(b) Facts that are contained in statements made by officers or agents of the loan modification and foreclosure consultant or other persons that the examiner interviewed concerning the loan modification and foreclosure consultant; and

(c) Conclusions and recommendations that are reasonably supported by the facts that are included in the draft report, including, but not limited to, the rating given to the loan modification and foreclosure consultant pursuant to section 60 of this regulation.

2. Not more than 15 days after the draft report of an examination is received by the Division, the Commissioner or a person designated by the Commissioner will deliver to the loan modification and foreclosure consultant who was examined:

(a) A copy of the draft report; and

(b) Notice that the loan modification and foreclosure consultant has not more than 30 days, unless the Commissioner, for good cause, allows a longer period, to review the draft report and submit to the Commissioner, in writing, any comments regarding or objections to matters contained in the draft report.

3. If a loan modification and foreclosure consultant received a rating of “3,” “4” or “5” pursuant to section 60 of this regulation and submitted written comments or objections within the period specified in subsection 2, the Commissioner or the person designated by the Commissioner will:

↳ the draft report will be deemed to be the final report of the examination.

5. The rating of an examination is not open to public inspection until the review process pursuant to this section is completed, and no information other than the rating will be released except upon the express finding of the Commissioner that such release would not impede an investigation and or that the public will not be harmed by such a release.

6. If the examination and report reveal that a loan modification and foreclosure consultant is operating in violation of this chapter or chapter 645F of NRS or a previous order of the Commissioner, the Commissioner may order the loan modification and foreclosure consultant to take any action the Commissioner deems necessary or appropriate to correct the violation. The Commissioner may also take disciplinary action pursuant to section 97 of this regulation.

after the investigation, the Commissioner denies the application, he may forbid the applicant from participating in the business of the loan modification and foreclosure consultant.

3. A loan modification and foreclosure consultant may submit a written request to the Commissioner to waive an investigation pursuant to subsection 2. 4. Except as otherwise provided in subsection 5, each loan modification and foreclosure consultant shall deposit a corporate surety bond in the amount of $75,000 that complies with the provisions of this section or a substitute form of security that complies with the provisions of section 74 of this regulation.

5. Sec. 74. 1. As a substitute for the surety bond required by section 73 of this regulation, a loan modification and foreclosure consultant may, in accordance with the provisions of this section, deposit with any bank or trust company authorized to do business in this State which is federally insured, in a form approved by the Commissioner:

(a) An obligation of a bank, savings and loan association, thrift company or credit union licensed to do business in this State which is federally insured;

(b) Bills, bonds, notes, debentures or other obligations of the United States or any agency or instrumentality thereof, or guaranteed by the United States; or

(c) Any obligation of this State or any city, county, town, township, school district or other instrumentality of this State, or guaranteed by this State.

2. The obligations of a bank, savings and loan association, thrift company or credit union must be held to secure the same obligation as would the surety bond. With the approval of the Commissioner, the depositor may substitute other suitable obligations for those deposited which must be assigned to the State of Nevada and are negotiable only upon approval by the Commissioner.

3. Any interest or dividends earned on the deposit accrue to the account of the depositor.

4. The deposit must be in an amount at least equal to the required surety bond and must state that the amount may not be withdrawn except by direct and sole order of the Commissioner. The value of any item deposited pursuant to this section must be based upon principal amount or market value, whichever is lower.

Sec. 75. 1. The surety may cancel a bond upon giving 60 days' notice to the Commissioner by certified mail. Upon receipt by the Commissioner of such a notice, the Commissioner will immediately notify the loan modification and foreclosure consultant who is a principal on the bond of the effective date of cancellation of the bond, and that its license will be revoked unless an equivalent bond or a substitute form of security authorized by section 74 of this regulation is furnished before the effective date of the cancellation. The notice must be sent to the loan modification and foreclosure consultant by certified mail to its last address of record filed in the office of the Division.

2. If the loan modification and foreclosure consultant does not comply with the requirements set out in the notice from the Commissioner, its license must be revoked as of the date the bond is cancelled.

Sec. 76. 1. Any person claiming against a bond may bring an action in a court of competent jurisdiction on the bond for damages to the extent covered by the bond. A person who brings an action on a bond shall notify the Commissioner in writing upon filing the action. An action may not be commenced after the expiration of 3 years following the commission of the act on which the action is based.

2. Upon receiving a request from a person for whose benefit a bond is required, the Commissioner will notify the person:

(a) That a bond is in effect and the amount of the bond; and

(b) If there is an action against the bond, the title, court and case number of the action and the amount sought by the plaintiff.

3. If a surety wishes to make payment without awaiting action by a court, the amount of the bond must be reduced to the extent of any payment made by the surety in good faith under the bond. Any payment must be based on written claims received by the surety before any action is taken by a court.

4. The surety or the Commissioner may bring an action for interpleader against all claimants upon the bond. If the surety or the Commissioner does so, the surety or the Commissioner, as applicable, shall publish notice of the action at least once each week for 2 weeks in every issue of a newspaper of general circulation in:

(a) If the principal office of the loan modification and foreclosure consultant whose bond is at issue is located within this State, the county in which the loan modification and foreclosure consultant has its principal office; or

(b) If the principal office of the loan modification and foreclosure consultant whose bond is at issue is not located within this State, Clark County, Nevada.

5. The surety may deduct its costs of the action, including, without limitation, attorney's fees and publication, from its liability under the bond.

6. Claims against a bond have equal priority, and if the bond is insufficient to pay all claims in full, they must be paid on a pro rata basis. Partial payment of claims is not full payment, and any claimant may bring an action against the loan modification and foreclosure consultant for the unpaid balance.

Sec. 77. 1. The term of the surety bond or substitute for the surety bond, if applicable, must be not less than 1 year.

2. If the loan modification and foreclosure consultant deposits a surety bond, the loan modification and foreclosure consultant shall keep accurate records of the bond and the payments made on the premium. The records must be open to inspection by the Division during business hours. The loan modification and foreclosure consultant shall notify the Division not later than 30 days before the date of expiration of the bond and provide written proof of the renewal of the bond to the Division.

3. The Commissioner may reject any surety bond or substitute for the surety bond which fails to conform to the requirements of this chapter or chapter 645F of NRS.

4. A loan modification and foreclosure consultant may change the form of security deposited with the Division. If the loan modification and foreclosure consultant changes the form of the security, the Commissioner may retain for not more than 1 year any portion of the security previously deposited by the loan modification and foreclosure consultant as security for claims arising during the time the previous security was in effect.

5. If the amount of the deposited security falls below the amount required by this chapter or chapter 645F of NRS for that security, the license of the loan modification and foreclosure consultant must be revoked as of the date the deposited security falls below the amount required.

Sec. 78. 1. If no claims have been filed against the surety bond deposited with the Commissioner pursuant to section 73 of this regulation within 12 months after the loan modification and foreclosure consultant ceases to operate or its license expires, whichever occurs later, the Commissioner may release the surety bond to the loan modification and foreclosure consultant and shall not audit any claims filed against the surety bond thereafter.

2. If one or more claims have been filed against the surety bond within 12 months after the loan modification and foreclosure consultant ceases to operate or its license expires, whichever occurs later, the surety bond must not be released to the loan modification and foreclosure consultant or used to pay any claimant earlier than 1 year after the loan modification and foreclosure consultant ceases to operate or its license expires, whichever occurs later.

3. For the purposes of this section, the Commissioner will determine the date on which a loan modification and foreclosure consultant ceases to operate.

1. Full disclosure of the exact nature of each of the services to be provided, the costs associated with each phase of the services, that the loan modification and foreclosure consultant may not take the fees associated for any phase of services until the phase of service has been fully completed and the total amount and terms of payment of all compensation. The percentage of the total payment collected, or to be collected, for each phase of service must be reasonable in relation to the work required to complete that phase.

2. The address, telephone number, full name and license number of the loan modification and foreclosure consultant and each loan modification and foreclosure consultant agent who will be involved in the transaction.

2. Unless a hearing has already been conducted concerning the matter, the person, upon application, is entitled to a hearing. If the person does not make such an application within 20 days after the date of the initial order, the Commissioner will enter a final order concerning the matter.

3. A person may appeal a final order of the Commissioner taking any disciplinary action against the person in accordance with the provisions of chapter 233B of NRS that apply to a contested case.

Sec. 108. 1. If a hearing has been requested in a timely manner as set forth in this chapter or chapter 645F of NRS, each party must provide to the opposing party and to the hearing officer, not less than 10 days before a hearing, a copy of all papers, records, data or documents expected to be used as exhibits at the hearing and a list of witnesses expected to testify at the hearing. Nothing in this subsection prohibits a party from calling a rebuttal witness or offering other rebuttal evidence which has not been disclosed if allowed by the hearing officer. The filing of a motion does not toll the time for providing information and documentation to an opposing party.

2. Not less than 10 days before a hearing, each party must provide to the hearing officer a copy of all papers, records, data or documents expected to be used as exhibits at the hearing and a list of witnesses expected to testify at the hearing.

3. If a party fails to provide any document required to be provided by the provisions of this section, the hearing officer may exclude the document.

4. No motion for summary judgment will be allowed.

Sec. 110. 1. The time of a hearing may be continued by the hearing officer upon the written petition of a party only for good cause shown.

2. The party requesting a continuance must serve the written petition upon the opposing party at the time that the request is made, and the opposing party may file an objection to the request for a continuance within 3 days after receipt of the written petition.

Sec. 111. 1. In conducting any hearing, the hearing officer is not bound by the technical rules of evidence, and any informality in any proceeding or in the manner of taking testimony does not invalidate any order or decision of the hearing officer. The rules of evidence of courts of this State will be followed generally but may be relaxed at the discretion of the hearing officer if deviation from the technical rules of evidence will aid in determining the facts.

2. Any evidence offered at a hearing must be material and relevant to the issues of the hearing.

3. Sworn declarations may be introduced in lieu of testimony if a witness resides outside the State of Nevada.

4. The hearing officer may exclude inadmissible, incompetent, repetitious or irrelevant evidence or order that the presentation of that evidence be discontinued.

5. A party who objects to the introduction of evidence shall briefly state the grounds of the objection at the time the evidence is offered. The party who offers the evidence may present a rebuttal argument to the objection.

Sec. 112. 1. The hearing officer shall:

(a) Ascertain whether all persons ordered to appear under subpoena are present and whether all documents, books, records and other evidence under subpoena are present in the hearing room.

(b) Administer the oath to all persons whose testimony will be taken as follows:

Do you and each of you solemnly swear or affirm to tell the truth and nothing but the truth in these proceedings?

(c) Ascertain whether either party desires to have a witness excluded from the hearing room until he is called. A witness may be excluded upon the motion of the hearing officer or upon the motion of either party. If a witness is excluded, he will be instructed not to discuss the case during the pendency of the proceeding. The respondent will be allowed to remain present at the hearing. The Division may designate a person who is a member of the staff of the Division and who may also be a witness to act as its representative. Such a representative will be allowed to remain present at the hearing.

(d) Ascertain whether a copy of the complaint or decision to deny has been filed and whether an answer has been filed as part of the record in the proceedings.

(e) Hear any preliminary motions, stipulations or orders upon which the parties agree and address any administrative details.

(f) Request the Division to proceed with the presentation of its case.

2. Parties may waive opening and closing statements.

3. The respondent may cross-examine witnesses in the order that the Division presents them.

4. Witnesses or counsel may be questioned by the hearing officer at any time during the proceeding.

5. Evidence which will be introduced or which is used by a witness:

(a) Must first be marked for identification; and

(b) May be received by the hearing officer at any point during the proceeding.

6. When the Division has completed its presentation, the hearing officer shall request the respondent to proceed with the introduction of evidence and calling of witnesses on his behalf.

7. The Division may cross-examine witnesses in the order that the respondent presents them.

8. When the respondent has completed his presentation, the Division may call any rebuttal witnesses.

9. When all testimony for the Division and respondent has been given and all evidence has been submitted, the hearing officer may request the Division and the respondent to summarize their presentations.

10. The hearing officer may, in his discretion, waive or modify any provision of this section if necessary to expedite or ensure the fairness of the hearing.

Sec. 113. The Division has the burden of proof in any hearing pursuant to this chapter or chapter 645F of NRS. The standard of proof in such a hearing is substantial evidence.

Sec. 114. A respondent may represent himself at the hearing or be represented by an attorney.

Sec. 115. The hearing officer shall:

1. Attempt to coordinate the time and location of the hearing with the parties before setting the matter; and

2. Advise the Commissioner or a person designated by the Commissioner in writing of the time and location of the hearing in such a manner as to allow the Division to comply with the notice requirements of NRS 233B.121.

Sec. 116. 1. The provisions of this chapter or chapter 645F of NRS do not affect or limit the authority of the Commissioner or a person designated by the Commissioner, at any stage of a contested case, to make an informal disposition of the contested case pursuant to subsection 5 of NRS 233B.121 or to enter into a consent or settlement agreement pursuant to NRS 622.330.

2. Any action taken by the Commissioner or the person designated by the Commissioner pursuant to subsection 1:

(a) Is not subject to approval by the hearing officer; and

(b) May have its terms placed into the record at the discretion of the Commissioner or the person designated by the Commissioner.

Sec. 117. The hearing officer shall issue and serve upon all parties, personally or by certified mail, a written decision meeting the requirements of NRS 233B.125 within 30 days after the close of the hearing.

3. The opposing party may file an opposition within 10 days after a post-hearing motion is filed, and the moving party may file a final reply within 5 days after an opposition is filed.

4. The hearing officer shall issue and serve upon all parties, personally or by certified mail, a written decision on any post-hearing motion within 30 days after the post-hearing motion is filed.

Sec. 119. 1. A person who provides a governmental entity, officer or employee with any information relating to a contested case is immune from any civil liability for providing that information if the person acted in good faith and without malicious intent.

2. A governmental entity, officer or employee is immune from any civil liability for:
