Assembly Bill 365 removes the criminal penalty for a state officer who refuses to allow access to a public record. Instead of the criminal penalty, the measure substitutes a procedure for civil enforcement of the laws governing access to public records. The bill also grants immunity from liability for damages to public officers, employees and their employers who act in good faith in disclosing or refusing to disclose information.

MARCH 16, 1993

Referred to Committee on Government Affairs

SUMMARY—Substitutes civil enforcement of access to public records for criminal penalty.
(BDR 19-393)

FISCAL NOTE: Effect on Local Government: No.
Effect on the State or on Industrial Insurance: No.

EXPLANATION—Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets [ ] is material to be omitted.

AN ACT relating to public information; substituting civil enforcement of access to public books and records for a criminal penalty for denial of access; conferring immunity upon public officers and employees for certain actions in good faith; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE
AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

1 Section 1. Chapter 239 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the 2 provisions set forth as sections 2 and 3 of this act.

3 Sec. 2. If a request for inspection or copying of a public book or record
4 open to inspection and copying is denied, the requester may apply to the 5 district court in the county in which the book or record is located for an order
6 permitting him to inspect or copy it. The court shall give this matter priority
7 over other civil matters to which priority is not given by other statutes. If the 8 requester prevails, he is entitled to recover his costs and attorney's fees in the 9 proceeding from the agency whose officer has custody of the book or record.

10 Sec. 3. A public officer or employee who acts in good faith in disclosing or 11 refusing to disclose information is immune from liability for damages, either 12 to the requester or to the person whom the information concerns.

13 Sec. 4. NRS 239.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

14 239.010 [1.] All public books and public records of state, county, city,
15 district, governmental subdivision and quasi-municipal corporation officers 16 and offices of this state (and all departments thereof), the contents of which 17 are not otherwise declared by law to be confidential, [shall] must be open at 18 all times during office hours to inspection by any person, and the [same]
19 books and records may be fully copied or an abstract or memorandum
20 prepared therefrom, and any copies, abstracts or memoranda taken therefrom
21 may be utilized to supply the general public with copies, abstracts or memo-22 randa of the records or in any other way in which the [same] books and 23 records may be used to the advantage of the owner thereof or of the general 24 public.

1 [2. Any officer having the custody of any of the public books and public
2 records described in subsection 1 who refuses any person the right to inspect
3 such books and records as provided in subsection 1 is guilty of a
4 misdemeanor.]

5 Sec. 5. NRS 122.040 is hereby amended to read as follows:

6 122.040 1. Before persons may be joined in marriage, a license must be 7 obtained for that purpose from the county clerk of any county in the state, at 8 the county seat of that county.

9 2. Before issuing a marriage license, the county clerk may require evi-
10 dence that the applicant for the license is of age. The county clerk shall accept 11 a statement under oath by the applicant and the applicant's parent, if availa-12 ble, that the applicant is of age.

13 3. The county clerk issuing the license shall require the applicant to 14 answer under oath each of the questions contained in the form of license, and,
15 if the applicant cannot answer positively any questions with reference to the 16 other person named in the license, the clerk shall require both persons named 17 in the license to appear before him and to answer, under oath, the questions
18 contained in the form of license. If any of the information required is 19 unknown to the person responding to the question, he must state that the 20 answer is unknown.

21 4. If any of the persons intending to marry is under age and has not been 22 previously married, and if the authorization of a district court is not required, 23 the clerk shall issue the license if the consent of the parent or guardian is:

24 (a) Personally given before the clerk;

25 (b) Certified under the hand of the parent or guardian, attested by two 26 witnesses, one of whom must appear before the clerk and make oath that he 27 saw the parent or guardian subscribe his name to the annexed certificate, or 28 heard him or her acknowledge it; or

29 (c) In writing, subscribed to and acknowledged before a person authorized 30 by law to administer oaths. A facsimile of the acknowledged writing must be 31 accepted if the original is not available.

32 5. If the authorization of a district court is required, the county clerk shall 33 issue the license if that authorization is given to him in writing.

34 6. All records pertaining to marriage licenses are public records and open
35 to inspection pursuant to the provisions of NRS 239.010. [Any county clerk
36 who refuses to permit an inspection is guilty of a misdemeanor.]

37 7. A marriage license issued on or after July 1, 1987, expires 1 year after 38 its date of issuance.

ASSEMBLY BILL 364 - Makes various changes regarding access to public books and records.

ASSEMBLY BILL 365 - Substitutes civil enforcement of access to public records for criminal penalty.

ASSEMBLY BILL 366 - Establishes procedures for public inspection of public records.

ASSEMBLY BILL 367 - Defines "public record" to accommodate various forms in which records are maintained.

ASSEMBLY BILL 368 - Requires charges for copies of public records not to exceed cost.

Assemblyman Gene Porter, District 8, testified AB 364, AB 365 and AB 366, as well as AB 367 and AB 368 scheduled to be heard on Wednesday, April 14, resulted from an interim subcommittee which he had chaired, to study Nevada's laws governing public books and records. Committee members, a twelve member advisory group appointed by the Governor to assist in deliberations, and the results of the study can be found in Bulletin No. 93-9, Research Library, Legislative Counsel Bureau. Mr. Porter then described how the study was carried out with the results leading to the adoption of 22 recommendations. It was those 22 recommendations which now made up the aforementioned five bills. Continuing, Mr. Porter said, "The issues involved with public records are difficult ones. There are few areas of public policy that have as many competing interests. The government's need for information, the people's right to have access to that information and the fundamental right to privacy must be delicately balanced. The task before the subcommittee and advisory group was enormous. Our public record's law has not been significantly amended since 1911. What you have before you is our attempt to balance those significant competing interests." Mr. Porter then gave the committee a brief overview of all the bills. In closing, Mr. Porter urged the committee to read the study and said, "The deliberations that you will undergo for the next two days, and subsequent work sessions, force you to balance the information contained, and which is now available in the technology age, with the public's right to know what its government is doing. Government has a lot of information on each of us, private industry has a lot of information on each of us....what the ACR subcommittee tried to do was formulate a broad, general policy that anything done on taxpayer time or expense within the public arena was accessible to the public." He explained the only exception dealt with medical records within a public facility, those records would be kept confidential. He then advised the committee to not try and craft exemptions to accommodate those in the audience who would testify to their own respected interest, as several hundred already existed in Nevada law and a subsequent interim study had been recommended to study those exemptions.

Mrs. Lambert questioned the meaning of the definition "governmental entity." She gave an example utilizing Chapter 624. Mr. Porter replied the subcommittee's definition was contained in Section 2 of AB 364. Mrs. Lambert then asked, "You think having 'funded by public money' will preclude any exemptions, like the example I gave you for the general improvement districts?" Mr. Porter answered he did not see any conflict in the two definitions. Further discussion followed.

Mr. Neighbors asked if a fiscal impact had been determined on any of the bills, specifically AB 366. Mr. Porter responded AB 366 merely outlined how to acquire a record, explaining the process.

Ande Engleman, Nevada Press Association (NPA) introduced Laura Wingard, City Editor, Las Vegas Review-Journal and President, Society of Professional Journalists.

Ms. Wingard presented prepared testimony (EXHIBIT C) to the committee.

Ms. Engleman then introduced Evan Wallach, General Counsel, Nevada Press Association, citing his background.

Mr. Wallach stated the public not only had the right to know, but the need to know, in order to make intelligent decisions and to give informed consent. He then proceeded to elaborate on his statement, addressed Mrs. Lambert's concern regarding the definition of "governmental entity, and explained the objectives of each bill.

Mrs. Lambert queried Mr. Wallach regarding Section 3, page 2 of AB 364. She asked, "Who is going to determine this and will they need guidelines?" Mr. Wallach answered, "This section arises because some years ago the Nevada Supreme Court decided a case called Bradshaw." He then gave his interpretation of the Bradshaw case and its interpretation across the state by governmental entities. He added, "I have yet to hear of a situation where somebody has asked for governmental records which are open by law, and the AG's office or District Attorney has said, 'We balanced it and you won, you get these records.' That's wrong, that's dead flat wrong. That's what this is in here to correct." Further discussion ensued regarding balancing.

Ms. Engleman testified this was not the first attempt to bring Nevada's public record's law into the twentieth century. She referenced the interim study performed in 1982 and the access the public presently had under Nevada Revised Statute 239. In addition, she presented the committee with Exhibit D and said, "You see an article there before you where a Clark County Commissioner could not even access public information as to the financial status of his own County from the County Treasurer who was another elected official....We are not set up to help the public, other than to give them some non-legal advice on things they might ask for when they go in....There really is no one to help the public at all at the present time." She then described the various problems encountered when attempting to acquire public records, the NPA's reluctance to participate in the interim study, the results of a private study she herself had conducted via telephone with each school district in an attempt to find out how much the County Superintendent of Education was paid, and pointed out the bills were a result of compromise. In conclusion, she directed the committee's attention to Exhibit E, a survey commissioned by NPA, and the removal of punitive affects on a public employee for refusing access to public records.

Mr. Williams asked for more clarification on Section 3. He suggested balancing dealt with a specific situation at a specific time but did not take into consideration future potentialities of abuse to the public. Mr. Wallach replied records closed by law were the only ones being dealt with. He said, "We are not asking that you mandate that somebody provide the information, because if we did and you did it, you would be saying it was open. We are not saying this laundry list of things which should be closed is something which should be opened. All we are saying in here is stop and consider. The situation that you pose is one factor to consider. But there are so many varieties in human experience, that all you can do is ask somebody in the law to apply it on a situation-by-situation basis. It's not perfect but it is the most workable thing we could create and it, at least, addresses your concern."

Mrs. Augustine commented on the survey saying, although statewide, it was such a small sample. A discussion ensued regarding statistical sampling.

In one last comment, Ms. Engleman clarified why it was important to open personnel files.

Karen Kavanau, Director, State Department of Data Processing, stated she had served on the advisory committee adding, "AB 367 which you will hear tomorrow declares electronic or computer records as a public record. AB 366 describes the procedure for accessing a public record. The Department of Data Processing is neutral as to what records should be accessible. This is clearly a legislative decision. I am here today to request two minor modifications to AB 366 and to emphasize a third point. If you would refer to Section 2 of AB 366 it reads,....I would ask that you would strike the words 'or other electronic means.' The reason I say that is because, if you don't, this could be interpreted to permit direct on-line access to government's databases and data communication networks. I don't believe that's your intent and I can tell you that state government simply isn't prepared for it. In Section 3, subsection a, subsection 2, if you would insert the word paper in the sentence that reads,....if you would amend that to say facilities for making 'paper' copies. The reason I ask that is, if you don't, it could be interpreted that government would have to provide facilities to make diskettes and tapes which could be very expensive. And finally, in Section 5, it reads,....I would like you to clarify....that we are talking about the government entity that actually does gather and use that data, not the data keeper. The word custody is somewhat vague." She then gave an example, adding, "I just need some clarification in that section to make that perfectly clear that the department of data processing or its equivalent in other government organizations is not required to provide information that it does not have authority over."

Chairman Garner asked Ms. Kavanau to provide him with a list of proposed amendments as well as a copy for Mr. Wallach.

Mr. Porter pointed to Section 2 of AB 366 and said what the committee had envisioned was simply a fax machine, therefore, he did not object to the proposed amendment in that area.

Mr. Garner explained he was going to hear all testimony regarding all the bills pertaining to public records, but no action would be taken until a thorough study had been performed.

Tom Grady, Executive Director, Nevada League of Cities (NLC), stated after joint meetings with Nevada Association of Counties (NACO) and the cities and counties, he was pleased to submit the joint statement of the two organizations (Exhibit F) which supported most of the legislation with amendments.

Robert Hadfield, Executive Director, NACO, testified he had been a member of the advisory committee. He agreed with Mr. Porter the proposed legislation affected everyone; and with NPA that there was a spirit of cooperation in the effort to come up with recommendations for the committee. However, he said he thought it was necessary to present the dialogue which had taken place during the study but was not contained in the recommendations. When Mr. Hadfield asked Mr. Garner if he should step through Exhibit F, item by item, or if the committee would prefer to read it at its leisure, Chairman Garner replied he preferred the latter choice. Mr. Hadfield then summarized the concerns of NLC and NACO.

William Isaef, Chief Deputy City Attorney, City of Reno, stated he had served on the advisory committee and generally was in favor of AB 364, AB 365 and AB 366 with proposed amendments. Regarding AB 364, Mr. Isaef discussed the definition of "governmental entity," suggesting two definitions were being offered, both differing among the five bills and needing resolution; the reverse balancing test and the results it could render; violations of the supremacy laws of the United States by district or state judges; and open personnel records. Expressing his concerns regarding AB 365, Mr. Isaef said they pertained to criminal proceedings against public employees for not providing public records and attorney's fees and costs. He next referenced AB 366 and supported Ms. Kavanau's suggestions, stating his reasons why; expressed his concern regarding Page 1, lines 20-22, which he felt would be creating new records from old records; and said he would appear to testify further on AB 367 and AB 368 at the scheduled hearing. In closing, Mr. Isaeff said, "We think that a good effort has been made here. We obviously don't agree with everything that's in the report. As a member of that advisory committee, I strongly argued for things that did not make it into the report. But this is the legislation before you and we're prepared to support this as much as we can, with amendments we feel will improve the effort."

Mr. Garner asked for written copies of Mr. Isaeff's comments and amendments.

Mrs. Segerblom asked Mr. Isaeff, "Are you suggesting that a government contract with a private company should not be public?" Mr. Isaeff replied absolutely not, with comment.

Michael Pitlock, Member, Nevada Public Service Commission, supported the concept of the legislation but intimated clarification was necessary. He said he would provide the chair with proposed, written amendments.

Myla Florence, Administrator, State Welfare Division, supported concepts but stated concerns. Written testimony, including proposed amendments, was provided to the committee. Exhibit G pertained to AB 364, Exhibit H to AB 366.

Brooke Nielsen, Assistant Attorney General, Office of Attorney General, introduced Melanie Crossley, Deputy Attorney General, Office of Attorney General, who had participated on the advisory committee. Ms. Nielsen testified she should have signed up in support of the legislation but with amendments. She then provided the committee with Exhibit I, written testimony, and proceeded to summarize it.

Debbie Cahill, Nevada State Education Association, introduced Mike Dyer and Jim Penrose, Attorneys, Nevada State Education Association. She then turned the floor over to Mr. Dyer who spoke as general counsel for the organization. Mr. Dyer explained his comments were directed to personnel files of educational employees only and did not support or oppose any other part of AB 364 or the other bills. He said educational employees were unlike other employees, stressing teachers were subject to questioning by parents and other members of the public on a constant basis. Therefore, he did not think teachers should have their personnel records open to anyone and everyone who could pay the $2.00, $5.00 or $10.00, especially students who could circulate the files around campus and faculty. Mr. Dyer then gave reasons and examples why it would not be good to open personnel records of teachers. In conclusion, Mr. Dyer asked for an amendment to AB 364 to exempt the records of educational employees unless there was a pending civil or criminal action requiring a disclosure of those records.

Mrs. Segerblom asked what information was available on teachers, Mr. Dyer replied under AB 364, everything; under current law, the balancing test and Bradshaw applied. He then gave an example of a legitimate request. When asked how long employee records were kept, Mr. Dyer answered it varied from district to district.

Jim Weller, Director, Department of Motor Vehicles and Public Safety, introduced Darcy Coss, Deputy Attorney General, Department of Motor Vehicles and Public Safety, and said the department's position on the legislation was neutral, but he wanted to express the department's concerns to the committee, which he did.

Darcy Coss concurred with the statements which had been made by previous testifiers and added her own reasons why records should not be opened. In conclusion, Ms. Coss said she would provide her statements in writing to the chair and Mr. Wallach.

Mrs. Kenny questioned the release of names and addresses. Ms. Coss explained those names were released under current law for legitimate purposes such as law enforcement, insurance or accident reports. When asked if a form containing the reason why the request was being made was prepared in these instances, the reply was yes.

Mrs. Freeman asked for clarification regarding the DMV providing lists to catalogs. Mr. Weller responded DMV did sell mailing lists to catalogs, stating the department had realized $21,916 in 1992 and, to date, $21,067. The lists contained name, address and the information requested. Mr. Weller said it would be good if each assemblyman checked with their constituents to see if they would like to have their names sold, as currently, there was no law saying a person could remove their name from the mailing list.

Mrs. de Braga queried if the request to not give out that information was honored. Mr. Weller replied there was nothing to preclude the department from doing that now.

Mr. Hettrick requested clarification on AB 366, lines 4 and 5, suggesting language should be tightened to exclude telephone modems as well.

A discussion ensued between Mr. Ernaut, Mr. Weller and Ms. Coss regarding the denial of access to records by a private citizen versus the selling of name and address lists to catalog businesses.

Mr. McGaughey said, from past legislative sessions, he remembered the reason for selling records had been budgetary, therefore he asked Mr. Weller to enlighten the committee in that regard.

Mr. Weller responded, "As I mentioned, the commercial sale accounts for around $21,000 to $22,000. That is just a small part of the $3.9 million the department's record section brings in for giving out those records. So, you are right, it would have a financial impact. If we did not give out as much as we did, it would reduce staff."

Mr. McGaughey then said, "There is the issue. Do we want to fund $3.9 million someplace else and retain privacy, or do you want to compromise the privacy?"

Orland Outland, speaking for himself, commented against the legislation. In addition, he gave the definition of "malfeasance," and said the legislation was blatantly an act of malfeasance, and the essence of malfeasance needed to be written into the statute with a three-step type penalty. In conclusion, he said he was highly supportive of openness in records, except for those he had spoken against, which he said would compound the problem for the individual constituent.

Mrs. Freeman asked Mr. Outland for his ideas regarding public and private partnerships in access of information. Mr. Outland replied, "I would hate to see it develop as a sham, as a mechanism to avoid accountability. If you are going to have advisory boards or commissions that will fall under this purview, then I feel that those types of activity should fall in the same type of oversight. I would hate to see it developed as an escape clause, as a mechanism to get around accountability. There is a little too much of that now."

Robert Gagnier, Executive Director, State of Nevada Employees Association, addressed AB 364. He cited Page 2, subsection 2, starting on line 27 and said, "All the information you see there, except J on line 38, is currently public record as far as state employees are concerned. We have a law which specifies what is open, public record for classified state employees and it includes almost all of this information. We do have some problem, however, with adding J when you start talking about sick leave." Mr. Gagnier continued by saying he endorsed many of Mr. Isaeff's comments, but he was in opposition to some of the language which he then cited and proposed amendments to. In conclusion, Mr. Gagnier told Mr. Garner he would provide written copies of his amendments to the chair.

Frank Barker, Captain, Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, spoke in opposition to the legislation, providing Exhibit J to support his testimony.

Arlene Ralbovsky, Director, Police Records Section, Las Vegas Metropolitan Police Department, presented opposing testimony as outlined in Exhibit K.

Mrs. de Braga asked if a great number of requests for information was being turned down due to a lack of staff. Ms. Ralbovsky said the department was not turning down requests, only delaying them due to staffing. Mr. Barker added the staff limitations in the records department was overflowing into his department and he explained why.

Joe Melcher, Washoe County Recorder, speaking against the legislation, expressed his concerns to the committee and suggested adding language designating what kind of control the County Recorder would have of the records as there were many abuses which currently existed.

Mrs. Lambert queried issuing a subpoena to enforce a real estate transfer tax and asked if the tax statute specifically kept the information confidential. Mr. Melcher said he was not sure because no one had ever asked for that information although the information was available to the public. Further discussion followed.

James Wright, Chief Deputy Recorder, Washoe County, testified his concern was at what point a document became a public record; his department's ability to make a copy of the record before releasing it to the public; and the ability of the public to utilize equipment to make copies. Mr. Melcher agreed the last concern posed several problems for the department.

Robert Cox, Nevada State School Board Association and Washoe County School District, echoed the reservations of Mr. Isaef, Ms. Nielsen and Mr. Dyer, and requested amendments in those areas. In addition, Mr. Cox addressed the litigation section of AB 364 and stated his argument; AB 365, the balancing test, costs, and attorney fees. In conclusion, Mr. Cox said he would address a letter to the chair and Mr. Wallach stating his concerns and containing proposed amendments.

Chairman Garner explained the committee was running out of time, therefore, he would allow those who did not have the opportunity to testify to sign the attendance roster for the hearing on April 14, 1993, and he would permit them to speak prior to hearing the other bills on the agenda.

Jim Richardson, Nevada Faculty Alliance, expressed his concerns regarding AB 364, especially personnel records of educators. He asked that Section 3, the balancing test, be dropped, and suggested a notification procedure be included. He then cited what he believed to be other problems with the legislation.

There being no further business to come before committee, the meeting was adjourned at 10:56 a.m.

ASSEMBLY GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS
Testimony on Open Records Bills
Assembly Bills 364, 365, 366, 367, 368

Good morning. Chairman Garner, members of the committee, my name is Laura Wingard. I'm the city editor for the Las Vegas Review-Journal and am here today in my capacity as president of the Las Vegas chapter of the Society of Professional Journalists, which includes members from newspapers, TV and radio.

My purpose today is not to go line by line through the public records bills before you but to stress to you why they are important and needed.

First, Nevada has more than 165 statutory exemptions to its so-called Open Records Act. The number of exemptions more than doubles when exclusions made through administrative regulations are included. This should disturb anyone committed to making sure that the business of government is done in the open.

Because there are so many exemptions, it is important that these bills pass so a signal is sent to the public employees who hold public records that it is their job to ensure the public has easy access to those documents which indeed are open for review by taxpayers. Journalists, in the course of trying to inform the public about the business of government, frequently encounter roadblocks in gathering open records. Too often, government agencies try to discourage reporters by first refusing access, then delaying access and finally releasing the record.

For example, a Review-Journal reporter told me on Friday the trouble she had obtaining a sexual assault report filed with the Metropolitan Police Department. First, she stood in line in the records department for the report. The records clerk went to pull the report and then refused, saying she could release no sexual assault reports. The reporter knew this was wrong, so she went and tracked down Metro's public information officer, who then intervened on the reporter's behalf. The reporter then returned to the records department and patiently waited for the records clerk to black out information that would identify the victim's name or address. She then paid the $5 Metro requires for any police report -- whether it's one page or 100 pages. If Metro's public information officer had not been available on Friday, the reporter would have left empty handed when there was no reason to withhold the public report.

This is not an isolated incident. Not a week goes by at the Review-Journal that a reporter does not complain to me about problems in obtaining public records. Some government agencies don't want to provide contracts they've made for lobbying services. Others don't want to reveal details of contracts with consultants and others. Some won't release the individual salaries of public employees. I would argue that all of these records should be open and available for public review.

Some have said the news media should stop whining about lack of access to public records and instead take government agencies to court every time a public record is refused. This would be a costly and unworkable solution. As I've said, my newspaper alone is refused public records every week. Add up all the other news organizations in the state -- not to mention citizens -- who are refused public documents, and the courts would face a glut of such cases. More importantly, lawsuits are public documents. A news organization does not want all of its competitors knowing it is suing for certain records, which -- if the courts ruled they were public -- then would be made available to everyone but with only one news organization having paid for the costly litigation.

So, in an effort to make it easier for the public to access the very records they paid to create through taxes, I urge you to pass these open records bills. By so doing, you would send a powerful message that you believe government's business should be done in the open and without fear of public scrutiny.

Thank you for listening to me. I'd be happy to try to answer any questions you may have.

COUNTY GOVERNMENT

Treasurer spars with Schlesinger

Aston, commissioner argue over banks

By Mary Manning
LAS VEGAS SUN

County Commissioner Don Schlesinger threatened to take legal action against county Treasurer Mark Aston after Aston refused to provide a list of banks doing business with county funds.

Aston turned down Schlesinger's month-old request for further financial details Tuesday. "I don't feel by providing it that that information would be of any value to you," he said.

Schlesinger is seeking more information on the banks that handle county investments in an attempt to determine if the banks have good records in dealing with minorities.

But Aston said the information, in the hands of an untrained person, could be misconstrued or misused to the county's detriment.

"I will do whatever it takes to make this information public," Schlesinger said. That includes requesting the Nevada State Press Association to become involved, he said.

"I share with Commissioner (Karen) Hayes my outrage that the public discussion was cut off by the treasurer and any other member on the board," Schlesinger said.

Aston said business with Valley Bank and brokerage houses are listed in monthly reports available to commissioners, County Manager Pat Shalmy and Comptroller Guy Hobbs.

Schlesinger pressed the treasurer for information on other funds connected to McCarran Airport, the Sanitation District or the Water District.

"On what basis do you need that information?" Aston asked.

A startled Schlesinger - his voice rising - responded: "We have the right to find out this information. ...

PAUL CHRISTENSEN calls for an end to the argument.

"I want to know all the banks. It is clear I do not have the information. It is clear the press does not have the information. It is clear the public does not have this information."

"Actually, Don, I don't have to give you the time of day," Aston responded.

"I'm not asking for the time of day," Schlesinger said. "I'm asking for the documents."

"I am not going to put the county's deposits at risk," Aston said.

At that point, Commissioner Paul Christensen moved to table the discussion. That prompted Commissioner Karen Hayes, chairing the meeting in the absence of Chairman Jay Bingham, to ask what was to be tabled.

"We're tabling the public's right to know, let's not kid ourselves," Schlesinger said.

DON SCHLESINGER demands county banking records.

"For the benefit of the commissioner who does not understand his job ... and for the benefit of the chair, who is old enough to know better," Christensen said he would ask Deputy District Attorney Mahlon Edwards to explain tabling.

The motion to table was approved 3-2 with Commissioners William Pearson, Thalia Dondero and Christensen in the majority. Hayes and Schlesinger voted against it. Commissioners Bruce Woodbury and Bingham were absent.

Schlesinger said the issue might wind up in court.

He also asked County Manager Pat Shalmy to draft a disclosure law applying to county records.

Hayes said that the county's investment policy should be reviewed. The board examined it in October.

And if we had more open government, we might really find out what our government does...

Legislature should open the doors on government

The media have long been pushing for it. Now, the public agrees: State government must be open.

Legislators should pay attention to a survey released earlier this week, showing Nevadans strongly support an end to secrecy in government.

The survey, conducted by the Nevada Press Association, indicated 92 percent of Nevadans want their government agencies to provide their meeting agendas free of charge to the public.

The 500 residents in the survey believe the public's right to know outweighs a public servant's desire for privacy as it relates to job performance, qualifications or possible illegal actions.

Interestingly, even the majority of government workers polled favor open personnel records. That makes us wonder if most of the objections are coming from management positions in government.

Those polled prefer open government by wide margins. Ninety-five percent want records on government spending open, and more than 60 percent want public birth and death certificates. Support was strong for continuing the public notice requirements which newspapers regularly publish.

The association's survey shows what we've long suspected. People don't trust government agencies that operate behind closed doors or hide documents relating to their activities. Voters know open government is more responsive.

A legislative subcommittee has recommended opening more public records and limiting government power to keep its affairs secret. If the Legislature approves, the recommendations would be the first major changes in a law that has survived basically intact since 1911.

The association survey adds ammunition to the subcommittee's recommendations. Government should be more open. Documents should be subject to public review. Agencies should not be permitted to operate in secret.

Historically, government secrecy has been advocated by special-interest groups or well-meaning bureaucrats who think the public should only know what others think it needs to be told.

There are undoubtedly those who will tell the Legislature they need secrecy to to conduct business effectively. But, that's like telling your boss you work better when he isn't aware of what you're doing. Neither he, nor the public, will believe you.

The public must be able to review its government's workings. Without open government, the public cannot ascertain what it is doing. And if the public does not know what the government is doing, it can't make intelligent decisions at the ballot box.

Open government is the essential ingredient for democracies to work.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

The data in this report was generated through an extensive market research study conducted jointly by Consumer Data Service (CDS), a market research firm, and the Journalism Research Center at the University of Oklahoma.

The study was commissioned by the Nevada Press Association, Inc. The purpose of the study was to determine attitudes towards government records and the publication of legal notices by registered voters in the state of Nevada.

In order to gain valid insights into citizen preferences and tendencies, a structured questionnaire was developed and tested.

The questionnaire, constructed by Dr. Ernest F. Larkin, director of the Journalism Research Center at OU, was designed to be administered via telephone interviews with a random sample of registered voters in the state of Nevada.

Consumer Data Service and the Journalism Research Center are responsible for the design and execution of the study. All data were processed by CDS and the Journalism Research Center, and the report was prepared by us. I can certify that the data in this report are, to the best of my knowledge, valid and correct.

1992-93 Statewide Survey of Registered Voters

Executive Summary

Nevada's registered voters are sensitive and alert to issues affecting them personally and to issues and records under the control of their state and local governments. By a substantial majority Nevada's registered voters believe most, if not all, records obtained by government agencies should be accessible by private citizens. Registered voters believe the public's right to know outweighs a public servant's or public employee's contention to privacy with matters relating to job performance, qualifications and illegal actions. Even a majority of government employees are in favor of openness with respect to personnel records.

While Nevada's voters are strongly in favor of open records, they are not insensitive to the cost to provide such records. A majority of Nevada's citizens believe individuals should pay for public records they request, however they do not believe the government should make a profit on public records provided.

A desire for openness in government was expressed by each public sector examined. No significant differences were demonstrated by respondent age group, income category, gender, or rural or metropolitan residence. The basic message received from the survey was that citizens deserve to know what actions their government takes and have a right to access records and information a government may keep and maintain.

The following summary highlights the results of questions asked to 500 registered voters in Nevada regarding their attitudes toward state government records and their usage and feelings toward the publication of legal and public notices. Comparisons by the respondents' residence or by having a government employee in the household are indicated in the text headings accompanying the specific questions asked.

Voter Access to Government Information

Registered voters to the statewide survey were asked if Nevada citizens should have access to specific types of information that were part of present day public records or information collected by public agencies. Of the 500 interviews, respondents were divided by metro and non-metro locations and by government and non-government employment status. By every measure examined, respondents were strongly in favor of openness to the following categories.

To: Val Garner, Chairman
Assembly Government Affairs
and Members of the Committee

Re: Assembly Bills 364 - 368

Dear Chairman Garner,

During the interim both the Nevada League of Cities and the Nevada Association of Counties participated in the discussions of the ACR 90 study of public records. Both memberships agreed for the need to clarify certain issues regarding public records. Following the introduction of Assembly Bills 364 - 368, our respective memberships reviewed these proposals and would like to provide you with our comments and suggested amendments to clarify our areas of concern.

Some of our major concerns regard proposed changes to confidential records which could be in conflict with existing federal statutes without further clarification. Many documents including sexual discrimination, disabilities and affirmative action records need to remain confidential to assure that we do not conflict with prior court decisions and state regulations.

We ask that you also consider the fiscal impact of implementing certain aspects of these proposals. It is imperative that local governments retain the right to recover costs associated with providing these services to the public. Keeping in mind that some of the searches and compilation of public records can be extremely time consuming, we are concerned that unrealistic time frames could add significantly to the cost of providing this service as staffing levels may have to be increased or additional overtime accrued to ensure that the agencies will be in compliance with any new statutes.

Attached is a copy of these and other areas of concern for which we would like to offer amended language for your consideration.

Sincerely,

Thomas J. Grady, Executive Director
Nevada League of Cities

Robert S. Hadfield, Executive Director
Nevada Association of Counties

PROPOSED AMENDMENTS
Rev 4/9/93

A.B. 365

Section 2 (pg. 1 line 7)

Replace sentence beginning with "if the requester prevails,..." with the sentence "The court may allow the prevailing party to recover court fees and reasonable attorney fees from the losing party."

This section (1) clarifies costs, (2) gives the court discretion in the awarding of costs and (3) allows the prevailing party, whether governmental or private, the opportunity to recover fees.

Section 3 (pg. 1 line 10)

Replace Section 3 with "A public agency, public officer, or employee is immune from liability for damages, either to the requester or the person whom the information concerns, if the public officer or employee acts in good faith in disclosing or refusing to disclose information."

This clause extends to the public agency the immunity to liability if the employee acts in good faith.

TESTIMONY BEFORE
ASSEMBLY COMMITTEE ON GOVERNMENT AFFAIRS
AB 364, AB 365, AB 366

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL

BROOKE NIELSEN, ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

APRIL 13, 1993, 8:00 A.M.

A clear definition of what is a public record and clear guidance regarding access to records is welcomed by everyone who must deal with public records and the public who is entitled to have access.

While generally in support of this monumental effort to reform our public records law, I have concerns regarding eight areas in these bills and I have recommendations to amend or delete them.

Six items of concern are in today's three bills and two are in AB 368 to be heard tomorrow.

AB 364

FIRST: AB 364 Section 3, provides that records that are confidential by law are still subject to being opened if a judge can be convinced that public policy justifies opening the particular record. It is a novel approach for a legislature to make all confidential records potentially open by letting a judge decide if there is justification to do so. The legislature determined the public policy when it made the record confidential and the public has a right to rely on that.

This section will generate unnecessary litigation costs because the government will have to defend every attempt to open a confidential record, unless appropriate waivers of confidentiality can be obtained. Inmates with nothing else to do will have a field day with this section.

SECOND: It is of great concern that the words "state regulations" are omitted in Section 4(2)(a). This section restricts access to records that are presently made confidential by federal statute, federal regulation and state statute, but opens information that is currently made confidential by state regulation.

There is a companion resolution, ACR 29, to be considered in the Assembly Committee on Elections and Procedures April 20, which will authorize an interim study regarding exemptions to disclosure in public records to determine if they should be repealed, amended or added. You should not toss away regulations that restrict access until you have the benefit of ACR 29.

I recommend that Section 4(2)(a) be amended by adding "state regulations of this state or political subdivision" to the list.

THIRD: Section 4(2)(b), while appearing to restrict access to medical records, does so only to the extent that the information would reveal the person's identity. All other information in the record is public. Since AB 366 Section 3 requires that the presence of confidential information in a record is not a reason to withhold the public information, the medical record would have to be edited to eliminate identity information, a very labor intensive task. These are records that should be confidential, I urged you to delete the words at the end of the paragraph which state "but only to the extent that the information would reveal a persons's identity."

FOURTH: Section 4(2)(c) addresses records customarily in the personnel files. This section makes very personal information including home addresses, medical information and evaluations in a personnel file open to anyone if it is related to hiring, retention, promotion, demotion or termination of employment. Opening personnel records may subject employees to harassment or threats, and undermine the rehabilitative purpose of progressive discipline.

There are others in attendance today who will express in detail the concerns that we all share about having personnel files open to the world.

FIFTH: Section 4(2)(g) restricts access to an open investigation file but does not restrict access to that file once the investigation is closed. There are very strong reasons to keep an investigation file confidential even after the matter is closed. An investigation file contains a wide variety of information which may be rumor, innuendo, untrue or unverified. In some cases release of information garnered in an investigation will risk lives or ruin reputations.

In addition, making an investigation file public once the investigation is closed will have a very detrimental effect on the ability of law enforcement or regulatory bodies to gather information. The Chief investigator for the Attorney General's office advised me that people talk freely to investigators only if they are assured that what they say will remain confidential. You must consider that governmental investigations include complaints against licensees and investigations preparatory to licensure in addition to criminal investigation. It is sobering to think that every inmate in our system will have access to investigation files simply because the investigation is closed.

Though the identity of a confidential informant and investigation techniques are protected elsewhere, there is cause for concern if any information in an investigation file becomes public information.

Subsection (g) must be amended to delete "unless the investigation has been closed."

SIXTH: Section 4(2)(i) & (j) of AB 364 appears to protect information prepared in anticipation of and during lawsuit to the extent it is privileged or not discoverable under the discovery rules. However, in order for the protection for information prepared in anticipation of a lawsuit to be applicable, the lawsuit must be filed. Prior to the lawsuit, access to information prepared in anticipation is not restricted by this language. This gives a great unfair advantage to a plaintiff who is anticipating suing the state or local government. While attorney-client privilege may protect some information, that privilege does not apply to all materials.

I recommend that Section 4(2)(i) be amended by deleting lines 40 and 41, and making line 42 be subsection (i).

Subsection (i) would then read: "It has been filed with a court and contains material which was prepared in anticipation of or during litigation."

Subsection (j) would remain the same.

Next, I would direct your attention to AB 365.

This bill sets forth procedures for appeal of the denial of access to a public record directly to district court. The attorney general opposes the provision which entitles the prevailing requester, but not the prevailing party, to recover attorney fees and costs. It does not permit the agency to recover fees if the agency was correct in the denial of access. Rather than mandatory fees for the requester, it is recommended that AB 365 be amended to provide that "the prevailing party may recover his court costs and reasonable attorney fees in the proceeding at the discretion of the court. The judge can decide on the facts of the case whether attorney fees and costs are appropriate.

AB 366

AB 366 Section 6 sets out procedure for requesting public records and statutory time limits to either deny the request or to fulfill it. While three working days may be sufficient time to produce the requested information or determine whether it is restricted, 13 working days may not be enough time to copy a large volume of records for an agency that does not have adequate copy equipment and enough staff to fill the request and still carry on the tasks of the agency. This is especially problematic if the large volume contains commingled confidential and public information. Sufficient time must be given to do the job with the resources available.

I recommend that, under unusual circumstance at least thirty working days be allowed.

One other correction is needed related to "unusual circumstances." Section 6(4) should be amended to state "unusual circumstances includes but is not limited to"

Section 6(3).

This section is redundant. Section 6(1) already provides that the book or record may be inspected unless the request has been denied.

This concludes my testimony. I am happy to answer any questions.

ASSEMBLY BILL 366 - Establishes procedures for public inspection of public records.

Chairman Garner opened the hearings on AB 364, AB 365 and AB 366 as there were those who had not had the opportunity to testify on April 13, 1993. Mr. Garner called the testifiers in order as they appeared on Exhibit B.

Jerry Zadny, Administrator, Division of Mental Health and Mental Retardation, was unable to appear but, for the record, submitted prepared testimony (Exhibit C) in opposition to AB 364.

Guy Rocha, Administrator, State Archives and Records, in opposition to AB 364, AB 365 and AB 366, read his opposing testimony (Exhibit D) into the record.

Pat Coward, Economic Development Authority of Western Nevada (EDAWN) and Nevada Development Authority (NDA), explained the purpose and mission of the development authorities, how competitive it had become with other states to draw new business, and how crucial it was to keep the confidentiality of information when dealing with potential businesses moving into the area. He said, "This is something that has a lot of the people concerned, maintaining that confidentiality....A business looking at making a move requires as much as two years work before anything materializes and a firm decision is made." He gave the committee an example of a business which ultimately did not choose the Reno area due to information which had been leaked. He recognized the need to maintain open records for the public in many areas but not necessarily when dealing with potential clients coming into the area. Mr. Coward then proposed an amendment to AB 364 which would provide client confidentiality (Exhibit E).

Mrs. Lambert asked if the boards of EDAWN and NDA were covered by the open meeting law, the answer was no.

Mr. Garner again asked the audience to provide written amendments to the chair.

O.C. Lee, Nevada Conference of Police and Sheriffs, and representing Mark Balin, Professional Fire Fighters of Nevada, said, "We are opposed to the personnel section of the records in AB 364. That does not mean that we have any opinion of any other portion of the bills before you." Mr. Lee referenced the yearly physical examinations, required by law of all police officers and fire fighters, which went into the personnel records. He suggested health records would immediately become public information, therefore, he strongly opposed that section of the bill.

Mrs. Augustine asked if it was true police officers did not have home addresses and telephone numbers published for their own protection, Mr. Lee agreed.

Mike Johaneson, Service Employees International Union, said he too was speaking against the personnel section of AB 364. He continued, "Presently there is quite a body of law regarding the differences, the arguments between privacy and public record, and access to public files, personnel files, that have come about through the Freedom of Information Act. What this bill does is it goes far beyond the existing law and what is accessible by the media and the public record. There is a lot of stuff in personnel files that are very private and would create significant problems for a number of employees. We've gone through this with other bills and if the committee would like, I will provide some court background, some case law on this thing from the Freedom of Information Act. But I don't see anything this bill does but replace existing federal law and go beyond the Freedom of Information Act to allow media access to personnel files. Accordingly, we strongly oppose that section of the law. The other thing I would like to suggest, is if you are going to entertain amendments excluding certain employees from this bill as was discussed yesterday, I would hope you would also add county and state employees."

Donald Klasic, General Counsel, University of Nevada, testified he too had served on the advisory committee. Additionally, he said the Board of Regents had authorized him to inform the committee the Board supported all five bills with two exceptions, both in AB 364. He identified one objection as being on Page 3, lines 24-29 saying the committee had heard enough testimony, specifically Mr. Dyer's, stating why the records ought to be closed and presented the committee with the document which had been generated out of the deliberations of the advisory committee (Exhibit F). He then pointed out the language which the University proposed as amendments and also the original language the advisory committee had recommended. The second objection was Section 3 of AB 364, the reverse balancing test. Again, he referenced previous testimony, specifically that of Mr. Isaef, and detailed how it would work. In further testimony, Mr. Klasic explained his understanding of the Bradshaw case, the correct rendering of the reverse balancing test, his desire to avoid litigation over what constituted public records, how criminal investigations worked, and mentioned a possible fiscal note.

Mrs. Augustine queried the date shown on the bill versus the date shown on the proposed amendment. Mr. Klasic explained the intent had not been to postpone the legislation to 1995, but to retain the 1994 date. The error had occurred in the drafting process.

Mr. Hettrick commented, "You just said files could be open on an investigation if it wasn't going to harm anyone." He then asked, "Is that the actual language? The question which was raised yesterday, as I recall, is we could have an investigative file with all kinds of allegations, and etc., and that releasing that file could harm people. If in fact the judge's ruling in Bradshaw says you can't release information that would be harmful, is that going to protect those kinds of files."

Mr. Klasic responded, "It might not. I agree that is going to be a problem." He described how the Bradshaw case applied and said, "The courts don't get down to the nitty gritty about the raw data which may actually contain defamatory and false information, and there is a true problem there."

Exhibit G was submitted to the committee secretary on behalf of James Penrose. It contained the amendments as suggested in the testimony of Mike Dyer on April 13, 1993.

Evan Wallach, General Counsel, Nevada Press Association, was given the opportunity to respond to the testimony of those in opposition to AB 364, AB 365 and AB 366.

Mrs. Lambert, in an effort to understand the balancing test, stated an example. Mr. Wallach replied the employee, as stated in the example, was exempt if the information was released in good faith. Mr. Wallach then gave his own examples of safety valves.

Mrs. Augustine wanted clarification on the statement "request for documents were always denied." Mr. Wallach clarified, "When it comes to me as counsel for the Press Association, and I get into it, my uniform experience has been when dealing with government officials applying the balancing test, they have always applied the balancing test against my clients. And that is true, every single time."

Ande Engleman, Nevada Press Association, added, "Mr. Wallach is not called in on an instance where the press has no problem obtaining documents. He is only called when a problem has evolved."

The hearings on AB 364, AB 365 and AB 366, were closed with no action taken.

ASSEMBLY BILL 367 - Defines "public record" to accommodate various forms in which records are maintained.

ASSEMBLY BILL 368 - Requires charges for copies of public records not to exceed cost.

Mr. Wallach explained the purpose of AB 367 and AB 368. He agreed with Mr. Isaef's testimony of April 13, 1993, saying there definitely was a conflict with the definition of "governmental entity" in AB 367 which would have to be resolved. He said he preferred the broader of the two definitions. As for AB 368, he said it was the intent of the subcommittee to balance the cost of providing the service with the need to make the cost reasonable to the public, detailing the compromise which was reached.

Ande Engleman added she believed AB 368 set up reasonable costs for copies and hoped the copies would not run more than 25 cents per copy. She pointed out the Secretary of State's budget was largely supported by copying fees and, therefore, urged deleting

I AM REPRESENTING THE STATE LIBRARY AND ARCHIVES AND SERVED AS A MEMBER OF THE EXECUTIVE ADVISORY COMMITTEE. I WAS ALSO CLOSELY ASSOCIATED WITH THE INTERIM LEGISLATIVE STUDY IN 1982 STUDYING PUBLIC BOOKS AND RECORDS, WHICH AS ANDE ENGLEMAN POINTED OUT YESTERDAY, DID NOT RESULT IN UPDATING OUR BADLY OUTDATED PUBLIC RECORDS LAW.

NEVADA IS AMONG THE LAST STATES IN THE NATION TO TRY AND COMPREHENSIVELY ADDRESS THIS COMPLEX AND CONTROVERSIAL PUBLIC POLICY ISSUE WITH ALL ITS MYRIAD FISCAL AND TECHNOLOGICAL RAMIFICATIONS. I HOPE THE EXTENSIVE TESTIMONY WE HEARD YESTERDAY, AND I AM SURE WE WILL HERE AGAIN TODAY, WILL NOT RESULT IN THE TYPE OF PUBLIC POLICY PARALYSIS WE ENCOUNTERED SOME TEN YEARS AGO. LACK OF ACTION THEN HAS ONLY EXACERBATED PUBLIC DISCLOSURE ISSUES WHICH ARE NOW HEIGHTENED BY THE PROLIFERATION OF THE MICROCOMPUTER, ELECTRONIC MAIL, AND OPTICAL IMAGING SYSTEMS. OUR FAST-PACED TECHNOLOGICAL ADVANCEMENTS IN RECORD CREATING AND KEEPING ARE OUTSTRIPPING OUR ABILITY TO LEGISLATE ACCESS TO, AND CONFIDENTIALITY FOR, THESE GOVERNMENTAL RECORDS.

AND WE HAVE CERTAINLY LEARNED THERE ARE INHERENT AND SIZEABLE COSTS TO OPEN GOVERNMENT AND PUBLIC ACCESS IN THE ONGOING DEMOCRATIZATION OF OUR POLITICAL SYSTEM. THE ALARMING IRONY IN THIS ISSUE WE CONFRONT TODAY IN BALANCING RIGHTS OF PRIVACY VERSUS PUBLIC DISCLOSURE IS THE ONGOING REALITY OF CENSORSHIP THROUGH BUDGET

CONSTRAINTS.

JOAN KERSCHNER, STATE LIBRARIAN, AND ALSO A MEMBER OF THE EXECUTIVE ADVISORY COMMITTEE COULD NOT BE HERE. THE STATE LIBRARY AND ARCHIVES HAVE NO PROPOSED AMENDMENTS, BUT I AM HERE TODAY TO ADDRESS ANY SPECIFIC QUESTIONS REGARDING THE PUBLIC RECORDS BILLS BEFORE YOU NOW, OR AT A LATER DAY.

Chairman Garner named the subcommittee to hear AB 364, AB 365, AB 366, AB 367 and AB 368. It consisted of Mr. Bennett as chairman, Mr. Ernaut and Mrs. Freeman.

Chairman Garner requested committee introduction of the following Bill Draft Request 23-1960.

ASSEMBLY BILL NO. 445 - Provides for creation of earthquake safety council.

Assemblyman Rick Bennett, District 16, testified he, along with Assemblyman Bernie Anderson, had represented the State Assembly on an advisory group looking at earthquake safety. He gave the various reasons why he supported the proposed legislation, more so since he had personally experienced the Lander earthquake which had convinced him earthquake safety was indeed needed. He then proceeded to give an in-depth explanation of AB 445.

Assemblyman Bernie Anderson, District 31, stated the bill was noteworthy as Nevada was the third most active earthquake state in the United States, but the state was without legislation regarding earthquake safety. He felt AB 445 would clearly send a message to the public the legislature was concerned about public safety in the state.

Chairman Garner referenced section 8, and asked if retrofitting was being discussed by the word "mitigating." Mr. Bennett replied there were many older buildings, particularly in northern Nevada, which needed to be looked at but it was not the purpose of the council to authorize changes, only to suggest to local government they review ordinances regarding earthquakes and buildings in the area. More discussion followed with Mr. Anderson joining in.

Mr. Garner then pointed to the membership of the council and said, "Under (i), you've included the Division of Emergency

GUEST LEGISLATORS PRESENT:

Assemblyman Gene Porter, Clark County District 8

Following opening remarks, Subcommittee Chairman Rick Bennett opened the hearing on AB 365.

ASSEMBLY BILL 365 - Substitutes civil enforcement of access to public records for criminal penalty.

Ande Engleman, Nevada Press Association, observed except for one suggested amendment regarding public payment of court costs, AB

365 had probably gained the most support from public employees. She said the present law stated denial of access to a public record was a misdemeanor and a crime. Without a statutory definition of what constituted a "public record," it was sometimes difficult for public employees to make a decision as to what was public and what was not. She said her organization supported removing the misdemeanor charge for refusing access to public records for a public employee. She also supported language on page 1, lines 3-9 as a compromise since they could not agree on an administrative procedure for appeal on denial of public records. The favored procedure, Ms. Engleman stated, would have carried a large fiscal note, and this did not appear to be an opportune time to bring forward anything of that nature.

Ms. Engleman said some Legislators had come to her saying they would favor an out-of-pocket, personal civil penalty as usual in most other states. This would apply in instances where an individual had purposely denied access to public records because the information would have proven embarrassing. She said they opposed having the public pay for court costs and attorneys' fees if a case was lost. The taxpayer had already paid for the other side's attorneys and court costs, through tax dollars.

Taxpayers were also paying the fees for the agency, Mr. Bennett observed. The question was, should the taxpayers, in general, have to cover those costs when the suit might be rather frivolous. Ms. Engleman noted the bill did not grant court costs and attorneys' fees if a suit was over a record everyone had thought to be confidential. Court costs and attorneys' fees were granted only when it was a denial of what was clearly a public record. Therefore, she did not think there would be frivolous lawsuits.

Mr. Bennett questioned the aspect of the judge's discretion in determining who should be awarded costs. Ms. Engleman opined the courts were generally very conservative. If an agency had truly withheld a record which should have been public, Mr. Bennett said he hoped the court would penalize the agency in some way by making them pay the costs.

Drawing attention to Section 3, Mr. Bennett said he had received communication suggesting the possibility of including a public "agency" in the language on page 1, line 10. Ms. Engleman said they had tried to look at the issue from everyone's point of view, but she did not think there would be a problem adding "agency."

Referring to Section 2, Mr. Ernaut asked if the language should specify "a reasonable request." In response, Ms. Engleman said she thought this was addressed in another bill and she did not see the need for additional language.

Representing the Attorney General's Office, Deputy Melanie Mehan-Crossley came forward to respond to Ms. Engleman's testimony. Ms. Crossley reported the Attorney General had asked that the court be given the discretion of granting attorneys' fees and costs when faced with this kind of lawsuit. She said she thought Ms. Engleman's testimony went to giving the court that discretion.

Mrs. Freeman questioned whether they preferred more flexible language than the language on page 1, line 8, "he is entitled to recover his costs. . .". Ms. Engleman said, "Yes," and they had submitted suggested language in earlier testimony.

Representing the State Contractors' Board and the City of Lovelock, David Reese asked the committee to consider loosening the language regarding attorneys' fees and costs to be awarded to the requester. He said there were many situations in which an existing confidentiality statute put the burden on the agency, commission or board, to make certain confidential records remained confidential. He felt there were good reasons why fees or costs awarded to the requester should be discretionary with the judge.

Addressing Mr. Reese's remarks, Ms. Engleman said where there was an exemption stating something was confidential, it should not be called into question as the material was clearly confidential. She said she thought the attitude of government, particularly over the past 10 years was, "when in doubt, keep it closed." She said they were trying to change this attitude to one of "where there is no exemption saying information is confidential, when in doubt it should be released."

Although Mr. Bennett acknowledged Ms. Engleman's remarks, he said he thought even though there had been a great deal of work done on AB 364 in trying to more clearly indicate what was open and what was closed, there would still be gray areas at least until people became more familiar with the new statutes.

Lucille Lusk, Nevada Coalition of Concerned Citizens, remarked from the individual citizen's point of view, the process for using the courts to resolve questions of confidentiality was extremely difficult, if not impossible. She asked if there would be an internal agency appeal process. Ms. Lusk believed there should be a way for an individual (as opposed to an agency) to appeal to a higher authority if there was disagreement as to confidentiality. Mr. Bennett suggested Ms. Lusk should address this further when AB 366 was discussed.

ASSEMBLY BILL 366 - Establishes procedures for public inspection of public records.

Both Ande Engleman and Dennis Neilander, Legislative Research Analyst, came forward. Ms. Engleman noted this bill was a compromise. In Section 2, the words, "other electronic means," was intended to mean FAX machines and public electronic data bases such as NELIS -- information the courts had ruled should be equally accessible by the public. Ms. Engleman said they had no intention or thought of trying to tap into confidential data bases in state government. She said the Press Association would have no problem with clarifying this section.

Also clarifying, Dennis Neilander explained there was a provision in AB 364 which provided security systems (or hardware system) would be confidential. Referring to AB 366, Mr. Neilander said the bill was largely based on the federal Freedom of Information Act and a study done 10 years ago, which made a similar recommendation regarding procedures for access. He said the law was currently void of any procedures for access and did not provide any procedural mechanisms for someone to either request a record or for the custodian of a record to respond. Thus, in subsection (2) of Section 3, page 1, if a public record contained both confidential and nonconfidential information it would redact out the confidential information.

Referring to language on page 1, line 26 speaking of an exemption provided in NRS 481.063, Mr. Neilander said this dealt with existing law requiring the Department of Motor Vehicles (DMV) to make an inquiry when someone asked for information regarding motor vehicle registration. If the Department determined the information would be used for illegal purposes, it could not release the information. Therefore, except as it applied to the DMV, the language of AB 366 stipulated the agency could not ask why the information was required.

Speaking to the subject, Ms. Engleman noted there had been an earlier bill in the Senate in which a public agency wanted the same permission to determine whether information was going to be used illegally. The DMV statute was clearly unconstitutional, Acknowledging his support of public/private enterprise, Mr. Ernaut said nevertheless, as a contest between a list and the amendment on Exhibit D, he would be more comfortable with a list. Ms. Morgan said she would work with the Attorney General's Office to tighten the language.

Chairman Bennett invited Brooke Nielsen, Assistant Attorney General, to come forward to address the language of the amendment. Assistant Attorney General Nielsen agreed the language could and should probably be tightened up. The words "substantially" and "directly" were common legal terms which were generally understood and in this instance would refer to a direct connection to the public business. Obviously, she said, someone could not reach into the records of a private company on things that company was doing in another part of the world which had nothing to do with what was going on in Nevada. Assistant Attorney General Nielsen said she would be happy to work with Ms. Morgan in adopting tighter language.

Assistant Attorney General Nielsen said by the language in Exhibit D they were trying to say there was a right to privacy for the business interest; yet at the same time, the public had a right to access those things which directly affected what the company was doing for the public.

Chairman Bennett supported Mrs. Freeman's request for Assistant Attorney General Nielsen and Ms. Morgan to work together to develop more appropriate language.

Another amendment to page 3, lines 37 and 38, proposed by the Attorney General's Office, would delete the words, "unless the investigation had been closed."

Chairman Bennett indicated he had read and considered the case presented by the Attorney General's Office and Mr. Porter (who chaired the interim study committee), and he was not swayed to the extent he was prepared to support changing the language relating to investigation, court cases, etc.

ASSEMBLY BILL 365 - Substitutes civil enforcement of access to public records for criminal penalty.

Two sections had received comments, Chairman Bennett noted. In Section 2 there had been considerable discussion regarding the recovery of costs and attorneys' fees. As currently written, if the requester prevailed, he was entitled to recover his costs and attorneys' fees in the proceeding, from the agency whose officer had custody of the record.

Chairman Bennett also recalled there had been discussion regarding whether the agency should also be able to recover the costs and attorneys' fees associated with the action, if the agency prevailed. The primary argument against the agency recovery, was this would restrict people from going to court to try to gain access to certain closed records. As AB 364 was written, Chairman Bennett stated there was a large gray area presented which would lead to increased litigation. Limiting some of the gray areas in AB 364 would somewhat alleviate the number of suits which might be brought regarding access to records.

Chairman Bennett said he was of a mind to leave the language as it was written except to add the word "reasonable" before the words "attorney's fees."

ASSEMBLYMAN FREEMAN MOVED TO INSERT THE WORD REASONABLE ON PAGE 1, SECTION 2, LINE 8, MAKING THE LANGUAGE READ ". . . COSTS AND REASONABLE ATTORNEY'S FEES."

ASSEMBLYMAN ERNAUT SECONDED THE MOTION.

THE MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

Discussing Section 3, Chairman Bennett reminded the subcommittee there had been some testimony having to do with expanding the "public officer or employee" to also state, "governmental entity." After discussing this with the bill drafters, they believed the words "And his employer" could be inserted making the language read, "A public officer or employee and his employer who act in good faith in disclosing or refusing to disclose information is immune from liability for damages either to the requester or to the person whom the information concerns."

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM MOVED TO INCLUDE THE WORDS "AND HIS EMPLOYER" ON PAGE 1, SECTION 3, LINE 11.

ASSEMBLYMAN FREEMAN SECONDED THE MOTION.

THE MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

Mrs. Freeman asked to have the word "malfeasance" defined. She said earlier testimony had suggested when a person was unable to get information, there needed to be some definition given to the word "malfeasance." Dennis Neilander, Legislative Counsel Bureau Research Analyst, came forward to clarify. Mr. Neilander said a number of options had been put forward and one was related to the notion of malfeasance. This was for a civil penalty to be imposed on a public employee who acted in bad faith. Although some states had taken this approach, Mr. Neilander said the Nevada subcommittee had rejected the approach, deciding a civil penalty would not be appropriate. Additionally, the misdemeanor penalty would possibly prove unconstitutional because there was no definition of public record. The subcommittee had finally approved the allowance for expedited process.

Mr. Neilander told the committee the operative language in Section 3 was a "good faith" standard. If, indeed, there was a lack of good faith shown on the part of a public employee, NRS 41, which addressed discretionary acts, would take force.

Recapping, Chairman Bennett indicated the rest of AB 365 would remain as written.

ASSEMBLY BILL 366 - Establishes procedures for public inspection of public records.

Chairman Bennett drew attention to Section 2. Concerns had been expressed regarding the language on line 5 regarding the words, "or other electronic means." Primarily, the interim study had assumed this to mean a FAX machine. If this, indeed, was the intent, Chairman Bennett suggested deleting the words, "other electronic means," and stating, "facsimile machine, if available." (See Exhibit E.)

Mr. Ernaut thought the Chairman's language was too narrow and the present language of the bill was too broad. Discussion followed.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM MOVED TO ADOPT THE AMENDMENT PROPOSED IN EXHIBIT E.

ASSEMBLYMAN FREEMAN SECONDED THE MOTION.

THE MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

Following a short break, Chairman Bennett resumed discussion on AB 366, Section 3. Reviewing, the Chairman said he had heard concerns regarding the problems for state or local offices in

ASSEMBLY BILL 314 - Makes various changes to application process for permit for appropriation of public waters and to fees assessed by state engineer.

Mr. Bennett indicated proposed amendments for AB 314 had been taken down to be drafted but had not been received back. Mr. Bennett and Mrs. Lambert reviewed the proposed changes (Exhibit H).

Discussion among committee members ensued.

Chairman Garner indicated there would be no action taken until the amendments had been returned.

ASSEMBLY BILL 352 - Authorizes unincorporated towns to impose impact fees.

Mr. McGaughey briefly reviewed AB 352 stating it had to do with Fernley water impact fees and indicated he had attended a meeting with the city attorney and representatives of the town board and the district trying to find a better way to solve the problem other than using impact fees.

ASSEMBLY BILL 364 - 368 - Public records.

Mr. Bennett indicated several subcommittee meetings and a work session had been held which considered all five bills. He stated there were several proposed amendments approved by the subcommittee being drafted and as soon as the amendments were received back he would give a full report to the committee. Mr. Bennett noted there had been some amendments put forth which had not been accepted by the subcommittee and those would be presented with the report.

ASSEMBLY BILL 378 - Imposes temporary moratorium on adoption of state regulations and creates advisory committee to study such regulations.

Chairman Garner stated he had not heard back from Mr. Humke and it seemed the only viable solution was to look at a study of the subject. He indicated he would not be taking action on AB 378 unless Mr. Humke came forward with a proposal to move the bill.

ASSEMBLY BILL 397 - Provides procedure to verify preference claimed by bidders on public contracts on account of taxes paid.

Mr. Hettrick stated he held a meeting with the north and south AGCs and it appeared to him those at the meeting did not think

Mr. Bennett asked if her amendment dealt with page 2, line 38 regarding the amount of annual and sick leave. Mrs. Segerblom agreed.

Mr. Bennett stated that had been discussed as well as various other information which would be included in subsection 2, defining employment information. He said many concerns had been voiced that this would somehow provide access to reasons for taking sick leave and otherwise open medical information. Mr. Bennett remarked it was his feeling the information regarding annual and sick leave accumulated and number of hours or days taken would be easily handled through payroll records and would in no way divulge reasons for taking leave or medical information. He was not supportive of the amendment.

Mrs. Segerblom stressed she felt a public employee had a right to the sick leave accrued, and if an employee used an excessive amount at any given time, it should be up to the supervisor to handle. She did not feel anyone else should have the right to the knowledge of how much time was taken.

Discussion ensued.

ASSEMBLYMAN SEGERBLOM MADE A MOTION TO AMEND A.B. 364
TO DELETE LINE 38 ON PAGE 2, SECTION 2.

ASSEMBLYMAN WILLIAMS SECONDED THE MOTION.

THE MOTION FAILED.

Chairman Garner stated all amendments to AB 364 had been considered and he would accept a motion to amend and do pass AB 364.

ASSEMBLYMAN BENNETT MOVED TO AMEND AND DO PASS
A.B. 364.

ASSEMBLYMAN MCGAUGHEY SECONDED THE MOTION.

THE MOTION CARRIED. Assemblymen Lambert, Ernaut and Williams opposed.

Chairman Garner requested Mr. Bennett handle AB 364 on the floor.

ASSEMBLY BILL 365 - Substitutes civil enforcement of access to public records for criminal penalty.

Mr. Bennett reviewed minor amendments to AB 365 (Exhibit H).

Discussion ensued.

ASSEMBLYMAN BENNETT MOVED TO AMEND AND DO PASS
A.B. 365.

ASSEMBLYMAN HETTRICK SECONDED THE MOTION.

THE MOTION CARRIED UNANIMOUSLY.

ASSEMBLY BILL 366 - Establishes procedures for public inspection of public records.

Mr. Bennett reviewed minor amendments to AB 366 (Exhibit I) including the language, "other electronic means."

Mr. Ernaut referenced Section 5 and asked if there had been discussion about the word "custody" in line 3, as there was a problem with archives actually having custody of records. Mr.
Bennett indicated he recalled the discussion but did not think any action was taken in subcommittee to amend.

Further discussion ensued.

Mrs. Augustine indicated she had a notation regarding Section 3, line 3 to allow facilities for making paper copies, abstracts or memoranda as there was a concern that microfiche copies could not be duplicated.

Mr. Bennett stated the subcommittee held extensive discussion on Section 3, both relating to paper copies and defining "readily available" and the subcommittee chose to leave the language as written.

ASSEMBLYMAN BENNETT MOVED TO AMEND AND DO PASS
A.B. 366.

ASSEMBLYMAN DE BRAGA SECONDED THE MOTION.

Mrs. Augustine proposed to amend the motion to add facilities for making paper copies, abstracts or memorandum of the book or record.

ASSEMBLYMAN AUGUSTINE MOVED TO AMEND THE AMENDMENT TO
A.B. 366 TO ADD THE WORD "PAPER" IN SECTION 3, erection of a structure within the national recreation area with the exception, or other than a structure developed at the request of the Nevada Division of Wildlife."

Mr. Sukimoto stated that would be acceptable to his division.

Doug Busselman, Executive Director, Nevada Farm Bureau, testified on S.B. 544. He stated his division has a problem with the generic identification of a national conservation area. He explained some of the trends his division is seeing coming out of Washington, D.C. from a federal policy perspective leaves them worrying with regard to establishing this wording in state law. He further explained as future conservation areas come upon them, they will be put under this bill although the intention now is not to do that. He told the committee he has shared with Senator Callister their concerns on this bill and hope they can make a language change. He suggests they specifically mention in the bill the intended area right now so there is not a problem in the future when additional conservation areas are created with more restrictions than they are seeing now. He urged the committee to add the specific designation of Red Rock National Conservation Area into the language of the bill with the amendment and then they will be in agreement with this bill.

Senator Callister stated he spoke earlier with Mr. Busselman and he agrees the amendment should be specific as to the Red Rock National Conservation Area. He told the committee he feels this is appropriate.

Stephanie Lyte, Lobbyist, Nevada Wool Grower's Association, testified on S.B. 544. She told the committee her concerns are the same as Mr. Busselman's regarding the specific designation. She explained they would not have any objection to the bill if they had it designated as the Red Rock Conservation Area.

Joe Johnson, Sierra Club, told the committee his organization supports S.B. 544 with the amendments proposed.

Chairman O'Connell closed the hearing on S.B. 544 and opened the hearing on Assembly Bill (A.B.) 365, Assembly Bill (A.B.) 366 and Assembly Bill (A.B.) 368.

ASSEMBLY BILL 365: Substitutes civil enforcement of access to public records for criminal penalty.

ASSEMBLY BILL 366: Establishes procedures for public inspection of public records.

ASSEMBLY BILL 368: Requires charges for copies of public records not to exceed cost.

Dennis Nielander, Senior Research Analyst, Legislative Counsel Bureau, spoke to the committee on these bills. He told the committee these bills were the result of the study of laws governing public books and records. He started by explaining A.B. 365. He told the committee this bill addresses enforcement. He stated the existing public records law has not been amended significantly since 1911 and in the current provisions for enforcement it contains a criminal penalty which is a misdemeanor for an individual to release a public record in violation of the statute. He stated what this bill does is it removes the criminal penalty and replaces it with an expedited process procedure whereby if a person has been denied access to a public record, they have the opportunity to file in district court and the court is required to give that matter priority on the calendar. He explained if the requestor prevails they are entitled to reasonable attorney fees and costs. Mr. Nielander stated in section 3 it grants immunity for good faith disclosure or nondisclosure and as long as it is done in good faith the public employee is then immune from civil liability.

Chairman O'Connell asked in which one of these bills they should incorporate the definition of a public record.

Mr. Nielander stated the definition is in another bill which has not left the assembly, but they could amend that into A.B. 366 because this bill amends Nevada Revised Statutes (NRS) Chapter 239 which is where the definition has to go and A.B. 366 establishes a procedure for access and currently the law is void of any procedure for getting access. He stated in addition it is void of having a definition.

Mr. Nielander stated A.B. 366 is the bill which establishes procedures for either granting or denying access to records. He explained the law is currently void of any procedural mechanisms to either allow a person to make a record public or to keep it closed. He pointed out this is based in part on the Federal Freedom of Information Act, at least the fundamental concepts are based on that law and also a study which was done 10 years ago on this issue. He explained at that time the subcommittee recommended a procedure similar to this and that bill did not surface from the legislature in 1982. He told the committee this bill says an individual may request a public record in person, by telephone or by FAX machine. He further explained this bill sets forth the duties of the person who is the custodian of the record and what they must do once they have received a request. He stated subsection 2 of section 3 makes it clear that a custodian of a public record cannot release the confidential information with the public information. He explained subsection 3 of that section states they do not have to compile a summary unless it is readily available. Mr. Nielander stated subsection 4 is something that is put in because of first amendment concerns and the fact that the argument is the government should not have a right to know why an individual is requesting that information unless it is to clarify what the information is they are after. He stated section 5 begins to specify what the custodians must do once they receive a request. He told the committee the procedural mechanism is addressed in lines 17 through 25 and they are the four things that the custodian has to do within a reasonable amount of time, but no later than 3 days after receiving the written appeal. He mentioned they could inform the individuals that unusual circumstances have delayed the request, in which case they have 15 days to comply and inform the requester they do not have the record or deny the appeal. He stated the next section defines what is unusual circumstances which will trigger that 15-day window. He pointed out subsection 3 of section 7 which is another immunity clause for the employee who permits inspection unless they have actual knowledge that the record is not a public record.

Senate Committee on Government Affairs

Senator Hickey interrupted the testimony by Mr. Nielander to ask the chairman for a bill draft request. He told the committee he wanted to draft a bill which would limit terms in office including federal offices down through county offices.

Mr. Nielander explained A.B. 368 to the committee. He stated this bill addresses cost. He pointed out subsection 1 of section 1 provides that the fees shall not exceed the cost to the agency and that takes into account the cost of supplies and material, but not time spent by personnel. He explained this is adopted from an Idaho law which essentially reads the same as A.B. 368. He pointed out there is a formula they use to come to the right amount to charge for photocopying and he added the bottom line is they arrive at a total cost per copy. He told the committee each agency in Idaho is required to use this formula to arrive at a per copy cost.

Chairman O'Connell asked if this formula would apply to every agency and an individual could ask for a cost from any division or agency and the cost would not exceed the actual cost.

Mr. Nielander stated that is correct and the provision provides that unless free copies are required by statute. He explained if there is not some other statute that establishes a cost then it must not exceed the actual cost. He continued to explain A.B. 368 to the committee. He stated subsection 2 of the bill provides that an agency may search

Mr. Wright stated if they lose that $62,000 of revenue they will have to ask for more money from the county. He explained the money will have to come from somewhere and if not from copy fees it will be from the taxpayers.

Joe Melcher, Recorder, Washoe County, testified against these bills. He told the committee they should be paying for the service they get and uniformity and standardization of fees is vital to these organizations. He gave the committee some written testimony and statistics on copy fees (Exhibit K).

Ms. Beaudreau stated the Storey County Recorder, Margaret Lowther, had to leave, but wanted it on the record that she opposes these bills.

Melanie Meehan Crossley, Deputy Attorney General, Attorney General's Office, spoke in opposition of these bills. She stated she served on the interim study committee and had not planned to speak today, but felt she must make a few comments regarding adopting an amendment into these bills with the definition of public records. She told the committee what they are trying to do here is a piece of legislation that addresses a vast range of records that are both confidential and not confidential. She gave the committee some suggestions on the language for the amendment.

Mary Henderson, Lobbyist, Washoe County, stated for the record that in Washoe County for their agenda items and backup materials, if people go to the county manager's office they are provided a copy free. If they go to the clerk's office the standard procedure is to send them to the county manager's office so they are not caught up with the fees that the clerk charges for court proceedings. She stated they feel it is essential and it is the public's right to have access to this. She told the committee the only thing they would request is if they do put this into statute in terms of agendas, ordinances, backup materials that it be restricted to one free copy and some nominal fee. She explained her office is not staffed to be a copy service for attorneys and the court system within Washoe County. She feels no county in the state can absorb that type of burden. She stated it is very important to take into consideration the fact that recorder fees have not been increased for over 10 years.

Michell Bero, Lobbyist, Nevada Association of Counties (NACO), stated the previous testimony pretty well explains their position.

Nancy Howard, Lobbyist, Nevada League of Cities, spoke in opposition to these bills. She stated one of their concerns is in A.B. 366 it requires them to provide facilities for making copies and she stated many of her cities do not have these facilities. She explained some of them have a copy room which is also the mailroom and it would be expensive for them to create these facilities.

Sam McMullen, Lobbyist, Nevada Broadcaster's Association, stated they are very strongly in favor of these bills. He told the committee the policy decision clearly put forth by this bill is should the individuals pay a fair approximation of the actual search time related to copying a particular document or should they pay a flat fee.

Ms. Engleman told the committee these bills attempt to address a myriad of problems both bringing Nevada into the 20th Century and trying to prepare Nevada for the 21st Century. She explained some of the problems heard during the interim study were from agencies who had put all of their information on a computer. She further explained if an individual came into this agency requesting some information they were told the information they needed was on the computer and it could not be accessed at that time so the individual wanting the information would have to return the next day. She emphasized individuals need to have access to information and the ability to make copies or even write down notes. She reiterated the proponents of these bills are simply trying to get the cost of copies down to actual costs, not just a simple across-the-board charge since some of the agencies may have a higher charge than others.

Ms. Henderson stated she feels the system in her agency is very simple and straight forward. She explained if they are in a situation where they must identify documents which are simple to pull and copy versus documents which are sitting in a bound volume or sitting in a computer or microfiche she feels they will get into a very difficult and cumbersome bill. She emphasized to the committee they cannot imagine the types of documents county government offices handle. She explained some of the documents are readily accessible and some are not. She told the committee the system they use now is very effective and has worked for several decades. Ms. Henderson pointed out to the committee many of the individuals who request documents do not pay taxes in the state of Nevada. She explained they are individuals who got married in Nevada or individuals in real estate transactions who live out-of-state and therefore do not pay state taxes. She stated these are user fees which have been in place for at least 20 years which help offset some of those costs, so she feels it is wrong to state the taxpayers have also paid for this service, because she feels it is also a service being used by individuals who are not taxpayers.

Senator Hickey asked if part of the storage and copying problem is due to lack of space.

Ms. Henderson stated there is an issue of the lack of space and also an issue of how the documents are stored. She explained some of the documents are stored electronically, some in filing cabinets and other documents are stored in bound volumes.

The next measure brought for discussion was A.B. 365.

ASSEMBLY BILL 365: Substitutes civil enforcement of access to public records for criminal penalty.
(BDR 19-393)

Ande Engleman, Lobbyist, Nevada Press Association, testified the purpose of A.B. 365 is to remove the criminal penalty for violation of the public records law and provides that court costs and attorney fees can be collected. Ms. Engleman reminded the committee there was no opposition to the measure.

ASSEMBLY BILL 366: Establishes procedures for public inspection of public records. (BDR 19-397)

Ms. Engleman explained there was no opposition to A.B. 366; however, there was concern with the other two public records bills. She indicated she was proposing the definition of a public record taken from A.B. 364, and an additional new section be amended into A.B. 366. The proposed new section requested by Ms. Engleman is referenced as Exhibit G.

ASSEMBLY BILL 364: Makes various changes regarding access to public books and records. (BDR 19-399)

Chairman O'Connell requested Ms. Engleman to read the proposed definition of a public record. Ms. Engleman read the definition from section 2, paragraphs (a) and (b), lines 3-14 of A.B. 364. It was explained that A.B. 364 was not likely to be passed out of the assembly.

Senator Nevin questioned if that language would open the personnel records of city, county or state employees. He expressed concern since those records were not considered confidential in what was outlined by Ms. Engleman.

CHAPTER 393

AN ACT relating to public information; substituting civil enforcement of access to public books and records for a criminal penalty for denial of access; conferring immunity upon public officers and employees for certain actions in good faith; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

[Approved July 2, 1993]

THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEVADA, REPRESENTED IN SENATE
AND ASSEMBLY, DO ENACT AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Chapter 239 of NRS is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 2 and 3 of this act.

Sec. 2. If a request for inspection or copying of a public book or record open to inspection and copying is denied, the requester may apply to the district court in the county in which the book or record is located for an order permitting him to inspect or copy it. The court shall give this matter priority over other civil matters to which priority is not given by other statutes. If the requester prevails, he is entitled to recover his costs and reasonable attorney's fees in the proceeding from the agency whose officer has custody of the book or record.

Sec. 3. A public officer or employee who acts in good faith in disclosing or refusing to disclose information and his employer are immune from liability for damages, either to the requester or to the person whom the information concerns.

Sec. 4. NRS 239.010 is hereby amended to read as follows:

239.010 [1.] All public books and public records of state, county, city, district, governmental subdivision and quasi-municipal corporation officers and offices of this state (and all departments thereof), the contents of which are not otherwise declared by law to be confidential, [shall] must be open at all times during office hours to inspection by any person, and the [same] books and records may be fully copied or an abstract or memorandum prepared therefrom, and any copies, abstracts or memoranda taken therefrom may be utilized to supply the general public with copies, abstracts or memoranda of the records or in any other way in which the [same] books and records may be used to the advantage of the owner thereof or of the general public.

[2. Any officer having the custody of any of the public books and public records described in subsection 1 who refuses any person the right to inspect such books and records as provided in subsection 1 is guilty of a misdemeanor.]

Sec. 5. NRS 122.040 is hereby amended to read as follows:

122.040 1. Before persons may be joined in marriage, a license must be obtained for that purpose from the county clerk of any county in the state. Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, the license must be issued at the county seat of that county. The board of county commissioners may, at the request of the county clerk, designate one branch office of the county clerk at which marriage licenses may be issued, if the designated branch office is established in a county office building which is located outside of the county seat.

2. Before issuing a marriage license, the county clerk may require evidence that the applicant for the license is of age. The county clerk shall accept a statement under oath by the applicant and the applicant's parent, if available, that the applicant is of age.

3. The county clerk issuing the license shall require the applicant to answer under oath each of the questions contained in the form of license, and, if the applicant cannot answer positively any questions with reference to the other person named in the license, the clerk shall require both persons named in the license to appear before him and to answer, under oath, the questions contained in the form of license. If any of the information required is unknown to the person responding to the question, he must state that the answer is unknown.

4. If any of the persons intending to marry is under age and has not been previously married, and if the authorization of a district court is not required, the clerk shall issue the license if the consent of the parent or guardian is:

(a) Personally given before the clerk;

(b) Certified under the hand of the parent or guardian, attested by two witnesses, one of whom must appear before the clerk and make oath that he saw the parent or guardian subscribe his name to the annexed certificate, or heard him or her acknowledge it; or

(c) In writing, subscribed to and acknowledged before a person authorized by law to administer oaths. A facsimile of the acknowledged writing must be accepted if the original is not available.

5. If the authorization of a district court is required, the county clerk shall issue the license if that authorization is given to him in writing.

6. All records pertaining to marriage licenses are public records and open to inspection pursuant to the provisions of NRS 239.010. [Any county clerk who refuses to permit an inspection is guilty of a misdemeanor.]

7. A marriage license issued on or after July 1, 1987, expires 1 year after its date of issuance.

Sec. 6. Section 5 of this act becomes effective at 12:01 a.m. on October 1, 1993.
