

PROPOSED REGULATION OF THE BOARD OF HOMEOPATHIC MEDICAL EXAMINERS

EXPLANATION – Matter in italics is new; matter in brackets ~~omitted material~~ is material to be omitted.

AUTHORITY: §§1 and 2, NRS 630A.200; §3, NRS 630A.200.

A REGULATION relating to homeopathic medicine; establishing the procedures which revise fees for annual registration to practice as a homeopathic medical doctor, an advanced practitioner of homeopathy, or homeopathic assistant; and providing other matters properly relating thereto.

Section 1. NAC 630A.0125 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 630A.0125 “Homeopathic medicine” or “homeopathy” has the meaning ascribed to it in NRS 630A.040. The terms include:

1. The methods of practicing homeopathy described in subsection 1 of NRS 630A.040; and
2. The complementary and alternative methods of diagnosing and treating a patient described in subsection 2 of NRS 630A.040; and

3. The use of any and all modalities, therapies, and diagnostic services required for proper clinical assessment, diagnosis, treatment, public safety and medical legal standards, including, but not limited to diagnostic laboratory, imaging, ultrasound, dark field microscopy, and contemporary clinical pathological diagnostic methods.

Sec. 2. NAC 630A.014 is hereby amended as follows:

NAC 630A.014 As used in NRS 630A.040, unless the context otherwise requires, the Board will interpret:

(a) “Herbal therapy” to mean a system of healing art that places the chief emphasis on the flow and balance of dynamic force or energy in the body mechanism as being the most important single factor in maintaining the natural health and well-being of the living organism and includes, without limitation, the prescribing and use of plants or plant extracts or a combination thereof to treat an ailment or disease of the mind, emotions or body, or for the cure or relief of any wound, bodily injury or deformity. As used in this paragraph:

(1) “Plant” includes, without limitation, any tree, vine, shrub, vegetable or herb or any part of a tree, vine, shrub, vegetable or herb.

(2) “Plant extract” means a substance removed from a plant by physical or chemical means for medicinal purposes.

(b) “Neural therapy” to mean dry needling, the use of an electronic testing and treatment device and the injection of vitamins, minerals, homeopathic medications, herbal extracts, enzymes, orthomolecular substances or other medicinal or pharmaceutical preparations into the:

(1) Acupuncture, acupressure or trigger points;

(2) Ganglia; or

(3) Subcutaneous tissue, intracutaneous tissue, intra-articular tissue or periosteal tissue, of a patient to control pain or produce other beneficial clinical effects.

(c) “Neuromuscular integration” to mean the progressive harmonization of the endocrine system, immune system, autonomic nervous system, skeletal system and smooth muscle system of a patient with the cognitive and noncognitive faculties of a patient by the use of:

(1) Manipulation of the soft tissues of the body to balance the body including, but not limited to: ~~[- and -]~~

(i) Any form of aquatic therapy, including AquaStretch exercising; and

(ii) Cranio-sacral manipulation of connective tissues and their related anatomical structures.

(2) Thought field therapy to recondition the endocrine system, immune system, autonomic nervous system and central nervous system~~[-]~~;

(d) “Nutrition” to include modalities, such as Applied Kinesiology to identify nutritional factors, and other methodologies, without limitation, for the recognition, evaluation, treatment and correction of the unique dietary needs of a patient.

(e) “Orthomolecular therapy” to mean the treatment and prevention of disease, including, without limitation, infection, malignancy and degenerative illness, by adjusting the natural chemical constituents of the body on the molecular level. The term includes, without limitation:

(1) The prescription of topical and oral supplements, medicines and pharmaceutical preparations; and

(2) The intravenous infusion, intramuscular injection, subcutaneous injection and intradermal injection of vitamins, amino acids, peptides, polypeptides, enzymes, sarcodes, medicines and pharmaceutical preparations, homeopathic medications, ozone, bio-oxidative substances or chelating agents, to detoxify and remove harmful substances from the body, including, without limitation, heavy metals, the buildup of vascular and arterial plaque and toxic environmental factors, including, without limitation, pesticides, xenobiotics, bacteria and fungi.

2. As used in this section:

(a) “Bio-oxidative substances” means substances that are used to promote healing at the cellular level by the use of oxygen in its various forms.

(b) “Chelating agents” means substances that are used to remove heavy metals and other toxins from the body, including, without limitation:

(1) Sodium 2,3-dimercaptopropane-1-sulfonate (DMPS);

(2) Dimercaptosuccinic acid (DMSA);

(3) Ethylene diamine tetra-acetic acid (EDTA);

(4) Penicillamine;

(5) Diethylene triamine penta-acetic acid (DTPA);

(6) Deferoxamine mesylate; and

(7) Clathration agents.

(c) “Dry needling” means a procedure that involves inserting acupuncture needles under the skin at trigger points and while those needles are inserted, rotating the needles or connecting the needles to a low current electrical supply.

(d) “Pharmaceutical preparations” includes narcotic drugs or opiates that are listed as schedule II controlled substances pursuant to chapter 453 of NRS.

(e) “Thought field therapy” means a technique that uses the energy meridians of the body which are used in acupuncture and acupressure to treat abnormal patterns of thought that cause emotional and psychophysiological distress.

(f) “Trigger point” means a hyperirritable spot within the skeletal muscle or the fascia of that muscle that, upon compression, causes pain, tenderness and autonomic nervous system phenomena.

(g) “Xenobiotics” means chemical compounds that, under normal circumstances, are foreign to living organisms.

(h) “AquaStretch” means a method of personal or facilitated exercise that may also be used as a form of non-aquatic or aquatic therapy which facilitates stretching to encourage dynamic intuitive movement, usually in various depths of water and with various weights attached to the body, to increase systemic flexibility and improve vascular, nerve, and muscular functions.

(i) “Applied Kinesiology” is a method for identifying nutritional, energetic, and other factors which may affect body functions by measuring muscle strength and endurance.

(j) “Cranio-sacral” means manipulation of connective tissues, such as the muscles, ligaments, and fascia and their related anatomical structures to improve function of the cranial nerves and systemic neurological dynamics.

Sec. 3. NAC 630A.023 is hereby amended as follows:

NAC 630A.023 1. If a homeopathic physician, advanced practitioner of homeopathy or homeopathic assistant performs a nutritional evaluation on a patient, the nutritional evaluation may include:

(a) An analysis of the blood, urine and body tissue for vitamins, minerals and amino acids, whether or not such analysis is performed by a laboratory; ~~and~~

(b) A functional intracellular analysis;

(c) Applied Kinesiology muscle testing, and

(d) Dark field microscopy.

2. If a homeopathic physician, advanced practitioner of homeopathy or homeopathic assistant performs nutritional treatment on a patient, the treatment may include:

(a) Dietary recommendations; and

(b) Supplementation of the diet with vitamins, minerals, amino acids, protomorphogens, or any combination thereof.

3. As used in this section:

(a) “Functional intracellular analysis” means the use of peripheral blood cells to analyze the metabolic and nutritional status of a patient.

(b) “Protomorphogens” means glandular material taken from mammals other than humans, including, without limitation, the bovine, ovine or porcine species, that supplies biologically active hormones, hormone precursors, enzymes, vitamins, minerals, soluble proteins and natural lipid factors.

(c) “Applied Kinesiology” means a method for identifying nutritional, energetic, and other factors which may affect body functions by measuring muscle strength and endurance.

Sec. 4. NAC 630A.025 is hereby deleted as follows:

~~[NAC 630A.025 The Board will elect its officers annually before June 30. The term of an officer begins on July 1 after the election and ends on June 30 of the succeeding year.]~~

Sec. 5. NAC 630A.031 is hereby amended as follows:

NAC 630A.031 1. The President of the Board shall appoint a committee composed of the Secretary-Treasurer and at least two other persons licensed or certified to practice homeopathy in Nevada as a homeopathic medical doctor or an advanced practitioner of homeopathy ~~[members of the Board]~~. The committee shall:

(a) Periodically examine the educational activities, quality of training seminars, meetings and materials used for educating homeopathic physicians, homeopathic assistants or advanced practitioners of homeopathy; and

(b) Make recommendations to the Board regarding the education of homeopathic physicians, homeopathic assistants and advanced practitioners of homeopathy.

2. The Board may accept, reject or alter any recommendation of the committee.

Sec. 6. NAC 630A.060 is hereby amended as follows:

NAC 630A.060 1. The Board will administer an examination to practice homeopathic medicine at least two times each year at the dates and times established by the Board. An applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine must submit the completed application required pursuant to NAC 630A.050 to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board not later than 60 days before the date scheduled for the examination to be eligible to take that examination.

2. The examination will consist of written examination that is based upon the principles of homeopathy as defined in NRS 630A.040. The time allowed for completing the examination must not exceed 3 hours.

3. The Secretary-Treasurer shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the examination not later than 20 days before the date scheduled for the examination.

4. Any book, computer, note or other material approved by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board before the examination may be used during the written examination.

5. To pass the examination, an applicant must receive score of at least 76 percent on the written examination.

6. A majority of Board members present may vote to administer an oral examination to an applicant that fails the written exam by five (5%) percentage points or less. The oral examination:

(a) Will be graded on a “pass/fail” basis; and

(b) Shall be counted as a six (6%) percentage point addition to the applicant’s written examination score.

Sec. 7. NAC 630A.070 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 630A.070 An applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine who is a graduate of a medical or osteopathic school, as required pursuant to NRS 630A.230, 630A.240 or 630A.270, must have completed 6 months of his postgraduate medical or osteopathic training in the United States.

Sec. 8. NAC 630A.072 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.072 1. The 6 months of postgraduate training in homeopathy required of an applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine pursuant to NRS 630A.240 must consist of courses, instructors or programs which are approved by the Board. In determining whether to approve a course or program, the Board will consider:

(a) The textbooks and other instructional aids used in the course or program;

(b) The institution offering the course or program;

(c) The qualifications of the instructor teaching the course or program; and

(d) Whether the course or program includes instruction on:

(1) The diagnostic and therapeutic principles referred to in NRS 630A.040;

(2) The procedure for evaluating a patient;

(3) The procedure for selecting an appropriate treatment based upon the evaluation of the patient;

(4) Homeopathic posology¹ and pharmacology; and

(5) The methodology of prescribing homeopathic medicines and therapies.

2. The Board may revoke approval of a course or program it has previously approved , without notice, if ~~it~~ the Board determines that the course or program no longer complies with the considerations set forth in subsection 1.

¹ Posology originates from Greek words 'posos' meaning 'how much' and 'logos' meaning 'study'. In homeopathy, Posology means the doctrine of dose of medicine. A homeopathic dose means the potency, quantity and form of medicine as well as repetition.

3. The Board will maintain a list of courses and programs that are currently approved by the Board.

4. If an applicant for a license to practice homeopathic medicine has completed a course or program that has not been approved by the Board, he may submit the course or program to the Board for approval. The Board will review the course or program based upon the considerations set forth in subsection 1. If the Board approves the course or program, the applicant will receive credit for the postgraduate training.

Sec. 9. NAC 630A.096 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.096 1. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 2, each homeopathic physician, homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy applying for renewal of his license or certificate must, at the time of annual renewal, unless the licensee, homeopathic assistant certificate, or advanced practitioner certificate has been suspended for nonpayment of the fee for registration, any person licensed or certified to practice by the Board shall pay the full fee for registration and submit to the Board evidence, in such form as the Board requires, that he has completed during the preceding year 20 credits of continuing ~~homeopathic medical~~ education in courses approved by the Board, including, without limitation, courses in homeopathy, complementary and alternative ~~medical education~~ therapies or courses related to the protocol of an advanced practitioner of homeopathy.

2. A homeopathic physician who has completed a full year of residency or fellowship in allopathic, osteopathic or homeopathic medicine any time during the period for annual registration immediately preceding the submission of the application for annual registration is exempt from the requirements set forth in subsection 1 for that year.

3. If a homeopathic physician, homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy fails to submit evidence of his completion of continuing homeopathic medical education within the time and in the manner set forth in subsection 1, his license or certificate will not be renewed. Such a person may not resume the practice of homeopathic medicine pursuant to this chapter and chapter 630A of NRS unless he:

(a) Pays a fee to the Board which is twice the fee for renewal of:

(1) A license as set forth in subsection 1 of NAC 630A.120;

(2) A certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant as set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of NAC 630A.550; or

(3) A certificate to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy as set forth in paragraph (c) of subsection 2 of NAC 630A.550;

(b) Submits to the Board, in such form as it requires, evidence that he has completed the 20 credits of continuing ~~[homeopathic-medical]~~ education required by subsection 1; and

(c) Is found by the Board to be otherwise qualified for active status pursuant to the provisions of this chapter and chapter 630A of NRS.

Sec. 10. NAC 630A.100 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.1001. An applicant for a temporary license shall furnish the Board, along with his application, a letter from the homeopathic physician for whom the applicant is to serve as a substitute requesting the issuance of the temporary license, stating the reasons for the absence from his practice and the period of his absence.

2. A homeopathic physician licensed in ~~[an adjoining state]~~ the District of Columbia or of any state or territory of the United States who applies to the Board for a special license to practice homeopathic medicine in this State for a specified period of time and for specific purposes must do so by a letter, accompanied by proof that he holds a valid license issued to him by the other state.

3. The applicant for a nonrenewable temporary or a special license may be required to appear before the Board or one of its members for an oral interview before the issuance of the license.

4. A special license will state on its face the period during which it is valid and the specified purposes for the license.

Sec. 11. NAC 630A.120 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.120 The Board will charge and collect the following fees:

1. For the annual renewal of a license to practice homeopathic medicine ~~[$550]~~ $600
2. For the reexamination of an applicant who fails the examination for a license to practice homeopathic medicine ~~[$330]~~ $430
3. For the reexamination of an applicant who fails the examination for a certificate to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy ~~[$165]~~ $215
4. For the reexamination of an applicant who fails the examination for a certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant ~~[$83]~~ $108
5. For a temporary, special or limited license or certificate ~~[$150]~~ $200

Sec. 12. NAC 630A.136 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 630A.136 1. If a judgment is entered against a homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy in any court, or a settlement is reached, on a claim involving malpractice in which the amount of the judgment or settlement is $50,000.00 or more, the homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy shall report that fact to the Board within 60 days after the judgment is entered or the settlement is reached.

2. As used in this section:

(a) “Community” embraces the entire area customarily served by homeopathic physicians and advanced practitioners of homeopathy among whom a patient may reasonably choose, not merely the particular area inhabited by the patients of that individual homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy or the particular city or place where the homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy has his office.

(b) “Malpractice” means failure on the part of a homeopathic physician or advanced practitioner of homeopathy to exercise the degree of care, diligence and skill ordinarily exercised by homeopathic physicians and advanced practitioners of homeopathy in good standing in the community in which he practices.

Sec. 13. NAC 630A.320 is hereby amended as follows:

Sec. 17. NAC 630A.430 is hereby amended as follows:

NAC 630A.430 ~~[To practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy, a person must successfully complete the examination given by the Board to applicants to practice as a homeopathic physician pursuant to NAC 630A.060 which is administered by the Board at least two times each year. An applicant will be notified and his examination administered and scored in the same manner as set forth in that section.]~~ 1. The Board will administer an examination to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy at least two times each year at the dates and times established by the Board. An applicant for a certificate to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy must submit the completed application required pursuant to NAC 630A.050 to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board not later than 60 days before the date scheduled for the examination to be eligible to take that examination.

2. The examination will consist of a written examination based upon the principles of homeopathy and/or therapies approved by the Board in the applicant's protocol as defined in NRS 630A.040. The time allowed for completing the examination must not exceed 3 hours.

3. The Secretary-Treasurer shall notify the applicant of the time and place of the examination not later than 20 days before the date scheduled for the examination.

4. Any book, computer, note or other material approved by the Secretary-Treasurer of the Board before the examination may be used during the written examination.

5. To pass the examination, an applicant must receive a score of at least 76 percent on the written examination.

6. A majority of Board members present may vote to administer an oral examination to an applicant that fails the written exam by five (5%) percentage points or less. The oral examination:

(a) Will be graded on a "pass/fail" basis; and

(b) Shall be counted as a six (6%) percentage point addition to the applicant's written examination score.

Sec. 18. NAC 630A.438 is hereby amended as follows:

NAC 630A.438 1. In addition to the requirements set forth in NAC 630A.435, an applicant may obtain a certificate as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy or its equivalent as determined by the Board by reciprocity without a written examination if he submits a certificate endorsed by the homeopathic medical examining board of any state, territory or the District of Columbia which certified the applicant indicating that:

(a) He passed an examination to obtain the certificate;

(b) His certification has never been revoked or suspended; and

(c) The photograph and signature appearing on the certification are that of the applicant.

2. The applicant must appear at a meeting of the Board for an interview. The Secretary-Treasurer will notify the applicant whose application and supporting documents have been accepted by the Board of the time and place for the interview 20 days before it is to take place.

Sec. 19. NAC 630A.441 is hereby amended as follows:

NAC 630A.441 1. Except as otherwise provided in NAC 630A.415, the Board may:

(a) Issue a temporary certificate, to be effective not more than 6 months after issuance, to any advanced practitioner of homeopathy who is eligible for a permanent certificate in this State and who also is of good moral character and reputation. The purpose of the temporary certificate is to enable an eligible advanced practitioner of homeopathy to serve as a substitute for some other advanced practitioner of homeopathy who is certified to practice homeopathic medicine in this State and who is absent from his practice for reasons deemed sufficient by the Board. A temporary certificate issued under the provisions of this paragraph is not renewable.

(b) Issue a special certificate to an advanced practitioner of homeopathy or its equivalent as determined by the Board who is certified in another state to come into this State to care for or assist in the treatment of his own patients in association with a homeopathic physician licensed in this State. A special certificate issued under the provisions of this paragraph is limited to the care of a specific patient.

(c) Issue a restricted certificate for a specified period if the Board determines the applicant needs supervision or restriction.

2. A person who is certified pursuant to paragraph (a), (b) or (c) of subsection 1 shall be deemed to have given his consent to the revocation of the certificate at any time by the Board for any of the grounds provided in NAC 630A.415 and 630A.560.

Sec. 20. NAC 630A.443 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 630A.443 1. An applicant for a temporary certificate as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy must furnish the Board, along with his application, a letter from the advanced practitioner of homeopathy for whom the applicant is to serve as a substitute requesting the issuance of the temporary certificate and stating the reasons for the absence from his practice and the period of his absence.

2. An advanced practitioner of homeopathy, or its equivalent as determined by the Board certified in ~~[an adjoining state]~~ the District of Columbia or of any state or territory of the United States who applies to the Board for a special certificate as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy in this State for a specified period of time and for specific purposes must do so by a letter, accompanied by proof that he holds a valid certificate issued to him by the other ~~[state]~~ jurisdiction.

3. The applicant for a nonrenewable temporary or a special certificate may be required to appear before the Board or one of its members for an oral interview before the issuance of the certificate.

4. A special certificate will state on its face the period during which it is valid and the specified purposes for the certificate.

Sec. 21 630A.475 is hereby added to read as follows:

630A.475 Supervision and protocol options for an advanced practitioner of homeopathy: Delineating the scope of practice of an APH.

An advanced practitioner of homeopathy may apply to the Board to practice:

1. Under the supervision of a supervising homeopathic physician, with either on-site or off-site supervision allowed at the discretion of the supervising homeopathic physician, unless otherwise required by the Board per NAC 630A.470 (2); or

2. With any allopathic, chiropractic, homeopathic, or osteopathic physician licensed to practice in Nevada, subject to a protocol approved by a majority of the Board, including at least one supervising homeopathic physician on the Board; or

3. Without physician supervision, subject to a protocol approved by a majority of the Board, including at least one supervising homeopathic physician on the Board.

Sec. 22 NAC 630A.490 is hereby amended to read as follows:

NAC 630A.490 1. An advanced practitioner of homeopathy and his supervising homeopathic physician shall prepare and sign a written protocol, demonstrating agreement to the terms and content of the protocol. The protocol must include, without limitation:

(a) A description of the scope of practice of the advanced practitioner as authorized by the supervising homeopathic physician which may include or list the specific modalities and services the advanced practitioner is authorized to provide, and may also specify any restrictions or practice limitations by that advanced practitioner;

(b) A statement from the supervising homeopathic physician that he has determined that the advanced practitioner is qualified and competent to provide the services authorized in the scope of practice; and

(c) ~~[A list of any programs of training which the advanced practitioner has graduated, and~~
~~(d)]~~ A list of conditions under which the advanced practitioner agrees to refer a patient to the supervising homeopathic physician.

2. If an advanced practitioner of homeopathy intends to engage in the intrastate practice of homeopathic medicine using electronic means, the written protocol must incorporate all the requirements and prohibitions that apply to homeopathic physicians engaging in the intrastate practice of homeopathic medicine using electronic means.

3. The protocol must reflect established national or customary standards for the practice of homeopathic, alternative, or complimentary medicine, and shall summarize any specific legal requirements in NRS 630A or NAC 630A related to the advanced practitioner deemed necessary by the supervising homeopathic physician.

4. An advanced practitioner of homeopathy and his supervising homeopathic physician shall prepare a written informed consent form for patients. The informed consent form must:

(a) Disclose to a patient that the advanced practitioner of homeopathy is:

(1) An advanced practitioner of homeopathy;

(2) Not a licensed homeopathic physician; and

(3) Governed by a protocol that is available for inspection.

(b) Include any other information the Board determines is necessary to provide to a patient and requires to be included in the form.

5. Before an advanced practitioner of homeopathy may provide a medical service to a patient:

(a) The informed consent form must be reviewed and approved by the Board; and

(b) The advanced practitioner of homeopathy must obtain the signature of the patient on the informed consent form prepared and approved by the Board pursuant to this section.

6. The supervising homeopathic physician shall submit a copy of the protocol and the informed consent form to the Board for approval. If the Board does not approve the protocol or the informed consent form, it will return the protocol or the informed consent form to the physician with an explanation for the denial. The supervising homeopathic physician shall rewrite the protocol or the informed consent form to conform with any suggestion of the Board and resubmit it to the Board for consideration at the next regularly scheduled meeting of the Board.

7. A copy of the protocol and the informed consent form must be maintained and be available to the Board or an authorized representative of the Board for inspection at each location where the advanced practitioner provides medical services.

Sec. 23. NAC 630A.550 is hereby amended to read as follows:

630A.550 1. A certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy which is issued by the Board must be renewed each year before January 1. 2.

To renew a certificate, a homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner must:

- (a) Submit an application for renewal to the Board;
- (b) Submit proof that he has completed the required annual continuing education; and
- (c) Pay to the Board:

(1) An annual renewal fee of ~~[$165]~~ $200 for a certificate to practice as a homeopathic assistant.

(2) An annual renewal fee of ~~[$330]~~ $400 for a certificate to practice as an advanced practitioner of homeopathy.

3. A homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy who fails to submit proof to the Board, before January 1, that he has completed the required annual continuing education may not renew his certificate until:

- (a) He submits proof that he has completed the continuing education;
- (b) The Board determines that he is otherwise qualified to practice as a homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner of homeopathy; and
- (c) He pays to the Board a renewal fee which is equivalent to two times the fee set forth in subsection 2.

4. The Board may revoke the certificate of a homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner who does not pay the renewal fee before January 1. A homeopathic assistant or advanced practitioner whose certificate is revoked for this reason may request, within 2 years after revocation, that the Board restore his certificate.

Sec. 24. NAC 630A.560 is hereby amended to read as follows:
