(Revised Business Impact Statement on Next Page)

Business Impact Statement
Proposed Regulation R146-20
Revised May 10, 2021

Pursuant to the authority to adopt regulations in NRS 240A.250, R146-20 is necessary to carry out the provisions of this chapter. Specifically, R146-20 is necessary to establish procedures for the suspension or revocation of a registration to perform document preparation services, or for imposition of a civil penalty of up to $1,000 per violation, which may be imposed only after a hearing, excluding certain grounds for suspension specified in NRS 240A.

Under existing law, the Secretary of State may conduct an investigation of alleged violations of chapter 240A and may conduct an examination of required records pursuant to NRS 240A.265. Under existing law, after an investigation, if the Secretary of State determines that a violation of law occurred, the Secretary of State may begin proceedings to suspend or revoke a person's registration as a document preparation service. Assembly Bill 245 (81st Legislative Session) becomes effective July 1, 2021 and amends NRS 240A.260 to allow the imposition of a civil penalty of not more than $1,000 per violation of law. Imposition of a civil penalty, or suspension or revocation of a registration may only be imposed after a hearing, except for the provision in NRS 240A.120(5) when a registrant is no longer covered by a bond or the penal sum of the bond is exhausted, in which instance the registration is suspended by operation of law. LCB File No. 146-20 sets forth the procedures for such a hearing.

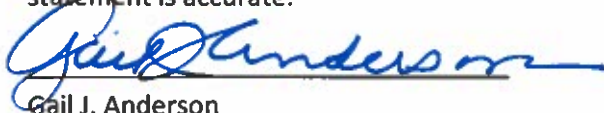

Economic impact could result from this proposed regulation to registrants or to a person found in violation of unregistered activity if an investigation finds substantiation for violations of chapter 240A of Nevada Revised Statutes or Nevada Administrative Code. Possible costs that could be incurred are cost of an attorney should the respondent to a Complaint and Notice of Hearing choose to have legal counsel and cost of any civil penalty that might be imposed after a hearing. There is no economic impact to the public with the proposed regulation, except to serve to protect the public by fining, suspending, or revoking any registrant not complying with the requirements of chapter 240A.

Persons wishing to comment upon LCB File No. 146-20 and the proposed addition of imposition of a civil penalty to action that may be noticed for a hearing may appear at the scheduled public Workshop, or may address their comments, data, views or arguments, in written form to Gail Anderson, Deputy Secretary of State for Southern Nevada, 2250 Las Vegas Blvd. North, Suite 400, North Las Vegas, Nevada 89030 or gjanderson@sos.nv.gov on or before May 21, 2021.

Based on the forgoing, it is hereby determined that R146-20 does not pose a direct and significant economic burden upon a small business operating in compliance with the law, and does not directly restrict the formation, operation or expansion of a small business.

The Secretary of State will use the public workshop to receive comments on any small business impact and may change its conclusions if necessary.

I certify that to the best of my knowledge or belief, a concerted effort was made to determine the impact of the proposed regulation on small businesses and that the information contained in this statement is accurate.
