

MINUTES OF MEETING--COMMITTEE ON ELECTIONS--55TH SESSION--ASSEMBLY

Present: Frazzini, Foote, Hilbrecht, and Reid. Swallow arrived later.

Absent: Homer and Schouweiler.

AJR-45 -- Proposes constitutional amendment broadening provisions for voting by persons in service of United States.

Hilbrecht moved "Do Pass."

Reid seconded.

Motion unanimously carried

AB-637 -- Conforms election dates for incorporated cities.

Reid stated that in Clark County, Las Vegas and North Las Vegas held elections on same day. Henderson and Boulder City election was on different days. This bill was to make the elections all on the same day.

Frazzini moved "do pass" AB-637.

Foote seconded.

Motion unanimously carried.

AB-169 -- Amends procedure for challenge of voters.

Hilbrecht moved to defer consideration on AB-196 until next week and until committee had a chance to talk to Mr. Frank Young. Hilbrecht said he would talk to Mr. Young.

Foote seconded.

Motion unanimously carried.

AB-197 -- Changes composition of certain boards of trustees of school districts.

Reid said he had cleared the bill with Titlow and also had talked to Jacobsen and he said it was okay.

Reid moved "Do Pass" AB-197.

Hilbrecht seconded.

Motion unanimous.

SB-69 -- Changes date of primary election.

Mr. Swallow read a letter from the County Clerks indicating their disapproval of SB-69.

BDR-24-932 -- Committee ask Austin Bowler to come in to explain this bill. Mr. Bowler said he had introduced the bill for Walter Baring. During last election there was a discrepancy as to the number of votes each candidate received. He stated that it is hard to get good pollers and that Charlie Bell and Walter Baring want to get Tom Mulroy's people five days more so that the machines can be checked for certification.

Chairman Swallow suggested that they discuss this at a later meeting.

Hilbrecht moved that meeting adjourn

Frazzini seconded.
