Sec. 8. NAC 630.230 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630.230 1. A [physician] licensee shall not:

- (a) Falsify records of health care;

- (c) [Engage in the practice of writing prescriptions for controlled substances in such excessive amounts as to constitute a departure from prevailing standards of acceptable medical practice;]

[(d)] Render professional services to a patient while the [physician] licensee is under the influence of alcohol or any controlled substance or is in an impaired mental or physical condition;

[(e)] (d) Acquire any controlled substances from any pharmacy or other source by misrepresentation, fraud, deception or subterfuge;

[(h)] (f) Make an unreasonable additional charge for tests in a laboratory, radiological services or other services for testing which are ordered by the [physician] licensee and performed outside his own office;

[(i)] (g) Treat any patient in a manner not recognized scientifically as being beneficial;

[(j)] (h) Prescribe controlled substances listed in schedule II pursuant to NAC 453.520 or schedule III pursuant to NAC 453.530, controlled substance analogs, chorionic gonadotrophic hormones, thyroid preparations or thyroid synthetics for the control of weight;

[(k)] (i) Allow any person to act as a medical assistant in the treatment of a patient of the [physician] licensee, unless the medical assistant has sufficient training to provide the assistance;

[(l)] (j) Fail to provide adequate supervision of a medical assistant who is employed or supervised by the [physician] licensee; [or]

[(m)] (k) Fail to provide adequate supervision of a physician's assistant or an advanced practitioner of nursing if the licensee is a physician [.];

(l) Fail to honor a patient's advance directive without informing the patient, surrogate or guardian, and without documenting in the patient's record the reason(s) for not honoring the patient's request(s) contained therein;

(m) Fail to adequately prescribe controlled substances for pain control in accordance with accepted prevailing standards for the practice of medicine as contained in these regulations; or,

(n) Engage in the practice of writing prescriptions for controlled substances for the treatment of pain, acute or chronic, in such a manner as to constitute a departure from prevailing standards of acceptable medical practice, as set forth in these regulations.

(1) For purposes of this subsection, it is not the quantity or chronicity of prescribing that are the determining factors as to whether a licensee is acting within the boundaries of accepted prevailing standards for the practice of medicine, but rather whether there has been an evaluation of a patient resulting in the establishment of a treatment plan for the patient; an informed consent and agreement for treatment of the patient; periodic reviews and consultations with the patient; and, medical records that reflect all the above and include therein assessments made concerning possible substance abuse, tolerance, analgesic tolerance, physical dependence, addiction, or pseudo addiction, of the patient. It is the licensee's duty to control pain, as defined in these regulations, for its duration, utilizing the procedures set out in these regulations, while effectively addressing other aspects of the patient's functioning, including physical, psychological, social and work-related factors.

(2) For purposes of this subsection, the following definitions apply:

(a) "Evaluation of the Patient" Means an appropriate medical history and physical examination must be conducted and documented in the medical record. The medical record shall document the nature and intensity of the pain, current and past treatments for pain, underlying or coexisting diseases or conditions, the effect of the pain on physical and psychological function, and any history of substance abuse. The medical record shall document the presence of one or more recognized medical indications for the use of a controlled substance.

(b) "Treatment Plan" Means a written treatment plan that shall state objectives that will be used to determine treatment success, such as pain relief and improved physical and psychosocial function, and shall indicate if any further diagnostic evaluations or other treatments are planned. After treatment begins, the licensee shall adjust medication therapy to the individual medical needs of each patient. Other treatment modalities or a rehabilitation program may be necessary depending on the etiology of the pain and the extent to which the pain is associated with physical and psychosocial impairment.

(c) "Informed Consent and Agreement for Treatment" Means the licensee shall discuss the risks and benefits of the use of controlled substances with the patient, persons designated by the patient, or with the patient's surrogate or guardian if the patient is incompetent. The patient shall receive prescriptions from one licensee and one pharmacy where possible. If the patient is determined to be at high risk for medication abuse or have a history of substance abuse, the licensee shall employ the use of a written agreement between licensee and patient outlining patient responsibilities including (1) urine/serum medication levels screening when requested (2) number and frequency of all prescription refills and (3) reasons for which medication therapy may be discontinued (i.e., violation of agreement).

(d) "Periodic Review" Means at reasonable intervals based upon the individual circumstance of the patient, the licensee shall review the course of treatment and any new information about the etiology of the pain. Continuation or modification of medication therapy depends on the licensee's evaluation of progress toward stated treatment objectives such as improvement in patient's pain intensity and improved physical and/or psychosocial function, such as ability to work, need of health care resources, activities of daily living, and quality of social life. If treatment goals are not being achieved, despite medication adjustments, the licensee shall re-evaluate the appropriateness of continued treatment. The licensee shall monitor patient compliance in medication usage and related treatment plans.

(e) "Consultation" Means the licensee shall refer the patient, as necessary, for additional evaluation and treatment in order to achieve treatment objectives. Special attention should be given to those pain patients who are at risk for misusing their medications and those whose living arrangement pose a risk for medication misuse or diversion. The management of pain in patients with a history of substance abuse or with a comorbid psychiatric disorder may require extra care, monitoring, documentation, and consultation with or referral to an expert in the management of such patients.

(f) "Medical Records" Means the licensee shall keep accurate and complete records to include (1) the medical history and physical examination (2) diagnostic, therapeutic and laboratory results (3) evaluations and consultations (4) treatment objectives (5) discussion of risks and benefits (6) treatments (7) medications (including date, type, dosage, and quantity prescribed) (8) instructions and agreements and (9) periodic reviews. Records shall remain current and be maintained in an accessible manner and readily available for review.

(g) "Pain" is an unpleasant sensory and emotional experience associated with actual or potential tissue damage or described in terms of damage.

(h) "Acute Pain" is the normal, predicted physiological response to an adverse chemical, thermal, or mechanical stimulus and is associated with surgery, trauma and acute illness. It is generally time limited and is responsive to opioid therapy, among other therapies.

(i) "Chronic Pain" is a pain state which is persistent and in which the cause of the pain cannot be removed or otherwise treated. Chronic pain may be associated with a long-term incurable or intractable medical condition or disease.

(j) "Tolerance" is a physiologic state resulting from regular use of a medication in which an increased dosage is needed to produce the same effect or a reduced effect is observed with a constant dose.

(k) "Analgesic Tolerance" is the need to increase the dose of opioid to achieve the same level of analgesia. Analgesic tolerance may or may not be evident during opioid treatment and does not equate with addiction.

(l) "Physical Dependence" on a controlled substance is a physiologic state of neuroadaptation which is characterized by the emergence of a withdrawal syndrome if medication use is stopped or decreased abruptly, or if an antagonist is administered. Physical dependence is an expected result of opioid use. Physical dependence, by itself, does not equate with addiction.

(m) "Addiction" is a neurobehavioral syndrome with genetic and environmental influences that results in psychological dependence on the use of medications for their psychic effects and is characterized by compulsive use despite harm. Addiction may also be referred to by terms such as "drug dependence" and "psychological dependence." Physical dependence and tolerance are normal physiological consequences of extended opioid therapy for pain and should not be considered addiction.

(n) "Pseudo addiction" is a pattern of medication-seeking behavior of pain patients who are receiving inadequate pain management that can be mistaken for addiction.

(o) "Substance Abuse" is the use of any substance(s) for non-therapeutic purposes; or use of medication for purposes other than those for which it is prescribed.

2. As used in this section:

(a) "Controlled substance analog" means:

(1) A substance whose chemical structure is substantially similar to the chemical structure of a controlled substance listed in schedule II pursuant to NAC 453.520 or schedule III pursuant to NAC 453.530; or

(2) A substance which has, is represented as having, or is intended to have a stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic effect on the central nervous system of a person that is substantially similar to, or greater than, the stimulant, depressant, or hallucinogenic effect on the central nervous system of a person of a controlled substance listed in schedule II pursuant to NAC 453.520 or schedule III pursuant to NAC 453.530.

(b) "Medical assistant" means any person who:

(1) Is employed by a [physician] licensee;

(2) Is under the direction and supervision of the [physician] licensee;

(3) Assists in the care of a patient; and

(4) Is not required to be certified or licensed to provide such assistance by any administrative agency.

Sec. 9. NAC 630.270 is hereby amended to read as follows:
