In 1997 the Oregon Telecommunications Forum Council established a pioneering healthcare work group. In 2001, the group was reestablished by the Oregon	The purpose of the TAO is to support the use of telecommunications to improve access to high quality health care and other allied services.	The Telehealth Alliance of Oregon membership is open to anyone interested in supporting the purpose and goals of the organization.
Telecommunications Coordinating Council, and in December 2002, the Telehealth Alliance of Oregon was founded. The Telehealth Alliance of Oregon (TAO) is a not-for profit organization dedicated to using telecommunications technology to improve health care access for all Oregonians	The five goals of TAO are: 1. Improve access to high quality health care through telehealth; 2. Promote collaborations that advance telehealth; 3. Provide and promote education about telehealth; 4. Provide and support technical assistance; and 5. Promote telehealth research.	If you would like more information about TAO please contact: Cathy Britain, Chair cbrtain@orednet.org 541-963-7366 You are invited to join the listserv or our monthly meetings.
