Nevada Assembly

February 12, 2026

The Honorable Sandra Jauregui, Chair
Legislative Commission
401 South Carson Street
Carson City, Nevada 89701

Dear Chair Jauregui and Members of the Legislative Commission:

As Chair of the Joint Interim Standing Committee on Health and Human Services (JISC HHS), ([Nevada Revised Statutes \[NRS\] 218E.320](#)), I am respectfully requesting approval from the Legislative Commission for one additional meeting during the 2025–2026 Interim, beyond the six meetings that were approved on October 28, 2025.

Pursuant to subsection 3 of NRS 218E.330, the Legislative Commission is required to review and approve the budget and work program of each Joint Interim Standing Committee and any changes to the budget or work program. During the two recent legislative interims, JISC HHS held at least seven meetings to accommodate the wide range of pressing topics within the Committee's jurisdiction. To maximize the effectiveness of JISC HHS, an additional meeting will allow the Committee to further study the impacts federal changes will have on Nevada's health care system to inform members and the public in advance of the 2027 Legislative Session.

Please contact me with any questions.

Sincerely,

Assemblymember Tracy Brown-May, Chair
Joint Interim Standing Committee on Health and Human Services

The Honorable Sandra Jauregui
Chair, Legislative Commission
401 South Carson Street
Carson City, Nevada 89701

Dear Chair Jauregui and Members of the Legislative Commission:

As Chair of the Joint Interim Standing Committee on Revenue (NRS 218E.320), I am respectfully requesting the Legislative Commission's approval for the Committee to conduct one additional meeting during the 2025-2026 Interim, beyond the six meetings that were approved by this Commission on October 28, 2025. I am further requesting approval for this additional meeting to be conducted beyond the August 31 deadline for committee business established in subsection 1 of NRS 218E.325.

The Legislature, in Assembly Bill 76 of the 83rd \(2025\) Legislative Session, required a study on the taxation of cannabis to be submitted by the Cannabis Advisory Commission to the Joint Interim Standing Committee on Revenue on or before October 5, 2026. Since their enactment nearly a decade ago, these taxes have been an important source of funding for K-12 education in the State of Nevada, and I believe that it is important to allow the Committee to discuss the study after its submission and before the November 2026 General Election, so that additional time can be dedicated to consideration of any policy changes that may be proposed during the 84th Session of the Legislature.

Please contact me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Joint Interim Standing Committee on Revenue
