Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Existing law sets forth procedures governing the foreclosure of real property upon default. Existing law gives a trustee under a deed of trust the power to sell the property to which the deed of trust applies, subject to certain restrictions, and requires a notice of default and election to sell real property subject to a deed of trust to include an affidavit setting forth certain information concerning the deed of trust. (NRS 107.080) Section 1.5 of this bill removes the requirement for such an affidavit and section 1 of this bill replaces the requirement to include such an affidavit in residential foreclosures. Sections 1 and 1.5 also authorize the electronic delivery of a notice of default and election to sell real property, if authorized by the parties.

Existing law provides for the establishment of a program for foreclosure mediation and generally requires that mediation, unless waived, be conducted as a condition of a judicial foreclosure proceeding or the exercise of a power of sale affecting owner-occupied housing. (NRS 107.086) Existing law also authorizes a mortgagor under a mortgage secured by owner-occupied housing or a grantor or the person who holds the title of record with respect to a deed of trust concerning owner-occupied housing to initiate mediation under certain circumstances. (NRS 107.0865) Existing law also provides that in a judicial foreclosure action concerning owner-occupied property, the mortgagor may elect to participate in the program for foreclosure mediation. (NRS 40.437) The Nevada Supreme Court is required to adopt rules to implement the program for foreclosure mediation, commonly known as the Foreclosure Mediation Program, including designating an entity to serve as the Mediation Administrator. (NRS 40.437, 107.086)

Sections 2, 3, 4 and 5 of this bill revise provisions governing the Foreclosure Mediation Program. Section 2 removes the provision of existing law that requires the Nevada Supreme Court to designate an entity to serve as the Mediation Administrator and instead requires Home Means Nevada, Inc., or its successor organization, to administer the Program. Section 2 requires Home Means Nevada, Inc., or its successor organization, to administer certain functions of the Program, including: (1) providing certain notices to certain grantors of a deed or persons who hold a title of record; (2) under certain circumstances, providing to the trustee a certificate which provides that mediation has been completed or is not required; (3) serving upon certain persons a copy of a petition to participate in mediation, by certified mail or, if authorized by the parties, electronically; and (4) developing and maintaining an Internet portal for the purpose of streamlining the foreclosure mediation process. After mediation, section 2 requires Home Means Nevada, Inc., or its successor organization, to submit to the district court the terms of any loan modification or settlement agreement. The district court is required to enter an order describing the terms of any such modification or agreement.

Sections 2, 3, 4 and 5 authorize certain grantors of a deed, persons who hold the title of record or mortgagors to petition the court to participate in the Foreclosure Mediation Program. Sections 2, 3, 4 and 5 require such a person who seeks to participate in the Program to: (1) pay a $25 filing fee upon filing such a petition; (2) serve a copy of the petition upon certain persons by certified mail, return receipt requested or, if authorized by the parties, electronically; and (3) pay his or her share of the mediation fee. Section 2 increases the fee for mediation services from $400 to $500. Section 2 additionally requires that $100 of the fee collected for mediation services be deposited into the Account for Foreclosure Mediation Assistance.

Existing law also creates the Account for Foreclosure Mediation, the money in which may be expended only for the purpose of supporting the Foreclosure Mediation Program. Existing law provides for the payment of a fee of $45 for deposit into the Account for Foreclosure Mediation at the time of recording a notice of default and election to sell real property. (NRS 107.080) Section 1.5 of this bill: (1) increases the fee from $45 to $95; (2) replaces the Account for Foreclosure Mediation with the Account for Foreclosure Mediation Assistance; (3) requires the Account to be administered by the Interim Finance Committee; and (4) provides that the money collected for the Program may only be expended for the purpose of supporting the Program and the development and maintenance of the Internet portal for a program of foreclosure mediation required pursuant to section 2. Section 9 of this bill requires the State Controller to transfer all money remaining in the Account for Foreclosure Mediation to the newly established Account for Foreclosure Mediation Assistance.

Senate Bill No. 512 of the 2015 Legislative Session (S.B. 512) provided that the Foreclosure Mediation Program ends on June 30, 2017. Sections 8 and 11 of this bill remove the prospective expiration, thereby establishing a permanent Foreclosure Mediation Program.
