

CHAPTER.....

AN ACT relating to real property; providing that a deficiency in payment on a mortgage, deed of trust or other encumbrance may be cured under certain circumstances before foreclosure; providing that a court shall not award a deficiency judgment on the foreclosure of a mortgage or a deed of trust under certain circumstances; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Legislative Counsel’s Digest:

Section 1 of this bill provides a right to cure a deficiency in payment on a mortgage or other encumbrance before a judicial foreclosure sale at any time not later than 5 days before the date of sale.

Under existing law, a judgment creditor or a beneficiary of a deed of trust may obtain, after a hearing, a deficiency judgment after a foreclosure sale or trustee’s sale if it appears from the sheriff’s return or the recital of consideration in the trustee’s deed that there is a deficiency of the proceeds of the sale and a balance remaining due the judgment creditor or beneficiary of the deed of trust. (NRS 40.455) Section 2 of this bill provides that if the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust is a financial institution, a court may not award a deficiency judgment to the judgment creditor or the beneficiary of the deed of trust if: (1) the real property is a single-family dwelling and the debtor or grantor was the owner of the property; (2) the debtor or grantor used the loan to purchase the property; (3) the debtor or grantor occupied the property continuously after obtaining the loan; and (4) the debtor or grantor did not refinance the loan.

Section 3 of this bill provides that the amendatory provisions of this bill apply only prospectively to obligations secured by a mortgage, deed of trust or other encumbrance upon real property on or after the effective date of this bill.
