NAC 654.157 Administrator of residential facility for groups: Licensure without examination. (NRS 654.110,654.180)

An applicant who wishes to obtain a license as an administrator of a residential facility for groups without taking the examination required by NRS 654.155 must submit evidence satisfactory to the board that:

1. He is licensed as an administrator of a residential facility for groups in a state that requires a person to pass ~~an~~ the NAB national examination to obtain such a license;
2. His license in that state is in good standing and no previous disciplinary action deemed unacceptable by the board has been taken as reflected by the Health Integrity Protection Data Bank; and

3. He has complied with all other requirements for licensure as an administrator of a residential facility for groups set forth in this chapter and chapter 654 of NRS.

(Added to NAC by Bd. of Exam'rs for Admin'rs of Facilities for Long Term Care by R200/99, eff. 3/8/2000)

NAC 654.168 Nursing facility administrator and administrator of residential facility for groups: Time for completion of application; provisional licensure; transfer of license to inactive status. (NRS 654.110)

1. An application for a license as a nursing facility administrator or an administrator of a residential facility for groups must be complete with all required documentation not less than 30 days before the date of the examination for licensure. The board will notify the applicant of the time and place of the examination at least 10 days before the examination.

2. The board may issue a provisional license to an applicant, if good cause is shown and ~~if~~ the applicant has submitted to take the examination. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 3, the provisional license expires 90 days after the date it is issued and is renewable at the discretion of the board.

3. If the applicant fails the examination or does not submit a complete application within 90 days:

(a) The provisional license automatically expires; and

(b) The applicant must reapply for a license and pay the required fee for licensure again to obtain a permanent license.

4. Upon the written request of a nursing facility administrator or an administrator of a residential facility for groups who is in good standing, the board will transfer the status of his license to inactive for a time not to exceed 2 years. A licensee whose license is on inactive status shall pay a fee of $50 per year. Upon written request and approval by the board, a licensee whose license is on inactive status may transfer his license to active status if the licensee meets the requirements of continuing education and pays the fees for an active license.

NAC 654.220 Complaints: Filing; investigation; formal hearing; disciplinary action; dismissal of charges. (NRS654.110)

1. Any person who becomes aware that a person licensed pursuant to the provisions of chapter 654 of NRS is engaged in conduct which constitutes grounds for disciplinary action may file a complaint with the board. The complaint must be in writing and signed by the complainant.

2. The board will permit the licensee to provide proof satisfactory to the board that he was not engaged in conduct which is grounds for disciplinary action.

3. A member of the board, or a committee appointed by the board to review cases, will review each complaint and conduct an investigation to determine whether there is a reasonable basis for the complaint. A member of the board who participated in the investigation may not participate in the decision whether to take further action on the complaint following the investigation and may not participate in any subsequent hearing or action by the board relating to the complaint.

4. If a member of the board, or a committee appointed by the board to review cases, decides to proceed with disciplinary action, it will bring charges against the licensee and set a time and place for a formal hearing and serve a copy of the formal complaint upon the licensee either by personal service 5 days prior to the hearing or by certified mail 21 working days prior to the hearing. The hearing must be conducted in compliance with the provisions of chapter 233B of NRS.

5. If the board determines by a preponderance of the evidence that the licensee was engaged in conduct which is grounds for disciplinary action, it may order that the licensee:

(a) Be placed on probation for a specified time with conditions that the board considers appropriate.

~~[(b) Receive a private reprimand.]~~

(c) Receive a public reprimand.

(d) Have restrictions placed on his practice, including, without limitation, prohibiting the licensee from transporting patients or residents by motor vehicle if the licensee has been convicted for any offense for driving under the influence of intoxicating liquor or a controlled substance.

(e) Receive a suspension for a specified time or until further order of the board.

(f) Have his license revoked.

(g) Participate in a substance abuse program.

(h) Pay an administrative fine of not more than $2,500.

6. If the board determines that the licensee was not engaged in conduct which is grounds for disciplinary action, the board will dismiss the charges in writing and notify the licensee that the charges have been dismissed.

7. If any discipline is imposed, the action will be reported to the Health Integrity Protection Databank.

NAC 654.230 Reinstatement of license.

1. A nursing facility administrator or an administrator of a residential facility for groups whose license has been revoked may apply to the board for reinstatement of his license. The board may reinstate his license if he submits evidence, satisfactory to the board, that he has removed the deficiency which led to the revocation of his license and has applied for a license and taken an examination as though he had never been licensed under NRS chapter 654 and qualifies for licensure in accordance with the appropriate licensing statutes and regulations. After receipt of an application for reinstatement, the board may grant the applicant a formal hearing after notice.

2. If the conviction for which a licensee's license was revoked is reversed on appeal and the licensee is acquitted or discharged, his license becomes effective from the date of the acquittal or discharge.

NAC 654.250 Limitations on administration of multiple facilities; secondary administrator's license; fee; waiver. (NRS 654.110)

1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 6, a person licensed as a nursing facility administrator may not be the administrator of record of more than one nursing facility. ~~[at the same time for more than 90 days in a calendar year.]~~

2. Except as otherwise provided in subsections 3 and 6, a person licensed as an administrator of a residential facility for groups may be an administrator of record for not more than 150 beds located in not more than five residential facilities for groups.

3. Effective June 1, 1998, if a person licensed as an administrator of a residential facility for groups operates more than one residential facility for groups, the administrator must:

(a) Immediately notify the board that he is operating more than one residential facility for groups; and

(b) Obtain a secondary administrator's license for each additional residential facility for groups that he is operating by paying a fee of $25 for each license.

4. The board will label each secondary administrator's license issued pursuant to subsection 3 as an "A," "B," "C" or "D" license.

5. An administrator of a residential facility for groups who obtains a secondary administrator's license pursuant to subsection 3 shall surrender and return each secondary administrator's license to the board upon:

(a) Relinquishing his responsibilities at the residential facility for groups for which the license was obtained; or

(b) The closure of the residential facility for groups for which the license was obtained.

6. Upon application to the board, a nursing facility administrator or an administrator of a residential facility for groups may, at the discretion of the board, receive a waiver for a specified period of time from the limitations imposed by this section.

7. As used in this section, "administrator of record" means the person named as the administrator of a nursing facility or a residential facility for groups on the license issued for the facility by the health division of the department of human resources.
