- 4. If the regulation was adopted without changing any part of the proposed regulation, a summary of the reasons for adopting the regulation without change.

The permanent regulations were adopted at the NSBAIDRD Full Board Meeting on June 4, 2004. No testimony was received in opposition to the proposed regulations. The regulations were therefore adopted with minor revisions to the draft received from LCB.

5. The estimated economic effect of the adopted regulation on the businesses which it is to regulate and on the public. These must be stated separately, and each case must include:

- a. Both adverse and beneficial effects; and
- b. Both immediate and long-term effects.

- a. The proposed new sections are expected to have an immediate or long-term beneficial economic effect upon the regulated community. No adverse effects are anticipated relative to the proposed changes to the regulation.
- b. There is no estimated long-term effect on the public, either adverse or beneficial, nor immediate or long-term.

6. The estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the adopted regulation.

There is no additional cost to the agency for enforcement of this regulation.

7. A description of any regulations of other state or governmental agencies which the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates and a statement explaining why the duplication or overlapping is necessary. If the regulation overlaps or duplicates a federal regulation, the name of the regulating federal agency.

There are no other state or government agency regulations that the proposed amendments duplicate.

8. If the regulation includes provisions that are more stringent than a federal regulation which regulates the same activity, a summary of such provisions.

Not applicable.

9. If the regulation provides a new fee or increases an existing fee, the total annual amount the agency expects to collect and the manner in which the money will be used.

This regulation does not provide or involve a new fee, and hence since no fee is involved, there is not a total amount expected to be collected or used.
