A workshop was held to discuss necessary language changes to the current NAC 641 to include the regulation of psychological interns on July 12, 2013, and the minutes of the meeting, attached hereto, contain a summary of the discussion held regarding the proposed language change. Thereafter, on or about December 7, 2013, the Board of Psychological Examiners issued a Notice of Intent to Act Upon a Regulation which incorporated in the proposed amendment that was developed at the July 12, 2013 workshop. On January 17, 2014, the Board received public comment of concern in regard to possible deficit proposed regulation would cause individuals receiving internship direction at federally run institutions. On April 4, 2014, a public hearing was held, where the Board of psychological Examiners received no testimony. The Board of Psychological Examiners approved to adopt proposed regulations R111-13.

Psychological Examiners approved to adopt proposed regulations R111-13.

3. The number of persons who:

(a) Attended each hearing: July 12, 2013- 5; January 17, 2014- 10; April 4, 2014-13

(b) Testified at each hearing: July 12, 2013-0; January 17, 2014- 3; April 4, 2014- 0

(c) Submitted to the agency written comments: January 17, 2014-1

4. A list of names and contact information, including telephone number, business address, business telephone number, e-mail address, and name of entity or organization represented for each person identified above in #3, as provided to the agency, is attached as Exhibit A

5. A description of how comment was solicited from affected business, a summary of their response, and an explanation how other interested persons may obtain a copy of the summary.

Comments were solicited from affected businesses in the same manner as they were solicited from the public. The summary may be obtained as instructed in response to question #2.

6. If the regulation was adopted without changing any part of the proposed regulation, a summary of the reasons for adopting the regulation without change.

The regulation was re-submitted for change after the January 17, 2014 public hearing, after receipt of public comment.

7. The estimated economic effect of the adopted regulation on the businesses which it is to regulate and on the public. These must be state separately, and each case must be included:

(a) Both adverse and beneficial effects;

(B) Both immediate and long-term effects.

(a) Both adverse and beneficial effects:

The regulation allows the Board to regulate and monitor all aspects of training taking place within the State of Nevada, with the exception of federally regulated agencies (e.g. veterans administration hospital and clinics). This regulation will allow licensed psychologist to supervise interns to provide mental health services, which may lead to reimbursement for the psychologist. There does not appear to be adverse economic impact on psychologist or the public. As the regulation was provided to all impacted parties through public workshop and hearing notices, and no negative impact was stated by any small business owners present or through written comment.

(b) Both immediate and long-term effects.

Benefits stated above appear to be immediate and long term.

8. The estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the adopted regulation.

There will be no increased cost of enforcement.

9. A description of any regulations of other state or government agencies which the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates and a statement explain why the duplication or overlapping is necessary. If the regulation overlaps or duplicates a federal regulation, the name of the regulating federal agency.

The Board is not aware of any overlapping or duplicating of federal or state regulations.

10. If the regulation includes provisions that are more stringent than a federal regulation which regulates the same activity, a summary of such provisions.

There are no federal regulations that apply.

11. If the regulation provides a new fee or increases an existing fee, the total annual amount the agency expects to collect and the manner in which the money will be used.

Not applicable.

Regulation adopted on April 4, 2014.
