

FINANCIAL LITERACY IN CCSD

SB 249 in the Clark County School District

March 21, 2018

Financial Literacy: SB 249

- SB 249 became effective July 1, 2017
- CCSD awarded $700,000 on March 2, 2018
- Connection to revised Social Studies Nevada Academic Content Standards (NVACS)
- Impacts grades three to twelve

Challenges

- Timelines for funding... only received approval with funds on March 2, 2018
- Standards for financial literacy component of Social Studies Nevada Academic Content Standards added in December 2017
- Limited staff to work on project

Financial Literacy Task Force

- Teachers creating lesson plans to utilize resources purchased through grant
- Teachers assisting in designing financial literacy symposiums

Timeline: On-going

Financial Literacy Micro-credentialing

- 100 teachers to earn micro-credential
- "EVERFI Financial Education Certified Teacher" – private BloomBoard course developed for CCSD
- Resources provided by EverFi
- Aligned to Social Studies Nevada Academic Content Standards (NVACS) for financial literacy
- Creating financial literacy expert teachers in CCSD

Timeline: April 5, 2018

Financial Literacy Symposiums

- Nevada State Treasurer Officer Financial Literacy Summit targeted to grades three to twelve – 300 teachers

Timeline: May 5, 2018

- Elementary Financial Literacy Symposium targeted to all elementary teachers – 600 teachers

Timeline: June 11, 2018

- Secondary Financial Literacy Symposium targeted to all social studies teachers – 600 teachers

Timeline: June 12, 2018

ASK AN EXPERT

Financial Literacy E-books

- 20 e-books correlated to financial literacy standards for all elementary schools
- 30 e-books correlated to financial literacy standards for all middle and high schools
- Lessons will be created by the taskforce utilizing these resources.

Timeline: June 30, 2018

Additional Financial Literacy Resources

- Connections to various financial literacy organizations and their resources
- Materials supporting content given during Financial Literacy Symposiums
- Canvas course available to teachers supporting financial literacy in the classroom

Timeline: June 30, 2018

Next Steps

- FY 19 will focus on the change in high school graduation requiring a course on economics for July 1, 2022.
- Trainings will be provided for high school social studies teachers.
- Materials will be procured for economics instruction aligned to Nevada Academic Content Standards (NVACS).

Timeline: June 30, 2019

Thank You

- Jesse Welsh, Assistant Superintendent, Curriculum and Professional Development Division
  - welshj@nv.ccsd.net
- Shannon La Neve, Director, Curriculum and Professional Development Division
  - lanevsb@nv.ccsd.net
- Stephanie Morgan, Administrator on Special Assignment, Social Studies
  - morgasa@nv.ccsd.net