EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~[omitted material]~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: § 1, NRS 630.130.

A REGULATION relating to physicians; authorizing the Board of Medical Examiners to prohibit a person whose application for a license to practice medicine is denied from reapplying for a certain period of time; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Section 1. NAC 630.050 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630.050 1. The Board will not accept any application for any type of license to practice medicine in this State if the Board cannot substantiate that the medical school from which the applicant graduated provided the applicant with a resident course of professional instruction equivalent to that provided in the United States or a Canadian medical school approved by either the Liaison Committee on Medical Education of the American Medical Association and the Association of American Medical Colleges or by the Committee ~~[for]~~ on Accreditation of Canadian Medical Schools.

2. Except as otherwise provided in NAC 630.130, an applicant for any license to practice medicine must file his sworn application with the Board. The application must include or indicate the following:

(a) If the applicant is not a citizen of the United States, satisfactory evidence from the Bureau of Citizenship and Immigration Services that he is lawfully entitled to remain and work in the United States.

(b) All documentation required by the application.

(c) Complete answers to all questions on the form.

3. The application must be accompanied by the applicable fee.

4. If the Board denies an application for any type of license to practice medicine in this State, the Board may prohibit the person whose application was denied from reapplying for a period of 1 year to 3 years after the date of the denial.
