EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §1, NRS 391.019 and 391.021; §§2-4, NRS 391.019.

A REGULATION relating to educational personnel; revising provisions relating to an endorsement in home economics; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Section 1. NAC 391.036 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.036 1. Except as otherwise provided in this section, NAC 391.0545, paragraph (b) of subsection 3 of NAC 391.233, paragraph (b) of subsection 6 of NAC 391.330, and subsection 5 of NAC 391.363, an applicant who applies for an initial license must pass a competency test that has been approved by the Commission, at the level of competence specified by the Commission, in:

- (a) Basic reading, writing and mathematics;
- (b) The principles and methods of teaching; and
- (c) The subject matter of the initial area of endorsement on the license or the area of endorsement necessary for the applicant's area of assignment.

2. The Superintendent of Public Instruction may exempt an applicant from any of the tests required by subsection 1 if the applicant:

- (a) Has retired from teaching in this State;
- (b) Held a special license or a license to teach elementary or secondary education which:

- (1) Has expired within the 3 years immediately preceding the date on which his application was submitted;
 - (2) Was free from any conditions that the applicant pass a competency test; and
 - (3) Authorized the applicant to teach in the same grade level and subject area for which he is applying to receive an initial license;
- (c) Was required, for the issuance of his expired license, to complete courses of study and experience which are substantially equivalent to the courses of study and experience required for the issuance of an initial license; and
- (d) Otherwise satisfies the requirements for the issuance of an initial license.
3. An applicant is exempt from the requirement to pass a competency test in basic reading, writing and mathematics if he submits to the Department:
- (a) Official documentation which indicates that he passed, at the level of competency specified by the Commission:
- (1) The “Pre-Professional Skills Tests” in reading, mathematics and writing, prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service; or
 - (2) The “California Basic Educational Skills Test,” prepared and administered by the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing;
- (b) Evidence that he holds a license to teach that was issued by another state and has completed 3 years of full-time teaching within the immediately preceding 5 years in the subject area for which he is applying to receive an initial license in this State;
- (c) Evidence that he:
- (1) Holds a license to teach which was issued by another state;

(2) Has at least 1 year of experience in teaching, administrating or providing other educational functions, or any combination thereof, on a full-time basis at any grade level in prekindergarten through grade 12; and

(3) Has passed, at the level of competency required for licensure by the state in which his license was issued:

(I) The “Pre-Professional Skills Tests” in reading, mathematics and writing, prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service;

(II) An equivalent examination in basic reading, mathematics and writing, prepared and administered by National Evaluation Systems, Inc.; or

(III) An equivalent examination in basic reading, mathematics and writing, prepared and administered by the state in which his license was issued;

(d) Evidence that he has received a master’s or more advanced degree from a regionally accredited college or university, the receipt of which required the passage of the “Graduate Record Examinations,” prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service, or its equivalent;

(e) An official transcript which indicates that he achieved at least a 3.0 grade-point average in his undergraduate studies and evidence that he has taken the “Graduate Record Examinations,” prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service, and received a score of at least 420 on the verbal portion of the examination, 460 on the quantitative portion of the examination and 430 on the analytical portion of the examination; or

(f) Evidence that he completed, with a grade of B or better, a course of study in a subject area approved by the Commission or the Director of Licensure for the Department.

4. An applicant is exempt from the requirement to pass a competency test in the principles and methods of teaching if he:

(a) Submits to the Department official documentation which indicates that he passed, at the level of competency specified by the Commission, the “Professional Knowledge Test,” prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service;

(b) Submits to the Department evidence that he holds a license that was issued by another state and has completed 3 years of full-time teaching within the immediately preceding 5 years in the subject area for which he is applying to receive an initial license in this State;

(c) Submits to the Department evidence that he:

(1) Holds a license to teach which was issued by another state;

(2) Has at least 1 year of experience in teaching, administrating or providing other educational functions, or any combination thereof, on a full-time basis at any grade level in prekindergarten through grade 12; and

(3) Has passed, at the level of competency required for licensure by the state in which his license was issued:

(I) The “Professional Knowledge Test,” prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service;

(II) An equivalent examination prepared and administered by National Evaluation Systems, Inc.; or

(III) An equivalent examination prepared and administered by the state in which his license was issued;

(d) Is applying for a license with an endorsement in an area for which training in the principles and methods of teaching is not required;

(e) Is applying for an elementary endorsement and submits to the Department evidence that he passed, at the level of competency specified by the Commission, the “Elementary Education: Curriculum, Instruction, and Assessment Test” and the “Elementary Education: Content Area Exercises Test,” both prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service; or

(f) Is applying for a special license to teach pupils from birth through kindergarten pursuant to NAC 391.088.

5. An applicant is exempt from the requirement to pass a competency test in the subject matter of endorsement if he:

(a) Submits to the Department official documentation which indicates that he previously passed, at the level of competency specified by the Commission, the competency test in that subject matter;

(b) Is applying for an initial license with an endorsement in an area for which no competency tests have been approved by the Commission;

(c) Is applying for an endorsement to teach pupils who have speech and language impairments and submits to the Department official documentation which indicates that he has received a certificate of clinical competence from the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association;

(d) Is applying for an endorsement in ~~home economics~~ family and consumer sciences and submits to the Department official documentation which indicates that he satisfactorily completed the “National Family and Consumer Sciences Certification Examination,” prepared and administered by the American Association of Family and Consumer Sciences; or

(e) Submits to the Department evidence that he:

(1) Holds a license to teach which was issued by another state;

(2) Has at least 1 year of experience in teaching, administrating or providing other educational functions, or any combination thereof, on a full-time basis at any grade level in prekindergarten through grade 12; and

(3) Has passed, at the level of competency required for licensure by the state in which his license was issued:

(I) A competency test in the subject matter of endorsement that was prepared and administered by the Educational Testing Service or National Evaluation Systems, Inc.; or

(II) An equivalent examination prepared and administered by the state in which his license was issued.

6. If a competency test in a subject matter has been reviewed by the Commission for less than 1 year but is not yet approved, an applicant must take the test, but is not required to pass the test at a level of competence specified by the Commission.

7. An applicant who fails to comply with the provisions of this section may not apply for a renewable license.

8. The tests required by subsection 1 will be administered three times each year at locations and times established by the Commission.

Sec. 2. NAC 391.120 is hereby amended to read as follows:

391.120 To receive a secondary license, a person must hold a bachelor's degree and have completed:

1. A program of preparation for teaching in the secondary grades approved by the Board pursuant to NAC 391.557 and 391.558;

3. A description of how comment was solicited from affected businesses, a summary of the response and an explanation how other interested parties may obtain a copy of the summary.

Comments were solicited through the workshop notice of August 16, 2005; and the public hearing notice of December 27, 2005. At the September 22, 2005 Workshop to Solicit Comments, there was public comment to the proposed amendments to the regulation language. At the February 2, 2006 Public Hearing there was public comment to the proposed amendments to the regulation language.

Summary of Comments:

Workshop/Public Hearing Comments:

- (a) Karen Chessell, Family Consumer Science Consultant, requested at the Workshop that the Commission appoint a Task Force to review NAC 391.13082. Ms. Chessell stated that the regulation needs to be reviewed, as the Home Economics regulation is too restrictive and this has led to a lack of qualified home economics teachers.
- (b) Karen Chessell, Family Consumer Science Consultant, at the Public Hearing stated that the Task Force met and proposed amendments to the home economics regulations. Ms. Chessell stated that Section 4 needs to be further amended to read, "foods or culinary".

A copy of the summary and/or minutes of the public hearing may be obtained by calling Christina Harper, Administrative Assistant to the Commission on Professional Standards in Education, Nevada Department of Education, 775-687-9224, or by writing to the Nevada Department of Education at 700 East Fifth Street, Carson City, Nevada 89701-5096.

4. If the regulation was adopted with or without change to any part of the proposed regulation, a summary of the reasons for adopting.

The Commission on Professional Standards in Public Education adopted the proposed amendments to the regulation language at the public hearing held February 2, 2006. The reason for adopting the regulation is to address the lack of qualified family consumer science teachers and expand and amend course titles.

5. The estimated economic effect of the adopted regulation on the business that it is to regulate and on the public. These must be stated separately and each case must include:

The beneficial economic effect is that it would allow school districts to hire a qualified family consumer science teacher and place qualified teachers in the classroom. There is no estimated economic effect on the public, either adversely or beneficially, nor immediate or long term.

6. The estimated cost to the agency for enforcement of the adopted regulation.

There is no additional cost to the agency for enforcement of this regulation.

7. A description of any regulations of other state or governmental agencies which the proposed regulation overlaps or duplicates and a statement explaining why the duplication or overlapping is necessary. If the regulation overlaps or duplicates a federal regulation, the name of the regulating federal agency.

No other state or governmental agency regulations will be overlapped or duplicated by the above noted regulation. There is no duplication or overlap of federal regulations.

8. If the regulation includes provisions which are more stringent than a federal regulation, which regulates the same activity, a summary of such provisions.

There are none.

9. If the regulation provides a new fee or increases an existing fee, the total annual amount the agency expects to collect and the manner in which the money will be used.

This regulation does not provide for a new fee or increase an existing fee.
