A durable power of attorney is an important legal document. Before you sign this durable power of attorney, are authorizing another person to act for you, the principal. Before you sign this durable power of attorney, you should know these important facts:

Your agent (attorney in fact) has no duty to act unless you and your agent agree otherwise in writing.

This document gives your agent the powers to manage, dispose of, sell, and convey your real and personal property, and to use your property as security if your agent borrows money on your behalf.

Your agent will have the right to receive reasonable payment for services provided under this durable power of attorney unless you provide otherwise in this power of attorney.

The powers you give your agent will continue to exist for your entire lifetime, unless you state that the durable power of attorney will last for a shorter period of time or unless you otherwise terminate the durable power of attorney. The powers you give your agent in this durable power of attorney will continue to exist even if you can no longer make your own decisions respecting the management of your property.

You can amend or change this durable power of attorney only by executing a new durable power of attorney or by executing an amendment through the same formalities as an original. You have the right to revoke or terminate this durable power of attorney at any time, so long as you are competent.

This durable power of attorney must be dated and must be acknowledged before a notary public or signed by two witnesses. If it is signed by two witnesses, they must witness either (1) the signing of the power of attorney or (2) the principal's signing or acknowledgment of his or her signature. A durable power of attorney that may affect real property should be acknowledged before a notary public so that it may easily be recorded.

You should read this durable power of attorney carefully. When effective, this durable power of attorney will give your agent the right to deal with property that you now have or might acquire in the future. The durable power of attorney is important to you. If you do not understand the durable power of attorney, or any provision of it, then you should obtain the assistance of an attorney or other qualified person.

GIVING AND GRANTING unto my said Attorney full power and authority to do and perform all and every act and thing whatsoever requisite, necessary or appropriate to be done in and about the premises as fully to all intents and purposes as I might or could do if personally present, hereby ratifying all that my said Attorney shall lawfully do or cause to be done by virtue of these presents. The powers and authority hereby conferred upon my said Attorney shall be applicable to all real and personal property or interests therein now owned or hereafter acquired by me and wherever situate.

My said Attorney is empowered hereby to determine in his/her sole discretion the time when, purpose for and manner in which any power herein conferred upon him/her shall be exercised, and the conditions, provisions and covenants of any instrument or document which may be executed by him/her pursuant hereto; and in the acquisition or disposition of real or personal property, my said Attorney shall have exclusive power to fix the terms thereof for cash, credit and/or property, and if on credit with or without security.

FOLLOW UP - NEW MATERIAL SUBMITTED

November 5, 2005

RE:
PAROLE AND PROBATION

To: the Legislative Board

To whom it may concern:

I am writing to address an urgent request for new laws regarding the Prison System to be implemented. I now have firsthand experience with the abuses on inmates by the Lieutenants and S/COs due to research and documentation that I have collected. I have spoken with Wardens, Case Workers and everyone at the Head District Office, including Glen Whorton. I am convinced that there is a cover up.

The inmates are being physically and emotionally abused by the Lieutenants and S/COs in the Prison System. The guards get angry because of resistance from inmates that the guards provoke due to the distasteful way they are treated. The inmates are pushed, woken up in the middle of the night to the sound of clinking flashlights against the bars. Razors are grabbed out of inmates hands while shaving, just to name a few. The inmates are treated with disdain. A human being can only take so much before resistance sets in. Then there is the illegal drugs that are still being sold to inmates by Prison Guards. The Prison Guards are committing the same crime that the inmates are in prison for.

In one case, the inmate was violently assaulted by five Lieutenants and three S/COs when they slammed his face into the concrete, kned him in the rib cage and distorted his arm. The guards got angry because the inmate would not give permission to take his blood. The guards would not explain the reason that they did not need his permission. As a result, the inmate was treated for his bruises, put on medication and thrown into isolation until his bruises healed. Prison Guards turned off the tape so that his screams could not be heard. I take issue with the Northern Nevada Correctional Center where it happened. Prison staff will cover up, less everyone involved be known as a whistle blower.

At Nevada State Prison where the same inmate was transferred - (I believe because of a suicide attempt concerning his grievance denials and no reply from the Director of Prisons), he was handed a form stating that his release was locked in, one or two weeks before his release date. They took his blood, etc., he had his bus ticket and was ready to go. At the close of day before release, he was told that his parole was pulled, and the Case Worker would not give him a reason. He got the paperwork a week later stating that it was do to a referral of past bad conduct. Everything up to this time had been cleared for release. Debbie Royer at the District Office said, "there is no such thing as a locked in release date!" This is very contradictory! The Parole Board gave another year in prison to this inmate, going along with the prisons referral. The inmate did not go before the Parole Board on this.

Mistakes were made on the computer that were not corrected by the prison. It should be mandatory that hard core inmates be housed separate from lesser felons instead of guards trying to throw them in with hard core gangs and murderers. An example is the priest murderd in prison. The aforementioned with respect to the instigation by guards, accomplishes nothing except emotional trauma to the inmates, resulting in resistance. Then, the inmates are written up for their inability to cope, and dates for release are continually moved up months and years ahead at tax payers expense. I believe that the head District

Office and Parole Board will not listen with specificity to the grievances of the inmates with an open mind. They will almost always side with the prison reports.

I am not an advocate for the inmates, but I do think that the Prison System needs to be changed and new laws activated in order to benefit both sides. It's a two-way Street! If better treatment by the Prison Guards were shown towards the inmates, most probably the guards would be more respected by the inmates. The US Department of Justice in Washington knows what's going on, but unfortunately, their authority is limited to act within a certain framework.

In conclusion, I would appreciate it if legislature would take my concerns for a more humane Prison System into consideration. Possibly, if Nevada laws were enforced, it would set a precedent and better standards for Prisons in other states to follow.

Respectfully,

Re: Proposal for consideration of Code changes to be enacted by Legislature

REF: AR 707 - 1.6 Work Release Violations (Class C)

Work release should not be considered a violation as a condition for referral to Probation/Parole, for revocation of inmate parole release date, if the following has occurred: Pain suffered by an inmate from severe toothache, migraine headache, and previous injury. This has not been considered. Who can work under those conditions! Under these circumstances, an inmate who has a guilty work-release violation should not be subjected to Parole Revocation.

REF: AR 707 - 1.5 Major Violations

MJ20 - Tattooing: Tattooing should not be considered a major violation. It should be reduced to a general violation (Class D Infraction) for the following reasons: First of all, it is not illegal! Second, there is no violence and no intent to harm anyone connected with tattooing. Concerning 1.2.1., and 1.2.3, the aforementioned should apply. A guilty violation of tattooing should be excluded from Parole Revocation.

REF: 707.10 Referrals for Parole/Probation Revocation

Concerning 1.1.3, and 1.1.3.1, an inmate should have within a 24 hour notice after a referral to Probation/Parole has been made for Parole Revocation. A time limit of no more than 30 days from the date of the finding of guilty should be allowed on a referral to Probation/Parole by the Warden and/or Prison Staff. This should apply to non-disclosure cases that have been approved under the "confidential information" provisions of the Code.

Refer to 707.11 - AR 537, 1.1, 1.2, 1.3. The reason for the aforementioned is because, it has been the practice to wait 25 days before the inmate's parole release date to make a referral to Probation/Parole. When an inmate receives a verbal notice without paperwork the day before release, this action results in emotional and psychological harm to the inmate and his family. Probation/Parole should answer inmate's letters as to why their parole was revoked, instead of receiving a blank notice 9 days later. This should apply to an inmate's guilty offense of a major, or work release violation and "confidential information" provisions of the Code. As it is, referrals to Probation/Parole are referred many months later.

Re: Code Changes, and regulations that are not enforced

SERIES 700 - 707.01 DEPARTMENT POLICY

1.4 Corporal punishment or inhumane Treatment is prohibited. (3-4268)
This is not being enforced! The Prison System turns a blind eye - (see my letter dated November 5, 2005).

SERIES 100 AND AR 109 - 109.01 CODE OF ETHICS (3-4067)

1.4 This regulation states that the Code of ethics will be strictly enforced. The regulation is not being enforced! Some, but not all guards are pushing inmates, waking them up in the middle of the night to the sound of clinking flashlights against the bars, and grabbing razors out of their hands while shaving.

SERIES 700 - 707.04 INMATE DISCIPLINARY PROCESS

1.1.2 When a correctional/guard employee reports a Code violation, it states that opinions and assumptions shall not be included. I have written proof of an assumption by a guard. This policy is not enforced.

AR 707 TAPING

1.3.5.10 Recorded tape was turned off so that inmate's abuse could not be heard - (see letter dated November 5, 2005).

In summation, I know that all guards are not violating the Codes/rules. However, the guards that are in violation should be held accountable and the Wardens need to be held responsible for the guards. Some guards are abusing their authority by provoking the inmates. This is serious, because both guards and inmates are going to the hospital and being treated for injuries. There should be a no tolerance policy for the guards as well.

Respectfully,

Nancy C. Dyas

NOTE: Please refer to copies of inmate's appeals, proof of abusing authority, and violation of 707.04 1.1.2 Opinions and assumptions shall not be included. (See attached) Inmate was written up for MJ 25 - Threats. He was found not guilty. Guard's own Statement, - ("this was taken as a threat"). (SEE ENCLOSED)

Please refer to the statement typed and sent by CCS 11 Ken Grafton - (took from the chair to a position on his back on the floor.) How could the inmate have redness on the left side of his face if he was put on his back? (SEE DOC MEMORANDUM)

I was told by the inmate at Lovelock Correctional Center that there is a Mover Cuff-up Policy. Under the guidelines, the inmates lose work credits if moved to another Unite/cell in the middle of work performed. He has to move to another cell/unite, or go to isolation and have the work credits removed anyway. This is totally unfair and unjust. This should be addressed in the Codes and changed. The inmates should be able to take work credits with them.

Respectfully,

MEMORANDUM

TO: Marchese, Jason #76925

DATE: April 25, 2005

FROM: CCS II Ken Grafton
Nevada State Prison

SUBJECT: Informal grievance, GR#2005-4-3887

You allege Lt. Bianchi made derogatory remarks to you by saying "We'll just take the blood from you." You claim this was a threat. It was not a threat but a statement of fact. Medical memorandum from Medical Director Dr. D'Amico, dated April 28, 2000, mandates blood draws are done immediately after an inmate is seen with a new tattoo, and repeated at six weeks, twelve weeks, and six months. NSP Nurse Taylor and C/O Powers both observed you with a fresh tattoo. Even though the memorandum authorized NDOC to take your blood as early as March 14, 2005, Lt. Bianchi agreed to wait until after your Disciplinary hearing.

Sgt. Rose held that hearing on March 25, 2005. A review of the audiotape of that hearing indicates that he conducted the hearing appropriately. He did not make the statement "I don't care what you think or say." Sgt. Rose found you guilty of the MJ20 charge and you were asked repeatedly by Lt. Bianchi and SC/O Cruise to submit to the blood draw as required by medical procedures. Tape was off
No

X When you continued to refuse, SC/O Cruise took you from the chair to a position on your back on the floor. All participants and witnesses agree minimal force was used to draw the blood. This was supported by the medical exam performed afterward by Nurse Nick Frost. That exam showed only slight redness on the left side of your face, and some bruising at the site of the blood draw. Sgt. Warner

X The statements of everyone present, as well as your lack of injuries, contradict your characterization of SC/O Cruise's actions as being vicious. The officers held your arms and legs to prevent you from being injured during your resistance to the blood draw.

Had you complied at any point with the proper orders to submit to a blood draw, the entire incident would have been avoided.

Your grievance is denied.

CCS II GRAFTON - ("TOOK FROM CHAIR
TO A POSITION ON HIS BACK TO THE FLOOR.")

HOW COULD THE INMATE HAVE "REDNESS ON HIS FACE" IF SC/O CRUSE PUT HIM ON "HIS BACK?" ("SEE COPY OF INMATE'S

I currently have started an appeal process, on Sgt. Rose's Railroadment of me through my hearing. Sgt. Rose stated; "I don't care what you think, or have to say. I'm finding you guilty & if you don't like it, you can appeal through the appeal process." I believe Sgt. Rose intentionally found me guilty, to obligate myself into giving consent for the blood draw that they wanted. All of a sudden, in a rush out of nowhere, before I had even received my copy of the hearing. I had Lieutenant Bianchi, Lieutenant Etchart, S/CO Cruse, ~~S/CO~~ C/O Lagier & C/O Irwin all sneak up on me from behind & start to surround me in an intimidating manner. Lieutenant Bianchi was at the center of this encirclement, Lieutenant Etchart stood just to my left & S/CO Cruse stood hidden behind me on the left.

: Lieutenant Bianchi yelled; "I don't have to show you anything, we're just going to take it!!!" Lieutenant Bianchi looked past me with his eyes & nodded his head. All of a sudden, out of no where, blindingly from behind. S% Cruse viciously clothes-lines me from the chair that I'm seated in, straight down to the concrete floor, face first. Lieutenant Etchart, C/O Lagier & C/O Iewin all then joined in on S% Cruse's assault on me; "Jason M. Marchese, #76925 NDAC." Let me remind you; that I was already seated, with belly chains, handcuffs & leg irons on, when I was struck viciously from behind. Lieutenant Etchart, C/O Lagier & C/O Iewin held my left arm & both legs still on the floor. While S% Cruse purposely lunged one of his knees into the right side of my rib cage. I winced in pain, as my left arm was distorted & twisted out from my side.

I plead not guilty, ~~Sgt~~ Cruse referred it & quickly left with Lieutenant Bianchi. Right after that, my door opened & I was called to the front of cell block/wing A for my food. When given my food, an S/O made a remark; "here's that special tray, for our special guy." I received my tray & proceeded back to my cell. I did not eat anything on the tray, due to the suspicious activity & comments made to me. The next day, on March 25, 2005, at 1:13 p.m. I was called out of my cell, placed in belly chains, handcuffs & leg irons. I was escorted down the hall way of unit 12, where I was told to take a seat & sit down for my hearing. Sgt. Rose was the chairman for my hearing. While my hearing was being quickly conducted, I looked around & only noticed one other officer present.

- Prison guard brutality, you do not have to show -

- that your injury was "Serious," only that it -

- was more than minor. In Hudson v. McMillian, -

- minor bruises & swelling were found to be enough for a claim.

- Hudson v. McMillian, 503 U.S. 1, 112 S. Ct. 995, 117 L. Ed. 2d 156 (1993) -

- Substantive Due Process

- Prisoners already have lost most of their liberty, but there -

- are a few "liberty interests" that prisoners retain.

- The right to bodily privacy falls under this category.

- Substantive due process may protect you from certain deliberate -

X - embarrassing types of exposure to guards & officials of opposite sex etc.

- Director of Prisons -

- Still no reply from "Jackie Crawford"
- Denied appeal process & my optional right to it
- Grievance response in first level went un-answered,
- ignored, with no issues being addressed when specifically
- requested "more thorough investigation on this"
- Then again, with a final process on second level
- seeking punitive damages...
- Cancelling appointment to see & talk to the Psc.
- No one to really talk to; high ranking officials already immediately involved
- Denied to enter me in program/counseling/treatment over
- this whole incident when respectfully requested...
- Transferred to different institution & placed in
- punitive segregation "Ad. Seg." instead of admitting
- to mental health unit for program/counseling/treatment;
- to address issues on what happened & severity of incident
- impacted on me with no one to talk to...
- "I'm tired of being told to be quiet & being quiet. I'm
- trying everything I can to be heard in this matter &
- I'm still being by-passed by everyone & ignored"
