AN ACT relating to the judicial system; creating the Supreme Court Commission on Law Libraries and the District Court Commission on Law Libraries; reorganizing the Second and Eighth Judicial Districts; making an appropriation; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 2 of this bill re-creates the Supreme Court Commission on Law Libraries, prescribes the duties of the Commission and establishes the salaries for the justices who serve on the Commission. (NRS 2.410) Section 1 of this bill clarifies that salary from service on the Commission is included within the definition of salary for the purposes of the statutory provisions pertaining to pensions. (NRS 2.060)

Section 4 of this bill re-creates the District Court Commission on Law Libraries, prescribes the duties of the Commission and establishes the salaries for the judges who serve on the Commission. Section 9 of this bill clarifies that salary from service on the Commission is included within the definition of salary for the purposes of the statutory provisions pertaining to pensions. (NRS 3.090)

Section 12 of this bill makes an appropriation to pay the salaries of the members of the Supreme Court Commission on Law Libraries and the District Court Commission on Law Libraries.

Existing law creates the Second and Eighth Judicial Districts with certain judges designated for the family court. (NRS 3.012, 3.018) Sections 5-8 of this bill reorganize those districts to provide for the designation of family court judges separate from other judges in those districts. In addition, Sections 10 and 11 of this bill provide for the abolition and recreation of the office of certain district judges. The first term of office for the new judges is 4 years. This reorganization will allow all district judges to be elected at the same time in those districts rather than at staggered times.

Section 13 of this bill provides that the provisions of this bill concerning the Commissions on Law Libraries become effective on January 1, 2009, if, and only if, Senate Bill No. 248 is enacted by the 74th Session of the Nevada Legislature and approved by the Governor.
