ADOPTED TEMPORARY REGULATION
OF THE DIVISION OF CHILD AND FAMILY
SERVICES OF THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

(Effective June 24, 1999)

AUTHORITY: §§, NRS 432B.190

Section 1. Chapter 432B of NAC is hereby amended by adding thereto the provisions set forth as sections 1 and 2, inclusive, of this regulation:

1. The permanency hearing is to determine the permanent plan for a child in foster care. The division will apply procedural safeguards to assure each child in foster care a permanency hearing to be held, by a court of competent jurisdiction (including a tribal court) or by an administrative body appointed or approved by the court to determine whether, and if applicable when:

- (a) The child will be returned to the parent;*
- (b) The child will be placed for adoption, with the division filing a petition for termination of parental rights;*
- (c) The child will be referred for legal guardianship; or,*
- (d) In cases where the division has documented to the court a compelling reason for determining that it is not in the best interests of the child to return home:
 - (1) The child will be referred for termination of parental rights;*
 - (2) The child will be placed for adoption;*
 - (3) The child will be placed with a fit and willing relative;*
 - (4) The child will be placed with a legal guardian; or,*
 - (5) The child will be placed in another planned permanent living arrangement.

Sec. 2. Termination of parental rights.

1. The division is required to file a petition for the termination of parental rights for a child who has been in foster care under the responsibility of the state for 14 of the most recent 20 months or as amended in NRS432B unless:

- (a) The child is placed with a relative at division option;*
- (b) The division has documented in the case plan available for court review a compelling reason for determining that filing such a petition would not be in the best interests of the child; or,*
- (c) The division has not provided to the family of the child, consistent with the time period in the division case plan, such services as the State deems necessary for the safe return of the child to the child's home, if reasonable efforts are required to be made per amended NRS 432B.*

THIS SECTION WAS NOT APPROVED AND HAS BEEN WITHDRAWN BY THE DIVISION

Sec. 3. Chapter 432B of NAC is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 432B.120 Members of staff who directly deliver services.

1. Members of the staff of an agency which provides protective services who directly deliver those services are responsible for:
 - (a) Receiving reports regarding the alleged abuse or neglect of children, investigating the reports, and initiating appropriate intervention; and
 - (b) Case management, including planned services to each child and his family to achieve the goals established in the case plan.
2. Members of the staff who directly deliver protective services and who are employed after July 1, 1988, must have a bachelor's degree in social work or a related field of human service and a license or certification in his field of practice.

Sec. 4. Chapter 432B of NAC is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 432B.1358 Members of staff who directly provide assessments. (NRS 432B.190)
[Expires by limitation on June 30, 2001.]

1. Members of the staff of an agency which provides family assessment services who directly provide such assessments are responsible for:
 - (a) Receiving reports from an agency which provides protective services regarding the alleged abuse or neglect of children;
 - (b) Providing family assessments;
 - (c) Forwarding reports to an agency which provides protective services if the staff member determines that the child has been injured or is at risk for serious harm; and
 - (d) Case management, including, without limitation, planned services to each child and his family to achieve the goals established in the case plan.
2. Members of the staff who directly provide family assessment services must have a bachelor's degree in a field of human service and a license or certification in his field of practice.

Sec. 5: Chapter 432B of NAC is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 432B.170 Determination of case findings; entry of findings in central registry. (NRS 432B.190)

1. After the investigation of a report of the abuse or neglect of a child, an agency which provides protective services shall determine its case findings based on whether there is reasonable cause to believe a child is abused or neglected, or threatened with abuse or neglect. The agency shall make one of the following findings:
 - (a) The case required the involvement of the court, and the court found the abuse or neglect occurred.
 - (b) The abusive or neglectful situation was confirmed through the investigation, and it was determined that the involvement of the agency was essential for the safety of the child.
 - (c) The abusive or neglectful situation was confirmed through the investigation, but:
 - (1) It was not considered essential to provide protective services to assure the safety of the child; or

(2) The family refused services, and it was determined that the involvement of the court to order services was not appropriate at the time.

(d) The abusive or neglectful situation was not confirmed through the investigation.

(e) The agency was unable to prove or disprove the allegation of abuse or neglect because it was unable to locate the child or the person responsible for the welfare of the child.

2. The agency which provides protective services shall enter the findings of the investigation in the central registry established pursuant to NRS 432.100.

3. When a finding of confirmed abuse or neglect by the individual responsible for the child's welfare has been made, an agency which provides protective services shall:

(a) Provide written notification to the individual about the right to appeal the decision; and

(b) Provide information on the appeals process.

4. The request for an appeal must be made in writing to the agency within fifteen days of the date of the notification letter.

5. A hearing which is held pursuant to this section will be conducted in accordance with chapter 233B of NRS.
