

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to public affairs; requiring that document preparation services be registered with the Secretary of State; establishing qualifications for registration; requiring the filing of a bond; regulating the business practices of document preparation services; authorizing disciplinary action and other remedies in specified circumstances; providing civil and criminal penalties; revising provisions relating to the Notary Public Training Account in the State General Fund; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law prohibits a person who is not an active member of the State Bar of Nevada or otherwise authorized to practice law in this State from engaging in the practice of law. (NRS 7.285) However, so long as he or she does not engage in the practice of law, there is currently no statutory provision governing a person who provides assistance in a legal matter, for compensation, to another person who is acting without the assistance of an attorney. This bill generally provides that any person engaged in the business of providing such assistance (a “document preparation service”) must register with the Secretary of State and comply with various additional requirements set forth in this bill.

Section 4 of this bill defines a “document preparation service” as any person who, for compensation and at the direction of a client, provides assistance to the client in a legal matter, including, without limitation, preparing or completing a pleading or other document for the client or securing supporting documents. Section 4 excludes from this definition, among others: (1) an attorney authorized to practice law in this State, or an employee of such an attorney who is paid directly by the attorney or law firm with whom the attorney is associated and who is acting in the course and scope of that employment; (2) a governmental entity or an employee of such an entity; (3) a nonprofit, tax-exempt organization which provides legal services to persons free of charge; (4) certain legal aid offices and lawyer referral services; (5) a person who provides certain services regulated by federal law; (6) a corporation or other entity representing or acting for itself through an officer or employee, or any such officer or employee; (7) a commercial wedding chapel; (8) a person who provides legal forms or computer programs that enable another person to create legal documents; and (9) a commercial registered agent.

Section 5 of this bill broadly defines “legal matter” to mean the preparation of any will or trust, any immigration or citizenship proceeding, or any other proceeding, filing or action affecting the legal rights, duties, obligations or liabilities of a person.

Sections 7 and 8 of this bill provide that any person wishing to engage in the business of a document preparation service must register with the Secretary of State and renew that registration annually. Section 7 establishes certain qualifications for registration and provides for the disqualification of any person who has been convicted of certain criminal offenses or has been adjudged to have engaged in certain kinds of misconduct.

Section 9 of this bill requires a document preparation service to file and maintain with the Secretary of State a cash bond or surety bond, to provide a means of indemnifying a client or other person for damage caused by fraud, incompetency or certain other misconduct, or providing payment to the Secretary of State for any civil penalty or award of attorney's fees or costs made against the document preparation service.

Sections 12-15 of this bill impose various requirements relating to advertising and the establishment of the relationship between a document preparation service and a client. Section 13.5 requires: (1) a registrant required to obtain a state business license to obtain and maintain a state business license; and (2) each registrant to conspicuously display at the registrant's place of business a copy of any state and local business license issued to the registrant or the registrant's employer. Section 15 provides that: (1) there must be a written contract between the client and the document preparation service; and (2) the contract must contain certain terms and disclosures.

Sections 16-20 of this bill set forth various required and prohibited practices applicable to a document preparation service. Section 17 provides for the return to the client of any original documents provided by the client. Section 18 requires the release of a client's file to any law enforcement agency on demand, with the authorization of the client. Section 19 imposes certain requirements relating to payments made by a client for services rendered by a document preparation service.

Section 21 of this bill authorizes the Secretary of State to adopt regulations to carry out the provisions of this bill, and also requires the Secretary of State to take certain actions to facilitate the submission of complaints relating to a document preparation service.

Section 22 of this bill authorizes the Secretary of State to investigate any suspected violation of the provisions of the bill. If a violation is found, the Secretary of State may: (1) issue a cease-and-desist order; (2) initiate disciplinary proceedings; (3) refer the matter to the Attorney General or a district attorney for the commencement of a civil action or criminal prosecution; or (4) take any combination of these actions. Pursuant to section 25 of this bill, a willful violation of any of the provisions of this bill, or of a regulation or order of the Secretary of State, is a misdemeanor except that a second or subsequent offense occurring within 5 years is a gross misdemeanor. In addition, section 26 of this bill provides a private right of action to any person who suffers a pecuniary loss as the result of a violation.

Existing law authorizes the Secretary of State to provide courses of study for notaries public, and to charge a fee for such instruction. The fees collected are deposited in the Notary Public Training Account in the State General Fund. (NRS 240.018) Section 27.5 of this bill requires the Secretary of State annually to reconcile the fees received and the expenses related to administering the training of notaries, and deposit any excess fees with the State Treasurer for credit to the State General Fund.
