

BOAK, C. C., Nye County. Residence, Tonopah, Nye County, Nevada. Mine operator; born, March 15, 1870, Hamilton County, Iowa; parents, W. W. and Samantha K. Boak; graduate Webster City High School, Elliott Business College, a one-year law course at Burlington, Iowa; special course in Advertising at Philadelphia, Pa., and short course in Technology, Pennsylvania; married Grace Elva Fuller in Daytona, Florida in 1912. Came to Tonopah 1904; engaged in stock brokerage and mining; elected to Assembly of Nevada State Legislature eleven times, first in 1926; now serving in the 45th Session; Republican; postmaster four and one-half years at Tonopah under the Hoover administration; a pioneer in the good roads movement; National Director of the U. S. 6 Roosevelt Highway, Provincetown, Mass., to Long Beach, California.

C. C. Boak
Nye County