EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §1, NRS 391.019 and 391.032; §2, NRS 391.019, 391.023 and 391.032.

Section 1. NAC 391.056 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.056 1. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may issue a provisional nonrenewable license to an applicant applying for a license pursuant to NAC 391.045 if he otherwise meets the requirements for a license pursuant to NAC 391.045, but:

(a) Has a deficiency in credits of 6 semester hours or less for all areas of licensure or endorsement, unless the provision is for an endorsement as a substitute teacher;

(b) Has not completed the courses or passed the examination required by NAC 391.030 and is not exempt from the requirements of that section;

(c) Lacks confirmation from a college that he has student teaching experience if he is applying for a teaching license, or that he has completed a school counseling practicum or internship if he is applying for a school counseling endorsement, but:

(1) Has completed all necessary course work requirements for the school counseling endorsement;

(2) Has completed 200 hours of the practicum or internship through a regionally accredited college or university, including, without limitation, a minimum of 100 hours in a school setting at the time of his application for licensure; and

(3) Is currently and continuously enrolled in a regionally accredited college or university school counseling practicum or internship program;

(d) Has not passed the tests required by NAC 391.036 and is not exempt from taking such tests; or

(e) Has not completed the course required by paragraph (c) of subsection 1 of NAC 391.045.

2. A license issued pursuant to this section becomes invalid 3 years after the date on which the license is issued . ~~and may not be extended.~~

3. The holder of a license issued pursuant to this section may add endorsements with provisions to the license during the first year in which the license is valid. Endorsements without provisions may be added to the license at any time during the period in which the license is valid. If an endorsement is added to the license, the endorsement does not affect the date on which the license becomes invalid.

Sec. 2. NAC 391.077 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.077 1. ~~Except as otherwise provided in subsection 4, the~~ The Superintendent of Public Instruction may extend the time prescribed for renewal of a license or for the validity of a provisional license if:

(a) The licensee provides proof that a course or test required for renewal of his license or removal of the provision under which his provisional license was issued was not available during the time his license was valid.

(b) The licensee provides proof that:

(1) He was issued a provisional license while residing outside of this state; and

(2) The test required for removal of the provision under which his provisional license was issued was not available to the licensee during the time his license was valid because he was residing outside of this state on the date when the test was offered.

(c) The Department's file relating to the licensee contains adequate documentation that the licensee was misinformed about the requirements necessary to renew his license or remove the provision under which his provisional license was issued.

~~(e)~~ (d) The licensee took the wrong test or course necessary to renew his license or remove the provision under which his provisional license was issued.

~~(d)~~ (e) The licensee provides written proof from a representative of a religious denomination, sect or organization that a course or test necessary to renew his license or remove a provision under which his provisional license was issued was offered only during a time which conflicted with the religious beliefs of the licensee.

~~(e)~~ (f) The unemployment of the licensee or personal medical expenses incurred by the licensee which were not covered under a plan of health insurance caused financial debts in excess of the personal income of the licensee and prevented him from complying with the financial requirements for renewal of the license or removal of the provision under which his provisional license was issued.

~~(f)~~ (g) The licensee suffered a medical condition which prevented him from satisfying the requirements for renewal of his license or removal of the provision under which his provisional license was issued and he provides written proof:

(1) From a licensed physician that he suffered from such a medical condition, including the duration of the medical condition; and

(2) Of the number of days he worked during the time that his license was valid.

~~[(g)]~~ (h) The licensee suffered mental anxiety caused by a physical or mental condition which prevented him from passing the test or course required for renewal of his license or removal of the provision under which his provisional license was issued. The licensee must provide written proof from a licensed physician that he suffered such mental anxiety.

~~[(h)]~~ (i) A medical condition or administrative problem prevented the licensee from complying with the requirements for renewal of his license or removal of the provision under which his provisional license was issued and the Superintendent of Public Instruction determines that the medical condition or administrative problem is adequate to justify the extension.

(j) The provisional license of the licensee expires during a school year and the removal of the licensee from his position of employment would have a detrimental effect on the pupils who are taught by him, as determined by the Superintendent of Public Instruction. If an extension is granted pursuant to this paragraph, the extension expires on the last school day of the academic term for which the extension was granted or the time period prescribed in subsection 3, whichever occurs first.

2. A request for an extension pursuant to subsection 1 must be received by the Superintendent of Public Instruction no less than 15 working days before the expiration of the license or provisional license. If such a request is received less than 15 working days before the expiration of the license or provisional license, the licensee is not guaranteed a decision on the request before the license becomes invalid or expires. A request for an extension which is postmarked or received after the date of expiration of the license or provisional license will not be considered by the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

3. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may grant an extension for a period of not more than 6 months ~~[from]~~ after the date the extension is granted. In no case may a further extension be granted.

~~[4.— A provisional nonrenewable license issued pursuant to NAC 391.056 may not be granted an extension pursuant to this section.]~~
