

Please don't make a vaccine mandate. There are many who would be isolated and discriminated against that are immunocompromised or have a genetic condition called MTHFR that makes them vulnerable to adverse effects. Besides, it's not YOUR body to make that decision. Just be smart and don't fall for the government pressure to control our bodily autonomy, because that's pushing communism.