AGENDA ITEM IV—APPROVAL OF MINUTES OF THE MEETING HELD ON MAY 17, 2018

MOTION: Senator Woodhouse moved to approve the minutes of the May 17, 2018, meeting. The motion was seconded by Vice Chair Thompson and passed unanimously.

AGENDA ITEM V—PRESENTATION ON THE UNIQUE EDUCATIONAL CHALLENGES TO BE ADDRESSED IN THE AFRICAN AMERICAN COMMUNITY

Yvette Williams, Chair, Clark County Black Caucus (CCBC), read into the record a letter from Roxann McCoy, President, National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, Las Vegas Branch #1111 (Agenda Item V A-1).

She presented information on African American education identifying disparities, achievement, and opportunity gaps (Agenda Item V A-2).

Ms. Williams submitted the following documents:

- IMPACT—INVO Multi-Disciplinary Program to Address Childhood Trauma (Agenda Item V A-3);
- Nevada School Advanced Placement (AP) Score Distributions Data (Agenda Item V A-4);
- AP Exams by Race and Ethnicity Overview (Agenda Item V A-5);
- The Civil Rights Project, Expanding Student Opportunities, Prime 6 Program Review, CCSD (Agenda Item V A-6);

- Preliminary Nevada Career and Technical Education (CTE) Enrollment Overview (Agenda Item V A-7);
- Economic Costs of Adverse Childhood Experiences in Alaska, by Patrick Sidmore, M.S.W., for the Alaska Mental Health Board and the Advisory Board on Alcoholism and Drug Abuse (Agenda Item V A-8); and
- A Yale Child Student Center research study brief titled, Do Early Educators' Implicit Biases Regarding Sex and Race Relate to Behavior Expectations and Recommendations of Preschool Expulsions and Suspensions?

Discussion ensued between Vice Chair Thompson and Ms. Williams with regards to CTE program access and outreach efforts to African American students.

AGENDA ITEM VI—FACILITATED DISCUSSION AND NEXT STEPS RELATED TO THE NO TIME TO LOSE: HOW TO BUILD A WORLD-CLASS EDUCATION SYSTEM STATE BY STATE REPORT

Michelle Exstrom, Education Group Director, National Conference of State Legislatures (NCSL), shared systemic and complex education issues. She encouraged Nevada to take this opportunity to learn from the highest performing educational systems.

Senator Woodhouse discussed her participation and representation on the NCSL international study group, and advised the Committee the group will be meeting in Maryland to learn about that state's efforts to transform its educational system. She offered to provide a detailed report on the study group's findings at the Committee's next meeting.

There was discussion among Committee members and Ms. Exstrom regarding potential next steps related to the committee's work on the No Time to Lose report, including proposing related recommendations at the committee's Work Session in August, involving districts in forming future policies, and observing Maryland's work and progress with the No Time to Lose report.

AGENDA ITEM VII—PRESENTATION ON THE NEVADA EDUCATIONAL CHOICE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Brett Barley, Deputy Superintendent for Student Achievement, Nevada Department of Education (NDE), introduced the NECSP.

Melissa Schroeder, Education Programs Professional, Title I Programs, Student Achievement Division, NDE, provided the Nevada Educational Choice Scholarship Program 2017–2018 Report (Agenda Item VII A).

Kim Dyson, Certified Public Accountant (CPA), AAA Scholarship Foundation, presented AAA Scholarship Foundation information (Agenda Item VII B-1). She highlighted program student success stories (Agenda Item VII B-2).

Valeria Gurr, Nevada State Director, Nevada School Choice Coalition, discussed recommendations on educational opportunity expansion for students (Agenda Item VII C).

Discussion ensued among Committee members and presenters on the following issues:

- Achievement data on NECSP recipients;
- NECSP recipient tracking challenges;
- NECSP recipients' ethnic group percentages;
- Tuition options for students attending private schools;
- Public school to private school student transfer rate;
- Private school student retention rates; and
- NECSP fund distribution process.

AGENDA ITEM VIII—DISCUSSION CONCERNING THE EQUITY ALLOCATION MODEL FOR SCHOOL DISTRICT FUNDING

Steve Canavero, Ph.D., Superintendent of Public Instruction, NDE, presented information and recommendations on the Equity Allocation Model (Agenda Item VIII A-1). He submitted the report of the Equity Allocation Model Working Group, 2018 Update of the Equity Allocation Model (Agenda Item VIII A-2).

There was discussion among Committee members and Dr. Canavero to understand the equity allocation model formula and charter school accounting.

Richard W. Stokes, Superintendent, Carson City School District, testified to the negative impact of NDE's equity allocation model formula proposal on rural school districts (Agenda Item VIII B). He agreed with a phase-in process of the proposal.

Phyllis Dowd, Director of Business Services, Churchill County School District, reported on the negative impact of NDE's equity allocation model formula proposal to the Churchill County School District. She expressed support for the four-year phase-in process and the use of the 2018–2019 guarantee for per pupil allocation.

Dr. Canavero communicated the NDE's continued work on the proposal's details with the equity allocation committee.

AGENDA ITEM IX—PRESENTATION ON THE REORGANIZATION OF THE CLARK COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT

Steve Canavero, previously identified, presented information on the reorganization of the CCSD (Agenda Item IX A-1) and the Clark County School District 2018 Plan for the Implementation of Actions to Finalize Compliance with Assembly Bill 469 (Chapter 11, Statutes of Nevada 2017) (Agenda Item IX A-2).

Discussion ensued between Assemblywoman Benitez-Thompson and Dr. Canavero on per pupil weights, variances, and how school specialists receive payment for services.

AGENDA ITEM X—PRESENTATION ON STUDENT ASSESSMENTS

Brett Barley, previously identified, provided introductory remarks on the student assessment system.

Peter Zutz, Administrator of Assessment, Data & Accountability Management, Student Achievement Division, NDE, made a presentation on the collection of student and enrollment information, student privacy, and assessments (Agenda Item X A).

Mr. Barley provided an overview of K through 12 state assessments given to students (Agenda Item X A).

There was discussion among Committee members and presenters regarding the following:

- Amount of time elementary students spend on state assessments;
- Status of SB 303 (Chapter 494, Statutes of Nevada 2017) that requires an audit of certain performance assessments in public schools; and
- Data gathering, requests, and privacy issues.

Teri White, President, Nevada Association of School Superintendents, and Superintendent, Douglas County School District, submitted a summary of responses from districts to survey question one—Does the district administer student assessments beyond those mandated by the state? If so, what are they? (Agenda Item X B).

There was further discussion between Assemblywoman Miller and Mr. Barley on the availability of results from the student-teacher ratio survey.

AGENDA ITEM XI—DISCUSSION CONCERNING STUDENT SAFETY AND WELL-BEING

Ken Young, Captain, Operations Division, West Area, Police Services, CCSD; Anthony York, Captain, Operations Division, East Area, Police Services, CCSD; and Mike Blackeye, Lieutenant, Administrative Division, Police Services, CCSD, presented information on community

collaboration, school safety, school police training and drills, the community action team, and Safe Voice program (Agenda Item XI A-1) (Agenda Item XI A-2).

Captain York outlined a possible bill draft request for a school resource officer designation and expanded jurisdiction (Agenda Item XI A-5).

Steve Canavero, previously identified, informed the Committee that the School Safety Task Force continues to meet and will receive the recommendations from two subcommittees in July.

Christina (Christy) McGill, Director, Office for a Safe and Respectful Learning Environment, NDE, presented information on the Safe Voice program in collaboration with the Department of Public Safety (Agenda Item XI B).

Teri White, previously identified, submitted a summary of responses from districts to survey question two—In light of the school shootings that have happened recently, has your district embarked on any new school safety initiatives? (Agenda Item XI C).

Discussion ensued among Committee members and presenters regarding the following issues:

- The types of firearms confiscated and consequences;
- The types of paid and volunteer school police forces and their relationship with students;
- Social media crimes; and
- Concerns with the marketing and public knowledge of the Safe Voice program.

AGENDA ITEM XII—PRESENTATION OF LEGISLATIVE PRIORITIES AND FOCUS ON RESTORATIVE PRACTICES

Tiffany Tyler, Ph.D., Chief Operations Officer, Nevada Partners, Inc., University of Nevada, Las Vegas, and Chief Executive Officer, Communities in Schools of Nevada, introduced My Brother's Keeper Alliance legislative priorities and focus on restorative practices (Agenda Item XII A-1) and CCSD's expulsion, suspension, and behavior referral totals for 2013 through 2017 (Agenda Item XII A-2).

Ken Young, previously identified, provided information on CCSD restorative justice practices (Agenda Item XII A-1).

Charles Sebek, Coordinator III, Equity and Diversity Education Department, Instructional Services Unit, CCSD, and member of My Brother's Keeper Alliance, continued the presentation with an overview of restorative justice practices (Agenda Item XII A-1).

Robert Tarter, Principal, Juvenile Court Schools/Clark County Detention Center, Instructional Services Unit, CCSD, and Michael Maxwell, Ed.D., Manager, Youth Development and Social Innovation, City of Las Vegas, outlined the following legislative priorities (Agenda Item XII A-1):

- Direct NDE to introduce a Nevada School Performance Framework indicator that recognizes Nevada schools for an overall reduction in exclusionary discipline, including a reduction in disproportionality. As part of this initiative, require public access to discipline data by school, subgroup, and offense in compliance with existing law;
- Fund evidence-based restorative justice practices to improve school culture, climate, safety, and student outcomes. Implement policy changes to create aligned statewide expectations and create funding streams through state grants;
- Increase state juvenile assessment center models that focus on youth assessment and assist youth and families in need of services by increasing funds targeted for these services in order to duplicate centers such as the Harbor in Clark and Washoe Counties;
- Mandate school-justice partnerships through state grant resources that incorporate restorative justice approaches to divert children from the juvenile justice system. Provide targeted funding to start or expand school-justice pilot programs with cross-agency stakeholder commitment;
- Eliminate exclusionary discipline in grades Pre K through 5;
- Strengthen AB 196 (Chapter 213, Statutes of Nevada 2017) to require training in cultural competency as a component of license certification and re-certification to increase awareness of implicit bias, positive social-behavioral interventions, ensure consistent student behavior management, and the equitable administration of discipline across all schools and districts; and
- Review due process safeguards used by local education agencies, particularly the responsibility to provide education services pending exclusionary discipline.

AGENDA ITEM XIII—DISCUSSION CONCERNING THE NEVADA PROMISE SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

Nate Mackinnon, Vice Chancellor for Community Colleges, Nevada System of Higher Education, presented information on the Nevada Promise Scholarship Program (Agenda Item XIII).

Discussion ensued regarding funding sources and success of the mentor requirement.

AGENDA ITEM XIV—PRESENTATION ON SCHOOL FUNDING SOLUTIONS AND THE SALARY INCENTIVE PROGRAM FOR PROFESSIONAL GROWTH FOR EDUCATIONAL PERSONNEL

John Vellardita, Executive Director, CCEA, presented information on school funding solutions and local revenue streams (Agenda Item XIV).

Brenda Pearson, Director of Professional Learning, CCEA, stated the professional growth system offers educators the opportunity to engage in high-quality professional learning aligned with professional goals, district initiatives, and school needs (Agenda Item XIV).

Discussion ensued regarding the local revenue stream concept and weighted funding system.

AGENDA ITEM XV—PUBLIC COMMENT

Chair Denis called for public comment.

Chris Daley, previously identified, commented on the overall inadequate funding of Nevada's schools. He reported the NSEA is participating in the SB 178 (Chapter 453, Statutes of Nevada 2017) funding working group.

Terri Gomez, parent, Las Vegas, Nevada, commented on the NECSP; the employment of English language teachers, and CCSD's budget.

Angie Sullivan, teacher, CCSD, voiced support for the professional growth plan and CCEA.

Tracy Leonard, teacher, CCSD, expressed support for the professional growth plan and CCEA.

Loretta Harper, previously identified, indicated support for the professional growth plan, but she is concerned that CCSD does not have the funds for this plan.

Stephen Augspurger, Executive Director, Clark County Association of School Administrators and Professional-Technical Employees, testified that any salary schedule that enhances professional growth is good for teacher and students.

The following documents were submitted for the record:

1. Written testimony provided by Katherine A. Dockweiler, Ed.D., President, Nevada Association of School Psychologists (Agenda Item XV A);
2. Written testimony submitted by Dolly Rowan, teacher and member, SOT, Paul E. Culley Elementary School, CCSD (Agenda Item XV B); and
3. Written testimony from by Alison Clark, resident, Las Vegas, Nevada (Agenda Item XV C).
