governor by the following vote:

THE HONORABLE STEVEN HORSFORD, Senate Majority Leader, Legislative Building, 401
South Carson Street, Carson City, NV 89701
RE: Senate Bill 201 of the 75th Legislative Session
DEAR SENATOR HORSFORD:
I am herewith forwarding to you, for filing within the constitutional time limit and without my approval, Senate Bill 201, which is entitled:

An ACT relating to taxation; authorizing certain counties to impose additional taxes on fuels for motor vehicles; providing for the administration, allocation, disbursement and use of the additional taxes; exempting the sale of revenue bonds secured by county fuel taxes from certain requirements; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

This bill would increase fuel taxes in Washoe County. The bill resulted from an advisory ballot question in November of 2008 whereby the voters of Washoe County were asked whether the Washoe County Board of Commissioners should “seek state legislation for the Regional Transportation Commission (RTC) to obtain necessary additional funding for transportation projects that will reduce traffic congestion, improve air quality, and repair and maintain roads in the Truckee Meadows?"

Notably absent from the language of that advisory question was a clear and concise statement that the state legislation being sought would come in the form of a fuel tax increase. Also notably absent from the language of that advisory question is a clear and concise statement of the amount of the fuel tax increase being sought. Although I have asked the question many times, nobody has adequately explained why the advisory question did not simply state that the voters were being asked to support a fuel tax increase along with the specific amount of that increase.

By contrast, Initiative Petition 1 from the 75th Legislative Session enacted a room tax as the result of a ballot question. With respect to that ballot question, voters were asked whether they “support the imposition of an additional hotel and motel room tax of not more than 3 percent to be used in the first 2 years after imposition to avoid large cuts in the funding of education and other state programs and to be used thereafter to increase the funding of K-12 education, specifically to improve student achievement and for salaries of non-administrative educational personnel?” The call of the ballot question on the room tax increase clearly and concisely informed voters of the impact of their vote.

If the voters of Washoe County are being asked to support a tax increase, they are entitled to a clear and concise ballot question stating the fact that a tax increase is being sought along with the amount of that tax increase. There is no reason a concept as simple as a tax increase cannot be clearly stated in the call of the question. I support the will of the people but I cannot support bills premised on advisory questions worded in a manner that deliberately obscures the impact of the question from the voters.

For these reasons, I hereby exercise my constitutional grant of authority and veto Senate Bill 201.

Sincerely,

Jim Gibbons
Governor

A certified copy of the order must be served upon the witness.    (c) At the election of the exclusive representative, and notwithstanding any other provision of law, a fair share agreement.

2. A decision of the hearing officer may be appealed to the Commission.
3. On appeal to the Commission, the Commission may consider the record of the hearing or may conduct a hearing de novo. A hearing de novo conducted by the Commission must be conducted in accordance with:
   (a) The provisions of chapter 233B of NRS that apply to a contested case; and

Sec. 29. 1. If no employee organization is designated as the exclusive representative of a workplace relations unit, the Commission shall order an election to be conducted within the workplace relations unit if:
   (a) An employee organization files with the Commission a written request for an election which includes a list of its membership showing that it represents at least 30 percent but not more than 50 percent of the employees within the workplace relations unit; and
   (b) No other election to choose, change or discontinue representation has been conducted within the workplace relations unit during the preceding 12 months.

   (a) If either:
       (1) Another employee organization files with the Commission a written request for an election which includes a list of its membership showing that the employee organization represents at least 50 percent of the employees within the workplace relations unit; or relations unit have requested that an election be conducted to change or discontinue representation;

(b) If applicable, the request filed pursuant to paragraph (a) is filed not more than 270 days and not less than 225 days before the date on which the current workplace relations agreement in effect for the workplace relations unit expires; and

(c) If no other election to choose, change or discontinue representation has been conducted within the workplace relations unit during the preceding 12 months.

Sec. 30. 1. If the Commission orders an election within a workplace relations unit pursuant to section 29 of this act, the Commission shall order that each of the following be placed as a choice on the ballot for the election:

(a) If applicable, the employee organization that requested the election pursuant to section 29 of this act and the employee organization that is presently designated as the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit;

(b) Any other employee organization that, on or before the date that is prescribed by the rules adopted by the Commission, files with the Commission a written request to be placed on the ballot for the election and includes with the written request a list of its membership showing that the employee organization represents at least 30 percent of the employees within the workplace relations unit; and

(c) A choice for “no representation.”

2. If a ballot for an election contains more than two choices and none of the choices on the ballot receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election, the Commission shall order a runoff election between the two choices on the ballot that received the highest number of votes at the initial election.

3. If the choice for “no representation” receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election or at any runoff election, the Commission shall designate the workplace relations unit as being without representation.

4. If an employee organization receives a majority of the votes cast at the initial election or at any runoff election, the Commission shall designate the employee organization as the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit.

Sec. 31. 1. The Commission shall preside over all elections that are conducted pursuant to this chapter and shall determine the eligibility requirements for employees to vote in any such election.

2. An employee organization that is placed as a choice on the ballot for an election or any employee who is eligible to vote at an election may file with the Commission a written objection to the results of the election. The objection must be filed not later than 10 days after the date on which the notice of the results of the election is given by the Commission.
3. In response to a written objection filed pursuant to subsection 2 or upon its own motion, the Commission may invalidate the results of an election and order a new election if the Commission finds that any conduct or circumstances raise substantial doubt that the results of the election are reliable.

Sec. 32. 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an exclusive representative shall:
   (a) Act as the agent and exclusive representative of all employees within each workplace relations unit that it represents; and
   (b) In good faith and on behalf of each workplace relations unit that it represents, individually or collectively, engage in discussions of workplace relations with the Executive Department concerning the terms and conditions of employment for the employees within each workplace relations unit that it represents, including, without limitation, any terms and conditions of employment that are within the scope of supplemental discussions of workplace relations pursuant to section 40 of this act.

2. If an employee is within a workplace relations unit that has an exclusive representative, the employee has the right to present grievances to the Executive Department at any time and to have those grievances adjusted without the intervention of the exclusive representative if:
   (a) The exclusive representative is given an opportunity to be present at any meetings or hearings related to the adjustment of the grievance; and
   (b) The adjustment of the grievance is not inconsistent with the provisions of the workplace relations agreement or any supplemental workplace relations agreement then in effect.

Sec. 33. If the Commission designates an employee organization as the exclusive representative of a workplace relations unit pursuant to this chapter, an officer of the Executive Department shall not, pursuant to NRS 281.129, withhold any amount of money from the salary or wages of an employee within the workplace relations unit to pay dues or similar fees to an employee organization other than the employee organization that is the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit.

Sec. 34. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative shall begin negotiations concerning a workplace relations agreement within 60 days after one party notifies the other party of the desire to negotiate.

Sec. 35. 1. If the parties do not reach a workplace relations agreement within 120 days after the date on which the parties began negotiations or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, either party may request a mediator from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

2. The mediator shall bring the parties together as soon as possible after his appointment and shall attempt to settle each issue in dispute within 30 days after his appointment or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties.
Sec. 36. 1. If the mediator determines that his services are no longer helpful or if the parties do not reach a workplace relations agreement through mediation within 30 days after the appointment of the mediator or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, the mediator shall discontinue mediation and the parties shall attempt to agree upon an impartial arbitrator.

2. If the parties do not agree upon an impartial arbitrator within 5 days after the date on which mediation is discontinued pursuant to subsection 1 or on or before any later date which is set by agreement of the parties, the parties shall request from the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service a list of seven potential arbitrators. The parties shall select an arbitrator from this list by alternately striking one name until the name of only one arbitrator remains, and that arbitrator must hear the dispute in question. The party who will strike the first name must be determined by a coin toss.

3. The arbitrator shall begin arbitration proceedings within 60 days after his selection or any later date which is set by agreement of the parties.

4. The arbitrator and the parties shall apply and follow the procedures for arbitration that are prescribed by the rules adopted by the Commission. During arbitration, the parties retain their respective duties to negotiate in good faith.

5. The arbitrator may administer oaths or affirmations, take testimony and issue and seek enforcement of subpoenas in the same manner as the Commission pursuant to section 19 of this act, and, except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, the provisions of section 19 of this act apply to subpoenas issued by the arbitrator.

6. The Executive Department and the exclusive representative shall each pay one-half of the cost of arbitration.

Sec. 37. 1. For each separate issue that is in dispute after arbitration proceedings are held pursuant to section 36 of this act, the arbitrator shall incorporate either the final offer of the Executive Department or the final offer of the exclusive representative into his decision. The arbitrator shall not revise or amend the final offer of either party on any issue.

2. To determine which final offers to incorporate into his decision, the arbitrator shall assess the reasonableness of:

(a) The position of each party as to each issue in dispute; and

(b) The contractual terms and provisions contained in each final offer.

3. In assessing reasonableness pursuant to subsection 2, the arbitrator shall:

(a) Compare the terms and conditions of employment for the employees within the workplace relations unit with the terms and conditions of employment for other employees performing similar services and for other employees generally:

(1) In public employment in comparable communities; and

(2) In private employment in comparable communities; and

Sec. 38. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a party may seek judicial review in the district court of the decision of an arbitrator made pursuant to section 37 of this act based upon jurisdictional grounds or upon the grounds that the decision:
   (a) Was procured by fraud, collusion or other similar unlawful means; or
   (b) Was not supported by competent, material and substantial evidence on the whole record and based upon the factors set forth in section 37 of this act.

2. If a party seeks judicial review pursuant to this section, the district court may stay the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator until the court rules on the matter.

3. The district court may affirm or reverse the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator, in whole or in part, but the court may not remand the matter to the arbitrator or require any additional fact-finding or decision making by the arbitrator.

4. If the district court reverses any part of the contested portion of the decision of the arbitrator, the court shall enter an order invalidating that part of the decision of the arbitrator, and that part of the decision of the arbitrator is void and must not be given effect.

Sec. 39. 1. If a provision of a workplace relations agreement does not require an amendment to existing statute by the Legislature to be given effect, the provision becomes effective pursuant to the provisions of the workplace relations agreement.

2. If a provision of the workplace relations agreement requires an amendment to existing statute by the Legislature to be given effect, the provision becomes effective, if at all, on the date on which the necessary amendment to existing statute becomes effective.

Sec. 40. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the Executive Department and the exclusive representative of the workplace relations unit may engage in supplemental discussions of workplace relations concerning any terms and conditions of employment which are peculiar to or which uniquely affect fewer than all the employees within the workplace relations unit if such supplemental terms and conditions of employment are not included in any provision of the workplace relations agreement then in effect between the Executive Department and the workplace relations unit.

2. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative may engage in supplemental discussions of workplace relations pursuant to subsection 1 for fewer than all the employees within two or more workplace relations units that the exclusive representative represents if the requirements of subsection 1 are met for each such workplace relations unit.

3. If the parties reach a supplemental workplace relations agreement pursuant to this section, the provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement:
   (a) Must be in writing; and
   (b) Shall be deemed to be incorporated into the provisions of each workplace relations agreement then in effect between the Executive Department and the employees who are subject to the supplemental workplace relations agreement if the provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement do not conflict with the provisions of the workplace relations agreement.

4. If any provision of the supplemental workplace relations agreement conflicts with any provision of the workplace relations agreement, the provision of the supplemental workplace relations agreement is void and the provision of the workplace relations agreement must be given effect.

5. The provisions of the supplemental workplace relations agreement expire at the same time as the other provisions of the workplace relations agreement into which they are incorporated.

6. The Executive Department and an exclusive representative may, during discussions of workplace relations conducted pursuant to this chapter, negotiate and include in a workplace relations agreement any terms and conditions of employment that would otherwise be within the scope of supplemental workplace relations conducted pursuant to this section.

Sec. 41. 1. Except as otherwise provided by specific statute, an employee organization and the Executive Department may sue or be sued as an entity pursuant to this chapter.

2. If any action or proceeding is brought by or against an employee organization pursuant to this chapter, the district court in and for the county in which the employee organization maintains its principal office or the county in which the claim arose has jurisdiction over the claim.

Any action taken under the provisions of this section must not be construed as a failure to negotiate in good faith.

Sec. 42.5. Any workplace relations agreement entered into pursuant to this chapter must be posted on the Internet website, if any, of the State of Nevada.

Sec. 42.7. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to authorize the violation of NRS 288.230 to 288.260, inclusive.

SUMMARY—Requires revises provisions relating to public hospitals and requires hospitals in certain larger counties to provide a report of certain information concerning patients to the Legislative Committee on Health Care. (BDR [40-448])

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Existing law authorizes the board of county commissioners in certain larger counties to adopt, by ordinance, procedures for the sale of naming rights relating to a shooting range that is owned by the county. (NRS 244.30701) Under existing law, counties and groups of counties are authorized to establish public hospitals. (Chapter 450 of NRS) Section 1 of this bill authorizes a board of county commissioners to lease the naming rights relating to such a hospital and specifies the purposes for which proceeds from the lease must be used.

Hospitals in this State are required to provide emergency services and care, and it is unlawful for a hospital or a physician working in a hospital emergency room to refuse to accept or treat a patient in need of emergency services and care. (NRS 439B.410) This Section 2 of this bill requires certain hospitals located in larger counties to provide a report of certain information to the Legislative Committee on Health Care concerning the transfer of patients from the hospital to another hospital and the availability of specialty medical services in the hospital. Such a report must be made quarterly beginning on October 15, 2009, and cover information from July 1, 2009, through September 30, 2010.

   (b) Activities, events, programs, chairs, fellowships and memorials held or established at the public hospital.

2. Any interest or other income earned on the money in the fund, after deducting any applicable charges, must be credited to the fund. Money that remains in the fund at the end of a fiscal year does not revert to the county general fund and the balance in the fund must be carried forward to the next fiscal year. The money in the fund may only be used to pay for expenses directly related to the costs of the public hospital for construction, improvement, operation, maintenance or programs.

3. The procedures adopted pursuant to subsection 1 must, without limitation:

   (2) May require the change of a name authorized pursuant to a lease or revoke a lease before the expiration of its term for any other purpose in accordance with the procedures adopted pursuant to subsection 1.

4. The terms of a lease granted pursuant to this section may be renegotiated and renewed. Each such renewal must provide that the term of the lease does not exceed 20 years.

5. A lease of naming rights pursuant to this section and the procedures adopted pursuant thereto are not subject to the requirements for competitive bidding set forth in chapter 332 of NRS.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Conklin requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

Assemblyman Oceguera requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

Life for our Speaker began in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, birthplace of our nation. In addition to being the nation’s first capital, the city was the site of the first American university, hospital, and public school. Barbara Buckley’s life is filled with firsts, so it’s not surprising she got her start in such an enterprising city. Most of us have come to know Barbara as a community advocate, then a legislator, and most recently as Speaker of the Nevada Assembly. But before we talk about her many accomplishments in those roles, let me briefly describe a few things you might not know about her, starting with her early years.

Barbara Buckley is the youngest of four children. She attended Catholic school for 12 years and was a cheerleader and a cheerleading coach. I have to wonder if that early training is sometimes still put to work, especially here when we’re on our third floor session of the day in the final week of a particularly grueling legislative session.

In 1980 at the age of 19, Barbara made her first trip to Las Vegas. It was intended to be just a short vacation, but she stayed for three months and worked as a hotel maid to finance that stay. Barbara eventually returned to Philadelphia, but only briefly to save enough money so that she could relocate to Las Vegas in 1981. We didn’t know it then, but she had already adopted us.

Never one to take things easy, Barbara enrolled in night courses at UNLV, all the while working as a legal secretary. She was the first in her family to graduate from college, but she didn’t stop there. She went on to pursue a law degree. She was awarded the Outstanding Female Law Graduate for 1989 at the University of Arizona and received the Danny Lee Chandler Award for promoting the First Amendment in law school. Given her affinity for firsts, I’m not surprised. In 1996, Barbara became the executive director of Legal Aid of Southern Nevada, where she created the Domestic Violence and the Children’s Attorney Projects, the first legal programs to assist victims of domestic violence and abuse in Clark County. She was also instrumental in organizing the Affordable Housing Institute and founding the Southern Nevada Homeless Coalition—another theme in Barbara’s life, helping those most in need.

Barbara Buckley was elected to the Nevada Assembly in 1994, and in her first term, she was recognized as outstanding freshman in the Assembly. In Barbara’s second term, she was named Assistant Majority Floor Leader by Speaker Joe Dini. In 2001, she was asked by Speaker Richard Perkins to serve as the Majority Leader—the first woman to hold that position. And as we all know, in 2006 she became the first woman in Nevada history to be chosen Speaker of the Nevada Assembly.

Barbara’s commitment to hard work was never more evident than during her years in the Assembly. In her second term, she became concerned about issues in health care, a topic that dominated letters from her constituents and complaints from her legal clients. That session, Barbara took on health maintenance organizations and helped rewrite the law governing HMOs. Known as the Patient Protection Act, the bill passed both houses unanimously, a remarkable feat given the topic and the times. A few years after that landmark session, Barbara’s concern turned to affordable assisted living for low income seniors. She organized the first public-private partnership between the Housing Division, Harrah’s, and BLM, which became the first program in Nevada to serve the needs of that population. During Barbara’s service in the Assembly, she has been involved in lowering the cost of prescription drugs, strengthening laws governing the payday loan industry, protecting mobile home park residents, and establishing the Office for Consumer Health Assistance.

Even as she worked to protect consumers, the disadvantaged, and the disabled, Barbara has been a force to be reckoned with for those in the legislative process. When Barbara was just a freshman legislator, one longtime lobbyist said, “Man, is she smart, and are we going to be in trouble.” When she sees a need or a problem, Barbara isn’t one to sit back and wait for others to take the lead. For example, her parents taught her that this country should be a place where people leave a better life for children, and anyone who knows Barbara knows that making a better life for Nevada’s children has been yet another mission of hers, whether it’s reforming the child welfare system, furthering all-day kindergarten, or preserving education funding.

Over the years, many personal and professional awards have been bestowed on Barbara Buckley, including Legislator of the Decade; Best Public Servant; Assemblywoman of the Year; the 1994 Women’s Political Caucus Good Gal Award; Best Local Politician; Consumer Advocate of the Year; Best Assembly Member for five straight legislative sessions; and my personal favorite, “Best Reason Not to Lose Faith in the Legislature.” I’ve had the pleasure of serving with Speaker Buckley for nine years. Her knowledge and guidance have been invaluable to me. I’ll always be grateful for that experience. This session more than any other, she has once again proven to be the best reason not to lose faith in the Legislature.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:
First of all, this is going to be difficult, not just because I’m Irish and have the right to cry and laugh at the same time, but because Barbara is very, very, very dear to me. In 1995 when Ms. Buckley first came here as a member of the body, she was assigned to Judiciary, and it was my first turn at being the cochair of the committee with Mr. Humke; Mr. Sandoval was his vice chair, and Ms. Buckley was mine. I quickly figured out I had nothing to worry about. Mr. Humke had everything to worry about because I had Buckley, and I knew it. We were safe. I quickly realized that the strength of the committee rested with Ms. Buckley and Mr. Carpenter and that all I had to do was sit there and schedule bills. Since Mr. Humke let me do that, it was going to be an easy life. She did all the work, and I got all the credit. She does all the work; I get all the credit. I think that has been the keystone of the relationship, because I know that she’s always there.

Probably the funniest story is from a time Ms. Buckley went away. I’m famous for having a somewhat short temper at times, on a regular basis. Ms. Buckley went to San Francisco for a short holiday on her first wedding anniversary during the session, and she came back and brought me a set of Chinese patience balls. They are gigantic, huge things that I could carry in my hand to try and calm me down. I would roll them around in my hand. I still have them and even use them from time to time, and they do work, for those of you who are wondering. Ms. Buckley and Chan, of course, who is the most important part of her life, and of course their sons Ford and Aiden—I don’t even want to talk about Aiden and watching him grow up here.

The most important bill that I want to recount is a very infamous piece of legislation called Tailhook. Some of you may recall there was something of a dramatic incident in one of the hotels in Clark County which led to nationally publicized lawsuits and an increase in the responsibility of the gaming industry to protect guests in their hotels. The bill came into the Senate and then came over to the Assembly with the clear understanding that it was good for the gaming industry and that we would fix it. Little did they realize that Ms. Buckley was not going to put up with that. The naval officer who came here was concerned, rightly so, having seen how she was treated in the Senate. She talked to Ms. Buckley and dropped by my office and clearly understood that that was not going to be the character in this house. That bill was scheduled, I believe, for July 9 or 11. We sine died on the seventh, so I know it was scheduled two weeks in advance, because I wanted to make sure that it was adequately heard and everybody thought that it couldn’t happen.
Barbara, we care about you because you care about us. You care about all of us, and that’s what it’s all about. You love every one of us—the short, fat kid; the cowboy from Elko. Those of us and what we do and our issues—you make them your own. You leave nobody out of the hut, and for that I will personally be ever grateful, and I can hardly wait to see where that star will rise next and hope that I can be close enough just to stand in the shower of it. Thank you for all that you have done for us.

ASSEMBLYMAN HORNE:

When I first came to this body in 2003, like many other people who first meet Barbara, I was in awe. Rather quickly, you learn that she is probably the smartest person in the building, so you need to pay attention. If any of you have not read The Art of War, you should because, Madam Speaker, that’s what I think about when I see you working. The book The Art of War is all about succeeding and finding a way to accomplish your goal. I’ve watched Barbara do that time and time again, from the very easy things that seem to be out of everyone’s view but are such an easy fix, to the things that are so complex. Not only can she figure it out, but she knows the members of her body and who has the talents to make it happen. She knows how to motivate them to do that, and I’ve watched her do that now for four sessions. Each and every time, she gets the right people to do the right job, and she motivates them to do that. I’ve seen her motivate people to work bills that they didn’t particularly care about, and they do an excellent job. Much like these new glasses that I have, she gently focuses you on what you need to do and what you need to see. She did that with me, even this session. I was so hot about something, I couldn’t see straight. You know how Barbara is—she is very calm. You’re sitting there explaining your frustration, and she says, “Yep. Uh huh. Yep.” Finally after you’re done venting, she sits there and explains to you, “You know, there are things that go on in this building that make us all mad, but we need to focus, William. There are bigger things out there than this. Come on, get it together.” And it calmed me down, and it worked out just like she always says. I know when she moves on from here that her enormous talent will continue and will benefit this state. Thank you very much, Madam Speaker, for the time that I’ve served with you.

ASSEMBLYMAN MORTENSON:

Last session I was sitting up in my office, and somebody came in and said, “The Speaker wants to talk to you.” I said, “Oh, hell, what have I done now?” So I journeyed down to your office; I sat down and you looked at me and said, “You know, I have been fighting for two of my measures for weeks now. The Senate has insisted that only one of them will get through, and I’ve been arguing with Raggio and Beers about it. But we’ve come to an impasse, and it looks like we’re not going to get both of them through.” “We”—and I’m sitting there, and my mind is blowing. Here’s a lady who has 500 bills to worry about and 41 other colleagues to worry about, and she is working this hard on 2 of my measures. She said, “You’ve got to make a choice.” So I made my choice—I choose the harder one, the more difficult one. Raggio even forced a chairman who said he had closed down his committee to open it up to pass my bill, and I got my bill through. From that day on, I was a good soldier. I had decided that this is a fabulous lady who, as the chairman of Judiciary says, looks out for everyone’s interests. She does it really seriously, and it just blows my mind. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN SMITH:

Madam Speaker, you are such an amazing role model for us and have given us all so much opportunity. I think that is the remarkable thing about what you’ve taught us and what you leave us with. I was thinking back to the first time that I met you when I had been asked to run for office by Jan Evans. I was picking you up from the airport or someplace and taking you to a meeting at some business location where you were going to introduce me. I had not met you. I didn’t know how formidable you were, and I became intimidated fairly quickly, but it also didn’t take me very long to figure out that there was no reason for that.

You always find time for everyone, which I think is remarkable, and you always give us a chance to prove ourselves. More importantly, you always back us up. On every occasion that I’ve had here, including today, you have stood by my decisions and given me the backup so that I could do what I needed to do.
My little seatmate here doesn’t have the privilege to speak, but I think we both can attest to all of the qualities that you have. We both appreciate what you have given to us and to our family. The last thing I would like to say, and I think that my caucus members can appreciate this, is we often hear remarks about this caucus. We’ve been referred to as sheep that just follow, but that is absolutely not the case. The case is that we have such a good leader who gives us our opportunities, who helps us stretch and have our opinions, but we all come together because of your leadership. It’s very much that we go down the path together because you have helped us get there. From my heart and from Erin’s heart, we thank you for what you’ve given to us, and I thank you for what you’ve given to this state and to this body.

ASSEMBLYMAN HARDY:

When I came here in 2003, I had a wonderful, simple little bill that one person in this body—who shall remain nameless, but I still love Mr. Anderson—had an objection to. I had this gentle visit to a room that I had never heretofore been in. When I came out, my protector at the time, Assemblywoman Chowning—I didn’t understand why I needed someone to protect me until I came out—as I came out I referenced the fact that it really did smell like wood. Assemblywoman Chowning said, “Wood?” And I said, “Yeah, that’s what a woodshed smells like.” I was very gently told by my friend Barbara Buckley, “Your bill is dead until you convince Bernie.” And I haven’t convinced him yet. It was a good thing for me to realize that I had to convince every single person in this body. I had to do everything to convince everybody and resolve everybody’s concern. It was a good lesson in lawmaking, and I appreciated that, and it has stood me well over the years.

Likewise, I appreciate the opportunity to have watched the forgiveness, the tolerance, the “put-up-with-ness” that you’ve had with me, including “order of business something.” It’s been a pleasure to watch how you’ve grown in the calling, I’ll call it, the avocation that you have. I appreciate your leadership as you’ve helped all of us as we’ve been interested in the process of helping people while we make laws. Thank you, Barbara, I appreciate it.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN DONDERO LOOP:

Well, Madam Speaker, I don’t happen to think there is anything wrong with being a cheerleader, and the reason is because if you hadn’t cheered me on, I wouldn’t be here. I just want to tell you that I appreciate your serious talks. I appreciate the laughter. I appreciate the guidance and you being there for all of us. You’re a role model to all women, young and old, and that I appreciate, being the mother of three daughters. I also appreciate that you value being a mother enough to bring your son to where you are. I want to thank you for believing in each and every one of us, because you do, and it’s evident in this body that respects you. Thank you for believing in education and putting it at the top and giving it the attention it deserves. Thank you for being what is right in this state because your guidance and your leadership go hand in hand.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

Thank you, Barbara. I really don’t know what to say, because I think it’s been mostly said. For many sessions you and I sat next to each other in Judiciary, and you taught this cowboy a lot, and I’ll certainly remember it all. You’ve been a great friend, you’re a great lady, and thank you so much.

ASSEMBLYMAN ATKINSON:

I was trying to figure out where I should start, because there’s a lot. I’ll start with something funny. What people don’t know is that Speaker Buckley is a very funny person and has a great sense of humor. I was in her office last session one time—and for most of you, this will be the first time you’re hearing this but you’ll probably get it. She was explaining myself to me, and she used one word. She said, “You know, Kelvin, some people think you’re haughty.” And because I like myself, I assumed she was talking about a “hottie,” so I hunched up and grabbed my jacket and said, “Well, thank you very much.” I kind of felt a little uncomfortable, because I thought the Speaker was coming on to me. She quickly yelled out, “That’s not what I’m talking about! I’m talking about H-A-U-G-H-T-Y.” She called one of her staff in, and she said, “Clearly Mr. Atkinson does not know what I am talking about. Can you pull the definition and give it to him for me?” Someone brought it in, and I looked at it, and I sat down in the chair and said, “Oh, my gosh.” She looked at me and said, “I didn’t say it. I said people said it.” So it was clear that the Speaker wasn’t coming on to me because the definition clearly, clearly meant something else.

There was an incident at the end of last session, and she said, “You know, Kelvin, you’ve had a good session. We agreed on 99 percent of the issues.” Well, I weighted the issues, and it was probably about 95 percent, so I think I lost a few more points as far as she was concerned. But I want to thank you for everything. Speaker Buckley. You have been a true friend of mine. I remember going through a difficult campaign, and she took time out of her morning—every morning—for about a month and a half at 7:30 in the morning because she knew that was the time that I was headed to work. She called me every single morning to make sure that I was okay, and I don’t know if people know that side of her and know how caring she is. She knew I was having a very difficult time, and you don’t know how much that meant to me.

I agree with my colleague from Reno who said that people seem to think our caucus is full of followers and we’re not able to be ourselves in this caucus. It’s a blatant lie. I think that Speaker Buckley gives us the tools that she believes we need, she puts us in positions that she believes we will excel in, and she helps us through the process. I can’t tell you how many times we disagree because typically we seem to agree on most issues, but we do have issues that we disagree on. I won’t lie and say that she doesn’t win most of those, but we do have them. I can’t remember if I can count on one hand how many times she has dictated to me that I needed to, or needed not to do something as far as my committee has been concerned. I know she has given me the latitude to be me and do the things that I felt were appropriate for my committee. Again, that’s a true leader, because she is not a dictator nor have I ever felt that I didn’t have the latitude to do the things that I needed to do.

I will say this and then I’ll wrap up. Most people don’t know this about me and how I came to be here. I was very close to my father, and when I was 21 years old and away at school in D.C., my father was murdered. He was someone I truly, truly looked up to and admired. I was very close to my father. It was very, very difficult for me and my family. My godmother told me at the time that in life, people come through your life, and you always have to understand that it’s for a reason. She said that my dad wasn’t here to help shape and mold me, but that people would enter in my life, and I needed to be cognizant of that and accept them as they come. I truly believe that you were a godsend and entered my life for a reason. Thank you very much, Speaker.

Assemblywoman Kirkpatrick:

I know when the Speaker is chewing gum, she’s nervous and trying to hold back, so I’m going to be quick. I just want to tell you thank you. I remember the first time you and I met, when Tom Collins said, “Well, I’m not running, but she is.” I went and met with the Speaker, and I had this long, luscious red hair and was a little rough around the edges. I’d never worn a suit jacket in my whole life. She was like, “Hm.” But it was appropriate for my district, and I thought, “That didn’t go over so well. Let me try again in a few days.” So I went back, and she said, “You know, if you could just tone the hair down a little and we could see your face, after the first election, you can do whatever you want.” I did exactly that, and I will tell that as a mentor this session, I had to have that same talk with someone, and it was really tough. After that, I was probably a thorn in her side for the first couple of months, because I was always asking “Why is this?” “How come this?” She said, “Just learn as much as you can.”

I am grateful that you let me have the opportunity to be a chairperson. There were times when she would ask, “Now, why isn’t that bill moving again?” I would say, “Because it’s stupid and doesn’t work.” She would say, “Okay, we can live with that, but is there a better reason?” As long as I could justify why I was not moving something, she let me do whatever I wanted, even having never been a chairman. I don’t know if the green building issue was a curse or a great thing, but it was a task that she gave me that helped make me a better legislator.

I think you’ve left a lot of memories and a lot of work ethic, which I think is one of the most important things that pays off in this building. If you work hard and you understand the issues and you take the time to learn more, you can be successful at whatever you do. I appreciate that.
I wish you the best in everything that you do going forward, and I know that with your work ethic, you’ll do whatever you want to do. Thank you for everything that you gave to me.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN GANSERT:
Speaker, you have a great list of remarkable awards and accomplishments—but cheerleader, I like that one; I may use that later.
I just want to tell you that I appreciate your dedication, your work ethic, your organization—we move things through this body. This could have been a very difficult session because we faced a financial crisis and a lot of different things were going on, but we worked very well together. I appreciate the relationship that we’ve developed and the mutual respect and leadership that you’ve shown here. Thank you so much for your dedication, your passion, and all the work.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN KOIVISTO:
Barbara, your accomplishments create lofty goals for everyone coming after you to strive for, and that can only improve this body. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN LESLIE:
I hate to speak at these things, but I can’t resist because I have some funny stories, too. When I first was running for office, I think it was Mr. Anderson who first said to me, “You’ve got to call Barbara Buckley.” Back in those days, the Reno people weren’t as connected to the Las Vegas people—at least that was my impression—I wasn’t. I think she called me first, and she sent me some money—and that always gets your attention—but I really didn’t see much of her during the campaign. Meanwhile, when people realized I was going to win, the lobbyists started saying, “Oh, you and Ms. Buckley are going to clash. You two are interested in the same things. You both have strong personalities. I don’t think of one of them that we ever clashed on, I can’t think of one issue where we had a serious disagreement—not one. In fact, we give each other bill ideas. “Barbara, this one is better for you.” “Sheila, why don’t you do this one?”. I appreciate that we’ve shown that two strong-willed, sometimes obnoxious women with the same interests can work together collaboratively. We often finish each other’s thoughts. We’ll be sitting in Ways and Means thinking about a problem—not really listening to the testimony but thinking about something else—and she’ll lean over and say, “You know what I was thinking?” And I’ll finish the sentence, and she’ll say, “That’s exactly what I was thinking we should do about that.” After having worked together for so many years, you develop that kind of relationship.

My funny story happened during my sophomore session. There was a certain senator, and back in those days—for you freshmen, it is a lot worse when the other party has the Senate and you have to go to the Senate. I remember the first time I had to go to the Senate, it was very scary. My sophomore session there was a certain senator who was used to getting all the media attention. He was pretty mad at me because I started siphoning off some of that attention. He took a real disliking to me. That was a session when all my bills ended up in his committee. For whatever reason, all my bills went to him, and I had some big bills that session, too, so I was in the Senate almost every day. He would treat me so badly—you have no idea. I would go in, and he would pretend I wasn’t even there, take up the opponents of my bill first, ignore me. When somebody would point me out, he would say “Who? Who is that?” He would pretend he didn’t know who I was. It was so bad that the lobbyists would complain to Barbara. I said, “Would you please go talk to him?” So she did—I don’t know what you said to him—so for one day, he was really nice to me. The next day I went in on yet another bill, and he was horrible to me again. Having had the experience of having her intervene for me with him just really changed things, and I’ve always appreciated it.

I don’t think tonight we talked enough about Barbara’s body of work, though, and I think it’s because it’s so overwhelming that no one can even begin to talk about it. I’m just going to talk about one thing that she’s done that has completely, completely changed our state, and that is the child welfare integration. If we had not had Barbara Buckley here in the Assembly, we would still have a horrible child welfare system that was not integrated because no one else would have done that work. No one else would have stuck with it. That is a legacy that you leave the state, and thousands and thousands of kids and families are better off for that work. And let’s not forget the Canadian prescription drug fight. We could be here all night if we started talking about some of those battles we’ve had and battles that we’ve won.

Barbara, you are the smartest person I have ever worked with—I always tell people that; it’s true. You’re also one of the most ethical people I’ve ever worked with, and you’re here for the right reasons. That’s what I’ve always appreciated about you: You have the right values. You play your legislative tricks—you’ve taught me some—but you’re doing it for the right reasons.
You’re not doing it to get rich, you’re not doing it to help a friend, you’re not doing it for evil reasons. You’re doing it because it’s the right thing to do, and that example is one that I hope you all remember next time. I’m glad I’m leaving when you’re leaving because I couldn’t imagine being here without you. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN CHRISTENSEN:
It was interesting hearing the previous speaker talk about all of the experiences that the two of you have had, and in the end the two of you really didn’t disagree. While you and I have disagreed—we’ve voted different, we’ve had disagreements—I know that when we bump into each other around the food table or in the hallway, we are always able to pick up where we left off, just acknowledge that we vote differently. We may see things in a different way, but at the end of the day, we’re both committed to the process. My wife Ashley pointed out to me the other day—I can’t remember if it was after the basketball game where we took a slight pummeling or if it was after you were with us and you had said something to me—she said,
“You know, the Speaker is really funny.” I said “Yes. You didn’t know that?” and she said, “No. I guess I just haven’t been around her enough.” I said, “She really has her moments.
When she pours it on, she has some of the best jabs on me in committee or in the hallway or wherever.” Being the youngest of seven, I am accustomed to that.

I just want to say, “Touché to you, Madam Speaker.” You are a very, very smart woman on the process and moving legislation. I have been able to watch you and learn from how you do things. I appreciate how hard you work. We are all here engaged in this process, and we have a life, too. You are a mother, you have your son, you have a career outside of this. I really admire you for the hard work that you put in here and for the leadership that you offer to your caucus and to this process. It has been an honor serving with you, and I just wanted to share that with you. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM:
Speaker Buckley, my grandmother was one of the first women in this body, my mother served here several years, and one of the proudest moments in my life was to vote for the first woman Speaker. That is such an accomplishment in what is really a male-dominated institution, both here and around the country. I want to thank you for the privilege of being able to vote for you.

ASSEMBLYMAN ARBERRY:
Well Barb, I don’t have anything funny to say today. As someone who is looking at closing a chapter in his life and thinking of all the successes and failures, I want to say that it is a great honor to be able to say that I closed it out with a lady of your caliber. You have to remember that when I came here, there were only two or three ladies in the Legislature. Every session I would say, “Boy, I sure hope we get some more ladies up here because then I’d have more support.”

Barb, I have been close to you since you came on the scene. I’ve been very protective of you, because I could see where your heart was from the day we began working on all the bills and issues, and I respected you. I gave you a nickname—most of them don’t even know that I call you “my sister from the hood” because you represent the little people. I can say that even if you weren’t term-limited out and I was, I would want to have a person carrying the torch who has the feelings that you do, because once I walk out that back door, I would know that the little people would be represented.
I want to say thank you for all your hard work and for giving me the opportunity and trusting in me to be the chair of Ways and Means, for giving me a committee that has worked hard for this body, and for having the confidence that we would deliver a budget to you and to this state that we all can live with. We weren’t happy with it, but every day you would say, “Moose, are we going to make it?” We made it, Barb, and I just want to say thank you. You are one hell of a woman. Take care of yourself.

Assemblyman Conklin:
I would like to echo all of my colleagues’ remarks. I could say a lot about being in the Legislature, but it would really sound the same. So what I would like to say is that when we go home from this Legislature every year, I go back and do community work for homeless kids—most people know that. Those homeless kids would have no services without you—none. Every year, we call your office and get help for homeless kids that would otherwise have no help. Last cycle we called and we needed help to raise money, and you were there. I can’t tell you how much that means to me. I can’t tell you how much that means to those kids. I appreciate all the opportunities you have given me to be here to participate, excel, succeed, and work with great people. I admire you, I love you, and I will always be your soldier. Thank you.

Assemblyman Oceguera requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

Madam Speaker, on behalf of all of us—not only all of us in this room but I think all the citizens of the State of Nevada—thank you for your service.

Assemblyman Oceguera announced if there were no objections, the Assembly would recess subject to the call of the Chair.

REPORTS OF COMMITTEES

Madam Speaker:
Your Committee on Elections, Procedures, Ethics, and Constitutional Amendments, to which was rereferred Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1, has had the same under consideration, and begs leave to report the same back with the recommendation: Amend, and do pass as amended.

HARRY MORTENSON, Chair

GENERAL FILE AND THIRD READING

Assembly Joint Resolution No. 1.
Resolution read third time.
The following amendment was proposed by the Committee on Elections, Procedures, Ethics, and Constitutional Amendments:
Amendment No. 1000.

ASSEMBLY JOINT RESOLUTION—Proposing to amend the Nevada Constitution to revise the provisions governing a petition for a state initiative or a referendum.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Pursuant to Section 2 of Article 19 of the Nevada Constitution, the people of the State of Nevada have reserved to themselves the power to propose statutes, amendments to statutes and amendments to the Nevada Constitution by initiative petition. If the petition meets certain criteria, it is placed on the general election ballot where the people of the State of Nevada are then given the right to vote to enact or reject such proposals. In 2006, however, a portion of this provision of the Nevada Constitution was held unconstitutional by the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Ninth Circuit. ACLU of Nev. v. Lomax, 471 F.3d 1010 (9th Cir. 2006). The Ninth Circuit Court found that the requirement that an initiative petition contain a certain number of signatures gathered from 75 percent of the counties in this State in order to qualify for the ballot (the “13 Counties Rule”) violated the equal protection principle of “one man, one vote” by diluting the votes of residents of densely populated counties and was not narrowly tailored. Id. at 1013. Thus, the Ninth Circuit Court held that Section 2 of Article 19 of the Nevada Constitution violated the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the U.S. Constitution. Id. The Court further indicated that if a certain number of voters were required from state legislative districts rather than counties, it would alleviate the equal protection concerns.

This resolution proposes to amend Article 19 of the Nevada Constitution to remove the unconstitutional provisions and instead require that an initiative petition be signed by a number of the registered voters from each [congressional] petition district in this State which equals 10 percent of the number of voters who voted at the last preceding general election in the [congressional] petition district. This resolution further provides that the number of registered voters required to file an initiative or referendum petition must be determined at the time the copy of the petition is filed with the Secretary of State.

RESOLVED BY THE ASSEMBLY AND SENATE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, JOINTLY, That Section 1 of Article 19 of the Nevada Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Section 1. 1. A person who intends to circulate a petition that a statute or resolution or part thereof enacted by the legislature be submitted to a vote of the people, before circulating the petition for signatures, shall file a copy thereof with the secretary of state. He shall file the copy not earlier than August 1 of the year before the year in which the election will be held.

2. Whenever a number of registered voters of this state equal to 10 percent [or more] of the number of voters who voted at the last preceding general election shall express their wish by filing with the secretary of state, not less than 120 days before the next general election, a petition in the form provided for in Section 3 of this Article that any statute or resolution or any part thereof enacted by the legislature be submitted to a vote of the people, the officers charged with the duties of announcing and proclaiming elections and of certifying nominations or questions to be voted upon shall submit the question of approval or disapproval of such statute or resolution or any part thereof to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding election at which such question may be voted upon by the registered voters of the entire State. The number of registered voters required to file the petition must be determined at the time the copy of the petition is filed with the secretary of state pursuant to this Section. The circulation of the petition shall cease on the day the petition is filed with the secretary of state or such other date as may be prescribed for the verification of the number of signatures affixed to the petition, whichever is earliest.

3. If a majority of the voters voting upon the proposal submitted at such election votes approval of such statute or resolution or any part thereof, such statute or resolution or any part thereof shall stand as the law of the state and shall not be amended, annulled, repealed, set aside, suspended or in any way made inoperative except by the direct vote of the people. If a majority of such voters votes disapproval of such statute or resolution or any part thereof, such statute or resolution or any part thereof shall be void and of no effect.

And be it further

RESOLVED, That Section 2 of Article 19 of the Nevada Constitution be amended to read as follows:

Sec. 2. 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of Section 1 of Article 4 of this Constitution, but subject to the limitations of Section 6 of this Article, the people reserve to themselves the power to propose, by initiative petition, statutes and amendments to statutes and amendments to this Constitution, and to enact or reject them at the polls.

2. An initiative petition shall be in the form required by Section 3 of this Article and shall be proposed by a number of registered voters from each [congressional] petition district in this State equal to 10 percent [or more] of the number of voters who voted at the last preceding general election in [not less than 75 percent of the counties in the State, but the total number of registered voters signing the initiative petition shall be equal to 10 percent or more of the voters who voted in the entire State at the last preceding general election. Petition districts must be established by the Legislature. The number of registered voters required to file the initiative petition must be determined at the time the copy of the initiative petition is filed with the Secretary of State pursuant to this Section.]

3. If the initiative petition proposes a statute or an amendment to a statute, the person who intends to circulate it shall file a copy with the Secretary of State before beginning circulation and not earlier than January 1 of the year preceding the year in which a regular session of the Legislature is held. After its circulation, it shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less than 30 days prior to any regular session of the Legislature. The circulation of the petition shall cease on the day the petition is filed with the Secretary of State or such other date as may be prescribed for the verification of the number of signatures affixed to the petition, whichever is earliest. The Secretary of State shall transmit such petition to the Legislature as soon as the Legislature convenes and organizes. The petition shall take precedence over all other measures except appropriation bills, and the statute or amendment to a statute proposed thereby shall be enacted or rejected by the Legislature without change or amendment within 40 days. If the proposed statute or amendment to a statute is enacted by the Legislature and approved by the Governor in the same manner as other statutes are enacted, such statute or amendment to a statute shall become law, but shall be subject to referendum petition as provided in Section 1 of this Article. If the statute or amendment to a statute is rejected by the Legislature, or if no action is taken thereon within 40 days, the Secretary of State shall submit the question of approval or disapproval of such statute or amendment to a statute to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election. If a majority of the voters voting on such question at such election votes approval of such statute or amendment to a statute, it shall become law and take effect upon completion of the canvass of votes by the Supreme Court. An initiative measure so approved by the voters shall not be amended, annulled, repealed, set aside or suspended by the Legislature within 3 years from the date it takes effect. If a majority of such voters votes disapproval of such statute or amendment to a statute, no further action shall be taken on such petition. If the Legislature rejects such proposed statute or amendment, the Governor may recommend to the Legislature and the Legislature may propose a different measure on the same subject, in which event, after such different measure has been approved by the Governor, the question of approval or disapproval of each measure shall be submitted by the Secretary of State to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election. If the conflicting provisions submitted to the voters are both approved by a majority of the voters voting on such measures, the measure which receives the largest number of affirmative votes shall thereupon become law. If at the session of the Legislature to which an initiative petition proposing an amendment to a statute is presented which the Legislature rejects or upon which it takes no action, the Legislature amends the statute which the petition proposes to amend in a respect which does not conflict in substance with the proposed amendment, the Secretary of State in submitting the statute to the voters for approval or disapproval of the proposed amendment shall include the amendment made by the Legislature.

4. If the initiative petition proposes an amendment to the Constitution, the person who intends to circulate it shall file a copy with the Secretary of State before beginning circulation and not earlier than September 1 of the year before the year in which the election is to be held. After its circulation it shall be filed with the Secretary of State not less than 90 days before any regular general election at which the question of approval or disapproval of such amendment may be voted upon by the voters of the entire State. The circulation of the petition shall cease on the day the petition is filed with the Secretary of State or such other date as may be prescribed for the verification of the number of signatures affixed to the petition, whichever is earliest. The Secretary of State shall cause to be published in a newspaper of general circulation, on three separate occasions, in each county in the State, together with any explanatory matter which shall be placed upon the ballot, the entire text of the proposed amendment. If a majority of the voters voting on such question at such election votes disapproval of such amendment, no further action shall be taken on the petition. If a majority of such voters votes approval of such amendment, the Secretary of State shall publish and resubmit the question of approval or disapproval to a vote of the voters at the next succeeding general election in the same manner as such question was originally submitted. If a majority of such voters votes disapproval of such amendment, no further action shall be taken on such petition. If a majority of such voters votes approval of such amendment, it shall, unless precluded by subsection 5 or 6, become a part of this Constitution upon completion of the canvass of votes by the Supreme Court.

5. If two or more measures which affect the same section of a statute or of the Constitution are finally approved pursuant to this Section, or an amendment to the Constitution is finally so approved and an amendment proposed by the Legislature is ratified which affect the same section, by the voters at the same election:
   (a) If all can be given effect without contradiction in substance, each shall be given effect.
   (b) If one or more contradict in substance the other or others, the measure which received the largest favorable vote, and any other approved measure compatible with it, shall be given effect. If the one or more measures that contradict in substance the other or others receive the same number of favorable votes, none of the measures that contradict another shall be given effect.

6. If, at the same election as the first approval of a constitutional amendment pursuant to this Section, another amendment is finally approved pursuant to this Section, or an amendment proposed by the Legislature is ratified, which affects the same section of the Constitution but is compatible with the amendment given first approval, the Secretary of State shall publish and resubmit at the next general election the amendment given first approval as a further amendment to the section as amended by the amendment given final approval or ratified. If the amendment finally approved or ratified contradicts in substance the amendment given first approval, the Secretary of State shall not submit the amendment given first approval to the voters again.

Conference Amendment No. CA34.
AN ACT relating to state governmental procurement; establishing a bidder’s preference for local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans with respect to state purchasing contracts and state public works contracts; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Existing law, with respect only to contracts for public works for which the estimated cost exceeds $250,000, provides a mechanism by which a contractor who has paid certain taxes may earn a 5-percent preference in bidding on public works. (NRS 338.1389, 338.147, 338.1693, 338.1727)
Sections 18-25 of this bill establish a limited preference in bidding on public works for local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans. This new preference in bidding on public works does not overlap with the existing preference in bidding on public works because the new preference is limited to public works for which the estimated cost is $100,000 or less.
Under existing law, the State of Nevada imposes an inverse preference against a person who submits a bid or proposal on a state purchasing contract if that person is a resident of a state that denies a preference to bidders or contractors who are residents of this State. (NRS 333.336) Section 31 of this bill repeals that inverse preference.
In place of the former inverse preference, sections 5-13 of this bill establish a 5-percent preference in bidding on state purchasing contracts for local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans, Section 14 of this bill requires advertisements for bids or proposals to include notices of this new preference.
Section 30 of this bill directs the Office of Veterans’ Services to perform certain duties with respect to gathering information and making recommendations to the Legislative Commission concerning the preferences in bidding on state purchasing contracts and public works for local businesses owned by service-disabled veterans.
THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Sec. 5.5. “Business owned by a service-disabled veteran” has the meaning ascribed to it in section 19 of this act.

Sec. 6. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 7. “Local business” means a business that:

Sec. 11. 1. If the Purchasing Division determines that a business has made a material misrepresentation or otherwise committed a fraudulent act in applying for a preference described in section 10 of this act, the business is thereafter permanently prohibited from:

3. Such other matters as the Purchasing Division deems relevant.

In carrying out the provisions of this section, the Purchasing Division shall, to the extent practicable, cooperate and coordinate with the State Public Works Board so that any regulations adopted pursuant to this section and section 25 of this act are reasonably consistent.

(b) Where and how specifications and quotation forms may be obtained.

(c) If the advertisement is for bids, whether the Chief is authorized by the using agency to be supplied to consider a bid for an article that is an alternative to the article listed in the original request for bids if:

(1) The specifications of the alternative article meet or exceed the specifications of the article listed in the original request for bids;

(2) The purchase of the alternative article results in a lower price; and

(3) The Chief deems the purchase of the alternative article to be in the best interests of the State of Nevada.

(e) The date and time not later than which responses must be received by the Purchasing Division.
(f) The date and time when responses will be opened.

The Chief or his designated agent shall approve the copy for the advertisement.

2. Each advertisement must be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation in the State. The selection of the newspaper to carry the advertisement must be made in the manner provided by this chapter for other purchases, on the basis of the lowest price to be secured in relation to the paid circulation.

Sec. 15. NRS 333.335 is hereby amended to read as follows:

333.335 1. Each proposal must be evaluated by:

(a) The chief of the using agency, or a committee appointed by the chief of the using agency in accordance with the regulations adopted pursuant to NRS 333.135, if the proposal is for a using agency; or

(b) The Chief of the Purchasing Division, or a committee appointed by the Chief in accordance with the regulations adopted pursuant to NRS 333.135, if he is responsible for administering the proposal.

2. A committee appointed pursuant to subsection 1 must consist of not less than two members. A majority of the members of the committee must be state officers or employees. The members of the committee are not entitled to compensation for their service on the committee, except that members of the committee who are state officers or employees are entitled to receive their salaries as state officers and employees. No member of the committee may have a financial interest in a proposal.

3. (a) The experience and financial stability of the person submitting the proposal;

(b) Whether the proposal complies with the requirements of the request for proposals as prescribed in NRS 333.311;

(c) The price of the proposal; and

(d) Any other factor disclosed in the request for proposals.

4. The chief of the using agency, the Chief of the Purchasing Division or the committee, if a committee is established, shall determine the relative weight of each factor set forth in subsection 3 before a request for proposals is advertised. The weight of each factor must not be disclosed before the date proposals are required to be submitted.
5. The chief of the using agency, the Chief of the Purchasing Division or the committee, if a committee is established, shall award the contract based on the best interests of the State, as determined by the total scores assigned pursuant to subsection 3, and is not required to accept the lowest-priced proposal.

6. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 239.0115, each proposal evaluated pursuant to the provisions of this section is confidential and may not be disclosed until the contract is awarded.

Sec. 16. NRS 333.340 is hereby amended to read as follows:

2. The qualities of the articles to be supplied.
3. The total cost of ownership of the articles to be supplied.
4. Except as otherwise provided in subparagraph (5), the conformity of the articles to be supplied with the specifications.

   (I) The specifications of the alternative article meet or exceed the specifications of the article listed in the original request for bids;
   (II) The purchase of the alternative article results in a lower price; and
   (III) The Chief deems the purchase of the alternative article to be in the best interests of the State of Nevada.
6. The purposes for which the articles to be supplied are required.
7. The dates of delivery of the articles to be supplied.

2. If a contract or an order is not awarded to the lowest bidder, the Chief shall provide the lowest bidder with a written statement which sets forth the specific reasons that the contract or order was not awarded to him.

3. As used in this section, “total cost of ownership” includes, but is not limited to:
   (a) The history of maintenance or repair of the articles;
   (b) The cost of routine maintenance and repair of the articles;
   (c) Any warranties provided in connection with the articles;
   (d) The cost of replacement parts for the articles; and
   (e) The value of the articles as used articles when given in trade on a subsequent purchase.

Sec. 17. Chapter 338 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 18 to 25, inclusive, of this act.
Sec. 18. As used in sections 18 to 25, inclusive, of this act, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in sections 19, 20 and 21 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

Sec. 21. "Service-disabled veteran" means a veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States who has a service-connected disability of at least zero percent as determined by the United States Department of Veterans Affairs.

Sec. 22. 1. For the purpose of awarding a contract for a public work of this State for which the estimated cost is $100,000 or less, as governed by NRS 338.13862, if a local business owned by a service-disabled veteran submits a bid, the bid shall be deemed to be 5 percent lower than the bid actually submitted.

2. The preference described in subsection 1 may not be combined with any other preference.

Sec. 23. 1. If the State Public Works Board determines that a business has made a material misrepresentation or otherwise committed a fraudulent act in applying for the preference described in section 22 of this act, the business is thereafter permanently prohibited from:
   (a) Applying for or receiving the preference described in section 22 of this act; and
   (b) Bidding on a contract for a public work of this State.

2. If the State Public Works Board determines, as described in subsection 1, that a business has made a material misrepresentation or otherwise committed a fraudulent act in applying for the preference described in section 22 of this act, the business may apply to the Manager to review the decision pursuant to chapter 233B of NRS.

3. As used in this section, "Manager" has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 341.015.

Conference Amendment No. CA26.

SUMMARY—Makes various changes relating to common-interest communities, real property; revising provisions relating to costs of collection, interest on certain past due assessments, and copies of certain documents; providing that punitive damages may not be awarded against the members of the executive board or the officers of an association under certain circumstances; establishing certain standards for management agreements; establishing the duties, responsibilities and standards of practice for community managers; making various other changes relating to common-interest communities; revising provisions relating to swimming pools; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 1.7 of this bill authorizes an association to charge reasonable fees for costs associated with collecting any past due obligation. Section 3.5 of this bill provides that in addition to complying with the business-judgment rule, officers and members of the executive board of an association are required to act on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that their actions are in the best interest of the association. (NRS 116.3103)

Existing law authorizes an executive board to impose fines for certain violations of the governing documents and to assess interest on any unpaid fines at a rate established by the association, not to exceed the legal rate per annum. (NRS 116.31031) Section 4.5 of this bill eliminates the authority to charge interest on any past due fines.

Existing law provides that: (1) punitive damages may not be recovered against an association, but may be recovered against persons whose activity gave rise to the damages; and (2) punitive damages may be awarded for a willful and material failure to comply with any provision of chapter 116 of NRS. (NRS 116.31036, 116.4117) Sections 5.5 and 16.5 of this bill provide that punitive damages may not be recovered against the members of the executive board or the officers of an association for acts or omissions that occur in their capacity as members or officers.

Existing law provides that any past due assessment for common expenses or installment thereof bears interest at the rate established by the association, which must not exceed 18 percent per year. Section 9 of this bill provides that the association may charge the prime rate plus 2 percent on such a past due assessment, beginning when the assessment is 60 days past due.
Sections 6.5 and 7.5 of this bill provide that: (1) a unit’s owner may receive a copy or summary of the minutes of a meeting of the unit’s owners or executive board in electronic format at no cost to the unit’s owner or, if the association is unable to provide a copy or summary in electronic format, in paper format at a cost not to exceed 25 cents per page for the first 10 pages, and at 10 cents per page thereafter; and (2) a meeting of the executive board must be held at a time other than during normal business hours at least twice per year. (NRS 116.3108, 116.31083)

Section 10.5 of this bill requires the budget of an association to be available for review at a location not to exceed 60 miles from the common-interest community. (NRS 116.31151) Section 12.2 of this bill also requires the books, records and other papers of an association to be available for review at the business office of the association or a location not to exceed 60 miles from the common-interest community. (NRS 116.31175)

Section 12.5 of this bill provides that if a unit’s owner is the subject of retaliatory action based on certain complaints or requests, he may bring an action to recover compensatory damages and attorney’s fees and costs. (NRS 116.31183)

Sections 13.7 and 15.5 of this bill require a public offering or a resale package to include a statement listing all current and expected fees for each unit. (NRS 116.4103, 116.4109)

Section 19.3 of this bill establishes the requirements concerning the disclosures that a community manager must make before entering into a management agreement and incorporates into statute the existing requirements contained in the Nevada Administrative Code. (NAC 116.310)

Section 19.4 of this bill sets forth the requirements of a management agreement and incorporates into statute the existing requirements contained in the Nevada Administrative Code. (NAC 116.305)

Section 19.5 of this bill sets forth the responsibilities and duties of a community manager, incorporates into statute many of the existing provisions of the Nevada Administrative Code and adds certain new responsibilities and duties. (NAC 116.300) Section 19.5 also provides that a community manager acts as a fiduciary at all times and must exercise ordinary and reasonable care in performing his duties.

Section 19.6 of this bill incorporates into statute many of the existing provisions of the Nevada Administrative Code pertaining to standards of practice for community managers and conduct warranting disciplinary action and establishes certain new requirements, such as provisions governing the acceptance of any compensation, gift or any other item of material value by the community manager. (NAC 116.341)
Section 21.3 of this bill exempts privately owned swimming pools used only by members of a private club from the definition of “public swimming pool” for purposes of supervision by the Health Authority.

Sec. 3.5. NRS 116.3103 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.3103 1. Except as otherwise provided in the declaration, bylaws, this section or other provisions of this chapter, the executive board may act in all instances on behalf of the association. In the performance of their duties, the officers and members of the executive board are fiduciaries and shall act on an informed basis, in good faith and in the honest belief that their actions are in the best interest of the association. The members of the executive board are required to exercise the ordinary and reasonable care of directors of a corporation, subject to the business-judgment rule.

2. The executive board may not act on behalf of the association to amend the declaration, to terminate the common-interest community, or to elect members of the executive board or determine their qualifications, powers and duties or terms of office, but the executive board may fill vacancies in its membership for the unexpired portion of any term.

Sec. 4. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 4.5. NRS 116.31031 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31031 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if a unit’s owner or a tenant or guest of a unit’s owner violates any provision of the governing documents of an association, the executive board may, if the governing documents so provide:

(a) Prohibit, for a reasonable time, the unit’s owner or the tenant or guest of the unit’s owner from:

1. Voting on matters related to the common-interest community.
2. Using the common elements. The provisions of this subparagraph do not prohibit the unit’s owner or the tenant or guest of the unit’s owner from using any vehicular or pedestrian ingress or egress to go to or from the unit, including any area used for parking.

(b) Impose a fine against the unit’s owner or the tenant or guest of the unit’s owner for each violation, except that a fine may not be imposed for a violation that is the subject of a construction penalty pursuant to NRS 116.310305. If the violation poses an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units’ owners or residents of the common-interest community, the amount of the fine must be commensurate with the severity of the violation and must be determined by the executive board in accordance with the governing documents. If the violation does not pose an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units’ owners or residents of the common-interest community, the amount of the fine must be commensurate with the severity of the violation and must be determined by the executive board in accordance with the governing documents, but the amount of the fine must not exceed $100 for each violation or a total amount of $1,000, whichever is less. The limitations on the amount of the fine do not apply to any charges or costs that may be collected by the association pursuant to this section if the fine becomes past due.

2. The executive board may not impose a fine pursuant to subsection 1 unless:
   (a) Not less than 30 days before the violation, the person against whom the fine will be imposed had been provided with written notice of the applicable provisions of the governing documents that form the basis of the violation; and
   (b) Within a reasonable time after the discovery of the violation, the person against whom the fine will be imposed has been provided with:
      (1) Written notice specifying the details of the violation, the amount of the fine, and the date, time and location for a hearing on the violation; and
      (2) A reasonable opportunity to contest the violation at the hearing.

3. The executive board must schedule the date, time and location for the hearing on the violation so that the person against whom the fine will be imposed is provided with a reasonable opportunity to prepare for the hearing and to be present at the hearing.

4. The executive board must hold a hearing before it may impose the fine, unless the person against whom the fine will be imposed:
   (a) Pays the fine;
   (b)Executes a written waiver of the right to the hearing; or
   (c) Fails to appear at the hearing after being provided with proper notice of the hearing.

5. If a fine is imposed pursuant to subsection 1 and the violation is not cured within 14 days, or within any longer period that may be established by the executive board, the violation shall be deemed a continuing violation. Thereafter, the executive board may impose an additional fine for the violation for each 7-day period or portion thereof that the violation is not cured. Any additional fine may be imposed without notice and an opportunity to be heard.

6. If the governing documents so provide, the executive board may appoint a committee, with not less than three members, to conduct hearings on violations and to impose fines pursuant to this section. While acting on behalf of the executive board for those limited purposes, the committee and its members are entitled to all privileges and immunities and are subject to all duties and requirements of the executive board and its members.

7. The provisions of this section establish the minimum procedural requirements that the executive board must follow before it may impose a fine. The provisions of this section do not preempt any provisions of the governing documents that provide greater procedural protections.

8. Any past due fine:
   (a) Bears interest at the rate established by the association, not to exceed the legal rate per annum.
   (b) May include any costs of collecting the past due fine at a rate established by the association. If the past due fine is for a violation that does not threaten the health, safety or welfare of the residents of the common-interest community, the rate established by the association for the costs of collecting the past due fine:
      (1) May not exceed $20, if the outstanding balance is less than $200.
      (2) May not exceed $50, if the outstanding balance is $200 or more, but is less than $500.
      (3) May not exceed $100, if the outstanding balance is $500 or more, but is less than $1,000.
      (4) May not exceed $250, if the outstanding balance is $1,000 or more, but is less than $5,000.
      (5) May not exceed $500, if the outstanding balance is $5,000 or more.
   (c) Must not bear interest, but may include any costs incurred by the association during a civil action to enforce the payment of the past due fine.

9. As used in this section:
   (a) “Costs of collecting” includes, without limitation, any collection fee, filing fee, recording fee, referral fee, fee for postage or delivery, and any other fee or cost that an association may reasonably charge to the unit’s owner for the collection of a past due fine. The term does not include any costs incurred by an association during a civil action to enforce the payment of a past due fine.
   (b) “Outstanding balance” means the amount of a past due fine that remains unpaid before any interest, charges for late payment or costs of collecting the past due fine are added.

Sec. 5. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 5.5. NRS 116.31036 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31036 1. Notwithstanding any provision of the declaration or bylaws to the contrary, any member of the executive board, other than a member appointed by the declarant, may be removed from the executive board, with or without cause, if at a removal election held pursuant to this section the number of votes cast in favor of removal constitutes:
(a) At least 35 percent of the total number of voting members of the association; and
(b) At least a majority of all votes cast in that removal election.
2. The removal of any member of the executive board must be conducted by secret written ballot unless the declaration of the association provides that voting rights may be exercised by delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105. If the removal of a member of the executive board is conducted by secret written ballot:
   (a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner.
   (b) Each unit’s owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit’s owner to return the secret written ballot to the association.
   (c) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be counted to determine the outcome.
   (d) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.
   (e) The incumbent members of the executive board, including, without limitation, the member who is subject to the removal, may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.
3. If a member of an executive board is named as a respondent or sued for liability for actions undertaken in his role as a member of the board, the association shall indemnify him for his losses or claims, and undertake all costs of defense, unless it is proven that he acted with willful or wanton misfeasance or with gross negligence. After such proof, the association is no longer liable for the cost of defense, and may recover costs already expended from the member of the executive board who so acted. Members of the executive board are not personally liable to the victims of crimes occurring on the property. Punitive damages may not be recovered against:
   (a) The association;
   (b) The members of the executive board for acts or omissions that occur in their capacity as members of the executive board; or
   (c) The officers of the association for acts or omissions that occur in their capacity as officers of the association.
4. The provisions of this section do not prohibit the Commission from taking any disciplinary action against a member of an executive board pursuant to NRS 116.745 to 116.795, inclusive.
Sec. 6. (Deleted by amendment.)

2. Special meetings of the units’ owners may be called by the president, by a majority of the executive board or by units’ owners constituting at least 10 percent, or any lower percentage specified in the bylaws, of the total number of voting members of the association. The same number of units’ owners may also call a removal election pursuant to NRS 116.31036. To call a special meeting or a removal election, the units’ owners must submit a written petition which is signed by the required percentage of the total number of voting members of the association pursuant to this section and which is mailed, return receipt requested, or served by a process server to the executive board or the community manager for the association. If the petition calls for a special meeting, the executive board shall set the date for the special meeting so that the special meeting is held not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received. If the petition calls for a removal election and:

(a) The voting rights of the units’ owners will be exercised by delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105, the executive board shall set the date for the removal election so that the removal election is held not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received; or

(b) The voting rights of the units’ owners will be exercised through the use of secret written ballots pursuant to NRS 116.31036, the secret written ballots for the removal election must be sent in the manner required by NRS 116.31036 not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received, and the executive board shall set the date for the meeting to open and count the secret written ballots so that the meeting is held not more than 15 days after the deadline for returning the secret written ballots.

3. Not less than 15 days or more than 60 days in advance of any meeting of the units’ owners, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause notice of the meeting to be hand-delivered, sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner or, if the association offers to send notice by electronic mail, sent by electronic mail at the request of the unit’s owner to an electronic mail address designated in writing by the unit’s owner. The notice of the meeting must state the time and place of the meeting and include a copy of the agenda for the meeting. The notice must include notification of the right of a unit’s owner to:
(a) Have a copy of the minutes or a summary of the minutes of the meeting provided to the unit’s owner upon request \[\text{and, if required by the executive board, upon payment to the association of the cost of providing the copy to the unit’s owner}.\] in electronic format at no charge to the unit’s owner or, if the association is unable to provide the copy or summary in electronic format, in paper format at a cost not to exceed 25 cents per page for the first 10 pages, and 10 cents per page thereafter.

Except in emergencies, no action may be taken upon a matter raised under this item of the agenda until the matter itself has been specifically included on an agenda as an item upon which action may be taken pursuant to paragraph (b).

5. If the association adopts a policy imposing fines for any violations of the governing documents of the association, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall prepare and cause to be hand-delivered or sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner, a schedule of the fines that may be imposed for those violations.

6. The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause minutes to be recorded or otherwise taken at each meeting of the units’ owners. 9. The association shall maintain the minutes of each meeting of the units' owners until the common-interest community is terminated.

10. A unit's owner may record on audiotape or any other means of sound reproduction a meeting of the units' owners if the unit's owner, before recording the meeting, provides notice of his intent to record the meeting to the other units' owners who are in attendance at the meeting.

11. The units' owners may approve, at the annual meeting of the units' owners, the minutes of the prior annual meeting of the units' owners and the minutes of any prior special meetings of the units' owners. A quorum is not required to be present when the units' owners approve the minutes.

12. As used in this section, "emergency" means any occurrence or combination of occurrences that:

Sec. 8. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 9. NRS 116.3115 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.3115 1. Until the association makes an assessment for common expenses, the declarant shall pay all common expenses. After an assessment has been made by the association, assessments must be made at least annually, based on a budget adopted at least annually by the association in accordance with the requirements set forth in NRS 116.31151. Unless the declaration imposes more stringent standards, the budget must include a budget for the daily operation of the association and a budget for the reserves required by paragraph (b) of subsection 2.

2. Except for assessments under subsections 4 to 7, inclusive:

   (a) All common expenses, including the reserves, must be assessed against all the units in accordance with the allocations set forth in the declaration pursuant to subsections 1 and 2 of NRS 116.2107.

   (b) The association shall establish adequate reserves, funded on a reasonable basis, for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements. The reserves may be used only for those purposes, including, without limitation, repairing, replacing and restoring roofs, roads and sidewalks, and must not be used for daily maintenance. The association may comply with the provisions of this paragraph through a funding plan that is designed to allocate the costs for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements over a period of years if the funding plan is designed in an actuarially sound manner which will ensure that sufficient money is available when the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements are necessary.

3. Any past due assessment for common expenses or installment thereof that is 60 days or more past due bears interest at the rate established by the association not exceeding 18 percent per year, a rate equal to the prime rate at the largest bank in Nevada as ascertained by the Commissioner of Financial Institutions on January 1 or July 1, as the case may be, immediately preceding the date the assessment becomes past due, plus 2 percent. The rate must be adjusted accordingly on each January 1 and July 1 thereafter until the balance is satisfied.

4. To the extent required by the declaration:

   (a) Any common expense associated with the maintenance, repair, restoration or replacement of a limited common element must be assessed against the units to which that limited common element is assigned, equally, or in any other proportion the declaration provides;

   (b) Any common expense or portion thereof benefiting fewer than all of the units must be assessed exclusively against the units benefited; and

   (c) The costs of insurance must be assessed in proportion to risk and the costs of utilities must be assessed in proportion to usage.
5. Assessments to pay a judgment against the association may be made only against the units in the common-interest community at the time the judgment was entered, in proportion to their liabilities for common expenses.
6. If any common expense is caused by the misconduct of any unit’s owner, the association may assess that expense exclusively against his unit.
7. The association of a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, is not required to make an assessment against a vacant lot located within the community that is owned by the declarant.
8. If liabilities for common expenses are reallocated, assessments for common expenses and any installment thereof not yet due must be recalculated in accordance with the reallocated liabilities.
9. The association shall provide written notice to each unit’s owner of a meeting at which an assessment for a capital improvement is to be considered or action is to be taken on such an assessment at least 21 calendar days before the date of the meeting.
Sec. 10. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 10.5. NRS 116.31151 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31151 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2 and unless the declaration of a common-interest community imposes more stringent standards, the executive board shall, not less than 30 days or more than 60 days before the beginning of the fiscal year of the association, prepare and distribute to each unit’s owner a copy of:
(a) The budget for the daily operation of the association. The budget must include, without limitation, the estimated annual revenue and expenditures of the association and any contributions to be made to the reserve account of the association.
(b) The budget to provide adequate funding for the reserves required by paragraph (b) of subsection 2 of NRS 116.3115. The budget must include, without limitation:
(1) The current estimated replacement cost, estimated remaining life and estimated useful life of each major component of the common elements;
(2) As of the end of the fiscal year for which the budget is prepared, the current estimate of the amount of cash reserves that are necessary, and the current amount of accumulated cash reserves that are set aside, to repair, replace or restore the major components of the common elements;
(3) A statement as to whether the executive board has determined or anticipates that the levy of one or more special assessments will be necessary to repair, replace or restore any major component of the common elements or to provide adequate funding for the reserves designated for that purpose; and
(4) A general statement describing the procedures used for the estimation and accumulation of cash reserves pursuant to subparagraph (2), including, without limitation, the qualifications of the person responsible for the preparation of the study of the reserves required by NRS 116.31152.
2. In lieu of distributing copies of the budgets of the association required by subsection 1, the executive board may distribute to each unit’s owner a summary of those budgets, accompanied by a written notice that:
   (a) The budgets are available for review at the business office of the association or some other suitable location within the county where the common-interest community is situated or, if it is situated in more than one county, within one of those counties but not to exceed 60 miles from the physical location of the common-interest community; and
   (b) Copies of the budgets will be provided upon request.

3. Within 60 days after adoption of any proposed budget for the common-interest community, the executive board shall provide a summary of the proposed budget to each unit’s owner and shall set a date for a meeting of the units’ owners to consider ratification of the proposed budget not less than 14 days or more than 30 days after the mailing of the summaries. Unless at that meeting a majority of all units’ owners, or any larger vote specified in the declaration, reject the proposed budget, the proposed budget is ratified, whether or not a quorum is present. If the proposed budget is rejected, the periodic budget last ratified by the units’ owners must be continued until such time as the units’ owners ratify a subsequent budget proposed by the executive board.

Conference Amendment No. CA35.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions relating to crimes. (BDR 15-994)
AN ACT relating to crimes; revising provisions relating to the crime of stalking; revising provisions relating to the Nevada Clean Indoor Air Act; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Existing law prohibits stalking and authorizes the issuance of a temporary or extended order restricting certain conduct related to the crime of stalking, aggravated stalking or harassment. (NRS 200.575, 200.591)

Section 1 of this bill includes within the definition of the crime of stalking a course of conduct which would cause a reasonable person to feel fearful for the immediate safety of a member of the person’s family or household and which actually causes a victim to feel such fear.

Sections 1, 3 and 4 of this bill add text messaging to the existing crime of stalking with the use of a communication device, which is punishable as a category C felony.

The Nevada Clean Indoor Air Act, which is currently codified as NRS 202.2483, was proposed by an initiative petition and approved by the voters at the 2006 General Election and therefore is not subject to legislative amendment or repeal until after December 8, 2009. The Act generally prohibits the smoking of tobacco in certain locations, such as within indoor places of employment, within school buildings and on school property.

Section 1.5 of this bill revises the provisions of the Act by authorizing the smoking of tobacco in certain convention facilities during certain meetings and trade shows.

3. Legislative Counsel's Digest:

Existing law sets forth the acts which constitute the practice of dentistry and a list of related acts which may be performed by persons not licensed by the Board of Dental Examiners of Nevada. (NRS 631.215) Section 5 of this bill revises that list to provide that a person may provide certain goods or services to a dental practice, office or clinic owned or operated by a licensed dentist or certain entities, with certain limitations.

Section 2 of this bill provides that a person or entity is not precluded by the provisions of chapter 631 of NRS from providing certain goods or services to a dental practice, office or clinic.

Section 3 of this bill provides that the contracting for, provision of and payment for certain goods or services to a dental practice, office or clinic under certain circumstances do not constitute violations of law or cause for disciplinary action under chapter 631 of NRS.

Section 3.5 of this bill requires a person who provides management services to a dental practice, office or clinic to register certain information with the Board.
Sections 4.5 and 6 of this bill provide for the revocation of the state business license of a person who manages the business of a dental practice, office or clinic if the person commits certain prohibited acts.

Section 4.7 of this bill revises the powers of the Board as they relate to the appointment of attorneys to authorize, but not require, the Attorney General, in his sole discretion, to serve as legal counsel for the Board at any time and in any and all matters.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

2. It is not a violation of NRS 631.346 for a dentist or a professional entity organized by a dentist pursuant to the provisions of chapter 89 of NRS to contract with a person described in and operating in accordance with the conditions set forth in paragraph (f) of subsection 2 of NRS 631.215.

request for such revocation to the Secretary of Taxation.

2. Conference Amendment No. CA21.

AN ACT relating to professions; requiring a provider of health care to disclose the results of certain tests to a designated investigator or member of the State Board of Osteopathic Medicine; providing for the licensure of perfusionists; prohibiting a person from engaging in the practice of perfusion without a license issued by the Board of Medical Examiners; providing for the immediate suspension of a license to practice medicine upon the conviction of the holder of the license of certain violations; expanding the definitions of “practice of medicine” and “practice of osteopathic medicine” to include the performance of an autopsy; revising other provisions governing the issuance of a license to practice medicine by the Board of Medical Examiners; authorizing any person to file with the Board a complaint against a physician, perfusionist, physician assistant or practitioner of respiratory care under certain circumstances; revising provisions governing osteopathic medicine and psychologists; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

This bill makes extensive changes to existing law governing the practice of medicine and osteopathic medicine. This bill also provides for the licensing and regulation of perfusionists by the Board of Medical Examiners. A perfusionist is a medical professional who, under the order and supervision of a physician, performs various medical functions to ensure the safe management of a patient’s cardiovascular, circulatory or respiratory system or other organs during surgical and other medical procedures. Sections 1, 3-13, 15, 16, 19-21, 24, 29, 33, 34, 39, 45, 46, 50-52, 55, 59-65, 70 and 79-85 of this bill amend various provisions of NRS to ensure that perfusionists are licensed and regulated by the Board of Medical Examiners in approximately the same manner as physicians, physician assistants and practitioners of respiratory care. (NRS 629.031, 630.003, 630.005, 630.045, 630.047, 630.120, 630.137, 630.167, 630.197, 630.268, 630.307, 630.309, 630.326, 630.329, 630.336, 630.346, 630.358, 630.366, 630.388, 630.390, 630.400, 630A.090, 632.472, 633.171, 652.210, 200.471, 200.5093, 200.50935, 372.7285, 374.731, 432B.220)

This bill also makes various changes relating to the Board of Medical Examiners and the practice of medicine. Section 14 of this bill adds a new section to chapter 630 of NRS that provides for the immediate suspension of a license issued by the Board upon the conviction of the licensee of a felony for a violation of a federal or state law or regulation relating to his practice. Section 17 of this bill expands the definition of “practice of medicine” to include the performance of an autopsy. (NRS 630.020) Section 18 of this bill deletes existing provisions of law that authorize the Board to revoke a license only in accordance with certain provisions. (NRS 630.045) Section 22 of this bill changes the fiscal year for the Board to commence on January 1 and end on December 31. (NRS 630.123) Section 25 of this bill authorizes the Executive Director of the Board to sign subpoenas issued in connection with hearings and investigations conducted by the Board. (NRS 630.140) Sections 26-28, 30-32 and 35 of this bill make various changes concerning the requirements for the issuance of licenses by the Board, including the information required to be submitted for a license, the submission of the fingerprints of the applicant and the appeal of a denial of an application. (NRS 630.160, 630.1605, 630.167, 630.170, 630.173, 630.195, 630.200) Sections 13.5 and 36-38 of this bill revise certain categories of licenses issued by the Board, including the issuance of a special volunteer medical license to a physician who participates in disaster relief operations and the issuance of an authorized facility license. (NRS 630.258, 630.261, 630.262) Section 40 of this bill requires a person who wishes to practice respiratory care to complete an educational program for respiratory care approved by the Commission on Accreditation of Allied Health Education Programs or the Committee on Accreditation for Respiratory Care. (NRS 630.277) Sections
Sections 41-45, 47-49, 53, 54, 57 and 58 of this bill make numerous changes concerning the investigation of complaints against licensees, the grounds for the imposition of disciplinary action and the procedures to be followed in disciplinary proceedings. (NRS 630.299, 630.306, 630.3062, 630.307, 630.311, 630.318, 630.326, 630.339, 630.342, 630.352, 630.356)

Sections 66-78 of this bill make similar changes relating to the State Board of Osteopathic Medicine and the practice of osteopathy. Section 66.1 includes the performance of an autopsy within the definition of the “practice of osteopathic medicine.” Sections 66.3, 66.5 and 66.7 authorize the issuance of certain categories of licenses by the Board, including a special volunteer license to practice osteopathic medicine to an osteopathic physician who participates in disaster relief operations and an authorized facility license. Section 67 adds a new section to chapter 633 of NRS which authorizes the Board or an investigative committee of the Board to issue to a person who violates or is violating the provisions of that chapter a letter of warning, a letter of concern or a nonpunitive admonishment. Section 68 also adds a new section to that chapter which establishes the standard of proof in disciplinary proceedings that are conducted pursuant to that chapter. Sections 69-78 make various changes concerning unprofessional conduct, the requirements for licensure to practice osteopathic medicine, examinations, the grounds for disciplinary action and the imposition of penalties after a disciplinary proceeding. (NRS 633.131, 633.171, 633.322, 633.331, 633.411, 633.511, 633.561, 633.625, 633.651, 633.691)

Section 78.1 of this bill defines “national examination” to mean the Examination for Professional Practice in Psychology in the form administered by the Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards and approved for use in this State by the Board of Psychological Examiners.

Section 78.3 of this bill revises the requirements for an application for a license to practice psychology in this State to add the submission of a complete set of fingerprints and written permission authorizing the Board of Psychological Examiners to forward the fingerprints to the Central Repository for Nevada Records of Criminal History for submission to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for its report or verification that the set of fingerprints was directly forwarded to the Central Repository by the entity taking the prints.

Existing law provides that the Board of Psychological Examiners may require an applicant for a license to pass an oral examination in whatever applied or theoretical fields it deems appropriate, in addition to a written examination. Section 78.4 of this bill eliminates: (1) the requirement that the additional examination be conducted orally; (2) the provisions relating to the frequency, time, location and supervision of the examination; (3) the requirement that the Board supply each applicant with a copy of the results of his written examination provided to the Board by the Association; and (4) the right of the applicant to request that the Board review his examination if he fails the examination.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Conference Amendment No. CA31.

SUMMARY—Revises provisions governing claims for compensation under industrial insurance. (BDR 53-423)

AN ACT relating to industrial insurance; revising provisions relating to the duty of an insurer to accept or deny a claim for compensation; revising provisions relating to the selection of a physician or chiropractor by an injured employee; revising provisions relating to the denial of compensation due to discharge from employment for misconduct; revising provisions relating to the closure of a claim; repealing provisions requiring the reduction of compensation by the amount of federal disability insurance benefits received by an injured employee; establishing provisions concerning a claim for a catastrophic injury; establishing provisions for the administering of such claims; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Under existing law, an insurer is required to accept or deny a claim for compensation within 30 days after the insurer has been notified of an industrial accident. (NRS 616C.065) Section 2 of this bill provides that if an insurer is ordered by the Administrator of the Division of Industrial Relations of the Department of Business and Industry, a hearing or appeals officer, a district court or the Supreme Court of Nevada to make a new determination relating to a claim for compensation, such a determination must be made within 30 days after the order.

Existing law provides that an injured employee may choose an alternative treating physician or chiropractor after making his initial choice if the alternative choice is made within 90 days after the injury. (NRS 616C.090)

Section 3 of this bill clarifies existing law by providing that an injured employee may make the alternative choice without the insurer’s approval if the alternative choice is made within 90 days after the injury. Section 2 also provides that an injured employee may make a change in the treating physician or chiropractor at any time, subject to the insurer’s approval. Section 3 further requires an insurer to provide to an injured employee whose request for a change in the treating physician or chiropractor has been denied the specific reason for the denial.

Section 4 of this bill provides that the affidavit or declaration of a qualified laboratory director, chemist, or any other person meeting certain qualifications may be used to prove the existence of alcohol or controlled substances in an employee’s system in denying, reducing or suspending the payment of compensation for an injury. (NRS 616C.230)

Section 5 of this bill revises existing provisions governing the denial of compensation to injured employees who have been discharged for misconduct by providing that only compensation for temporary total disability may be denied. (NRS 616C.232)

Section 5.5 of this bill revises existing law by requiring an insurer to notify an injured employee whose claim will be closed whether an evaluation for a permanent partial disability has been scheduled or, if such an evaluation has not been scheduled, that the reason is because the insurer determined there is no possibility of a permanent impairment of any kind. (NRS 616C.235)

Section 9 of this bill repeals the provisions requiring a reduction in the compensation received by an employee for temporary disability, permanent partial disability or permanent total disability by the amount of federal disability insurance benefits received by the employee. (NRS 616C.430)

Section 12 of this bill requires the Administrator of the Division of Industrial Relations of the Department of Business and Industry to adopt regulations for the determination of injuries as catastrophic injuries. Section 15 of this bill requires an adjuster who administers a claim for a catastrophic injury to be competent and qualified. Section 15 also requires the Administrator to adopt regulations prescribing the qualifications for such an adjuster. Section 16 of this bill requires an insurer that accepts a claim for a catastrophic injury to develop a life care plan for the injured employee within 90 days after the date of the acceptance of the claim. Section 16 also requires the Administrator to adopt certain regulations concerning life care plans. Section 17 of this bill allows an insurer that has accepted a claim for a catastrophic injury to rescind or revise its determination that the injury is a catastrophic injury under certain circumstances.
THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. NRS 616C.050 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.050. — An insurer shall provide to each claimant:

(a) Upon written request, one copy of any medical information concerning his injury or illness;

(b) A statement which contains information concerning the claimant's right to:

(1) Receive the information and forms necessary to file a claim;

(2) Select a treating physician or chiropractor and an alternative treating physician or chiropractor in accordance with the provisions of NRS 616C.090;

(3) Request the appointment of the Nevada Attorney for Injured
Workers to represent him before the appeals officer;

(4) File a complaint with the Administrator;

(5) When applicable, receive compensation for:

(I) Permanent total disability;

(II) Temporary total disability;

(III) Permanent partial disability;

(IV) Temporary partial disability;

( V ) All medical costs related to his injury or disease;

(6) Receive services for rehabilitation if his injury prevents him from returning to gainful employment;

(7) Review by a hearing officer of any determination or rejection of a claim by the insurer within the time specified by statute; and

(8) Judicial review of any final decision within the time specified by statute.

2. The insurer's statement must include a copy of the form designed by the Administrator pursuant to subsection 7 of NRS 616C.090 that notifies injured employees of their right to select an alternative treating physician or chiropractor. The Administrator shall adopt regulations for the manner of compliance by an insurer with the other provisions of subsection 1. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 2. NRS 616C.065 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.065. — Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616C.136, within 30 days after the insurer has been notified of an industrial accident, every insurer shall:

(a) Accept a claim for compensation, notify the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant that the claim has been accepted and commence payment of the claim; or

(b) Deny the claim and notify the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant and the Administrator that the claim has been denied.
2.—If an insurer is ordered by the Administrator, a hearing officer, an appeals officer, a district court, or the Supreme Court of Nevada to make a new determination, including, without limitation, a new determination regarding the acceptance or denial of a claim for compensation, the insurer shall make the new determination within 30 days after the date on which the insurer has been ordered to do so.

3. Payments made by an insurer pursuant to this section are not an admission of liability for the claim or any portion of the claim.

4.—Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, if an insurer unreasonably delays or refuses to pay the claim within 30 days after the insurer has been notified of an industrial accident, the insurer shall pay upon order of the Administrator an additional amount equal to three times the amount specified in the order as refused or unreasonably delayed. This payment is for the benefit of the claimant and must be paid to him with the compensation assessed pursuant to chapters 616A to 617, inclusive, of NRS. The provisions of this section do not apply to the payment of a bill for accident benefits that is governed by the provisions of NRS 616C.136.

5. The insurer shall notify the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant that a claim has been accepted or denied pursuant to subsection 1 or 2 by:

(a) Mailing its written determination to the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant; and

(b) If the claim has been denied, in whole or in part, obtaining a certificate of mailing.

6. The failure of the insurer to obtain a certificate of mailing as required by paragraph (b) of subsection 5 shall be deemed to be a failure of the insurer to mail the written determination of the denial of a claim as required by this section.

7. Upon request, the insurer shall provide a copy of the certificate of mailing, if any, to the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant.

8. For the purposes of this section, the insurer shall mail the written determination to:

(a) The mailing address of the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant that is provided on the form prescribed by the Administrator for filing the claim; or

(b) Another mailing address if the claimant or the person acting on behalf of the claimant provides to the insurer written notice of another mailing address.

9. As used in this section, “certificate of mailing” means a receipt that provides evidence of the date on which the insurer presented its written determination to the United States Postal Service for mailing.

Sec. 3. NRS 616C.090 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.090 1. The Administrator shall establish a panel of physicians and chiropractors who have demonstrated special competence and interest in industrial health to treat injured employees under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS. Every employer whose insurer has not entered into a contract with an organization for managed care or with providers of health care services pursuant to NRS 616B.527 shall maintain a list of those physicians and chiropractors on the panel who are reasonably accessible to his employees.

2. An injured employee whose employer’s insurer has not entered into a contract with an organization for managed care or with providers of health care services pursuant to NRS 616B.527 may choose his treating physician or chiropractor from the panel of physicians and chiropractors. If the injured employee is not satisfied with the first physician or chiropractor he so chooses, he may make an alternative choice of physician or chiropractor from the panel if the choice is made within 90 days after his injury. The insurer shall notify the first physician or chiropractor in writing. The notice must be postmarked within 3 working days after the insurer receives knowledge of the change. The first physician or chiropractor must be reimbursed only for the services he rendered to the injured employee up to and including the date of notification. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, any further change is subject to the approval of the insurer, which must be granted or denied within 10 days after a written request for such a change is received from the injured employee. If no action is taken on the request within 10 days, the request shall be deemed granted. Any request for a change of physician or chiropractor must include the name of the new physician or chiropractor chosen by the injured employee. If the treating physician or chiropractor refers the injured employee to a specialist for treatment, the treating physician or chiropractor shall provide to the injured employee a list that includes the name of each physician or chiropractor with that specialization who is on the panel. After receiving the list, the injured employee shall, at the time the referral is made, select a physician or chiropractor from the list.

3. An injured employee whose employer’s insurer has entered into a contract with an organization for managed care or with providers of health care services pursuant to NRS 616B.527 must choose his treating physician or chiropractor pursuant to the terms of that contract. If the injured employee is not satisfied with the first physician or chiropractor he so chooses, he may make an alternative choice of physician or chiropractor pursuant to the terms of the contract without the approval of the insurer if the choice is made within 90 days after his injury. If the injured employee, after choosing his treating physician or chiropractor, moves to a county which is not served by the organization for managed care or providers of health care services named in the contract and the insurer determines that it is impractical for the injured employee to continue treatment with the physician or chiropractor, the injured employee must choose a treating physician or chiropractor who has agreed to the terms of that contract unless the insurer authorizes the injured employee to choose another physician or chiropractor. If the treating
If the injured employee refers the injured employee to a specialist for treatment, the treating physician or chiropractor shall provide to the injured employee a list that includes the name of each physician or chiropractor with that specialization who is available pursuant to the terms of the contract with the organization for managed care or with providers of health care services pursuant to NRS 616B.527, as appropriate. After receiving the list, the injured employee shall, at the time the referral is made, select a physician or chiropractor from the list. If the employee fails to select a physician or chiropractor, the insurer may select a physician or chiropractor with that specialization. If a physician or chiropractor with that specialization is not available pursuant to the terms of the contract, the organization for managed care or the provider of health care services may select a physician or chiropractor with that specialization.

4. If the injured employee is not satisfied with the physician or chiropractor selected by himself or by the insurer, the organization for managed care or the provider of health care services pursuant to subsection 3, the injured employee may make an alternative choice of physician or chiropractor pursuant to the terms of the contract. A change in the treating physician or chiropractor may be made at any time but is subject to the approval of the insurer, which must be granted or denied within 10 days after a written request for such a change is received from the injured employee. If no action is taken on the request within 10 days, the request shall be deemed granted. Any request for a change of physician or chiropractor must include the name of the new physician or chiropractor chosen by the injured employee. If the insurer denies a request for a change in the treating physician or chiropractor under this subsection, the insurer must include in a written notice of denial to the injured employee the specific reason for the denial of the request.

5. Except when emergency medical care is required and except as otherwise provided in NRS 616C.055, the insurer is not responsible for any charges for medical treatment or other accident benefits furnished or ordered by any physician, chiropractor or other person selected by the injured employee in disregard of the provisions of this section or for any compensation for any aggravation of the injured employee’s injury attributable to improper treatment by such physician, chiropractor or other person.

6. The Administrator may order necessary changes in a panel of physicians and chiropractors and shall suspend or remove any physician or chiropractor from a panel for good cause shown.

7. An injured employee may receive treatment by more than one physician or chiropractor if the insurer provides written authorization for such treatment.

8. The Administrator shall design a form that notifies injured employees of their right pursuant to subsections 2, 3, and 4 to select an alternative treating physician or chiropractor and make the form available to
Sec. 4. NRS 616C.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.230—1. Compensation is not payable pursuant to the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, or chapter 617 of NRS for an injury:
(a) Caused by the employee's willful intention to injure himself.
(b) Caused by the employee's willful intention to injure another.
(c) Proximately caused by the employee's intoxication. If the employee was intoxicated at the time of his injury, intoxication must be presumed to be a proximate cause unless rebutted by evidence to the contrary.
(d) Proximately caused by the employee's use of a controlled substance. If the employee had any amount of a controlled substance in his system at the time of his injury for which the employee did not have a current and lawful prescription issued in his name or that he was not using in accordance with the provisions of chapter 453A of NRS, the controlled substance must be presumed to be a proximate cause unless rebutted by evidence to the contrary.

2. For the purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) of subsection 1:
(a) The affidavit or declaration of an expert or other person described in NRS 50.310, 50.315 or 50.320 is admissible to prove the existence of any alcohol or the existence, quantity or identity of a controlled substance in an employee's system. If the affidavit or declaration is to be so used, it must be submitted in the manner prescribed in NRS 616C.355.
(b) When an examination requested or ordered includes testing for the use of alcohol or a controlled substance, the laboratory that conducts the testing must be licensed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 652 of NRS.

3. No compensation is payable for the death, disability or treatment of an employee if his death is caused by, or insofar as his disability is aggravated, caused or continued by, an unreasonable refusal or neglect to submit to or to follow any competent and reasonable surgical treatment or medical aid.

4. If any employee persists in an insanitary or injurious practice that imperils or retards his recovery, or refuses to submit to such medical or surgical treatment as is necessary to promote his recovery, his compensation may be reduced or suspended.

5. An injured employee's compensation, other than accident benefits, must be suspended if:
(a) A physician or chiropractor determines that the employee is unable to undergo treatment, testing or examination for the industrial injury solely because of a condition or injury that did not arise out of and in the course of his employment; and
(b) It is within the ability of the employee to correct the nonindustrial condition or injury.

The compensation must be suspended until the injured employee is able to resume treatment, testing or examination for the industrial injury. The insurer may elect to pay for the treatment of the nonindustrial condition or injury.}

(Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 5. NRS 616C.232 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.232—1. If an injured employee is discharged from his employment as a result of misconduct, an insurer may deny compensation for temporary total disability to the injured employee because of that discharge for misconduct only if the insurer proves by a preponderance of the evidence that:

(a) The injured employee was discharged from his employment solely for his misconduct and not for any reason relating to his claim for compensation, and

(b) It is the injured employee's discharge from his employment for misconduct, and not his injury, that is the sole cause for the injured employee's inability to return to work with the preinjury employer.

2. An insurer waives its rights under subsection 1 if the insurer does not make a determination to deny or suspend compensation to the injured employee within 70 days after the date on which the insurer learns that the injured employee has been discharged for misconduct.

3. An insurer may not deny any compensation pursuant to this section except for compensation for temporary total disability pursuant to subsection 1. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 5.5. NRS 616C.235 is hereby amended to read as follows:

616C.235—1. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 2, 3 and 4:

(a) When the insurer determines that a claim should be closed before all benefits to which the claimant may be entitled have been paid, the insurer shall send a written notice of its intention to close the claim to the claimant by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the claimant and, if the insurer has been notified that the claimant is represented by an attorney, to the attorney for the claimant by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the attorney. The notice must include, on a separate page, a statement describing the effects of closing a claim pursuant to this section and a statement that if the claimant does not agree with the determination, he has a right to request a resolution of the dispute pursuant to NRS 616C.305 and 616C.315 to 616C.385, inclusive, including, without limitation, a statement which prominently displays the limit on the time that the claimant has to request a resolution of the dispute as set forth in NRS 616C.315. A suitable form for requesting a resolution of the dispute must be enclosed with the notice. The closure of a claim pursuant to this subsection is not effective unless notice is given as required by this subsection.

(b) If the insurer does not receive a request for the resolution of the dispute, it may close the claim.

(c) Notwithstanding the provisions of NRS 233B.125, if a hearing is conducted to resolve the dispute, the decision of the hearing officer may be served by first-class mail.
2. If, during the first 12 months after a claim is opened, the medical benefits required to be paid for a claim are less than $300, the insurer may close the claim at any time after he sends, by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the claimant, written notice that includes a statement which prominently displays that:
   (a) The claim is being closed pursuant to this subsection;
   (b) The injured employee may appeal the closure of the claim pursuant to the provisions of NRS 616C.295 and 616C.315 to 616C.385, inclusive; and
   (c) If the injured employee does not appeal the closure of the claim or appeals the closure of the claim but is not successful, the claim cannot be reopened.

3. In addition to the notice described in subsection 2, an insurer shall send to each claimant who receives less than $300 in medical benefits within 6 months after the claim is opened a written notice that explains the circumstances under which a claim may be closed pursuant to subsection 2. The written notice provided pursuant to this subsection does not create any right to appeal the contents of that notice. The written notice must be:
   (a) Sent by first-class mail addressed to the last known address of the claimant; and
   (b) A document that is separate from any other document or form that is used by the insurer.

4. The closure of a claim pursuant to subsection 2 is not effective unless notice is given as required by subsections 2 and 3.

5. In addition to the requirements of this section, an insurer shall include in the written notice described in subsection 2:
   (a) If an evaluation for a permanent partial disability has been scheduled pursuant to NRS 616C.490, a statement to that effect; or
   (b) If an evaluation for a permanent partial disability will not be scheduled pursuant to NRS 616C.490, a statement explaining that the reason is because the insurer has determined there is no possibility of a permanent impairment of any kind.

Sec. 6. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 7. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 8. NRS 616C.475 is hereby amended to read as follows:
616C.475. 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, NRS 616C.175 and 616C.300, every employee in the employ of an employer, within the provisions of chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, who is injured by accident arising out of and in the course of employment, or his dependents, is entitled to receive for the period of temporary total disability, 66 2/3 percent of the average monthly wage.

2. Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616B.028 and 616B.029, an injured employee or his dependents are not entitled to accrue or be paid any benefits for a temporary total disability during the time the injured employee is incarcerated. The injured employee or his dependents are entitled to receive such benefits when the injured employee is released from incarceration if he is certified as temporarily totally disabled by a physician or chiropractor.

3. If a claim for the period of temporary total disability is allowed, the first payment pursuant to this section must be issued by the insurer within 14 working days after receipt of the initial certification of disability and regularly thereafter.

4. Any increase in compensation and benefits affected by the amendment of subsection 1 is not retroactive.

5. Payments for a temporary total disability must cease when:
   (a) A physician or chiropractor determines that the employee is physically capable of any gainful employment for which the employee is suited, after giving consideration to the employee’s education, training and experience;
   (b) The employer offers the employee light-duty employment or employment that is modified according to the limitations or restrictions imposed by a physician or chiropractor pursuant to subsection 7; or
   (c) Except as otherwise provided in NRS 616B.028 and 616B.029, the employee is incarcerated.

6. Each insurer may, with each check that it issues to an injured employee for a temporary total disability, include a form approved by the Division for the injured employee to request continued compensation for the temporary total disability.

7. A certification of disability issued by a physician or chiropractor must:
   (a) Include the period of disability and a description of any physical limitations or restrictions imposed upon the work of the employee;
   (b) Specify whether the limitations or restrictions are permanent or temporary; and
   (c) Be signed by the treating physician or chiropractor authorized pursuant to NRS 616B.527 or appropriately chosen pursuant to subsection 3 or 4 of NRS 616C.090.

8. If the certification of disability specifies that the physical limitations or restrictions are temporary, the employer of the employee at the time of his accident may offer temporary, light-duty employment to the employee. If the employer makes such an offer, the employer shall confirm the offer in writing within 10 days after making the offer. The making, acceptance or rejection of an offer of temporary, light-duty employment pursuant to this subsection does not affect the eligibility of the employee to receive vocational rehabilitation services, including compensation, and does not exempt the employer from complying with NRS 616C.545 to 616C.575, inclusive, and 616C.590 or the regulations adopted by the Division governing vocational rehabilitation services. Any offer of temporary, light-duty employment made by the employer must specify a position that:
   (a) Is substantially similar to the employee’s position at the time of his injury in relation to the location of the employment and the hours he is required to work;
   (b) Provides a gross wage that is
(1) If the position is in the same classification of employment, equal to the gross wage the employee was earning at the time of his injury; or
(2) If the position is not in the same classification of employment, substantially similar to the gross wage the employee was earning at the time of his injury; and
(c) Has the same employment benefits as the position of the employee at the time of his injury.

Sec. 9. NRS 616C.430 is hereby repealed.

Sec. 10. Chapter 616A of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 11 and 12 of this act.

2. The total loss of hearing in one or both ears;
3. The loss by separation of any arm or leg;

   (c) The face;

or
8. Any other category of injury deemed to be catastrophic as determined by the Administrator.

Sec. 12. The Administrator shall adopt regulations for the determination of categories of injury other than those described in section 11 of this act, to be deemed catastrophic injuries.

Sec. 13. NRS 616A.025 is hereby amended to read as follows:
616A.025 As used in chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, unless the context otherwise requires, the words and terms defined in NRS 616A.030 to 616A.360, inclusive, and section 11 of this act have the meanings ascribed to them in those sections.

2. A life care plan which is developed pursuant to subsection 1 must ensure the prompt, efficient and proper provision of medical services to the injured employee.
3. The Administrator shall adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this section, including, without limitation, regulations prescribing:
(a) The form and content of a life care plan; and
(b) The frequency and method of communication by which the insurer shall contact the injured employee, his family members or representative.

Sec. 17. An insurer that has accepted a claim for a catastrophic injury may thereafter rescind or revise its original determination that the injury is a catastrophic injury if:
1. Medical evidence supports the rescission or revision;
2. The injured employee is stable and ratable; or
3. Other circumstances warrant such a rescission or revision.

TEXT OF REPEALED SECTION
616C.430 — Reduction of compensation by amount of federal disability insurance benefits received by employee.
1. If an employee who is entitled to compensation under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS for temporary total disability, permanent partial disability or permanent total disability becomes entitled to federal disability insurance benefits under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. §§ 402 and 423, respectively, the employee’s compensation under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS must be reduced by the amount of the federal benefits being received by him.
2. This section must not be applied to reduce the employee’s compensation under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS to any greater extent than his federal benefits would have otherwise been reduced by the Social Security Administration under section 224 of the Social Security Act, as amended, 42 U.S.C. § 424a. After any reduction pursuant to this section, the combination of his state compensation and federal benefits must be at least as much as the greater of The benefits payable pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS, without the reduction; or
(b) The benefits payable under the Social Security Act, without any reduction.

3. After a reduced amount of compensation for an employee has been established pursuant to this section, no further reduction in his compensation may be made because he receives an increase in his benefits under the Social Security Act as the result of an adjustment based on an increase in the cost of living.

4. No compensation may be reduced pursuant to this section until the Social Security Administration has determined the amount of benefits payable to the employee under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act and he has begun to receive those benefits.

5. If an employee:
(a) Fails to report the amount of benefits which he is receiving under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act, within 30 days after he is requested in writing by the insurer to make that report; or
(b) Fails to provide the insurer with a written authorization for the Social Security Administration to release information on the employee’s average current earnings and the amount of benefits to which he is entitled, within 30 days after he is requested to provide that authorization, the insurer may reduce by 50 percent the compensation which the employee would otherwise receive pursuant to chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS. Any compensation which is withheld pursuant to this subsection must be paid to the employee when he has furnished the report or authorization as requested.

6. If the provisions of section 224 of the Social Security Act are amended:
(a) To allow an employee to receive more compensation under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS without any reduction in benefits payable under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act; or
(b) To lower the maximum sum of compensation payable under chapters 616A to 616D, inclusive, of NRS and benefits payable under section 202 or 223 of the Social Security Act, the reduction imposed by this section must be increased or decreased correspondingly.

7. No reduction in compensation may be made under this section for any period of entitlement which:
(a) Occurs before January 1, 1982,
(b) Occurs before the employee has been given a written notice by mail of the intended reduction;
or
(c) Includes any week after the week in which the employee becomes 62 years of age.

SENATE CHAMBER, Carson City, June 1, 2009

MOTIONS, RESOLUTIONS AND NOTICES

Senate Concurrent Resolution No. 39.
Assemblywoman Leslie moved the adoption of the resolution.
Remarks by Assemblymen Leslie and Hardy.

ASSEMBLYWOMAN LESLIE:
Thank you, Madam Speaker. We have had several bills this session that have touched on the cost of health care and the scarcity of health care resources. As the resources available to pay for health care decrease, the costs and the charges for that care continue to increase, and the growing discrepancy between the two has become unsustainable. Twenty years ago in Nevada, we had cost containment legislation passed, which required regulation of billed charges. That legislation reached its sunset several years ago, partly because of testimony that the escalation of billed charges does not matter because no one pays billed charges, but the reality is that many do. Between 2000 and 2007, the Consumer Price Index increased 22.2 percent while billed charges for hospital patients in Nevada escalated 120 percent, over five times the rate of inflation.

Billed charges are also a severe problem for those with insurance but who, by no fault of their own, end up in a noncontracted hospital or—something becoming increasingly common—patients go to a contracted hospital but are seen by a noncontracted doctor there. These charges are causing severe consequences for insured patients and for health care plans in Nevada and have distorted the health care market beyond what can be absorbed.

This resolution will allow us to study the problem, and we would look forward to hearing the recommendations of the interim Legislative Committee on Health Care next session. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN HARDY:
I likewise rise in support of S.C.R. 39. When I look at the uninsured, or the insured even, that do not get contracted services provided to them—the emergency patient who has an issue with going to a contracted hospital or physician, the insured patient who ends up with an out-of-network situation—and the adequacy of the contracted provider network, barriers that could exist between the provider and the payer, how to get the contractual agreement to match up, the differences between the commercial insurers and the self-funded plans as it relates to in-network or out-of-network emergency care, and the method which ensures all payers with self-funded plans would have some kind of requirement to participate in any proposed resolution, I think this is a good time to have that kind of study. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

Resolution adopted.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

ASSEMBLYMAN OCEGUERA:
Madam Speaker, Minority Leader Gansert, esteemed colleagues; 120 days ago we assembled in these chambers to begin, potentially, the most challenging legislative session ever seen in this state. We are in the middle of the worst economic crisis since the Great Depression. In fact, we have already met in a special session twice since the close of the last regular session—both times to make painful decisions in response to this financial crisis. We can only hope that things wouldn’t get worse and yet we feared the worse. But, now it is over.

We have reached that point of session where we talk about what we achieved in our time together. This is the time that we focus on the accomplishments of the session, rather than, sometimes, the convoluted methods by which we got here. Over the last few days I have thought about how to best describe this session, and to do that I had to draw upon my experience outside this building as a firefighter. In my line of work, we put out fires and we do that to save lives. For the last 120 days we have been dealing with an economic inferno. We had to put out that fire. It was not pretty and it was not easy, but we did so to save lives. Maybe that sounds a little dramatic to those of you who have watched us these last four months, with our Order of Business 15s and one-minute recesses that seemed to stretch a little bit longer than a minute—maybe it looked like we weren’t moving really fast to put out that fire—but we moved faster than the Senate. Legislative protocol, though sometimes frustrating to those who watch, gets the job done. And the people who get that job done might seem like unlikely firefighters. We are a citizen’s legislature, after all. So when we are not convened in Carson City, we are teachers, business owners, and employees, public servants, ranchers, attorneys, doctors, and retirees. The age difference between our youngest and our oldest member is 50 years, a half century. Our life experiences reflect the diversity of our membership. That diversity, I believe, is our strength. But no matter what our differences have been these 120 days—and yes, we have had some—we have represented the people of this state to the best of our ability. We worked together to put out the fire.

Often in the past we have known at sine die that one of our colleagues would not be returning to these chambers because of other career plans, perhaps, or a bid for a different political office. But this session, for the first time, we know definitely that ten members of this body will not be returning to the Assembly. Not because they have other political aspirations, although some may, and not because they have other professional or personal plans, although some may. Rather, we know they won’t be back because of voter approved term limits. These ten have been a huge part of my life for many years, both inside and outside these chambers. I would like to spend just a few moments remembering their contributions to this state.

Madam Speaker, with your permission, I would like to break from protocol for a bit to use the members’ proper names.

Assemblyman Mark Manendo. Mark was first elected in 1994. At that time, he was one of the youngest legislators serving the Assembly. I am sorry to tell you, Mark, but after 15 years, you are one of the old guys now. Even as a newly elected assemblyman, Mark was a staunch advocate for senior rights. He also worked to strengthen our DUI laws and protect the rights of manufactured home owners. Wherever his future plans take him, I know Mark will continue to be involved in the district he served well, for so many years.

Jerry Claborn. Look up Jerry, I’m talking about you. Bobo was first elected in 1998. Since 2005, Mr. Claborn capably chaired our Assembly Committee on Natural Resources, Agriculture, and Mining. He’s also been a strong voice for worker’s rights. And even when these days get long and tempers get short, Jerry Claborn can be counted on to be good humored and a tireless colleague and to be there when you need him. It is no wonder that Jerry’s campaign motto was, “Bringing Common Sense to Carson City.”

As a citizen’s legislature, we count among our number teachers, attorneys, business people and the like. And yes, we even have our own nuclear physicist. Harry Mortenson was first elected in 1996. During his dozen years of services, Mr. Mortenson has worked hard to improve the quality of life, not only in his own district but for the entire state. He kept a close eye on Yucca Mountain and on quality of life issues related to growth. He also chaired the committee on Constitutional Amendments which takes up some of the most important issues that affect Nevadans. Thank you, Harry.

Kathy McClain. Assemblywoman Kathy McClain was first elected in 1998 but she was no stranger to the legislative process. She was a lobbyist before she switched to our side of the table. Although Kathy was a strong advocate in either role, we are glad she came over to the People’s House. During her tenure here, Kathy improved conditions for seniors, veterans, women, and the disadvantaged and the disabled. She also chaired some difficult committees, including this session with Taxation. Thank you, Kathy.

Sitting next to her is her partner, Ellen Koivisto. Assemblywoman Koivisto was first elected in 1996. From the beginning, Ellen was one of the hardest working members of this caucus. She was always willing to do what was needed to be done. She did it without fanfare and without complaint. Most recently, Ellen served as the chair of the Elections, Procedures, and Ethics Committee. She has been a quiet but effective voice on women’s issues, the protection of seniors, and the improvement of health care in Nevada. Ellen’s hard work and pleasant demeanor will be greatly missed and we hope we will continue to see her involvement in the community.

Sheila Leslie. Sheila was first elected in 1998, but her record of advocacy for children, youth, and families goes back much further, no doubt to her own childhood. Sheila speaks and speaks strongly for the disadvantaged and disabled. She doesn’t shy away from her causes, no matter how difficult those causes may be. This Assembly, this Legislature, and indeed, this state, is losing a vital member of the People’s House. But we know wherever Sheila lands after this, whether it is elected or an appointed office or some other role in community service, she will continue to fight for the most vulnerable in our state. I appreciate our relationship, Sheila.

Moose was first elected in 1984. Assemblyman Arberry, known to us as “Moose,” is the longest currently serving member of this house. In 1993, Moose went through trial by fire when he was selected to chair the Assembly Committee on Ways and Means during the same session in which Nevada implemented a sweeping reorganization of state government. Ever since then, Moose Arberry has held the money reins in the Assembly. He has done so with a good temper and a casual but firm hand. I do not know if any of us could ever think of Assemblyman Denis as anyone other than “Mr. Mo” or Assemblyman Hardy as “Mr. Doc” because of the way Moose talks to you. Moose’s institutional memory will be sorely missed but we are grateful he had his experienced gavel with one last difficult budget. Thank you, Moose.
Bernie Anderson. My first session was in 2001. That year my morning committee was the Assembly Committee on Judiciary, chaired then and now by Bernie Anderson. Some of you may remember that when Bernie was a freshman on Assembly Judiciary, he was known as “Bubba.” By the time I met the venerable chair of Judiciary, his Bubba days were long past. I am pretty sure if I had said “Bubba” I would have been sent to the Woodshed. Our colleague has been a valued and trusted member of the leadership team for many years, capably handling the thorny issues of crime and punishment. Early on it became his mission not just to be tough on crime, but to address its root causes. Bernie has long championed drug courts and similar measures to reduce recidivism. Nevada is better for his work. Assembly Judiciary in this house will not be the same without him. Thank you, Bernie.

Of the ten Assembly members term-limited out this session, nine are Democrats. I am not saying it’s a plot or anything but you have to wonder. The lone Republican we are losing, though, is enough. He is one of the most respected, most beloved members of this body. John Carpenter was first elected in 1986. John is a cowboy and gentleman. Whenever the debate gets a little heated, Mr. Carpenter stands there and reminds us of our manners. That was never more evident than last week when he cast a courageous vote on one of the most difficult days of this entire session. So, when the Suzy-Q sails away this session, we intend to keep her able captain in the reserves because his experience, his chivalry, and his good sense have always steered us well. Thank you, Mr. Carpenter.

Two and a half years ago, Barbara Buckley became the first woman Speaker in the Nevada Assembly. I said then and I still believe that Barbara will be remembered less for that historic distinction than what she has accomplished as Speaker and throughout her career in the Assembly. Simply put, Barbara is a remarkable woman. She is an extraordinary leader. And is always, always an outstanding advocate for those who most need a voice. In her 15 years in the Assembly, Barbara has tackled such issues as affordable housing, medical malpractice, prescription drugs for seniors, deceptive loans and predatory financial practices and all day kindergarten. There are many more issues I could highlight because each session Barbara Buckley has distinguished herself as one of the most effective lawmakers this chamber has ever seen. This session presented her with her greatest challenge but there is no one who could have led us better in these terrible economic times. There is no one who could have done a better job at helping put out the fire, to save lives and to start rebuilding. Barbara, you have been a friend and a colleague and a mentor. And I know you are not yet done protecting Nevadans and creating history when you do so. I look forward to seeing what your future brings.

Madam Speaker, my fellow colleagues, I have spent a great deal of time, today, remembering the records of those who are serving their last term in this house. But I would like to acknowledge the stellar efforts of those others who fought the fire alongside us, talented and dedicated legislators like Debbie Smith, Marcus Conklin, Marilyn Kirkpatrick, William Horne, Kelvin Atkinson, and Bonnie Parnell. Under the leadership of these hardworking legislators, we successfully tackled difficult issues involving education, energy, health care, public safety, and transportation.

Minority Leader Gansert and your leadership team, even though we have had differences those differences have never been personal. It has always been about doing what we believe is best for Nevada. Together, I think we have done that.

There is no question that we have a tremendous task still ahead of us, rebuilding our house after the fire we have been through. I know we have the right people in place to do that, the right team to carry on the legacy of the colleagues we say goodbye to today. In the great tradition of Nevada’s first days, we are still a citizen’s Legislature. Many of you have made tremendous personal and professional sacrifices to be here and I am proud to serve with all of you. Thank you for that privilege.

Thank you, Madam Speaker, and thank you to the Majority Leader for all his words and reminders of the great work of this body. This is the end of session. This is a time to thank people. I know we have thanked many people before but it is time to do it again. I want to thank Susan and her Front Desk staff. I want to thank our legal counsel, Brenda Erdoes. Eileen O’Grady and Risa Lang, we could not do it without you. It is amazing the number of amendments they turned out. I think we were over a thousand the last time I looked up there. I would like to thank our fiscal staff, Mark Stevens, Gary Ghiggeri, Steve Abba, Tracy Raxter, and Russell Guindon. I would like to thank the Legislative Police for being here because every time we are here, they are here. All of you are here and then you work beyond those hours. I so appreciate all of your work. I also appreciate the audio and video staff and Information Technology Services. We are glad they fixed the Assistant Majority Leaders’ microphone. Or maybe they didn’t fix his microphone. So, thank you so much.

This is the People’s House. As was mentioned earlier, we are a diverse group, with different ways of life and different ages. It is astounding that there is a 50-year difference between the youngest and the oldest. I think, together, we are able to debate topics and work together for solutions. I know when I first ran for office I did a lot of walking, as all of us did, and that is something that is special in Nevada. You actually know your constituents. The Assemblymen from Clark County and I talked about that. How we go out and walk on the weekends, even during session. I know every now and then that I used to hit a door that would be someone who wasn’t from Nevada, mainly California. They could not believe that I was there. They could not believe they could meet their legislator or maybe meet some of the Constitutional officers. I know each of you know your constituents and I know that is what makes this house, the People’s House, special. You all work so hard. You know your constituents and you are here to represent them.

I also appreciate all the work that we do in committee. Something else about Nevada, when people ask, “How do you work with these people? These people who are so different than you are?” It is because we get to know each other. Day in and day out, we end up having strong debates but, also, a lot of laughs. I think that is probably unique to this state, because we are a small state. So I appreciate that we have worked together, that we listen to each other. We strive for solutions and sometimes we don’t always find them. But you know what? As the Majority Leader said, that is okay. Sometimes we just disagree and we make sure it is not personal. We try to keep our discussions civil and we accomplished that to a very strong end here in Nevada.

I want to thank everyone here. I appreciate leadership and everyone else. We have been talking about ten people. What about the other 31? I am just kidding. Thank you all for your service and thank you to our staff who work day in and day out, on weekends, and beyond the hours that we work. It is hard to imagine that, but they do. So, have a good break. That is why we have these sessions every other year so we can recover. Thank you.

ASSEMBLYMAN STEWART:

Thank you, Madam Speaker. While I appreciate the great service of the ten people who are leaving us and the committee chairmen who have been mentioned, but as the oldest sophomore, I would like to call your attention to the sophomore class. We started off with ten members: five Republicans and five Democrats. As freshmen, as I mentioned last year, we won some, and we lost some, and we lost some, and we lost some. This year we have done much better. However, we have lost two of our members: Assemblyman Beers and Assemblywoman Womack. So, now we are down to four Democrats and four Republicans.

We have achieved some great things this session. We have had three members who have vied for the title of “Mr. No.” But, I am sad to report, they were unsuccessful. Our returning Assemblyman from District 32, according to my calculations, has outdone all three of them. We had some members who have achieved greater things outside the Assembly than inside the Assembly, like having twins. We have had another one who achieved a great deal in taking care of those with autism. We have had an Assemblyman who could not quite figure out which was the most important bill. I want to point out, though, that his really most important bill was the fish, toe-nibbling bill. So, please let us not forget that.

Have I left anyone out? I do not think so. I am sad to say we are going to lose two of our members, who are running for other offices. I would like to announce at this time that I am not one of those. Finally, we had one member of sophomore class who had a most distinguished accomplishment this time, which was to be called, “the Bug Man.” We will not mention who that is. So, on behalf of the sophomore class, I would hope you would all join me in giving us a sitting ovation for the sophomore class. Thank you very much.

Madam Speaker:

The Conference Committee concerning Assembly Bill No. 385, consisting of the undersigned members, has met and reports that:

- It has agreed to recommend that Amendment No. 975 of the Senate be concurred in.
- It has agreed to recommend that the bill be further amended as set forth in Conference Amendment No. 39, which is attached to and hereby made a part of this report.

Conference Amendment No. CA39.

AN ACT relating to prisons; requiring the Board of State Prison Commissioners to adopt regulations pertaining to a facility or institution operated by a private organization; requiring the monitoring of certain private facilities and institutions; providing for the development of minimum staffing levels for institutions and facilities of the Department of Corrections; providing that certain provisions relating to a prisoner confined in a facility or institution also apply to a prisoner confined in a private facility or institution operated by a private organization; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Existing law requires the Board of State Prison Commissioners to adopt regulations for carrying out the business of the Board and of the Department of Corrections. (NRS 209.111) Section 1.4 of this bill requires the Board to adopt additional regulations establishing the maximum number of prisoners that may be incarcerated in a private facility or institution. Those regulations must be based upon the standards adopted by the American Correctional Association.

Section 1.5 of this bill requires the Department to monitor private facilities or institutions which house prisoners incarcerated pursuant to the authority of another state to ensure that the care and custody of the prisoners comply with the Nevada Constitution and the United States Constitution. Section 1.6 of this bill provides that the provisions of this bill which relate to private facilities or institutions do not apply with respect to prisoners incarcerated in a private facility or institution pursuant to a contract with the Federal Government.

Section 1.67 of this bill revises the duties of the Director of the Department by requiring the Director to consult with representatives of the employees of the Department to develop a minimum staffing level which is necessary to ensure the safety of the public, the employees of the Department and the prisoners and which is within the limits of legislative appropriation.

Existing law makes it a crime for: (1) a prisoner to escape from prison or to manufacture or possess certain items used in an escape; (2) a person to aid a prisoner in escaping from prison; (3) a person who has custody of a prisoner to allow the prisoner to escape; and (4) a person to conceal an escaped prisoner. (NRS 212.080, 212.090, 212.093, 212.100-212.130) Existing law also provides certain procedures for issuing a warrant for the arrest of an escaped prisoner and the manner in which expenses for recapturing the prisoner must be paid. (NRS 212.030-212.080) Further, existing law makes it a crime to: (1) provide certain items to a prisoner, including certain weapons, an intoxicant or a controlled substance and certain communications devices; or (2) engage in certain behavior concerning a prisoner, such as engaging in sexual conduct or certain unlawful acts relating to human excrement or bodily fluid. (NRS 212.160-212.189) Section 1.7 of this bill provides that those provisions also apply to a prisoner incarcerated in a private prison operated by a private organization as well as to certain other persons. Section 1.7 also provides that the private organization which operates a private facility or institution must: (1) reimburse the State for expenses incurred by the State in recapturing a prisoner who escapes from the private facility or institution; and (2) provide training to its employees that is equivalent to the training provided to a correctional officer in this State.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

2. A private facility or institution which is monitored by the Department pursuant to subsection 1 shall reimburse the Department for the costs of such monitoring. The Department shall determine the cost of the monitoring required by subsection 1 on a per-prisoner basis.

Sec. 1.6. [The provisions of sections 1.4, 1.5 and 1.7 of this act do not apply with respect to prisoners incarcerated in a private facility or institution pursuant to a contract with the Federal Government or an agency of the Federal Government.] (Deleted by amendment.)

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Sections 1-84 and 84.5 of this bill implement the federal Secure and Fair Enforcement for Mortgage Licensing Act of 2008. Sections 1.5-18, 21, 23, 24, 50.1-50.7 and 55-85 of this bill establish provisions for the licensing and registration with the nationwide mortgage licensing system and registry of residential mortgage loan originators, in compliance with federal law.
Section 55 of this bill also increases the administrative fine the Commissioner of Mortgage Lending may impose upon an applicant for or a holder of a license as a mortgage broker or mortgage agent for certain violations from $10,000 to $25,000 for each violation. (NRS 645B.670)

Section 85.5 of this bill repeals provisions for the licensing of certain persons on behalf of a corporation or limited-liability company as mortgage agents. (NRS 645B.455)

Section 84.1 of this bill provides that a rental agreement between a landlord and a tenant for the rental or lease of certain lots in a manufactured home park in this State may only be terminated on one or more of the grounds listed in existing law, regardless of the fact that a notice of termination may have been served upon the tenant.

Section 84.3 of this bill increases from 2 to 4 years the term of office for a person serving on the board of directors or trustees of a mobile home park owned or leased by a nonprofit organization. Section 85.3 of this bill provides for the staggering of such terms.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN ANDERSON:
I have been waiting for some time to say something to the body, and if I might have the opportunity to make it so, me being part of the angry ten that are leaving, reluctantly, some of them, possibly, not too reluctantly. For those of you who do not know, thinking I am the knowledgeable one about history, please let me assure you that it is not true. I read from the American Patriot's Almanac every morning, and thus remind myself of particular historic facts. Several weeks ago, over a month ago, in my readings I ran across a statement by Douglas MacArthur to a group of cadets at the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York. I thought that youth often need to be encouraged to do things and are inspired by words. I have always been inspired by words. In my heart, I have taken them and tried to make them my own, and I have been fortunate enough to use them every once in a while. But when I read this, I thought that even adults, particularly this courageous group of people I serve with, need to hear these words again.

Standing in the mess hall of the United States Military Academy at West Point, New York, Douglas MacArthur, who was being honored, told this to the cadets. And I want you to listen, if you would. It is a little bit long and I hope it doesn’t take too much of our time:
“Duty. Honor. Country. Those three hallowed words reverently dictate what you ought to be, what you can be, what you will be. They are your rallying points to build courage when courage seems to fail, to regain faith when there seems to be little cause for faith, to create hope when hope becomes forlorn. . . .

The unbelievers will say they are but words. . . . But these are some of the things they do. They build your basic character. They mold you for your future roles as the custodians of the nation’s defense. They make you strong enough to know when you are weak, and brave enough to face yourself when you are afraid.

They teach you to be proud and unbending in honest failure, but humble and gentle in success; not to substitute words for action; not to seek the path of comfort, but to face the stress and spur of difficulty and challenge; to learn to stand up in the storm, but to have compassion on those who fall; to master yourself before you seek to master others; to have a heart that is clean, a goal that is high; to learn to laugh, yet never forget how to weep; to reach into the future, yet never neglect the past; to be serious, yet never take yourself too seriously; to be modest so that you will remember the simplicity of true greatness, the open mind of true wisdom, the meekness of true strength.”

When I read those words several weeks ago, I thought that I would have this opportunity at the end, to say this to people who do not need to be reminded, because I see that kind of courage in all of you. Some would think that I am leaving and that it is going to be difficult. I have no doubt it will be great, though, because the people that I leave behind are people with that kind of courage, that kind of faith, that kind of duty, and a sense of state—the people that I have served with for these 20 years, and the people who are left to serve after me. Thank you for allowing me to be one of your members and for being the colleagues that I have had. Thank you, Madam Speaker.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

All good things have to come to an end, and you’ve noticed, the Suzy Q has been floating on the waters of the Assembly. I have given an end of the session speech that I wasn’t going to run 12 times, but tonight I think it is going to be the end. I will not be returning here. I want to give an idea of the memories that I am going to have of the nine people that I have served with.
When I came into the Assembly over 20-some years ago, I was the only Republican to be elected and come to the Assembly that year. So this year, I am the only Republican that is going to be put out to pasture. What I’m going to do here is that the Suzy Q is floating around in this tub of water, and we have all of our members that are still on the boat. I guess we’re going to have to abandon the boat tonight. If you can swim and make it to shore, you’ll still be able to do things. If, like me, you cannot swim, that may be the end of you. So I am going to share a few memories of the people I have served with here for many years. Then I’m going to cut the wire they are attached to, and they’re going into the drink.

The first person I want to share some memories with is my friend Jerry Claborn. Jerry is certainly a great guy, and I’m going to remember him because he is the one who enabled us to get predator control. Us cowboys tried to do it, but we were too close and people said we had too much conflict, but Jerry came along, and we were able to do that. So Jerry, thank you for saving our deer herd and our ranching industry. I think very highly of you. Thank you very much. Jerry, I hate to see you be the first one that goes into the drink, but you are a tough guy and here it goes [snip]. Jerry—he is floating like he always does.

The next person I want to talk a little bit about is the great nuclear physicist. He is a protector of state parks and old bones. He brought that bill to Natural Resources this session, so from now on, whenever you see an old bone, just go easy around it and remember that Harry may be watching you if you try to do any harm to that old bone. Harry, thank you very much. And I hate to put you into the drink, but today is the day to abandon the ship [snip]. Harry, you’re still floating—doing better than this fish here. It’s clear at the bottom of the water.

The next person is someone that I have come to admire and is really my friend. What I think about Bernie Anderson is that he is the guy that enabled every court in Nevada to have drug court. Bernie and I went down to Las Vegas and saw the drug court in action and decided that was the thing to do. So Bernie, I’ll always remember you for your short speeches and how we saved a lot of people from going to prison—and some of them actually got off of drugs. Bernie, you are the next guy to go into the drink [snip]. Boy, Bernie, you sunk. I think he is kind of coming up about halfway.

The next person I have fond memories of is my friend Moose. Moose always called me Big John—I don’t know why. Sometimes I’d have a couple of bills in his committee and need a little money, and Moose would always go by and say, “No money, Big John. No money, Big John.” But Moose kind of reminded me the other day, you know, about the first session I was here when Moose had the Martin Luther King, Jr. holiday bill. I took a heck of a lot of pressure not to support that bill, like Moose said. You know, it was a tough deal because some of those people out there in the brushes maybe sometimes look at things different than they should. It wasn’t easy for me to make up my mind. I think I told Moose I would vote for it, and then I had to go back and tell him, “Well, I guess I won’t vote for it, Moose.” In the end, I got to thinking that I didn’t want to be someone that they’ll say, “This guy was prejudiced.” I went to school in Ely, and there were all kinds of people there. I went to school with Greeks and Italians and blacks and whites, so I’d learned to love all those people that I went to school with. And I thought, “By golly, Moose is right. We need that holiday.” When it came down to the nitty gritty vote, I went with Moose, and I’ve always been proud of that. Thank you, Moose.

Moose, I don’t know whether you’re going to float or whether you’re going to sink. I’ve got to find you on this boat here. You are kind of a wily guy, Moose [snip]. You’re a good floater, Moose.

The next person I want to remember is Sheila Leslie. No matter what you may think of Sheila and the things she stands for, she stands tall for them. I’ve always appreciated her because I could go to her for things that really mattered in the State of Nevada in regard to children and health care and mental health court and things like that. I’ve always appreciated Sheila because I think she has always been my friend. I’ll have fond memories of you, Sheila. So we’ll see whether you’re going to sink or swim here [snip]. Huh—the darn Suzy Q ran clear over you! Anyway, I think you’re going to be able to rise to the top and swim away.

Kathy McClain is next. What I remember about Kathy McClain is veterans and old people. She brings those bills in. Are you the one who had a bill this year where you said that guys over 70 were old? Well, maybe you are right, but I hope not because I think you are only as old as you feel and as old as you act. Kathy, hopefully you and I will never grow old. It has been great to serve with you and we are going to see how you survive this great splash in the water [snip]. You are a real floater.

Ellen Koivisto, I remember, after your first or second session, you came up to me and said what you thought you really enjoyed here and that’s to be able to say you had made a lot of friends. Ellen, you have been my friend for a long, long time. Ellen is a champion of all those nurses out there. They love you. I have always enjoyed our time in the Legislature. So, it is time to see whether you seek or swim. The Suzy Q is just going all over the water here. Maybe she thinks Ellen doesn’t want to abandon ship but you have to [snip]. You are a great swimmer.

Then there is my friend Mark Manendo. You are the captain, man. Mark, you know, we have always had a great time. Mark and I have gotten along great. Mark, he is the guru of the .08 and .10 and point whatever you might want to call it when it comes to DUI. But, Mark and I have always had kind of a running battle about mobile home parks. I wouldn’t want to wish this on anyone except Mark and that is that he inherits a mobile home park and has to manage it according to NRS 118B. It has been great, me with Mark and all of my other friends here. We will see what is going to happen to you, Mark [snip]. You floated. So, you don’t have to get that mobile home park.

And now, hopefully, I didn’t miss anyone. Maybe Donna put more people on here. I don’t know. Who did I miss? Golly. Sheesh. I missed the most important person. I guess I am used to doing that. After 20 years, sometimes I have a hard time thinking.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks: I guess I don’t get snipped, then.

ASSEMBLYMAN CARPENTER:

About all I can say is that I am so proud to have been able to serve with the first lady Speaker in the history of the Nevada Legislature. Everyone has talked about how great you are and I just wanted to say that it has been a great joy to serve with you and I am probably the first guy that ever put the Speaker in the drink. So, here it goes [snip]. Whoaah. Wow. She stayed on. See? That shows how great our Speaker is. Try to throw her overboard and she won’t even go.

And then, for the guy who cannot swim and doesn’t want to be in the drink, this is it [snip]. I landed upside down.

Thank you, Madam Speaker. I hope that all of my friends will hold me in kind regard as they go on their journey out of here. It has been a great time and this year has been especially memorable, when all my family was here, all of the Girl Scouts, and the last few days of all the great things that have been said about me and the other people who have served with me. I just appreciate it and thank you all so very much.

The total amount of these disbursements, together with any other amounts allocated by.
The money disbursed to such a regional organization must be used to promote economic development in this State and not for administrative expenses.

The provisions of this subsection apply only to the applicable amount of tax paid by the employer for each calendar quarter that:

Assemblywoman McClain moved that the Assembly concur in the Senate amendment to Assembly Bill No. 317.

REMARKS FROM THE FLOOR

Assemblyman Oceguera requested that the following remarks be entered in the Journal.

Madam Speaker requested the privilege of the Chair for the purpose of making the following remarks:

I would like to give some closing remarks. I am hoping we will be beginning our sine die ceremony shortly.

Let me begin by expressing my appreciation for the opportunity you have given me to serve as Speaker for these last two sessions. This has clearly been one of the most rewarding experiences of my life. Over the past few days we have had retrospection and tributes which have been a great opportunity to share our memories of the people who have meant so much to us. There has also been much discussion about how difficult this session has been, how difficult times are right now, and how many challenges we still face. And while I think it is important to reflect on the past, I want to take a few moments tonight to look at the future.

I look at Nevada’s future with great hope and optimism. Why? Just look at this session. We were faced with a challenge never before faced by our state. We had a 44 percent decline in revenue. We had a proposed budget from the Governor with dramatic cuts to K-12 and higher education; closure of conservation camps; cuts to corrections and parole staffing levels; the closing of almost every mental health clinic; and the terminating of children and pregnant women from health insurance.

There were also items in the budget that really had little rhyme or reason to them, such as the closing of a prison to save $22 million in operating costs only to spend $220 million to build a replacement; elimination of rural mental health clinics and substitute bussing the mentally ill into urban centers; and the eliminating of auditors at the Gaming Control Board, which are the positions we need to collect the money that we use to operate our state.

But look at how we came together.

In our body, we see two women leading the Assembly—from entirely different backgrounds, philosophical approaches, and life experiences. On the Senate side, we see our venerable icon, Bill Raggio, who has to be considered one of the most significant historical figures in the legislative process. And you see a majority leader, Steven Horsford, who is the first African American leader of the Senate, and who, in his two sessions, has gained a reputation for being focused, aggressive, and determined. And there is the rest of the Legislature, from all walks of life, everything from an inner city mortgage broker to a rancher from Eureka. And so, while our legislators are very different people, we all came together to attack unprecedented challenges facing our state. Our diversity and backgrounds, opinions, political party, and geography are exactly the reason why there are great years ahead for our state.

Despite our differences, what has united us has been our love of the state, commitment to our children, empathy for the elderly, and confidence in our state’s future. Legislators of both parties, both houses, came together to not only solve the immediate challenges of a budget crisis, home foreclosures, service reduction, and lost Nevada jobs, but also to find ways to move our state forward. We paved the way for a better future by helping to create a whole new industry in renewable energy. We paved the way for new investment, a new business model, a cleaner environment, and a more self-reliant and independent Nevada. An equally importantly, we created opportunity for Nevadans to be retrained and reemployed in this dynamic industry. We looked into the future and set the course for securing and stabilizing our public employee retirement funds instead of passing the problem forward. We enacted real reform to our budget process by the creation of a forced savings account, a rainy day fund, so that we don’t find ourselves in this dire situation again. We put into place real protections for those in jeopardy of losing their homes; by stemming that problem we saved home values for all.

What is next? Much has been said about the need to broaden our tax base. But we should not lose sight, also, of the need to broaden our economy by working to attract a broader base of industries to our state. I sponsored a measure that will look to try and transform our state into a transportation, warehousing, manufacturing, and assembly hub for the mountain west, which will, in turn, create good, stable jobs for our state’s needs.

The keys to our future, I believe, are new ideas, balanced with traditional Nevada values and a shared optimism about the opportunities we have, even in bad times. And while I am committed to the future I must take one opportunity to look back before I end tonight.

These last, hectic days have been bittersweet. While I am proud of everything we have accomplished, I am saddened that so many longstanding friends and colleagues will not be returning to this chamber. We will lose invaluable experience and wisdom, whether it is the cowboy sage and my friend, John Carpenter; whether it’s my friend who I would pick most to be in a foxhole with me, Bernie Anderson; or the gentle giant among men, Moose Arberry; or my friend Sheila Leslie; or Give ‘Em Hell Harry Mortenson; or the always poised and personable Ellen Koivisto; or the irrepressible Kathy McClain; or the remarkable Jerry Claborn; or the irascible Mark Manendo.

This will be my last session serving in the Assembly. I have been honored to represent the people in my district for these last 14 years. I have grown to understand and respect the traditions of the Assembly under the great, amazing tutelage of Assembly Speaker Joe Dini and Assembly Speaker Richard Perkins. They gave me all the opportunities I needed. One of my proudest moments of my life was taking the gavel and opening the 74th Session of the Nevada Legislature, as Speaker. This has been a difficult session and yet with the help of every member here, we have done the job we were sent here to do. We have represented the people of our districts with conviction and distinction, working in a bipartisan manner to address the fiscal crisis in this state and the myriad of other problems, large and small, that was our duty to resolve. It has been my privilege to work with you and by your side.

I thank you for your friendship and the confidence you have shown in me. I will always treasure the friendships I have made here and I have every confidence in my colleagues who I leave behind. Colleagues like my Majority Leader, John Oceguera, who I have grown so close to over the years and who I have every confidence in to lead this state; or my Assistant Majority Leader, Marcus Conklin, who I have just become fast friends with. I respect his work ethic. He is one of the hardest workers in the building. There also is my Assistant Majority Whip, Debbie Smith. She has grown so much. She is an incredible legislator. There is my other Assistant Majority Whip, William Horne, who has grown so much and excelled as a committee chair this session. There are my other committee chairs like Marilyn Kirkpatrick. What a superstar. There is Kelvin Atkinson, my good friend—watching him grow over the years has been one of my biggest joys. Bonnie Parnell has a steady hand, is smart, and is loved by all. My Ways and Means subcommittee chairs like Mo Denis—I have loved watching you step up into leadership; you are so understated, so smart, and so right. And there are all my other colleagues, rather they are ones I recruited, mentored, learned from, or argued with.

I have learned something from every person in this body, whether I agreed with you or not. My friend John Carpenter, I learned so much from you. Put Nevada first, nothing else matters. Have the courage of your convictions and you will sleep a lot better at night. To my friends, to my colleagues, I know I leave the Assembly in good hands. I thank you for all your years of service, I thank you for all you do for the State of Nevada, and I thank you for the privilege of having you elect me to serve and to lead this body. Thank you very much.

Madam Speaker announced if there were no objections, the Assembly would recess subject to the call of the Chair.

Conference Amendment No. CA25.

AN ACT relating to common-interest communities; clarifying various provisions of existing law relating to certain provisions of governing documents that violate statutory provisions, elections and the authority of an association to levy certain assessments under certain circumstances; revising certain provisions governing the authority of an association to impose fines under certain circumstances; making various other changes to the provisions governing common-interest communities; providing penalties; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.
Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 3 of this bill provides that a person who knowingly, willfully and with the intent to fraudulently alter the outcome of the election of a member to the executive board of an association or other votes of the units’ owners engages in certain acts pertaining to the ballot or the casting of votes in such election is guilty of a category D felony. (NRS 116.31034) Existing law prohibits a community manager, an officer or a member of the executive board from accepting or soliciting compensation that would influence him or appear to be a conflict of interest. (NRS 116.31185) Section 4 of this bill provides that a community manager or member of the executive board who asks for or receives compensation to influence his vote, opinion or action upon any official matter is guilty of a category D felony. Section 4 also provides that a person who offers or gives any gratuity, compensation or reward, or makes a promise thereof, to a community manager or member of the executive board in exchange for a vote, opinion or action on any official matter is guilty of a category D felony.

Existing law requires each agency to provide by regulation for the filing and prompt disposition of petitions for declaratory orders and advisory opinions as to the applicability of any statutory provision, agency regulation or decision of the agency, and the Department of Business and Industry, which includes the Real Estate Division, has accordingly adopted regulations for such petitions. (NRS 233B.120; NAC 232.020) However, the Real Estate Division has not adopted any regulations pertaining to such petitions. Section 5 of this bill enacts a specific statutory provision requiring the Real Estate Division to adopt regulations pertaining to such petitions.

Existing law contains provisions concerning units or common elements of an association that are acquired by eminent domain. (NRS 116.1107) Section 7 of this bill clarifies that existing law does not authorize an association to exercise the power of eminent domain. Section 8 of this bill clarifies that any provision contained in a declaration, bylaw or other governing document of a common-interest community that violates the provisions of chapter 116 of NRS is superseded by the provisions of chapter 116 of NRS, regardless of whether the provision became effective before the enactment of the statutory provision being violated. (NRS 116.1206)

Section 8.5 of this bill provides that an association may not charge a fee for entry into the common-interest community against a person providing services to a unit, a unit’s owner or a tenant of a unit’s owner or against a visitor, guest or invitee of a unit’s owner or a tenant of a unit’s owner. (NRS 116.2111)

Section 9 of this bill revises existing law to limit an association’s power to include certain provisions in certain contracts involving the association. (NRS 116.3102)

Existing law authorizes an executive board to impose fines under certain circumstances. (NRS 116.3103) Section 12 of this bill limits the imposition of fines against a unit’s owner for violations of the governing documents by a tenant or an invitee of the unit’s owner or the tenant.

Sections 13, 14 and 16 of this bill revise provisions relating to certain elections and meetings of an association by: (1) requiring members of the executive board to be units’ owners; (2) providing that officers of an association are not required to be units’ owners, unless the governing documents provide otherwise; (3) providing certain rights for candidates for election to an executive board; (4) reducing the votes necessary for removal of a member of an executive board; (5) prohibiting an association from interfering with the collection of signatures for a special meeting or removal election; and (6) providing immunity from criminal or civil liability for an association, its officers, employees and agents for the disclosure or publication of certain information pursuant to certain duties required of the association or its officers, employees and agents. Section 14 also provides that punitive damages may not be recovered against the members of the executive board or the officers of an association for acts or omissions that occur in their capacity as members or officers. (NRS 116.31034, 116.31036, 116.3108)

Sections 17-19 of this bill revise provisions relating to board meetings and hearings by: (1) requiring that meetings of the executive board be audio recorded and available in a certain manner; (2) requiring that certain written complaints be placed on the agenda; and (3) providing due process protections to units’ owners at certain hearings. (NRS 116.31083, 116.31085, 116.31087) Section 17 also revises existing law to allow public comments to be made at both the beginning and the end of a meeting. (NRS 116.31083)

Existing law provides that an association has the statutory obligation to: (1) fund adequately its reserves; (2) include in its annual budget a statement concerning its reserves and whether it will be necessary to impose any special assessments; and (3) review its study of the reserves on an annual basis and make any appropriate adjustments necessary to ensure that the reserves are always funded adequately. (NRS 116.3115, 116.31151, 116.31152) Section 21 of this bill clarifies existing law by explicitly stating that notwithstanding any provision of the governing documents to the contrary, the executive board may, without seeking or obtaining the approval of units’ owners, impose any necessary and reasonable assessments to establish adequate reserves. This section also provides that any such assessments imposed must be based on the study of the reserves of the association conducted pursuant to NRS 116.31152.

Section 22 of this bill authorizes the filing of a civil action to recover certain fees, administrative penalties and interest that were imposed erroneously. (NRS 116.31155)
Existing law provides that an executive board of an association must, upon written request of a unit’s owner, make available certain records and papers of the association, except for certain personnel records, records of other units’ owners or contracts between the association and an attorney. (NRS 116.31175) Section 23.5 of this bill removes from the exemptions for the production of records those records which pertain to a contract between the association and an attorney.

Sections 24, 26 and 28 of this bill provide certain additional rights to units’ owners by: (1) increasing the scope and definition of prohibited retaliatory action; (2) authorizing the exhibition of certain political signs in certain areas; and (3) mandating notice before interruption of utility service to a unit’s owner. (NRS 116.31183, 116.325, 116.345)

Section 25 of this bill expands the prohibition against certain contracts between an association and a member of the executive board or officer to include contracts involving financing. (NRS 116.31187) Section 27 of this bill: (1) provides that existing law concerning drought tolerant landscaping must be construed broadly; and (2) clarifies the definition of “drought tolerant landscaping.” (NRS 116.330) Section 29 of this bill provides that if a community manager fails or refuses to comply with the governing documents of the association or the provisions of chapter 116 of NRS, any person or class of persons may bring a civil action for damages or other relief. (NRS 116.4117)

Section 30 of this bill increases the membership of the Commission by adding two members who are units’ owners but who are not required to have served as members of an executive board. (NRS 116.600) Section 31 of this bill revises provisions relating to the Commission’s duties by providing for the use of training officers to perform certain duties. (NRS 116.605)

Section 36 of this bill clarifies that if the Commission or hearing officer orders an audit of an association, the audit is conducted at the expense of the association. (NRS 116.790)

Existing law provides that a written affidavit, supporting documentation and information compiled as the result of an investigation of an alleged violation are confidential unless and until a formal complaint is filed. (NRS 116.757, 116A.270) Sections 33 and 37 of this bill clarify existing law to provide that such confidential information must not be disclosed to any person, including a person who is the subject of an investigation or complaint, unless and until a formal complaint is filed.

Section 39 of this bill provides that the Commission must adopt regulations requiring an applicant for a certificate as a community manager or the applicant’s employer to post a bond. Section 39 also provides for the issuance of temporary certificates for community managers for a period of 1 year under certain circumstances. (NRS 116A.410)

Section 40 of this bill revises existing law to provide that upon selection or appointment of an arbitrator, the arbitrator must provide certain information concerning the procedures of the arbitration and applicable law to each party.

Sec. 6. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 7. NRS 116.1107 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.1107 1. If a unit is acquired by eminent domain or part of a unit is acquired by eminent domain leaving the unit’s owner with a remnant that may not practically or lawfully be used for any purpose permitted by the declaration, the award must include compensation to the unit’s owner for that unit and its allocated interests, whether or not any common elements are acquired. Upon acquisition, unless the decree otherwise provides, that unit’s allocated interests are automatically reallocated to the remaining units in proportion to the respective allocated interests of those units before the taking, and the association shall promptly prepare, execute and record an amendment to the declaration reflecting the reallocations. Any remnant of a unit remaining after part of a unit is taken under this subsection is thereafter a common element.

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 1, if part of a unit is acquired by eminent domain, the award must compensate the unit’s owner for the reduction in value of the unit and its interest in the common elements, whether or not any common elements are acquired. Upon acquisition, unless the decree otherwise provides:

(a) That unit’s allocated interests are reduced in proportion to the reduction in the size of the unit, or on any other basis specified in the declaration; and

(b) The portion of the allocated interests divested from the partially acquired unit are automatically reallocated to that unit and to the remaining units in proportion to the respective allocated interests of those units before the taking, with the partially acquired unit participating in the reallocation on the basis of its reduced allocated interests.

3. If part of the common elements is acquired by eminent domain, the portion of the award attributable to the common elements taken must be paid to the association. Unless the declaration provides otherwise, any portion of the award attributable to the acquisition of a limited common element must be equally divided among the owners of the units to which that limited common element was allocated at the time of acquisition.

4. The judicial decree must be recorded in every county in which any portion of the common-interest community is located.

5. The provisions of this section do not authorize an association to exercise the power of eminent domain pursuant to chapter 37 of NRS, and an association may not exercise the power of eminent domain, as provided in NRS 37.0097.

Sec. 8. NRS 116.1206 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.1206 1. Any provision contained in a declaration, bylaw or other governing document of a common-interest community that violates the provisions of this chapter [shall] :

(a) Shall be deemed to conform with those provisions by operation of law, and any such declaration, bylaw or other governing document is not required to be amended to conform to those provisions.

(b) Is superseded by the provisions of this chapter, regardless of whether the provision contained in the declaration, bylaw or other governing document became effective before the enactment of the provision of this chapter that is being violated.

2. In the case of amendments to the declaration, bylaws or plats and plans of any common-interest community created before January 1, 1992:

(a) If the result accomplished by the amendment was permitted by law before January 1, 1992, the amendment may be made either in accordance with that law, in which case that law applies to that amendment, or it may be made under this chapter; and

(b) If the result accomplished by the amendment is permitted by this chapter, and was not permitted by law before January 1, 1992, the amendment may be made under this chapter.

3. An amendment to the declaration, bylaws or plats and plans authorized by this section to be made under this chapter must be adopted in conformity with the applicable provisions of chapter 117 or 278A of NRS and with the procedures and requirements specified by those instruments. If an amendment grants to any person any rights, powers or privileges permitted by this chapter, all correlative obligations, liabilities and restrictions in this chapter also apply to that person.

Sec. 8.5. NRS 116.2111 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NRS 116.2111 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section and subject to the provisions of the declaration and other provisions of law, a unit’s owner:

(a) May make any improvements or alterations to his unit that do not impair the structural integrity or mechanical systems or lessen the support of any portion of the common-interest community;

(b) May not change the appearance of the common elements, or the exterior appearance of a unit or any other portion of the common-interest community, without permission of the association; and

(c) After acquiring an adjoining unit or an adjoining part of an adjoining unit, may remove or alter any intervening partition or create apertures therein, even if the partition in whole or in part is a common element, if those acts do not impair the structural integrity or mechanical systems or lessen the support of any portion of the common-interest community. Removal of partitions or creation of apertures under this paragraph is not an alteration of boundaries.

2. An association may not:

(a) Unreasonably restrict, prohibit or otherwise impede the lawful rights of a unit’s owner to have reasonable access to his unit.

(b) Charge any fee for a person to enter the common-interest community to provide services to a unit, a unit’s owner or a tenant of a unit’s owner or for any visitor to the common-interest community or invitee of a unit’s owner or a tenant of a unit’s owner to enter the common-interest community.

(c) Unreasonably restrict, prohibit or withhold approval for a unit’s owner to add to a unit:

(1) Improvements such as ramps, railings or elevators that are necessary to improve access to the unit for any occupant of the unit who has a disability;

(2) Additional locks to improve the security of the unit;

(3) Shutters to improve the security of the unit or to reduce the costs of energy for the unit; or

(4) A system that uses wind energy to reduce the costs of energy for the unit if the boundaries of the unit encompass 2 acres or more within the common-interest community.

(d) With regard to approving or disapproving any improvement or alteration made to a unit, act in violation of any state or federal law.

3. Any improvement or alteration made pursuant to subsection 2 that is visible from any other portion of the common-interest community must be installed, constructed or added in accordance with the procedures set forth in the governing documents of the association and must be selected or designed to the maximum extent practicable to be compatible with the style of the common-interest community.

4. A unit’s owner may not add to the unit a system that uses wind energy as described in subparagraph 4 of paragraph (b) (c) of subsection 2 unless he first obtains the written consent of each owner of property within 300 feet of any boundary of the unit.

Sec. 9  NRS 116.3102 is hereby amended to read as follows:

Sec. 9  NRS 116.3102  1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, and subject to the provisions of the declaration, the association may do any or all of the following:

(f) Regulate the use, maintenance, repair, replacement and modification of common elements.
(g) Cause additional improvements to be made as a part of the common elements.
(h) Acquire, hold, encumber and convey in its own name any right, title or interest to real estate or personal property, but:

(i) Grant easements, leases, licenses and concessions through or over the common elements.
(j) Impose and receive any payments, fees or charges for the use, rental or operation of the common elements, other than limited common elements described in subsections 2 and 4 of NRS 116.2102, and for services provided to the units’ owners.
(k) Impose charges for late payment of assessments.
(l) Impose construction penalties when authorized pursuant to NRS 116.310305.
Impose reasonable fines for violations of the governing documents of the association only if the association complies with the requirements set forth in NRS 116.31031.

(n) Impose reasonable charges for the preparation and recordation of any amendments to the declaration or any statements of unpaid assessments, and impose reasonable fees, not to exceed the amounts authorized by NRS 116.4109, for preparing and furnishing the documents and certificate required by that section.

(o) Provide for the indemnification of its officers and executive board and maintain directors’ and officers’ liability insurance.

(p) Assign its right to future income, including the right to receive assessments for common expenses, but only to the extent the declaration expressly so provides.

(s) Direct the removal of vehicles improperly parked on property owned or leased by the association, as authorized pursuant to NRS 487.038, or improperly parked on any road, street, alley or other thoroughfare within the common-interest community in violation of the governing documents. In addition to complying with the requirements of NRS 487.038 and any requirements in the governing documents, if a vehicle is improperly parked as described in this paragraph, the association must post written notice in a conspicuous place on the vehicle or provide oral or written notice to the owner or operator of the vehicle at least 48 hours before the association may direct the removal of the vehicle, unless the vehicle:

1. Is blocking a fire hydrant, fire lane or parking space designated for the handicapped; or

2. Poses an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units’ owners or residents of the common-interest community.

(t) Exercise any other powers necessary and proper for the governance and operation of the association.

2. The declaration may not impose limitations on the power of the association to deal with the declarant which are more restrictive than the limitations imposed on the power of the association to deal with other persons.

Sec. 10. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 11. (Deleted by amendment.)
Sec. 12. NRS 116.31031 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31031 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, if a unit’s owner or a tenant or an invitee of a unit’s owner or a tenant violates any provision of the governing documents of an association, the executive board may, if the governing documents so provide:
(a) Prohibit, for a reasonable time, the unit’s owner or the tenant or the invitee of the unit’s owner or the tenant from:

1. Voting on matters related to the common-interest community.
2. Using the common elements. The provisions of this subparagraph do not prohibit the unit’s owner or the tenant or the invitee of the unit’s owner or the tenant from using any vehicular or pedestrian ingress or egress to go to or from the unit, including any area used for parking.

(b) Impose a fine against the unit’s owner or the tenant or the invitee of the unit’s owner or the tenant for each violation, except that a fine may not be imposed for a violation that is the subject of a construction penalty pursuant to NRS 116.310305. If the violation poses an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units’ owners or residents of the common-interest community, the amount of the fine must be commensurate with the severity of the violation and must be determined by the executive board in accordance with the governing documents. If the violation does not pose an imminent threat of causing a substantial adverse effect on the health, safety or welfare of the units’ owners or residents of the common-interest community, the amount of the fine must be commensurate with the severity of the violation and must be determined by the executive board in accordance with the governing documents, but the amount of the fine must not exceed $100 for each violation or a total amount of $1,000, whichever is less. The limitations on the amount of the fine do not apply to any interest, charges or costs that may be collected by the association pursuant to this section if the fine becomes past due.

2. The executive board may not impose a fine pursuant to subsection 1 against a unit’s owner for a violation of any provision of the governing documents of an association committed by an invitee of the unit’s owner or the tenant unless the unit’s owner:

   (a) Participated in or authorized the violation;
   (b) Had prior notice of the violation; or
   (c) Had an opportunity to stop the violation and failed to do so.

3. The executive board may not impose a fine pursuant to subsection 1 unless:

   (a) Not less than 30 days before the violation, the person against whom the fine will be imposed had been provided with written notice of the applicable provisions of the governing documents that form the basis of the violation; and
   (b) Within a reasonable time after the discovery of the violation, the person against whom the fine will be imposed has been provided with:
      1. Written notice specifying the details of the violation, the amount of the fine, and the date, time and location for a hearing on the violation; and
      2. A reasonable opportunity to contest the violation at the hearing.

4. The executive board must schedule the date, time and location for the hearing on the violation so that the person against whom the fine will be imposed is provided with a reasonable opportunity to prepare for the hearing and to be present at the hearing.

5. The executive board must hold a hearing before it may impose the fine, unless the person against whom the fine will be imposed:
   (a) Pays the fine;
   (b) Executes a written waiver of the right to the hearing; or
   (c) Fails to appear at the hearing after being provided with proper notice of the hearing.

6. If a fine is imposed pursuant to subsection 1 and the violation is not cured within 14 days, or within any longer period that may be established by the executive board, the violation shall be deemed a continuing violation. Thereafter, the executive board may impose an additional fine for the violation for each 7-day period or portion thereof that the violation is not cured. Any additional fine may be imposed without notice and an opportunity to be heard.

7. If the governing documents so provide, the executive board may appoint a committee, with not less than three members, to conduct hearings on violations and to impose fines pursuant to this section. While acting on behalf of the executive board for those limited purposes, the committee and its members are entitled to all privileges and immunities and are subject to all duties and requirements of the executive board and its members.

8. The provisions of this section establish the minimum procedural requirements that the executive board must follow before it may impose a fine. The provisions of this section do not preempt any provisions of the governing documents that provide greater procedural protections.

9. Any past due fine:
   (a) Bears interest at the rate established by the association, not to exceed the legal rate per annum.
   (b) May include any costs of collecting the past due fine at a rate established by the association. If the past due fine is for a violation that does not threaten the health, safety or welfare of the residents of the common-interest community, the rate established by the association for the costs of collecting the past due fine:
      (1) May not exceed $20, if the outstanding balance is less than $200.
      (2) May not exceed $50, if the outstanding balance is $200 or more, but is less than $500.
      (3) May not exceed $100, if the outstanding balance is $500 or more, but is less than $1,000.
      (4) May not exceed $250, if the outstanding balance is $1,000 or more, but is less than $5,000.
      (5) May not exceed $500, if the outstanding balance is $5,000 or more.
   (c) May include any costs incurred by the association during a civil action to enforce the payment of the past due fine.

10. As used in this section:
(a) "Costs of collecting" includes, without limitation, any collection fee, filing fee, recording fee, referral fee, fee for postage or delivery, and any other fee or cost that an association may reasonably charge to the unit’s owner for the collection of a past due fine. The term does not include any costs incurred by an association during a civil action to enforce the payment of a past due fine.

(b) "Outstanding balance" means the amount of a past due fine that remains unpaid before any interest, charges for late payment or costs of collecting the past due fine are added.

Sec. 12.5. NRS 116.310315 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.310315  If an association has imposed a fine against a unit’s owner or an invitee of a unit’s owner or a tenant pursuant to NRS 116.31031 for violations of the governing documents of the association, the association:

1. Shall, in the books and records of the association, account for the fine separately from any assessment, fee or other charge; and

2. Shall not apply, in whole or in part, any payment made by the unit’s owner for any assessment, fee or other charge toward the payment of the outstanding balance of the fine or any costs of collecting the fine, unless the unit’s owner provides written authorization which directs the association to apply the payment made by the unit’s owner in such a manner.

Sec. 13. NRS 116.31034 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31034 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5 of NRS 116.212, not later than the termination of any period of declarant’s control, the units’ owners shall elect an executive board of at least three members, [at least a majority] all of whom must be units’ owners. [Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, the remaining members of the executive board do not have to be units’ owners.] The executive board shall elect the officers of the association. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, the officers of the association are not required to be units’ owners. The members of the executive board and the officers of the association shall take office upon election.

2. The term of office of a member of the executive board may not exceed 2 years, except for members who are appointed by the declarant. Unless the governing documents provide otherwise, there is no limitation on the number of terms that a person may serve as a member of the executive board.

3. The governing documents of the association must provide for terms of office that are staggered in such a manner that, to the extent possible, an equal number of members of the executive board are elected at each election. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

(a) Members of the executive board who are appointed by the declarant; and

(b) Members of the executive board who serve a term of 1 year or less.

4. Not less than 30 days before the preparation of a ballot for the election of members of the executive board, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause notice to be given to each unit’s owner of his eligibility to serve as a member of the executive board. Each unit’s owner who is qualified to serve as a member of the executive board may have his name placed on the ballot along with the names of the nominees selected by the members of the executive board or a nominating committee established by the association.

5. Each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a member of the executive board must:
   (a) Make a good faith effort to disclose any financial, business, professional or personal relationship or interest that would result or would appear to a reasonable person to result in a potential conflict of interest for the candidate if the candidate were to be elected to serve as a member of the executive board; and
   (b) Disclose whether the candidate is a member in good standing. For the purposes of this paragraph, a candidate shall not be deemed to be in “good standing” if the candidate has any unpaid and past due assessments or construction penalties that are required to be paid to the association.
   • The candidate must make all disclosures required pursuant to this subsection in writing to the association with his candidacy information. The association shall distribute the disclosures to each member of the association with the ballot in the manner established in the bylaws of the association.

6. Unless a person is appointed by the declarant:
   (a) A person may not be a member of the executive board or an officer of the association if the person, his spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for that association.
   (b) A person may not be a member of the executive board of a master association or an officer of that master association if the person, his spouse or his parent or child, by blood, marriage or adoption, performs the duties of a community manager for:
      (1) That master association; or
      (2) Any association that is subject to the governing documents of that master association.

7. An officer, employee, agent or director of a corporate owner of a unit, a trustee or designated beneficiary of a trust that owns a unit, a partner of a partnership that owns a unit, a member or manager of a limited-liability company that owns a unit, and a fiduciary of an estate that owns a unit may be an officer of the association or a member of the executive board. In all events where the person serving or offering to serve as an officer of the association or a member of the executive board is not the record owner, he shall file proof in the records of the association that:
   (a) He is associated with the corporate owner, trust, partnership, limited-liability company or estate as required by this subsection; and
   (b) Identifies the unit or units owned by the corporate owner, trust, partnership, limited-liability company or estate.
8. The election of any member of the executive board must be conducted by secret written ballot unless the declaration of the association provides that voting rights may be exercised by delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105. If the election of any member of the executive board is conducted by secret written ballot:

(a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner.

(b) Each unit’s owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit’s owner to return the secret written ballot to the association.

(c) A quorum is not required for the election of any member of the executive board.

(d) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be counted to determine the outcome of the election.

(e) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

(f) The incumbent members of the executive board and each person whose name is placed on the ballot as a candidate for a member of the executive board may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.

9. An association shall not adopt any rule or regulation that has the effect of prohibiting or unreasonably interfering with a candidate in his campaign for election as a member of the executive board, except that his campaign may be limited to 90 days before the date that ballots are required to be returned to the association. A candidate may request that the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association send, 30 days before the date of the election and at the association’s expense, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner a candidate informational statement. The candidate informational statement:

(a) Must be no longer than a single, typed page;

(b) Must not contain any defamatory, libelous or profane information; and

(c) May be sent with the secret ballot mailed pursuant to subsection 8 or in a separate mailing.

The association and its directors, officers, employees and agents are immune from criminal or civil liability for any act or omission which arises out of the publication or disclosure of any information related to any person and which occurs in the course of carrying out any duties required pursuant to this subsection.

10. Each member of the executive board shall, within 90 days after his appointment or election, certify in writing to the association, on a form prescribed by the Administrator, that he has read and understands the governing documents of the association and the provisions of this chapter to the best of his ability. The Administrator may require the association to submit a copy of the certification of each member of the executive board of that association at the time the association registers with the Ombudsman pursuant to NRS 116.31158.

Sec. 14. NRS 116.31036 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31036 1. Notwithstanding any provision of the declaration or bylaws to the contrary, any member of the executive board, other than a member appointed by the declarant, may be removed from the executive board, with or without cause, if at a removal election held pursuant to this section [and]:

(a) The number of votes cast [in favor of removal] constitutes [):

(b) At least 35 percent of the total number of voting members of the association; and

(c) At least a majority of all votes cast in that removal election are cast in favor of removal.

2. The removal of any member of the executive board must be conducted by secret written ballot unless the declaration of the association provides that voting rights may be exercised by delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105. If the removal of a member of the executive board is conducted by secret written ballot:

(a) The secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws of the association shall cause a secret ballot and a return envelope to be sent, prepaid by United States mail, to the mailing address of each unit within the common-interest community or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner.

(b) Each unit’s owner must be provided with at least 15 days after the date the secret written ballot is mailed to the unit’s owner to return the secret written ballot to the association.

(c) Only the secret written ballots that are returned to the association may be counted to determine the outcome.

(d) The secret written ballots must be opened and counted at a meeting of the association. A quorum is not required to be present when the secret written ballots are opened and counted at the meeting.

(e) The incumbent members of the executive board, including, without limitation, the member who is subject to the removal, may not possess, be given access to or participate in the opening or counting of the secret written ballots that are returned to the association before those secret written ballots have been opened and counted at a meeting of the association.
3. If a member of an executive board is named as a respondent or sued for liability for actions undertaken in his role as a member of the board, the association shall indemnify him for his losses or claims, and undertake all costs of defense, unless it is proven that he acted with willful or wanton misfeasance or with gross negligence. After such proof, the association is no longer liable for the cost of defense, and may recover costs already expended from the member of the executive board who so acted. Members of the executive board are not personally liable to the victims of crimes occurring on the property. Punitive damages may not be recovered against:

(a) The association, but may be recovered from persons whose activity gave rise to the damages;

(b) The members of the executive board for acts or omissions that occur in their official capacity as members of the executive board; or

(c) The officers of the association for acts or omissions that occur in their capacity as officers of the association.

4. The provisions of this section do not prohibit the Commission from taking any disciplinary action against a member of an executive board pursuant to NRS 116.745 to 116.795, inclusive.

Sec. 15. NRS 116.3107 is hereby amended to read as follows: 116.3107 1. Except to the extent provided by the declaration, subsection 2 and NRS 116.31135, the association has the duty to provide for the maintenance, repair and replacement of the common elements, and each unit’s owner has the duty to provide for the maintenance, repair and replacement of his unit. Each unit’s owner shall afford to the association and the other units’ owners, and to their agents or employees, access through his unit reasonably necessary for those purposes. If damage is inflicted on the common elements or on any unit through which access is taken, the unit’s owner responsible for the damage, or the association if it is responsible, is liable for the prompt repair thereof.

2. In addition to the liability that a declarant as a unit’s owner has under this chapter, the declarant alone is liable for all expenses in connection with real estate subject to developmental rights. No other unit’s owner and no other portion of the common-interest community is subject to a claim for payment of those expenses. Unless the declaration provides otherwise, any income or proceeds from real estate subject to developmental rights inures to the declarant.

3. In a planned community, if all developmental rights have expired with respect to any real estate, the declarant remains liable for all expenses of that real estate unless, upon expiration, the declaration provides that the real estate becomes common elements or units.

Sec. 16. NRS 116.3108 is hereby amended to read as follows: 116.3108 1. A meeting of the units’ owners must be held at least once each year. If the governing documents do not designate an annual meeting date of the units’ owners, a meeting of the units’ owners must be held 1 year after the date of the last meeting of the units’ owners. If the units’ owners have not held a meeting for 1 year, a meeting of the units’ owners must be held on the following March 1.

2. Special meetings of the units’ owners may be called by the president, by a majority of the executive board or by units’ owners constituting at least 10 percent, or any lower percentage specified in the bylaws, of the total number of voting members of the association. The same number of units’ owners may also call a removal election pursuant to NRS 116.31036. To call a special meeting or a removal election, the units’ owners must submit a written petition which is signed by the required percentage of the total number of voting members of the association pursuant to this section and which is mailed, return receipt requested, or served by a process server to the executive board or the community manager for the association. If the petition calls for a special meeting, the executive board shall set the date for the special meeting so that the special meeting is held not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received. If the petition calls for a removal election and:

(a) The voting rights of the units’ owners will be exercised by delegates or representatives as set forth in NRS 116.31105, the executive board shall set the date for the removal election so that the removal election is held not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received; or

(b) The voting rights of the units’ owners will be exercised through the use of secret written ballots pursuant to NRS 116.31036, the secret written ballots for the removal election must be sent in the manner required by NRS 116.31036 not less than 15 days or more than 60 days after the date on which the petition is received, and the executive board shall set the date for the meeting to open and count the secret written ballots so that the meeting is held not more than 15 days after the deadline for returning the secret written ballots.

The association shall not adopt any rule or regulation which prevents or unreasonably interferes with the collection of the required percentage of signatures for a petition pursuant to this subsection.

3. Not less than 15 days or more than 60 days in advance of any meeting of the units’ owners, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall cause notice of the meeting to be hand-delivered, sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner or, if the association offers to send notice by electronic mail, sent by electronic mail at the request of the unit’s owner to an electronic mail address designated in writing by the unit’s owner. The notice of the meeting must state the time and place of the meeting and include a copy of the agenda for the meeting. The notice must include notification of the right of a unit’s owner to:

executive board, upon payment to the association of the cost of providing the copy to the unit’s owner.

5. If the association adopts a policy imposing fines for any violations of the governing documents of the association, the secretary or other officer specified in the bylaws shall prepare and cause to be hand-delivered or sent prepaid by United States mail to the mailing address of each unit or to any other mailing address designated in writing by the unit’s owner, a schedule of the fines that may be imposed for those violations.

9. The association shall maintain the minutes of each meeting of the units’ owners until the common-interest community is terminated.

10. A unit’s owner may record on audiotape or any other means of sound reproduction a meeting of the units’ owners if the unit’s owner, before recording the meeting, provides notice of his intent to record the meeting to the other units’ owners who are in attendance at the meeting.

11. The units’ owners may approve, at the annual meeting of the units’ owners, the minutes of the prior annual meeting of the units’ owners and the minutes of any prior special meetings of the units’ owners. A quorum is not required to be present when the units’ owners approve the minutes.

Sec. 17. NRS 116.31083 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31083 1. A meeting of the executive board must be held at least once every 90 days.

During the period devoted to comments by the units’ owners and discussion of those comments at the beginning of each meeting, comments by the units’ owners and discussion of those comments must be limited to items listed on the agenda. In an emergency, the executive board may take action on an item which is not listed on the agenda as an item on which action may be taken.

6. At least once every 90 days, unless the declaration or bylaws of the association impose more stringent standards, the executive board shall review, at a minimum, the following financial information at one of its meetings:

(a) A current year-to-date financial statement of the association;

(b) A current year-to-date schedule of revenues and expenses for the operating account and the reserve account, compared to the budget for those accounts;

10. The association shall maintain the minutes of each meeting of the executive board until the common-interest community is terminated.

11. A unit’s owner may record on audiotape or any other means of sound reproduction a meeting of the executive board, unless the executive board is meeting in executive session, if the unit’s owner, before recording the meeting, provides notice of his intent to record the meeting to the members of the executive board and the other units’ owners who are in attendance at the meeting.

   (d) Makes it impracticable to comply with the provisions of subsection 2 or 5.

Sec. 18. NRS 116.31085 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31085 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, a unit’s owner may attend any meeting of the units’ owners or of the executive board and speak at any such meeting. The executive board may establish reasonable limitations on the time a unit’s owner may speak at such a meeting.

2. An executive board may not meet in executive session to enter into, renew, modify, terminate or take any other action regarding a contract, unless it is a contract between the association and an attorney.

3. An executive board may meet in executive session only to:

4. An executive board shall meet in executive session to hold a hearing on an alleged violation of the governing documents unless the person who may be sanctioned for the alleged violation requests in writing that an open hearing be conducted by the executive board. If the person who may be sanctioned for the alleged violation requests in writing that an open hearing be conducted, the person:

(a) Is entitled to attend all portions of the hearing related to the alleged violation, including, without limitation, the presentation of evidence and the testimony of witnesses;

6. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, any matter discussed by the executive board when it meets in executive session must be generally noted in the minutes of the meeting of the executive board. The executive board shall maintain minutes of any decision made pursuant to subsection 4 concerning an alleged violation and, upon request, provide a copy of the decision to the person who was subject to being sanctioned at the hearing or to his designated representative.

Sec. 20. (Deleted by amendment.)

Sec. 21. NRS 116.3115 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.3115 1. Until the association makes an assessment for common expenses, the declarant shall pay all common expenses. After an assessment has been made by the association, assessments must be made at least annually, based on a budget adopted at least annually by the association in accordance with the requirements set forth in NRS 116.31151. Unless the declaration imposes more stringent standards, the budget must include a budget for the daily operation of the association and a budget for the reserves required by paragraph (b) of subsection 2.

2. Except for assessments under subsections 4 to 7, inclusive:

(a) All common expenses, including the reserves, must be assessed against all the units in accordance with the allocations set forth in the declaration pursuant to subsections 1 and 2 of NRS 116.2107.

(b) The association shall establish adequate reserves, funded on a reasonable basis, for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements. The reserves may be used only for those purposes, including, without limitation, repairing, replacing and restoring roofs, roads and sidewalks, and must not be used for daily maintenance. The association may comply with the provisions of this paragraph through a funding plan that is designed to allocate the costs for the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements over a period of years if the funding plan is designed in an actuarially sound manner which will ensure that sufficient money is available when the repair, replacement and restoration of the major components of the common elements are necessary. Notwithstanding any provision of the governing documents to the contrary, to establish adequate reserves pursuant to this paragraph, including, without limitation, to establish or carry out a funding plan, the executive board may, without seeking or obtaining the approval of the units' owners, impose any necessary and reasonable assessments against the units in the common-interest community. Any such assessments imposed by the executive board must be based on the study of the reserves of the association conducted pursuant to NRS 116.31152.
3. Any past due assessment for common expenses or installment thereof bears interest at the rate established by the association not exceeding 18 percent per year.

4. To the extent required by the declaration:
   (a) Any common expense associated with the maintenance, repair, restoration or replacement of a limited common element must be assessed against the units to which that limited common element is assigned, equally, or in any other proportion the declaration provides;
   (b) Any common expense or portion thereof benefiting fewer than all of the units must be assessed exclusively against the units benefited; and
   (c) The costs of insurance must be assessed in proportion to risk and the costs of utilities must be assessed in proportion to usage.

5. Assessments to pay a judgment against the association may be made only against the units in the common-interest community at the time the judgment was entered, in proportion to their liabilities for common expenses.

6. If any common expense is caused by the misconduct of any unit’s owner, the association may assess that expense exclusively against his unit.

7. The association of a common-interest community created before January 1, 1992, is not required to make an assessment against a vacant lot located within the community that is owned by the declarant.

8. If liabilities for common expenses are reallocated, assessments for common expenses and any installment thereof not yet due must be recalculated in accordance with the reallocated liabilities.

9. The association shall provide written notice to each unit’s owner of a meeting at which an assessment for a capital improvement is to be considered or action is to be taken on such an assessment at least 21 calendar days before the date of the meeting.

Sec. 22. NRS 116.31155 is hereby amended to read as follows:

116.31155 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, an association shall:
   (a) If the association is required to pay the fee imposed by NRS 78.150, 82.193, 86.263, 87.541, 87A.560 or 88.591, pay to the Administrator a fee established by regulation of the Administrator for every unit in the association used for residential use.
   (b) If the association is organized as a trust or partnership, or as any other authorized business entity, pay to the Administrator a fee established by regulation of the Administrator for each unit in the association.

2. If an association is subject to the governing documents of a master association, the master association shall pay the fees required pursuant to this section for each unit in the association that is subject to the governing documents of the master association, unless the governing documents of the master association provide otherwise. The provisions of this subsection do not relieve any association that is subject to the governing documents of a master association from its ultimate responsibility to pay the fees required pursuant to this section to the Administrator if they are not paid by the master association.

3. The fees required to be paid pursuant to this section must be:
   (a) Paid at such times as are established by the Division.
   (b) Deposited with the State Treasurer for credit to the Account for Common-Interest Communities and Condominium Hotels created by NRS 116.630.
   (c) Established on the basis of the actual costs of administering the Office of the Ombudsman and the Commission and not on a basis which includes any subsidy beyond those actual costs. In no event may the fees required to be paid pursuant to this section exceed $3 per unit.

4. The Division shall impose an administrative penalty against an association or master association that violates the provisions of this section by failing to pay the fees owed by the association or master association within the times established by the Division. The administrative penalty that is imposed for each violation must equal 10 percent of the amount of the fees owed by the association or master association or $500, whichever amount is less. The amount of the unpaid fees owed by the association or master association bears interest at the rate set forth in NRS 99.040 from the date the fees are due until the date the fees are paid in full.

5. A unit’s owner may not be required to pay any portion of the fees or any administrative penalties or interest required to be paid pursuant to this section to both an association and a master association.

6. An association that is subject to the governing documents of a master association may not be required to pay any portion of the fees or any administrative penalties or interest required to be paid pursuant to this section to the extent they have already been paid by the master association.

7. A master association may not be required to pay any portion of the fees or any administrative penalties or interest required to be paid pursuant to this section to the extent they have already been paid by an association that is subject to the governing documents of the master association.

8. Upon the payment of the fees and any administrative penalties and interest required by this section, the Administrator shall provide to the association or master association evidence that it paid the fees and the administrative penalties and interest in compliance with this section.

9. Any person, association or master association which has been requested or required to pay any fees, administrative penalties or interest pursuant to this section and which believes that such fees, administrative penalties or interest has been imposed in error may, without exhausting any available administrative remedies, bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction to recover:
   (a) Any amount paid in error for any fees, administrative penalties or interest during the immediately preceding 3 years;
   (b) Interest on the amount paid in error at the rate set forth in NRS 99.040; and
(c) Reasonable costs and attorney’s fees.

Sec. 23. (Deleted by amendment.)

Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the executive board of an association shall, upon the written request of a unit’s owner, make available the books, records and other papers of the association for review during the regular working hours of the association, including, without limitation, all contracts to which the association is a party and all records filed with a court relating to a civil or criminal action to which the association is a party. The provisions of this subsection do not apply to:

(b) The records of the association relating to another unit’s owner, except for those records described in subsection 2.

(c) A contract between the association and an attorney.

2. The executive board of an association shall maintain a general record concerning each violation of the governing documents, other than a violation involving a failure to pay an assessment, for which the executive board has imposed a fine, a construction penalty or any other sanction. The general record:

(a) Must contain a general description of the nature of the violation and the type of the sanction imposed. If the sanction imposed was a fine or construction penalty, the general record must specify the amount of the fine or construction penalty.

(b) Must not contain the name or address of the person against whom the sanction was imposed or any other personal information which may be used to identify the person or the location of the unit, if any, that is associated with the violation.

(c) Must be maintained in an organized and convenient filing system or data system that allows a unit’s owner to search and review the general records concerning violations of the governing documents.

3. If the executive board refuses to allow a unit’s owner to review the books, records or other papers of the association, the Ombudsman may:

(a) On behalf of the unit’s owner and upon written request, review the books, records or other papers of the association during the regular working hours of the association; and laws, regulations and governing documents relating to the interruption of any utility service. An association shall in every case send a written notice of its intent to interrupt any utility service to the unit’s owner or the tenant

Assembly Bill No. 397.
The following Senate amendment was read:
Amendment No. 791.
AN ACT relating to community redevelopment; authorizing redevelopment agencies to expend money, subject to certain limitations, to improve schools located within certain cities or counties; requiring redevelopment agencies to file certain reports with the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau and with their respective governing bodies; making an appropriation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel's Digest:
Existing law authorizes the legislative body of a community, having recognized the need for a redevelopment agency to function in the community, to establish a redevelopment revolving fund. (NRS 279.386, 279.396, 279.410, 279.620) Existing law also specifies the manner in which, and the permissible purposes for which, money may be expended from the redevelopment revolving fund. (NRS 279.628) This Section 4 of this bill expands the permissible purposes for which money may be expended from a redevelopment revolving fund to include use by a redevelopment agency for the improvement, with certain limitations, of schools in a city or county with a redevelopment area within its boundaries. Sections 1 and 5 of this bill require a redevelopment agency to submit to the Director of the Legislative Counsel Bureau for transmittal to the Legislature and to the legislative body of the community a report when the agency has established a new redevelopment area and annual reports thereafter containing certain information relating to the redevelopment area.

Section 6 of this bill makes an appropriation of $15,000 to the Audit Division of the Legislative Counsel Bureau to conduct an audit of the use of property tax revenues received by redevelopment agencies.

Assembly Bill No. 451.
The following Senate amendment was read:
Amendment No. 990.
SUMMARY—Establishes a program for the issuance of state obligations to provide venture capital investment of state money in certificates of deposit at a reduced rate to provide lending institutions with money for reduced-rate loans to certain minority-owned small businesses in this State. (BDR 31-613)

AN ACT relating to state obligations; establishing a program for the investment of state money in certificates of deposit at a reduced rate to provide lending institutions with money for reduced-rate loans to certain minority-owned and other small businesses in this State; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:
Existing law allows the State Treasurer to invest the money of this State in negotiable certificates of deposit issued by commercial banks, insured credit unions or insured savings and loan associations. (NRS 355.140) Section 15 of this bill requires the State Treasurer to establish a Linked Deposit Program whereby the State, in an aggregate amount not to exceed $20,000,000, invests in certificates of deposit with commercial banks, insured credit unions or insured savings and loan associations at a reduced rate of interest on the condition that the lending institution link the value of each certificate of deposit to a reduced-rate loan to certain types of small businesses. Section 15 also provides that the rate of interest paid to the State on the deposit is to be not more than 2 percentage points below the market rate for such a deposit, and the loan rate is to be reduced not more than 2 percentage points below the market rate for such a loan. Further, section 15 requires a lending institution to sign an agreement with the State Treasurer as to the terms of such a deposit and its linked loan.

Section 17 of this bill requires a lending institution that participates in the Linked Deposit Program to apply all the usual lending standards to determine the creditworthiness of a small business seeking a loan and further requires that a preference be given to certain small businesses that are owned by a member of a racial or ethnic minority, a woman or an honorably discharged veteran of the Armed Forces of the United States; or (2) engage in the production and sale of fuel or power from an energy source other than a fossil fuel. Section 19 of this bill limits such loans to not more than $500,000 and to a term of not longer than 10 years. Section 18 of this bill limits the types of businesses that are eligible to participate in the Linked Deposit Program.
Section 21 of this bill prohibits the State Treasurer from making any new investments through the Linked Deposit Program after June 30, 2011.
