ENERGY ASSISTANCE APPLICATION

The Energy Assistance Program (EAP) is designed to help eligible Nevada households with heating and electric costs.

EAP also provides assistance to eligible households with special circumstances:

- Fast Track – an expedited application process for emergencies like energy shut-offs;
- Crisis Intervention – assists households whose gross income exceeds the limit, except that an allowable expense reduces the income to, or below, the income guideline limit;
- Arrearage Assistance – one-time assistance to help a household bring past due charges on their heating and/or electric bill(s) current. Arrearage Assistance available only to homes receiving services from Nevada Power, Sierra Pacific Power, Southwest Gas, or the cities of Boulder City, Caliente, Fallon or Pioche. (See Section C. of application.)

* INCOME REQUIREMENTS *

The total gross monthly income of all household members may not exceed 150% of poverty as shown in the chart below.

YOUR HOUSEHOLD'S GROSS MONTHLY INCOME MAY NOT EXCEED:
Household Size	Monthly Income	Household Size	Monthly Income	Household Size	Monthly Income
1	$1,163.75	4	$2,356.25	7	$3,548.75
2	1,561.25	5	2,753.75	8	3,946.25
3	1,958.75	6	3,151.25	9	4,343.75

Add $397.50 for each additional person.

* BENEFITS *

Eligible households receive an annual one-time per year benefit, called a "fixed annual credit," paid directly to their energy provider. The benefit shows as a credit on the bill.

MINIMUM PAYMENT – Eligible households whose fixed annual credit results in a benefit of zero to $179, receive the minimum payment of $180 for the year.

* WHEN TO APPLY *

- If your family is not currently on the program, apply NOW.
- If you received a benefit during the past 12 months, an application will automatically be mailed to you. Those reapplying before their 12 months of benefits have expired will be denied.

* WHAT DO I NEED? *

Complete an EAP application and supply the documentation noted in red on the form. Suggested income verifications are noted on the back of this page. To get answers to other questions, call:

REQUIRED PROOF OF INCOME DOCUMENTATION EXAMPLES

1099 and W-2 forms are unacceptable proof of income

All documentation sent with your application can be either originals or photocopies. If you cannot photocopy the originals, our office will be happy to copy the material and send it back after your case is processed, if you request the originals back.

Earned Income: Need copies of check stubs for the last thirty (30) days. If paid weekly – 4 check stubs; paid bi-weekly or semi-monthly – 2 check stubs. A signed and dated statement on letterhead from your employer stating your gross income for the last thirty (30) days and how often you get paid, e.g., weekly, bi-weekly, semi-monthly, is acceptable if you don't have check stubs.

Earned income includes: income from babysitting, house cleaning, and other odd jobs. The person you work for must state your pay amount, how often you are paid, and include their name, address and phone number.

Unearned Income: Unearned income includes Social Security, SSI, Veterans Benefits, pensions, disability income, military income, unemployment, child support, alimony, interest income, dividends, regular insurance or annuity payments. Provide copies of checks, benefit verification form or award letter from the entity providing the income, or a complete copy of the most recent bank statement showing the automatic deposit (identify the source of each deposit). The benefit verification should be for the current year showing any cost of living raise. Child support/alimony income: copy of divorce decree/separation/settlement agreement, or dated letter from person paying the support (to include name, address and phone number), or copy of last check/statement from child support enforcement agency. Interest income/dividends: bank account statements, certificates of deposit, etc., if contains details and signed by financial institution; or broker's quarterly statement showing earnings.

Recurring Gifts and/or Support: Signed statement by the person providing the money on a regular basis, which indicates the amount of support, how often it is paid, and when the arrangement began; or dated and signed statement by the applicant identifying the name(s), address(es), and phone number(s) of the donor(s).

Student Income: Includes ALL educational scholarships and grants, e.g., PELL, BEOG, SSIG and Veteran's Administration educational benefits. Need written confirmation of amount of assistance, and educational institution's written confirmation of cost of the student's tuition, fees, books and equipment for prior two semesters. If benefits are paid directly to the student, copies of the latest benefit checks or cancelled checks for prior two semesters and copies of canceled checks or receipt for tuition, fees, books and equipment. Include summer school if this applies as well.

Self-Employment Income: The best thing to do is call the office and discuss what is needed in advance. Administration of or income from a non-profit organization is included under self-employment income. Profit and loss statements signed by the applicant detailing gross income and expenses during the last thirty (30) days, copy of sales tax statement showing gross net proceeds, audited or unaudited financial statements, or a loan application listing income and expenses for the last thirty (30) days are also acceptable verifications.

Public Assistance Income: Public agency's written statement with amount paid during the last month, the time frame covered, and the beneficiaries of aid; or, copy of award letter; or copy of check.

H. SIGNATURE

I hereby authorize any investigation concerning me and other household members necessary to determine eligibility for benefits received or to be received under programs administered by the Nevada State Welfare Division. I hereby authorize and consent to the release of any and all information confidential by law or otherwise privileged under NRS 422.290 or any other provision of law or otherwise. I hereby release the holder of such information from liability, if any, resulting from the disclosure of the required information. I acknowledge that a reproduced copy of this authorization legally constitutes an original copy. I consent that the Nevada State Welfare Division or its representatives may survey my energy usage, advise vendors of assistance grants, and status at the time of certification. If my eligibility/benefit determination was based on inaccurate or incomplete information that resulted in my household receiving benefits to which we were not entitled, it is my responsibility to repay the benefits of the Energy Assistance Program and I may be subject to criminal prosecution. I authorize the Energy Assistance Program to release information about my household, to include energy usage information, to the State of Nevada Housing Division, Weatherization Assistance Program, for possible eligibility in weatherizing my residence. I have read and understand the "Rights and Obligations" form and I realize that I must give complete and accurate information. Persons found guilty of intentionally violating program rules will be ineligible for program participation for one (1) year for the first violation, two (2) years for the second violation, and permanently barred from the program for the third violation.

I SWEAR EVERY ANSWER IS TRUE.

A. You have the following RIGHTS:

1. No person will be discriminated against for any reason, i.e., race, age, color, religion, sex, disability, handicap [including AIDS and AIDS-related conditions], political belief or national origin, in any program administered by the Nevada State Welfare Division. Violations of discrimination shall be promptly reported to the nearest Energy Assistance Program office, the Nevada State Welfare Division administrator, 1470 East College Parkway, Carson City, Nevada 89706-7924, (775) 684-0500, the U.S. Office for Civil Rights (OCR), Department of Health and Human Services, 50 United Nations Plaza, San Francisco, California 94102, (415) 437-8310, TDD (415) 437-8311 or by calling toll free 1-800-368-1019.
2. You have the right to a conference if you believe you have been unfairly treated or a mistake has been made concerning your eligibility for assistance. To request a conference, write or call the Energy Assistance Program
3. You have the right to a hearing if you are not satisfied with the agency's action affecting your assistance if you request the hearing, in writing, within ninety (90) days of the agency's action / decision, unless the sole issue for the agency's action/decision is one of state or federal law requiring automatic benefit adjustment. You have the right to a hearing if your application for benefits is denied, reduced, acted upon erroneously, or not acted upon with reasonable promptness.
4. You have the right to a mailed notice of decision telling you if you are eligible for program benefits and in what amount, to whom payments will be made, and the approximate payment date(s); or a notice informing you that you are not eligible for program benefits and why.
5. Program staff is required to:
 - Inform applicants of the eligibility requirements for the program;
 - Counsel on required documents; and/or
 - Provide assistance to the applicant, when needed.

B. You have the following OBLIGATIONS:

1. Notify the Energy Assistance Program within ten (10) working days of any of the following. Failure to do so may delay processing your application, or result in denial of benefits or a reduction in benefits.
 - Any change in your household income or household size (number of people residing in the household);
 - If you change utility companies; or
 - If you move anytime after submitting your application.
2. Respond to any requests for additional information needed to process your application within ten (10) working days. It is your responsibility to ensure the requested materials are mailed or faxed early enough to meet the deadline provided to you. The Energy Assistance Program is not responsible for lost or misdirected mail.
3. Cooperate with the Energy Assistance Program in its efforts to secure all information necessary to determine eligibility or benefits.

C. SPECIAL NOTE:

1. If you are applying for the Energy Assistance Program, you may receive help with your heating and/or electric bills. But remember, you must keep paying your bills when they are due. If you do not pay them, the company can charge more money for paying late. The utility company can even turn off your service and you may be required to pay a deposit before they will turn your service on again. If you cannot pay your bill, contact the utility company and try to make payment arrangements.
2. Persons found guilty of intentionally violating program rules will be ineligible for program participation for one (1) year for the first violation, two (2) years for the second violation, and permanently barred from the program for the third violation.

My signature below indicates I understand the Rights and Obligations as an applicant for the Energy Assistance Program.
