

✓	EXHIBIT K TAHOE	Document consists of 5 pages.
	Entire document provided.	Meeting Date 04-13-06

Nevada Division of Emergency Management

Gary Derks

Operations Officer

MASS EVACUATION DEFINED

- Large scale evacuations can be defined as the need to evacuate single or multiple operational areas that would immediately require State assistance. Additionally, any evacuation impacting any single or multiple operational area to receive and shelter evacuees that would immediately require State assistance.

Who is involved

Nevada DEM Gary Derks

Nevada Highway Patrol

Douglas County

Carson City

Washoe County

California OES Tom Murphy

California Highway Patrol

Placer County

ElDorado County

Challenges

Two States

Five Counties

Seven Plans

Different Statues

Liabilities

All Hazards Planning

Earthquakes

Wild Land Fire

Flooding

Terrorist

Disaster Management

City

County

State

Federal

Planning Process

Local Jurisdiction

Plan Activated

County will Assist

State will Assist

Interaction Between Jurisdictions

Sharing of Plans

Training on Plans

Exercising Plans

Major Elements Considered

Alert and Notification

- Emergency Alert System
- Commercial Radio
- Television

Shelters/Center

Public Safety

Medical Difficulties

- Disabilities
- Life Support

Major Elements

Responsibility- Law or Fire

Event Driven Wildland Fire Different
then Earthquake

Ingress vs. Egress

Emergency Response

Major Elements Continued

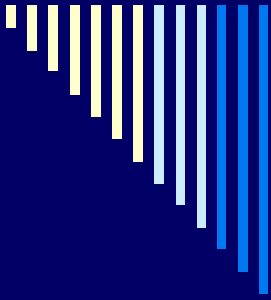

Shelter in Place

Are there already plans in place

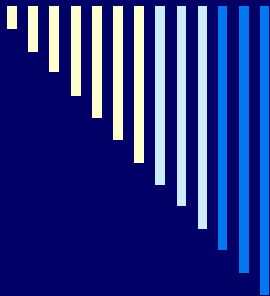

If so are they workable

Several Counties, which plan to use

Coordination of movement

□ Questions

Gary Derks
Operations Officer
Nevada Division of Emergency Management
775.687.4240
gderks@dps.state.nv.us