

AARP State Fact Sheet

AARP is working to help Americans 50+ live life to the fullest. We advocate for our members on critical priorities, such as strengthening Social Security, protecting seniors' access to their doctors, and ensuring all Americans have independence and choice as they age. AARP serves as a one-stop resource for information on the 50+ population. We also offer programs and tools that help Americans age 50+ make the best decisions about their health and financial security, as well as live comfortably in their communities. We hope the data below and programs on the reverse side that are unique to your state will be helpful to you.

Livable and Age-Friendly Communities

AARP is helping cities, towns, counties and states become great places for people of all ages to live, work and play through improved housing, transportation, public spaces and more. More than 650 communities across the country have enrolled in the AARP Network of Age-Friendly States and Communities, and we have funded more than 1,000 local community improvement projects through AARP Community Challenge grants. Learn more at www.aarp.org/livable and see these on our map at www.aarp.org/livablemap.

Finding a Job or Starting a Business

Whether you're looking for a new job or thinking about starting your own business, AARP can help. Check out www.aarp.org/work for access to the AARP Job Board, Resume Advisor, and Skills Builder for Work. The site also has tips and information on topics such as job hunting, using social media and fighting age discrimination. If you are interested in starting or growing your own business, AARP provides tools, resources and tips at www.smallbizrc.org.

AARP Local Programs and Events

Whether you're interested in sharpening skills, trying to meet other caregivers, or wanting to learn new information, AARP Programs connects you to fun and interactive live and online resources. All programs are offered nationwide at no charge! Learn how to save money, prevent fraud, understand Social Security and Medicare, and more. You can learn online anytime through interactive videos, instructor-led virtual workshops, Tele-town Halls and online fairs. We also look forward to returning to in-person events throughout 2022. Find us at learn.aarp.org or www.aarp.org/nearyou.

Keeping Ahead of the Curve with AARP Driver Safety

All drivers can sharpen skills and refresh their knowledge by taking the AARP Smart Driver course, available online or in a classroom, in English or Spanish. In some states, participants may receive a multi-year auto insurance discount for completing the course. To learn more, visit www.aarp.org/drive or call 877-846-3299. In addition, CarFit, www.aarp.org/carfit offers drivers the opportunity to check how well their personal vehicles "fit" them at our free CarFit events nationwide. The free We Need to Talk seminar, www.aarp.org/WNTT provides tips on how to recognize when it's time for loved ones to limit or stop driving. Smart DriverTEK helps drivers understand new vehicle technologies. Find free Smart DriverTEK workshops at www.aarp.org/sdtek.

Caring for a Loved One

Caring for a family member or close friend is one of the most important and complicated roles you'll play. AARP offers a wealth of information to help caregivers understand, plan and make well-informed decisions for their loved ones. We also help employers support and retain working caregivers and welcome new partners. Find resources, tools and support to help you manage the care of a loved one at www.aarp.org/caregiving or call 1-877-333-5885.

Staying Safe from Scammers

Fraud activity has reached an all-time high in the US. American consumers reported losing more than $5.8 billion to fraud in 2021, according to the Federal Trade Commission." Because scams are under-reported, we know losses are actually much higher. We also know that older victims lose a lot more money when they are targeted. Visit www.aarp.org/fraudwatchnetwork to learn how to spot and avoid the latest scams. Call the AARP Fraud Watch Network Helpline to report a scam or find help for you or a loved one. That number is 877-908-3360.
