Re: The Annual Report of Investments of Money in Scrutinized Companies

Pursuant to Nevada Revised Statute 355.300 – 355.360, the State Treasurer shall prepare an annual report of investments of money from a public fund in scrutinized companies as identified pursuant to NRS 355.335 for the immediately preceding calendar year. NRS 355.330 defines a “Scrutinized company” as any company that engages in a boycott of Israel.

In calendar year 2018, there were no investments under the purview of the State Treasurer’s Office in identified scrutinized companies. The State Treasurer’s Office used credible, publicly available information and other state lists to identify restricted companies.
