

Victoria Rogers, Waiting List Coordinator, NRHA

Victoria Rogers is a single mom who has benefited from the Housing Choice Voucher (Section 8) program. Victoria has always had a passion for helping not only those close to her, but the community as well. Victoria trained to become a veterinary assistant for 6 months, and worked closely with animals for an additional 2 years. 1 year ago, Victoria changed career paths and began working with Nevada Rural Housing Authority in the eligibility department. This position has given her the opportunity to work closely with families in similar situations in which she has found herself in as well. Victoria's experience as a participant on the Housing Choice Voucher program has taught her personally how beneficial affordable housing is to the community.
