

LCB File No. T002-01

ADOPTED TEMPORARY REGULATION OF THE
COMMISSION ON PROFESSIONAL STANDARDS IN EDUCATION

(Effective April 11, 2001)

NAC 391.098 Endorsements. (NRS 391.019) [Effective July 1, 2002.]

1. To receive an endorsement on an elementary license, a person must complete 12 semester hours of credit within the area of the endorsement, except that:

(a) An endorsement for English requires the completion of 3 semester hours of courses in advanced composition, descriptive grammar and speech.

(b) An endorsement to teach pupils who are enrolled in a program of bilingual education requires the applicant to pass the examination required by subsection 1 of NAC 391.242, if an examination is available.

2. The board recognizes the following subjects for an endorsement on an elementary license:

(a) Art.

(b) Computers and technology relating to the use of computers.

(c) English.

(d) Health.

(e) Mathematics.

(f) Literacy.

(g) Science.

(h) Social studies.

(i) Physical education.

(j) Bilingual education.

(k) Music.

3. An endorsement on an elementary license is not required to teach in kindergarten through eighth grade. The provisions of this subsection do not prohibit a school district from requiring a specific endorsement on an elementary license as a requirement for employment with that district.

391.398 Substitute teacher of special education: Application for additional extension of period of hire. (NRS 391.019)

1. If a school district is unable to hire a licensed special education teacher at the expiration of an extension granted pursuant to subsection 3 of NAC 391.332, it may apply to the department for an additional extension for the remainder of the school year. The application must be in writing and include:

- (a) Evidence that the school district has advertised a position for a licensed special education teacher;
- (b) Evidence that the school district was unable to hire a licensed special education teacher;
- (c) Evidence that the school district was unable to hire a licensed elementary or secondary teacher to fill the position of a special education teacher;
- (d) If a substitute teacher was hired rather than an applicant who holds an elementary or secondary license, the rationale for such a hiring; and
- (e) An assurance that the school district will continue its efforts to hire a licensed special education teacher for the remainder of the school year.

2. The department shall report the application for an additional extension and the disposition of the application to the commission at the next meeting of the commission for which notice of the report may be given pursuant to subsection 2 of NRS 241.020.
